

THE GENERAL RESULT.

Though it is safe to conclude that Cleveland is elected, says Wednesday morning's Oregonian, it is impossible at the hour of writing to compute his electoral majority or to indicate all the states that contribute to it.

Here is substantial foundation for the democratic claim that Cleveland is elected, and it will have to stand until contradicted by positive information.

Returns from congressional elections are still very incomplete, but it is certain that the house of representatives will be democratic by a much smaller majority than at present.

MUNICIPAL MONKEYING.

The municipal manipulators of the destinies of the government of Portland never seem to be satisfied unless opportunities are frequently presented for "monkeying" with either the fire or police department.

AFFLICTIONS OF BABIES.

According to the New York Sun a mania has broken out in that city among mothers to name their babies in honor of the discoverer of this country.

Young man, make a note of this: Grass widows are not green.—Texas Siftings.

An item of unusual interest occurred at the polls in Drain, Douglas county. Bozier Brown, born July 3, 1793, being now over 100 years old, and a veteran of the war of 1812, was carried to the polls a distance of one mile, seated in a rudely constructed chair carrying in his hand the stars and stripes which floated over him, and preceded by the Drain brass band discoursing national airs.

NOTWITHSTANDING the fact that it was the expressed wish of the president that the death of Mrs. Harrison should be regarded as a private bereavement and be unaccompanied by any public demonstrations, the statement is made that as a result of a conference between Mrs. Morton, wife of the vice-president, and Mrs. W. J. Foster, wife of the secretary of state, it has been agreed that the wives of the cabinet officers will wear mourning for 30 days, beginning last Sunday, and during that time will refuse all invitations to entertainments or attendances upon places of public amusement.

A Suit to Try the Title of Lands.

About the 1st of last month a suit was begun in the United States circuit court at Tacoma by William H. Young against the Northern Pacific railroad company, to quiet title to a piece of land on the north bank of the Columbia river near Oak Point.

A Cure for Rheumatism. Dr. P. A. Skinner, of Texarkana, is an enthusiast in the praise of Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

MONMOUTH NOTES.

Mr. A. B. Martin and a Mr. Moore will soon start a local paper here. It will be called the Monmouth Tribune, and will be independent in politics.

The Northwest Progress will resume publication as the State Progress, in the interests of the prohibition party.

The water company have put in a new 10,000-pound pump and boiler.

Some of the students of the Corvallis agricultural college will give a play here soon entitled "Among the Breakers."

Prof. Donald Donlie will deliver a lecture here soon entitled "Napola," and will illustrate it with a magic lantern.

Miss Goodin, a member of the class of '85, gave a talk in the chapel Oct. 28. After finishing here she went to Boston, where she graduated in the college of oratory.

The enrollment of students at the college is already so large that more room is needed. It is thought the enrollment will reach 500 this year.

CLEVELAND ELECTED.

So say the Latest Advances From All Parts of the Country. The latest returns from all over the United States indicate Cleveland's election beyond any doubt.

Illinois and Wisconsin are democratic, with Ohio very close. According to the latest estimate the electoral college will stand: Cleveland 263, Harrison 150, Weaver 32.

The democratic national committee issued the following bulletin from New York Wednesday: "Our advisers justify the statement that the electoral vote of Michigan, and all of the electoral votes of Wisconsin and Illinois, in addition to those from New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Connecticut and those from the Southern states, will be cast for Cleveland and Stevenson. This will make 269 electoral votes in all.

Just as we go to press a report comes over the wire that Cleveland will have 300, Harrison 112 and Weaver 32 votes in the electoral college.

THE ELECTION IN OREGON.

The State Gives Harrison a Plurality of About 7,000.

The returns are coming in slowly from all parts of the state, but enough is known to indicate the election of the republican electors. Three hundred and thirty-four precincts in Oregon, including the completed returns of Multnomah, Washington and Yamhill counties, give Harrison 27,500, Cleveland 10,242, Weaver 20,972.

In Columbia county the republican electors have a plurality over Pierce of 31, and a plurality over the remaining three on the peoples ticket of 162.

In Yamhill county complete returns give Harrison 1469, Cleveland 682, Weaver 790, Bidwell 246, Nathan Pierce, the peoples candidate, 822; Nathan Pierce, democrat, 620.

Clackamas county, the republicans carry the county by about 250. In this county, as in many others, Pierce was on the ticket in two places, and received 55 on the democratic group and 245 on the peoples group.

WASHINGTON.

Latest Returns Indicate a Complete Republican Victory.

The result in Washington is a complete surprise to the democrats, as they expected to carry the state for Suively (dem.) for governor. The republicans elect the entire state ticket, with the possible exception of state treasurer, which is yet in doubt.

DELENA.

Judge P. H. Ward, late of Indianapolis, Ind., addressed the citizens of this place on the issues of the day last Friday evening. The judge is an able speaker and enlightened us very much on the life, both private and public, of President Harrison, as he has been in timely acquainted with him for over thirty years.

Mr. A. B. Little came home last Sunday to attend the election.

John Palm and his best girl attending the dance at Clatskanie last Friday evening, and report having had a jolly time.

The brass band from this place furnished music for the republican rally at Mayer last Saturday evening.

Miss Fanny Burk attended the peoples party speaking at Rainier on the 4th inst. She closes a very successful three months' term of school here today—Friday.

Wagner Bros. are running their shingle mill on full time and are making excellent shingles, for which they have no trouble in finding a good market.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. John Cramer is now carrying the mail from this place to Mayer, under contract with the government, so that we now receive mail regularly on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. This will be a great relief to the people of this valley, as it has been a heavy expense to carry the mail heretofore.

The Delena social club are preparing a play, "The Last Leaf," which will be presented at the hall in the near future. No one should miss hearing this, as it is a first-class play and highly interesting.

DEER ISLAND.

Considerable public spirit was shown at the meeting last Saturday in regard to the proposed schoolhouse, and it is now beyond a doubt that we are to have one of the best schoolhouses in the county. Already over twenty days' mechanical labor and $100 in money, besides some material, has been subscribed.

Commissioner G. W. Barnes is inspecting the roads and bridges in this neighborhood last week. He has been nearly all over the county lately, examining roads and bridges, which he has found much in need of repairs.

Thomas Sandan has added another improvement to his blacksmith shop in the shape of a self-feeding force drill. It is as complete a machine as ever went into a shop.

Thomas Sandan's daughter, a child about five years old, is seriously ill—apparently with diphtheria.

James Gaitens, living near Carico, had the misfortune to lose a bright little girl between 2 and 3 years of age by her clothing accidentally catching fire and burning her so badly that she died on Tuesday night.

The election here was quite well attended and everything passed off very quietly. Some speaking was done on both sides, and a good many republican and democratic badges were displayed, but nary a Weaver badge was to be seen.

Too Much of a Risk.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases astharr or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

THE BEAUTIFUL STEER.

Miss Ella Paxton, known as the "Cow Girl of Texas Panhandle," recently delighted a western audience with the following original production, which in her introductory remarks she styled a "paradox" on "Beautiful Snow." She also stated that it was "paradoxed" while sitting on her horse on the day herd, on her fathers ranch in the panhandle, situated about three miles from Mobotio, Texas:

Oh, the steer, the beautiful steer, Kicking the fleas from the points of his ear, Flapping its tail in its frolicsome glee, Hoping about like a Snake river fish, Following!

Roaring! Thundering along! Filling the air with its steersical song, Till the rumble from its lung-laden pits Scarses timid jack-rabbits and wolves into fits.

To me there is nothing on earth half so dear As the long-horned, slim-bodied Texican steer.

How often I wish that I was a steer, With a long shiny horn at the butt of each ear. With a clear, fearless eye and a tapering tail That would snap like a whip in the maddening gale.

How I'd belter! And roar! And paw up the ground! And lope over the hills with a thundering sound. When I saw the wild cow-boy pursuing my track, And I'd laugh at his oaths as he fell to the rear.

Oh! I'd be a Jo-dandy if I was a steer! I once roped a beautiful steer—but I fell, Fell from my pony with an ear piercing yell; Fell with the larist fast to my waist! Fell to be dragged through the grass wet with mist.

Romping! Rolling! Grunting I went! A full half a minute, or I don't want a cent. The gravel and grass yanked the hide from my nose, And I jined a pair of 40-cent hose—Aye, even my bustle was thrown out of gear. By the frolicsome freaks of that beautiful steer.

A Cure for Cholera. There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J.

The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

They Have a Bonanza. It seems the owners of Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy for Rheumatism have a Bonanza, as their remedy has never been known to fail in a single case.

A Cholera scare. A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera.
