The Oregon Mist.

United States and County Official Paper

St. Helens, January 6, 1893.

BRIEF MENTION.

Mrs. W. J. Eastabrook returned to Portland Tuesday.

We notice that McNutt Bros. have again resumed business in Cornelius.

Mrs. Jacob George, Miss Alice Cox and Miss Mary Burk went to Portland Monday returning Tuesday.

Mr. E. W. Wharton and wife, of Silverton, spent the holidays with Mr. S. A. Miles and family, of this city.

S. G. Bridge, representing the Lewis & Dryden Lithographing Company, of Portland, was in the city Monday.

W. R. Dillard left on Sunday for Idaho, where he is retained as counsel in a murder case.

The masquerade ball at Masonic hall last Friday night was very well attended, and all present seemed to have a good time.

Lee Perry left yesterday for Stockton, California, where he expects to spend the winter, hoping to benefit his health.

Dave Pope was in town Saturday, returning home Sunday. He has nearly recovered from his injuries of a few weeks since.

Rev. A. C. Fairchild, one of the faculty of the Portland University, will preach in St. Helens next Sunday. An invitation is extended to all to be present.

The late storm played havoc with the telegraph wires. Mr. Coffey, our operator here, has been compelled to do a great deal of line work in this vicinity, being out almost every day for the past ten days.

I. S. Bumgardner, of Deer Island, called in Saturday while in St. Helens, to make sure his Mist was paid for. He doesn't want to miss getting one of our new county maps when completed.

The Harvest Queen has taken the place of the Hassalo. Tuesday the Reed was in place of the Thompson, and Wednesday the Potter came to the rescue of the dilapidated fleet.

The Manzanita, government lighthouse tender, went up to Portland last week, examining beacons and lighthouses on her way. She has received orders to report at San Francisco, and as soon as some repairs are made on her boiler, will proceed thither.

The Kalama Bulletin of last week came to us printed on red paper. Is Mr. Imus using this method to suggest that he is "red-headed" on account of the competition he has in the Tribune, or that his paper is well read?

Mrs. Elizabeth Butler, eldest daughter of S. A. Miles, of St. Helens, arrived from Moscow, Idaho, last Saturday, accompanied by her two daughters. They will probably spend several weeks here.

Word comes from Salem that Secretary McBride is seriously ill at that place. Later reports, however, are to the effect that he has greatly improved within the last few days, which our people will be glad to know.

Upon glancing over the Monmouth Tribune the first thing we saw was "Our Adieu." Further investigation revealed the fact that the paper had existed nine weeks. A brilliant but short life. We notice worse papers than the Tribune living and, apparently thriving.

Our down river friends speak of the Iralda as giving them the best accommodations of any steamer on the river. She is most always on time, and those in charge very accommodating. These being the facts, of course she is deserving of a good patronage.

O. A. Woods, of Deer Island, while in town Saturday, called in to see if he was in good standing with The Mist. The county map is bringing our subscribers to the front. If the old and the new keep on coming we may have to double our order for maps. Every family in the county should have this valuable chart of reference.

The steamer Potter unloaded a sturgeon at Rainier Wednesday that weighed 500 pounds. This was the largest among about thirty that were landed at the packing house of the cold storage company. A number of the others would weigh from 200 to 300 pounds.

A wind storm swept over the country in the region of Grant's Pass, Or., with almost the fury of an Eastern cyclone, destroying miles of valuable timber. It is thought the loss will exceed $500,000 in timber alone. Houses were blown down, barns unroofed, and orchard and shade trees uprooted. Very few lives are reported lost.

Sheriff Massie had a very unpleasant experience in the lower end of the county this week. In an endeavor to serve some papers near Westport he was obliged to row a small boat about 26 miles Tuesday night, to say nothing of the walking he done. It is needless to say he got there just the same. Verily the sheriff earns his money as well as the rest of us.

The state board of equalization, at their meeting in Salem last week, reduced the valuation in Columbia county 10 per cent. on horses and 25 per cent. on cattle; they added to the rate on sheep 30 per cent. and on swine 50 per cent. By the time the board equalized the values all over the state the valuation of property had been raised $25,000,000.

Monday's Oregonian of 20 pages contains the annual review of Portland. It claims a population of 95,000; manufactures increased nearly a million dollars over 1891, and a jobbing trade of over $124,000,000. A large part of this increase has been brought about by the Chicago plan of annexation. Take it all in all, Portland is a fair-sized village, but nothing in comparrison with St. Helens.

There are in the employ of The Mayger Co., at Mayger, nearly 100 men. Some are engaged at cutting cordwood, some cutting shingle bolts and others getting out sawlogs. The company's sales of wood run all the way from 150 to 300 cords per week. This is mostly taken by the regular river steamers, and brings $2 50 per cord. If Columbia county had a few more enterprises of this kind there would not be so many idle men looking for employment.

The custom of ringing out the old year and ringing in the new was observed in St Helens, and at 12 o'clock a procession was formed, headed by a band consisting of a snare drum, bass drum, a brass horn and a fife, marched up and down the streets. The church bell on the hill was kept clanging for half an hour or more, guns and revolvers were fired in rapid succession and the (?) of that band had a tendency to [illegible] person yearn for a "fir" overcoat or [illegible] tunity to get off into the woods and [illegible] self for about six weeks.

County court met in regular session Wednesday, with Judge Blanchard and Commissioners Barnes and Schoonover present. The entire day was taken up with the annual reports of various road supervisors. Next came the appointment of supervisors for the ensuing year, which, up to press hour, had been only partially accomplished.

Hon. N. Merrill, of Clatskanie, was in St. Helens yesterday. He was on his way to Salem.

MORTGAGE DEBTORS.

Suggestions Offered by the Board of Equalization.

Salem, Or., Jan. 4.—Today the state board of equalization adopted a resolution addressed to the legislature, recommending certain changes in the assessment law. It recommends that as the 5-mill tax, now required to be levied by the county courts for school purposes, is an inducement to assess property at less than its actual cash value, the said tax ought to be abolished, and in lieu thereof an act should be passed requiring said tax to be levied pro rata according to the children of school age in the county. The board wants the law amended so as to give the state board of equalization 60 days in which to complete its work, instead of 30, as now. It recommends that the law allowing deductions of indebtedness and exemption of same from taxation should be so amended as not to allow any exemptions for indebtedness. It asks the repeal of the present law on the assessment of mortgages. It wants property assessed as actually owned March 1, at noon, of each year.

The result of the board's work is seen in the following table:

Class of Property—	—Equalization— County boards.	State board.
City and town lots	$42,054,798	$52,240,232
Mortgages, deeds of trust and contracts	22,675,521	32,799,038
Railroad lands	1,050,224	1,255,245
Wagon road lands	1,011,955	1,113,198
Swamp lands	57,971	68,768
Agric'l'al and other lands	61,585,021	67,710,517

Railroad rolling stock	725,900	798,495
Grand total	$195,604,768	$226,108,595

No changes were made in the assessment of money, notes, accounts, shares of stock, household furniture, pleasure carriages, watches, etc.

OBITUARY.

MORRIS—Departed to the higher life on December 29, 1892, Mrs. Marietta Meserve Morris, in the 33d year of her life.

Hers was a singularly pure and unselfish life, always willing to sacrifice her own comfort and pleasure that others might be helped. As a school girl, she was industrious and studious, earning the confidence of her teachers and the love of her fellow pupils, and when she became a teacher it was with the desire to do all the good that she could. Not confining her work to the textbooks and the ordinary methods of the schoolroom, she did all she could to instruct her pupils regarding their manners, morals and physical welfare. For 11 years she taught in Nebraska, Washington and this state, doing with all her strength whatever she found to do.

In 1887 she was married to Prof George Morris and chose his profession, that of phrenology, and went with him to New York, where she took a course at the American Institute of Phrenology, under the direction of Fowler & Wells. After her graduation there they traveled and lectured together in the middle states, working largely in Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, in the latter place delivering over 100 lectures. On this coast they lectured in a number of cities, among which were Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane and Walla Walla. Years before, her attention had been attracted by the various reform movements in progress and she advocated them with all the zeal of her nature, particularly the reforms pertaining to her sex, and now in a larger sphere, that of the lecture field. She lectured and worked for all that she thought worthy, her favorite topics being social purity, prenatal culture, woman suffrage, dress reform, hygiene and the cause of prohibition. She also wrote on the several questions for the various journals published in those interests.

Last year they purchased a home a short distance west of Portland, where they have lived until she was done with earth, and the same disposition she manifested in her public career was brought into her home life, proving herself an industrious and capable housekeeper and a true neighbor and friend to those around her. During all the weeks of her last illness her husband was constantly by her side by night and by day, doing all that love and skill could do in the effort to restore to health or to alleviate her sufferings.

Her remains were laid away in the graveyard at Hudson's west from Rainier, where her parents live, followed by the sympathy and love of her old friends and neighbors, who showed by their presence and conduct how much and how well they loved her.

LARSEN—At Gillton, Or., Sunday morning, January 1, 1893, at 9 o'clock, a. m., William Ellis Larsen, aged 5 years, 7 months and 12 days. "Not lost, but gone before."

Our family circle's broken now,
'Tis sad to think upon;
Our little babe died nine months ago,
And now one more has gone.

Our baby, precious darling, is one—
The first one gone to rest—
The second was Willie, little son,
Now numbered with the blest.

For blest I know they all must be
Who with the Savior dwells,
And with his angels joyfully
The heavenly chorus swells.

Yes, they have heard, obeyed the calls,
And gone where Jesus dwells;
God help us now—yes, one and all—
To bear the grief that swells.

Our aching hearts, till they 'most break,
We miss our darlings so;
Father, help us, for Christ's sake,
To bear the crushing blow.

Kind friends, our darlings laid in their graves,
Today the last was lain;
It seems no power on earth could save
What the hand of death hath slain.

Gillton, January 3, 1893. M. A. B.

Installation Ceremonies.

Saturday evening, January 7, St. Lodge No. 117, I. O. O. F., will install its officers for the ensuing term. The ceremonies will be public to the families of Odd Fellows and their guests, each member being entitled to invite one friend. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the members, with their families and invited guests, will partake of a sumptuous repast prepared for the occasion. An effort is being made to build up and extend the usefulness of the order in this vicinity. The objects and aims of Odd Fellowship make it one of the best secret societies in existence, and has the tendency to make happier homes and the members to lead better lives.

Serenaded.

On Tuesday evening the First Regiment Cornet Band, of St. Helens, repaired to the residence of the lately wedded Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Cooper and gave them a rousing serenade—in fact, it roused about every person within a radius of ten blocks. They had retired for the night, but the mellodious strains of music that swelled forth on the night air was well calculated to make a Comanche Indian turn green with envy, and being utterly useless to attempt to woo the god of sleep, they arose and held a reception. It is reported that Tom gave the "band" a $20 gold piece if they would disband, which they did, after "blowing in" the shiner.

CLATSKANIE.

Tom Bennett started out for his claim last Monday morning, to spend the winter, more or less.

Bert Seffert and family started last Friday night on a steamer for Knappa, after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Barr.

Mrs. N. Merrill and family took steamer the same evening for Woodland, Wash., where her parents reside, and where she will leave part of her family during her absence at Salem, where she accompanies her husband. Mr. Merrill left on Monday evening of this week, expecting to be at the capital in time for the opening of the legislature next week.

Hon. Samuel Layman, a member of the legislature from Marion county, spent a couple of days last week with his daughter, Mrs. Rev. Moore, of this place, returning on steamer Friday night. He is a very pleasant gentleman, and will doubtless do good work at Salem.

Mr. F. Van Meter, of Portland, has spent days in this place in organizing a tent of the Knights of the Macabees, which he succeeded in doing after considerable effort. The order starts off with 13 members under quite favorable auspices. It is both beneficiary and social, having an insurance connected with it after the manner of the United Workmen and other orders. It is the first lodge in town and some of the good housewives wanted to drive the man out of town that was trying to organize it, but they were too late in planning to do so, until now he has gone of his own accord.

J. M. Reddick is in Portland this week.

Prof. Van Scoy, of the Portland University, made the town a brief visit on Monday evening.

Editor J. R. Beegle, of The Mist, spent Tuesday, shaking hands with his friends and exhibiting his sample county map, which is going to be a great convenience in locating various points in the county.

Rev. Moore was called to the Hudson schoolhouse on Tuesday, to be present at the funeral of Mrs. Morris, who was buried there.

A meeting of the school board was held last Saturday evening, and it is alleged by a person on the outside that the meeting was not the most quiet one. It is also reported that the clerk tendered his resignation, which will be acted on at another meeting to be held on Thursday evening of this week. No teacher has yet been selected in place of Mrs. Keasey, and the vacation had to be extended one week.

A. M. and Mrs. Tichenor and Bert return to Portland this week, after spending a couple of weeks at their old home here.

The Clatskanie Hotel is not running now, the building being without a tenant in its hotel department.

Prof. Cleeton is at the county seat this week on official business.

The masquerade ball last Friday evening was one of the events of the season. The offer of prizes for costumes brought out quite a variety in that line, both ladies and gentlemen, and some of the figures were quite dazzling and well sustained. The music by Prof. Henrici and others was very fine and added enjoyment to the occasion, and the supper at the City Hotel supplied plenty for all demands made upon it. Dancing commenced early and was kept up long into the wee sma' hours.

The old year was helped out by the discharge of a few quite noisy bombs about midnight, after the old time custom.

DEER ISLAND.

News has been received here that Antoine Dearing, out on the Clatskanie, lost his house and all its contents by fire. Did not learn the cause of the fire.

John Horgren, who took a steam engine and sawmill out to his homestead on the Clatskanie last fall, has it now in running order, which adds another valuable improvement to Columbia county.

When Mr. and Mrs. Parker, of Etna, Wash., were visiting here Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Merrill gave them a sociable, which was indeed the success of the season. The crowd was small, but the evening was spent very pleasantly. Some very select music was rendered by Messrs. Samuel Kisder and C. H. English.

Christmas was a rather gloomy day in this neighborhood, for several reasons, one of the principal reasons being the sad death of the popular young postmaster, Eli Foster, of Reuben. In consequence there was no entertainment of any kind.

The snow which fell on the 21st ult. is still sticking around in the fence corners and covering the ground in many places. The man who wrote "Beautiful Snow" surely never shoveled much of it. Snow is very beautiful while you can sit by a good fire in a comfortable room, but to be out and fighting it reminds us of the story of a gentleman who saw the lovely form of a lady walking ahead of him, ran around the block to meet her, when he discovered she was a negress and homely. "Faith, ye are an angel to follow, but the divil to meet with," he exclaimed.

W. L. Kyser closed school last Wednesday, having taught four months. Mr. K. did not find it hard to please the patrons.

County Commissioner Schoonover visited this road district last Tuesday. He [illegible] to be the right man in the [illegible] closely watch [illegible] detects errors [illegible] clusion, and [illegible] year is like the new moon, according to Hirschel's weather table, it's to be a cold one.

H. C. Gore exhibits a rig and a race horse now, which adds considerably to our sporting qualities.

When Pinckney had J. T. Schitt arrested for chopping out some "blazes" on a tree which Pinckney claims was a road mark out by Carico, why was he not tried before the justice of Sherman precinct (Mr. Chas. Trimm), where they reside, instead of taking the case to St. Helens? Can Mr. Pinckney swear that Justice Blakesley [we do not say this out of disrespect for Mr. B.] is more competent than Justice Trimm to try a petty spite case? Very wisely, when the justice found out the facts, he dismissed the case. Likely Mr. P. will ask for mileage, as he was state witness.

A Card of Thanks.

We feel that we would be doing an injustice to ourselves as well as others if we did not publicly declare our appreciation of the kindness of our neighbors and friends who so willingly assisted us during the late illness and sad death of our dear boy. Especial mention is due to many who neglected their homes and little ones and toiled so hard and faithfully during all our trouble. But a list of all those who are deserving would be so long that it would not be appropriate on this occasion, for we thank one and all for their kind assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Larsen.

Card of Thanks.

To the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Marietta Meserve Morris who so kindly did all they could for her during her last illness, the heartfelt thanks of her parents are given, and most especially to her old friends and neighbors in Beaver Valley, who showed by their presence at the interment of her remains their respect for her and sympathy for the bereaved relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Meserve.

MARRIED.

COOPER—DECKER—At the residence of the bride's parents in this city, on Sunday, January 1, 1893, by Justice A. H. Blakesley, Mr. Thomas Cooper and Miss Nellie Decker, all of St. Helens.

Mr. Cooper is to be commended and congratulated upon the wisdom and good judgment displayed in starting with the beginning of the new year to make home a pleasant and attractive retreat from the busy scenes of life and enjoy with his children the comforts and pleasures associated with useful and appropriate Decker-ations. May they live long and prosper.

PERRY—McGUIRE—At Rainier, Wednesday, January 4, 1893, Mr. George Perry and Miss Kate McGuire.

Mr. Perry is one of Columbia county's foremost young men, well known to most of our people, having been born and raised in this community. Miss McGuire has been engaged in our public schools for some time and is considered one of the county's most successful teachers. The Mist extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

A Boy's Testimonial.

To the Sick: I am a boy 13 years old, and want to tell old and young how I have escaped a life of sickness. For years I have been subject to rheumatism, which finally resulted in heart trouble, palpitation and shortness of breath. I could not walk or run fast like other boys, and at times was down in bed and could only see other boys enjoy themselves. Dr. Darrin cured me with electricity and bad-tasting medicines, much to the surprise of my friends and doctors who had failed to cure me. I am now able to run up stairs and feel good. I was cured in four months. I live at 140 North Fourteenth street, Portland.

Thomas Kissell.

DEAFNESS CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

Dr. Darrin: The treatment by electricity you gave me was successful. I had been deaf for seven years, and I was cured by you in ten minutes. Refer your patients to me at Scholl's Ferry, Oregon. Charles Korber.

Dr. Darrin still holds forth at 270½ Washington street, Portland, and Revere House, Albany, Or., and gives free consultation daily from 10 to 5; evenings 7 to 8; Sunday 10 to 12. He treats all curable chronic, acute and secret diseases at half his former prices. The poor free. Circular and question list sent free.

Draw Your Own Conclusions.

Mr. J. O. Davenport, manager of the Ft. Bragg Redwood Co., Ft. Bragg, Cal., has this to say of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy: "I used it for a severe cold and cough and obtained immediate relief. In the Ft. Bragg Redwood Co.'s store we have sold large quantities of Chamberlain's medicines." For sale by Edwin Ross, druggists.

For Sale!

I have a number of registered Poland China pigs, which I will sell at my place at Scappoose, Oregon.

Now Try This.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a cough, cold, or any trouble with throat, chest or lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at Edwin Ross' drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

There's Nothing Cheap About It.

Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy for rheumatism is put up in large bottles, and the price is five dollars a bottle. It cures every time. All the cheap remedies put together are not worth one bottle of Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy, and any sufferer will bear witness to that fact, and any druggist who has sold it is ready and willing to offer evidence. One bottle will cure any ordinary case, and the money will be returned if it fails. Sent to any address prepaid on receipt of price. Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

Not from a Financial Standpoint.

"I do not recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy from a financial standpoint, for we have others in stock on which we make a larger profit," says Al. Maggini, a prominent druggist of Braddock, Penn., "but because many of our customers have spoken of it in the highest praise. We sell more of it than of any similar preparation we have in the store." For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

Accidents Make Cripples.

So does Rheumatism, and after a time it kills, too! Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy relieves the pain at once, and is warranted to cure. One bottle, price five dollars, is enough for any ordinary case. If you cannot get it from your druggist, write to the Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I have sold and used in my family for several years, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and have found it one of the most useful and satisfactory remedies I ever handled.—C. H. Lewis, druggist, Salt Lake City, Utah. For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

An Invaluable Remedy for Colds.

Sheriff Hardman, of Tyler county, W. Va., was prostrated with a cold, when he began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In speaking of it he says: "It gave me almost instant relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for colds." For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.

From Newberg.

C. F. Moore & Co., prominent druggists of Newberg, Ore., say: "Since our customers have become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlains Cough Remedy, we sell but little of any other kind. Chamberlain's medicines all give good satisfaction." For sale by Edwin Ross, druggist.
