

BRIEF MENTION.

Last Sunday's Oregonian reports a case of smallpox in Portland.

Mr. Dolman is opening out a splendid assortment of fashionable holiday goods.

Licenses to wed were issued by the county clerk on December 8 to Andrew Erickson and Christine Peterson.

Judge T. A. McBride came down Saturday to see his brother, Secretary McBride, who is ill at this place.

Get your reserved seats for 'The Spy of Gettysburg' at Colburn's barber shop. Reserved seats 50 cents.

Dispatches from Kansas City state that the railroads are blocked by snow and that travel on some lines is entirely suspended.

Those wishing reserved seats for 'The Spy of Gettysburg' should secure them early, as the hall is not large. For sale at Colburn's barber shop.

In Grant and Harney counties the vote for representatives in the legislature was a tie between the republican and democratic candidates. A special election will be held in a few days to decide the contest.

Robert U. McNutt, of Vernonia, was at the county seat Saturday. Mr. McNutt estimates his firm's loss from the burning of their store at Cornelius recently at $8000, which is not a large estimate, considering the amount of stock carried.

Last Friday Emil Schmidt was tried in Justice Henderson's court at Mayer, on a second charge, preferred by Marion Fowler, for threats. This time his bonds were fixed at $750, which so far has been unable to furnish, hence the sheriff has him in charge.

Pat Rooney was fined $10 and costs in the justice court last Friday for disturbing the church services on the Sunday night previous. Pat at once packed his grip and left for Portland. Bert Mason, the other accused, has not yet been arrested.

In the case of the State of Washington against Frank LeGash, from Olqua, charged with murder, tried at Kalama last Friday, the jury found a verdict of murder in the second degree, for the killing of his half-brother on November 27. This is the fourth murder trial for Cowlitz county within a year.

The following persons have proved up on their claims before Clerk Quick since our last issue: Friday—Charles A. Buck and Peter Young; Saturday—Ladd Lupton and Frank Tracy; Monday—E. B. Grindle and John P. Young; Wednesday—John R. Dallas, J. D. Lewis, John P. Sheely and J. L. Vanliarion.

W. J. Fullerton and wife, of Eugene, Oregon, are visiting relatives and friends at Clifton this week. Mr. Fullerton was a former resident at Clifton, until about a year ago, when he moved to California, hoping to benefit his wife's health.

Mr. Harlenbrook is talking of building a house on his claim this winter. We hear that Deacon Tarbell is coming to this neighborhood this week to stay with his son, L. Tarbell, who lives in the 'Brown' end of Yanketown.

H. O. Howard has just bought a planer. He claims that it is a 'dandy,' and it certainly looks like it. He says that it will be running in about a week, when he will be able to furnish all necessary dressed lumber.

The rumor we heard circulated a few weeks ago to the effect that some of the Cowlitz people were thinking of importing some new stock is evidently of good foundation.

H. G. Howard, with the assistance of some of his neighbors, is planking the road from his mill to the railroad station. Talk about grit! Well, there is no end to what these Yankees will do when they get started. It will make the road practicable all the year round, and will be a credit to the county and an example, too.

C. C. Brown and family are going to leave this neighborhood shortly and move to Sauvie Island. E. Luman's family have moved to Howarville, where they will remain whilst school keeps, to give their children a chance to attend it.

Mr. R. Bailey, the new schoolmaster, is giving good satisfaction to the parents here, but the pupils think he is a little too strict. Wilford Milford, of Spring Valley, is working for H. O. Howard in the capacity of engineer.

Mr. Leslie Bailey started up his shingle mill on Monday. We think those who should give the most assistance to Mr. Howard on the road would be the young men who travel between here and St. Helens so often.

One of Mr. L. Bailey's men had the misfortune to cut his foot very severely with an axe last week. We met Mr. White hurrying towards St. Helens Saturday afternoon. He wouldn't stop to talk, as he said he had only fifteen minutes in which to catch the boat and wanted to get to La Center that night to see his family.

DELENA. Owing to the prevalence of sore throats in this valley Miss Matthews dismissed school last Monday for a week. The sermon delivered by Rev. Brown last Sunday at Lost Creek schoolhouse was well attended and very interesting.

Miss Ida Morgan has been troubled with sore throat for the past week but is rapidly improving. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wagner were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Meserve. We are informed that Mr. Roala is pushing work on the Tryon road, and will have it open for travel in the near future.

L. J. Meserve made a trip to Portland and St. Helens last week. The Delena Social Club are preparing a splendid drama, 'The Last Leaf,' for the entertainment, which will be given at the new hall some time in January. The exact date is not yet fixed but will soon be announced. No one should fail to attend, as this will be a highly entertaining play. The club also expect to give a grand social dance on the same evening.

Miss Fanny Meserve went to Portland last Monday, and will visit relatives at Oregon City and Ironton before returning. Wagner Bros. are on the lookout for a location for their shingle mill, but so far have found nothing to suit them. Parties having cedar timber to sell will do well to confer with the boys, as they have good machinery and are well posted in the shingle business.

"A YARD OF PANIES."

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to make every one of our readers a present of one of these exquisite oil pictures 30 inches long, a companion to 'A Yard of Roses,' which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, 'A Yard of Panies,' was painted by the same noted artist as the 'Roses.' It is the same size, and is pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the 'Roses.' The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, which cost $303, and accompany it are full directions for framing at home, at a cost of a few cents, thus forming a beautiful ornament for your parlor or a superb Christmas gift, worth at least $5. Send your name and address to the publisher, W. Jennings Demore, 15 East 14th street, New York, with three 2 cent stamps to pay for the packing, mailing, etc., and mention that you are a reader of THE OREGONIAN. Mr. St. Helens, and you will receive by return mail one of these valuable works of art.

"The Spy of Gettysburg."

Those who have read the original drama, in four acts, by Charles Townsend, entitled 'The Spy of Gettysburg,' will no doubt appreciate the merits of the play, which will be presented by the St. Helens Dramatic Club in this place next Thursday evening, December 22. No pains have been spared in securing costumes and stage apparatus for this leading military drama. As has been said before, the proceeds are to be applied to the Odd Fellows cemetery fund, for the purpose of purchasing a cemetery which the public will have access to. Following is the cast of characters:

- General Meade..... Fred Simpson
Harry Lenox, a Federal scout..... L. L. Decker
Major Timothy Taylor..... James Cox
Uncle Moses Mulvey..... Thomas Cooper
Orill Blackburn, the black sheep..... J. R. Beagle
Solomon, an independent 'coon'..... G. L. Colburn
Captain Warren, Federal officer..... C. W. Blakely
Lottion, Blackburn's handy man..... Henry Rung
Major Meredith, a true girl..... Jennie G. Muckle
Julie Evans, her cousin..... Josie V. Groves

Important Land Decision.

Muckle Bros. received notice a few days ago that the commissioner of the United States land office at Washington had confirmed the decision of the local land office at Vancouver, Wash., relative to timber land which the firm purchased in Cowlitz county some years ago. It was claimed by Cleveland's special land agent that irregularities existed in the way the land was purchased by Muckle Bros., and also that the land in question was more valuable for agriculture than for its timber, hence could not be taken up under the timber land act of June 3, 1878. The matter was brought before the district land office at Vancouver, Wash., where it was decided in favor of the purchasers. An appeal was then taken to the general land office at Washington, and after several years, the commissioner of that office has confirmed the ruling of the local office. The land in question consists of 1000 acres, all heavily timbered, situated in Cowlitz county, Wash., and is very valuable for its timber only. This decision virtually settles the question as to what land comes under the timber act of 1878.

Circuit Court Next Monday.

The adjourned term of Circuit will be convened by Judge McBride in St. Helens next Monday. Our readers will remember that owing to the regularly appointed term of court for Clatsop county arriving before the business of the Circuit court of Columbia county was concluded at the last regular session, the judge was compelled to hold an adjourned term here, commencing on December 19—next Monday. There are a number of law cases to come up that were left over from last term, besides some new suits that have since been filed.

YANKETOWN.

Mr. Harlenbrook is talking of building a house on his claim this winter. We hear that Deacon Tarbell is coming to this neighborhood this week to stay with his son, L. Tarbell, who lives in the 'Brown' end of Yanketown.

H. O. Howard has just bought a planer. He claims that it is a 'dandy,' and it certainly looks like it. He says that it will be running in about a week, when he will be able to furnish all necessary dressed lumber.

School Report.

The following is the term report of District No. 13, ending Dec. 8, 1892: Number of pupils enrolled, 59; average attendance, 41; number of visitors, 4. The school was not visited by either the school board or the superintendent of schools during the term. Those neither absent nor tardy during the term were Belle Perry, Grace Mosek and Alice Perry.

THE HILL OF LIFE.

BY J. P. LOONEY, A. M.

The following poem was composed for an entertainment given by pupils of the St. Helens public schools November 24, 1892, and dedicated to the students. Should one be induced to an act of kindness by this poem, the author will be amply repaid. It was recited by Miss Tennie Way.

"Kind words never die."—Bryant.
"Good deeds are not forgot."—Emerson.
"Pleasant words are as a honeycomb—sweet to the soul."—Prov., xv. 21.

Let's speak kind words, now, gentle friends.
While through the world we go.
For from the heart good deeds portend,
Like flowers in beauty grow;
In every deed, in every word,
The language of the heart is heard.

The fragrance of a kindly deed
Will linger in each heart,
Like sweetest hints the ripened seed,
When summer days depart.
Thus our comrades' hearts are stirred,
And won by means of our word.

Yes, speak kind words to every one.
Perhaps we may not know
The good by us that may be done,
While up Life's Hill we go.
And when we reach 'Life's Higher Plane,'
There many friends we thus shall find.

And now, kind friends, both men and you,
While struggling up the Hill of Life,
May hearts both tried and true,
Will stand beside us in the strife.
If kindness be our earthly goal,
Our deeds will not be soon forgot.

Their timely words will make us strong,
To bear the burden of each day,
And willing hands will help us on,
When weary hearts are sad.
Weak ones who falter by the way;
If early friendships be forgot,
And wanted favors not forgot.

And, if we make good deeds our choice,
While marching on this way,
Just beyond we'll hear a voice,
To cheer us on our way;
If Love so pure dearest us not,
And kindness true be not forgot.

Help those who gave in time of need
A friendly hand to us may lend,
And thus repay each kindly deed.
By which the heart and life were cheered;
For light and love be the goal,
Where kindly deeds are not forgot.

Remember that our lives will be
The better for the good we do,
And let our wayside comrades see,
That helping one will strengthen two;
And guided thus we'll ev'ry one,
For good deeds cannot be forgot.

Let's not refuse to lend a hand,
And thus we'll help a friend along,
And when in sickness by his stand,
Let's sing a holy, Christian song.
Kind words bridge many a dreary spot,
And cannot be by such forgot.

Good Deeds are bread and waters cast,
But they are all repaid at last.
In God's own way to you and me;
For not on Earth, in Heaven are not
Can deeds of kindness be forgot.

Let's keep in mind, now noble friends,
The tenor of this little rhyme,
Who does a kindness only lends
The favor for a little time;
But yet on Earth there is no spot,
Where kindness true can be forgot.

Let's not neglect to sow the seed
Of kindness in the minds of youth,
Be sure we'll find in time of need,
That all-important, solemn truth,
What'er may be our future lot,
Good Deeds will not be there forgot.

And when at last this life shall close,
Our bodies in the dust,
Our spirits shall with Christ repose
Or mingle with the just.
When e'er on Earth Good Deeds we're given,
Our sweet reward we'll have in Heaven!

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptoms are a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin, white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold, and in many cases will effectually counteract it and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced. 50-cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

DIED.

PULLERTON—In St. Vincent's hospital, in Portland, on the night of Dec. 7 at 11 o'clock Josiah Pullerton, of Seaside, aged about 50 years.

Mr. Frantz was born in Germany April 12, 1856, and when six weeks old came with his parents to America, and came to Oregon in 1882. He has lived in Columbia county for many years and is well known by most of the old settlers. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. The interment took place in Odd Fellows cemetery from the residence of Joseph Copeland yesterday at 2 o'clock.

BORN.

BROWN—At Astoria, on Tuesday, December 8, 1892, to the wife of William Brown, a son.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. Her mother says, "Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Edwin Ross' Druggist."

A Cure for Twenty Cents. Any remedy sold at one dollar a bottle which claims to cure rheumatism is simply an imposition, for when all expenses are deducted it leaves not more than twenty cents to represent the medicine. But it always cures. Sent prepaid to any address on receipt of price. Drummmond Medical Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.
