

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Fresh vegetables, fruits, melons, etc., at Swager's.

The dredger is now at work deepening the channel across St. Helens bar, just below town.

Go to Swager's for your choice French candies.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gaddis, of Goble, were in St. Helens on Tuesday last.

Mr. S. A. Miles and daughter Cora, who have been back to Missouri on a visit, returned home last Saturday.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk to Henry W. White and Cordelia Barnett, both of Scappoose.

A fine line of footwear and heavy clothing can be found at Swager's.

If you cannot subscribe $500 in aid of some university or charitable institution, subscribe for the Oregonist—only $1.50 per year in advance.

W. T. Mason has sold his property in St. Helens and rented the farm of H. P. Watkins, about three miles out of town, to which he will move in a short time.

Ah Fong, a Portland Chinaman, a few nights ago attempted to fill a coal oil lamp while it was burning. He hadn't time to leave his postoffice address.

We call attention to the ad of W. H. Conyers & Co., real estate and insurance agents of Clatskanie, the leading real estate and insurance agency in the lower end of Columbia county.

Dr. Griswold, the dentist, left for Rainier Monday, and will hereafter visit Rainier on the last Monday of each month, remaining for a few days at a time. If you are in need of any work in his line you should give him an early call.

A vivacious lady writer declares that in order to vanquish a fence as easily as a man all a woman needs is "the courage of her convictions." It is suggested that the flexor and extensor muscles of a pair of good legs is perhaps quite as essential.

In another column will be found the ad of Bryant & Conway, the millmen of Clatskanie. Those desiring lumber—fir or cedar—of any class or description will do well to patronize this mill, which can be done by placing orders in care of the steamers Shaver and Dixon.

"The way of the wicked is short" probably has reference to the man who gives short weights and sells on credit and charges interest after thirty days, or to the man who makes a big "bluff" on a hotball flush and gets left.

Johnny King, who disappeared so mysteriously from Salem, Ore., about five years ago, has been heard from. He is living near Kansas City, Mo. He writes a letter to a brother making inquiry concerning his relatives, but will no doubt be grieved and surprised to learn that his grief-stricken mother for whom he inquires most tenderly, together with a loving sister, have passed to the great beyond.

There has been a continued tendency to bowel disease here this season, says G. W. Shively, druggist, Wickliffe, Ky., "and an unusual demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have sold four bottles of it this morning. Some remarkable cures have been effected by it and in all cases it has been successful." For sale by Edwin Ross.

The Tillamook Headlight is after its dilatory delinquents with a good-sized sharp stick, so to speak, and publishes the names of five men who "utterly and persistently neglect to pay their bills." This is what may be termed decidedly personal journalism. Well, a man who doesn't pay the printer is in a hard row of bumps, as it were; he will never get to heaven and the devil wouldn't have him.

To destroy parasites infesting hen-houses, scatter straw on the floor and set fire to it. This will be sure to destroy the parasites—likewise the hen-house. A correspondent of the Oregon Statesman says he tried it and knows it to be a fact; and, further, that it required the united efforts of the neighbors to prevent the barn and contents near by from going the same way. This is about equal to jumping into the river to get out of the rain.

How often the innocent are made to suffer for the crimes of the guilty. A Tacoma dispatch of September 24 says: "William Randall, who was convicted of petty larceny, was paroled by the governor, as he was innocent, the principal witness against him proving to be the thief. Randall has served his sentence except about a half day." The thief whose testimony secured the sentence of Randall should be sentenced to a term twice the length of Randall's.

Many years' practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents in all classes of inventions. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that had been previously rejected. Their advertisement in another column, will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

The grand jury at Portland have found "true bills" against all the principals and a number of the more prominent abettors of the so-called glove contest which took place in that city on Tuesday night of last week. Four of the number being unable to furnish the required $1500 bonds are languishing in jail. Would it not be a good idea for the grand jury to extend its work to some of the robber dives of that city running under the guise of theaters? Far graver crimes are committed there than in the prize ring. But then it might make some difference as to whose ox is gored, so to speak.

There is a story going the rounds of the press concerning the wealth of the Rothschilds. It says a deputation waited upon a member of the family in Paris to point out the iniquity of his possessing so much money. The gentleman interplowed listened attentively to the arguments used by the visitors, and frequently interrupted the proceedings with such ejaculations as "Hear, hear," "Well said," and the like. Finally, and in all seriousness, Baron Rothschild inquired of the deputation what he was required to do. "We consider," said the spokesman, "that your wealth should be divided equally among the people of France." There was a momentary silence. Meanwhile the baron had been busy jotting down a number of figures, and drawing from his pocket a handful of coins presented each member of the deputation with a franc piece, remarking at the same time: "Gentlemen, that represents the precise sum which each individual would receive were your wishes carried out. You have, therefore, no further ground for complaint. Any other French subject sharing your view will receive one franc by personally applying for the same."

In Justice Blakeley's court Wednesday a case was tried in which Jonathan Dodge had brought suit against John Vanblaricum to recover the sum of $10 for a cow sold the defendant, and the further sum of $3.38 for work performed. In rebuttal the defendant claimed that the plaintiff had boarded with the said defendant to the extent of about $22. The evidence produced was by the two principals in the case and Joseph Vanblaricum, a brother to defendant. W. J. Rice appeared for plaintiff and T. J. Brink for defendant. After a short but pointed argument by the attorneys the case was given to the jury, who, after being out but a few minutes, found a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $11.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter county, Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases, both for children and adults. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

T. C. Watts went down to Clatskanie and Mayer Monday last on business of a political nature. On that day the republican county central committee, consisting of T. C. Watts, W. H. Conyers and Charles Mayer, held a meeting at Mayer for the purpose of consulting in regard to the campaign now in progress.

The demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is steadily growing, from the fact that all who give it a trial are pleased with the results and recommend it to their neighbors. We feel sure that the remedy cannot be recommended too highly.—Wagley & Smead, druggists, Newton, Iowa. For sale by Edwin Ross.

THE MIST office has just received a large invoice of job printing paper direct from the wholesale house of Blake, McFall & Co., and are prepared to print letter heads, note and bill heads, envelopes, cards, etc., at prices that cannot be duplicated in Portland.

Sheriff Massie and Deputy Miles are both very busy this week summoning the jury for the October term of court, besides there is a great deal of other business connected with the sheriff's office just at this time.

Sam Looney, of Colorado City, Texas, is visiting his brother, Prof. Looney, of this place, this week. He is very much in love with this country and may locate here. He has been in the banking business four years.

I wish to make a firm denial of the rumor, if there be such rumor, that Portland can undersell me in millinery goods. Mrs. C. L. COLBURN.

C. L. Colburn's aunt, Mrs. Markham, of Marion county, and Mrs. Anderson, his sister, of Portland, are visiting their nephew and brother this week.

Nancy Hanks again lowered the world's trotting record Wednesday, making a mile in 2.04.

The Royal and the Soldiers.

Army and Navy Journal. During the last year, including the March contracts recently awarded, the Royal Baking Powder Company has supplied over 212,000 pounds, or 106 tons of baking powder for the United States Government and its Army and Navy officers.

For many years the Government has given its orders for Royal Baking Powder in preference to all others, it being found superior to all others in strength and purity by the official examination, and the only baking powder that will keep and retain its strength in the various climates to which it is sent by the Department.

RAINIER.

Oh! isn't this weather just lovely. Are you going to the masque ball? Is the question one asks on meeting another. "Well, you just guess I am," is the reply. "Wouldn't miss it for a dollar. Everybody and his girl will be there."

Dr. Griswold is here this week doing the "painless extraction" act. James Fenton is again the victim of that implacable ailment saw. He sacrificed a portion of his thumb this time.

It is said that Mr. Blanchard will build an addition to his house, and that it will be used as a hotel. The infant daughter of Miles Sheerin is very sick. Dr. Belt is in attendance. Mr. Muckle is having a house built on the hill for a residence.

Prognosed Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Grotton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could not live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Edwin Ross' Druggery regular size, 50c and $1.00.

CLATSKANIE.

John Myers left last week for Monmouth, to attend the state normal school at that place.

Orville Merrill left on boat Friday for Portland to spend some time with his grandmother there, and perhaps attend school if he finds the schools there equal to Clatskanie.

Mr. Parks, Sr., is down from Woodland on a visit to his son and for medical treatment.

Several men were busy a part of this week repairing the road from Tichenor's mill. Quite a quantity of new plank had to be used to take the place of those worn out.

A new two-horse hack is expected to add comfort and luxury to the Blood family when they want to come to town or go elsewhere for an airing.

D. C. Aldridge and Fred Clark had a very distressed and dejected expression of countenance last Monday afternoon, and reported themselves sick and dizzy from an attempt to work in Tichenor's well after having put a shot in to do some blasting. Fire-damp or some other suffocating vapor seemed to have got into the well with the result mentioned and further work was postponed for that afternoon.

No cases of cholera have been reported on board the steamer Shaver up to this time, and the vessel is still allowed to make her tri-weekly trips between Clatskanie and Portland.

Friday of this week is to be observed as a day of feasting at the E. W. Conyers residence, because it is to be Charlie's birthday anniversary. The cards of invitation do not say which anniversary, but Charlie's friends think he will be old enough to vote at the coming presidential election.

The old school house is being deprived of its furniture this week, and hereafter the shouts of the schoolboy as he chases the fellow who is running off with his hat will not begin at its doors. The multiplication song of 2 times 1 are 2 will be transferred to another place, and the gentle patter of the ruler upon the palm of the hand will probably not be again heard inside its walls. Many a person passing the building and seeing the new school house will respond to the following sentiment of an old man: "When the country was new, wife, when I was a scholar lad, Our readin' and writin' and spellin' were 'bout all the studies we had. We cleared up the farm through the summer, then traveled through woods and snow, To the log house in the openin', the school-house of years ago. Now boys go to school in a palace, and study hard Latin and Greek. They go into the district hopper and come out of the college spout; And this is the way the schools of our land are grindin' the greatest men out."

Mrs. N. Nichols and son George left on steamer Monday night for a visit with Mrs. Kelly at Ilwaco.

Mrs. B. W. Blood was also a passenger on the outward bound steamer on Monday night.

W. K. Tichenor and family are in Portland this week and will visit the exposition.

Andy McDougal is at Kappa for a few days.

Some of the boys employed at Himpel's mill left for other places since the mill shut down last week, and others are taking a rest about town.

Noticing the band out in uniform the first of the week the inquiry was started: "What's in the wind now?" It was found, however, that they were going to get their pictures taken. They were ranged at the side of Conyers' store for a background and looked their best when the instrument went off. The result has not yet been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Bogarth, of Woodland, are visiting Norman Merrill and wife this week.

Rev. Frank L. Moore, the new M. E. minister at this place, has gone off this week to unite his destitutes with those of a certain fair maiden up the valley, and the people here propose to give the newly married couple a reception on Saturday evening at the house of D. C. Aldridge, which will be used for the present as a parsonage. A general invitation is extended to the public to come in and greet the couple. The reception will also be on the donation plan, and anything contributed will be thankfully received by the committee in charge, and doubtless by the pastor as well. Refreshments will be served to all who attend.

The public schools of this place, under charge of T. J. Cleaton and Mrs. N. S. Keasey, are announced to begin next Monday.

The editor of the Mist spent a day in Clatskanie the first of the week, and behaved himself very well, and is respectfully and cordially invited to come again.

HAVE YOU TRIED ELECTRICITY

There is probably nothing as disgusting as a sickly specimen of humanity. By this we mean those people who suffer from diseases which easily yield to electric treatment. They are miserable themselves and make others miserable. Because some doctors inform you that your case is hopeless does not make it so. Take the case of Mr. Tucker, president of the Bank of Genesee, Idaho, whose card we give below. It speaks volumes for Dr. Darrin.

GENESEE, Idaho. DR. DARRIN—Dear Sir: The electric medical treatment you gave me one year ago for chronic catarrh and other troubles of fifteen years' standing has proved successful.
