BRIEF MENTION.

Wm. Simmons is erecting a fine two-story residence on his property at Rainier.

Little Wilbur Muckle is the happy possessor of a riding pony which his father recently bought for him.

but when it comes to ladies' dress goods and trimmings we must say that Mr. Dolman carries the largest and most select stock.

Andrew King, the blacksmith at this place, is a master workman, and this Mr. King wishes to recommend him to the farmers and loggers throughout this county.

Flags streaming from half-mast were noticed on all steamboats passing our city Tuesday. A number of flags were to be seen in our own little city on that day.

St. Helens was represented at Vancouver Memorial day by a delegation who went to pay their respects to the nation's honored dead who rest in the cemetery at that place.

The attention of the ladies of St. Helens and vicinity is directed to the stock of millinery carried by Mrs. C. L. Colburn. The latest spring styles of hats and trimmings can be found there.

The organization of the hose company in this place is most assuredly a correct move. Let such an undertaking be ably supported by our people, as it is a much needed and valuable acquisition.

Work on the logging road at Clatskanie is progressing in a very satisfactory manner. The completion of the road is anxiously awaited by the people of that section, as it is expected that livelier times may be witnessed there.

The St. Helens Hotel is undergoing many repairs, such as repainting and a general renovation. Mr. George is ever alert to make any improvement that would add to the popularity of his house, and which would prove a satisfaction to his guests.

A number of our citizens have been employed during the week in arranging the picnic grounds in order for them to be in readiness for the large crowd which is expected here next Sunday on the Harvest Queen and a large band. The excursion is coming from Portland and is given by the Pilots association. Fifteen hundred people are expected to arrive here, and it might not be out of place to suggest that our people prepare to give them a pleasant reception.

Charles Hegel, of Portland, is putting up a large creamery on his place near Scappoose. The machinery to be used will include a fifteen-horse power engine and a complete set of all the latest improved machinery for the manufacture of butter and cheese. His creamery will have a capacity for all the milk obtainable, and as the Scappoose country is given principally to dairying pursuits, it is expected that the products of the establishment will be large. Mr. Hegel's venture will prove a valuable addition to the business enterprises of that place and should receive the hearty support of the entire community.

Although Memorial day is not properly a day of recreation, the excursion to Vancouver Tuesday on the steamer Mascon, was liberally patronized by the people of La Center and vicinity, who took advantage of the perfect weather to enjoy a day's outing and pay their tribute of respect to the memory of our country's preservers who have answered the last roll call and made their eternal bivouac in the silent city of the dead. The trip up to Vancouver was most pleasant and contrary to custom, was made on schedule time. The usual beautiful and impressive memorial services were performed by the G. A. R. of that place, after which the day was spent by the visitors in admiring the many beauties of the prettiest town in Washington, enjoying the fresh air and invigorating sunshine of its beautiful parks.

Last Monday evening a meeting of the citizens of St. Helens was called at the school house for the purpose of organizing a fire company. The meeting was called to order by T. C. Watts. W. H. Dolman was chosen to occupy the chair and E. Boss chosen secretary. Numerous suggestions were made as to procedure and finally a paper was circulated and signed by sixteen who were willing to become members of a volunteer department. A permanent organization was effected. W. H. Dolman was elected president of the hose company and Frank Miles, secretary. Fred Simson was elected foreman of the company, with L. Decker and Andrew King assistants. The chair then appointed Messrs. Simpson, Decker and King to draft constitution and by-laws. It was also ordered that a copy of the minutes be furnished this issue for publication.

The present high water in the Columbia is forcing ranchers on the bottom to ship all their live stock to high land, and the result is that all the unfenced country in this neighborhood is alive with horses and cattle running at large. Much of this stock is using the district through which the Northern Pacific line passes, and is giving the operatives on that road no end of trouble by getting on the track and refusing to get off until it is knocked off. Stock is being killed almost daily by the cars and those who have stock running out here should make an effort to take care of it. A steer was killed near Houlton Tuesday and the animal was described by Postmaster Perry of that place as having four white hind feet. Whoever is minus a steer with that many white hind feet can easily identify the carcass and get their pay for it by presenting their claim to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

A lady from the grasshopper state had occasion to pass St. Helens on one of the river steamers while "doing" the coast, and among other things which attracted her attention was the sign on the front of THE MIST office. The lady had been in the state long enough to learn the meaning of the local phrase "Oregon mist," but could not understand why a business house should have such a sign over its door. Turning to her friend, the lady asked: "What does it mean? Is it possible they bottle this mist and sell it?" Her friend was as much mystified as herself at the strange sign, and not wishing to ask any questions, they went on their way in blissful ignorance of the fact that signs, though misleading, are some times appropriate.

The spacious residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Muckle was the scene of a very agreeable whist party last Monday evening, which was attended by Mrs. J. George, Mrs. Roberts, the Misses Willie and Dell Caples, from Columbia City, Alice Cox, Tillie Muckle, Emma Cox, Messrs. Charles Muckle, Wash. Muckle, E. Ross, Dr. Griawold, Chas. Davis, A. King, T. J. Egan, Paul Chandler, Thos. Muckle and D. Davis. The highest number of points made during the seven hands played were thirty-one, by Miss Alice Cox and her partner, while Miss Josie Groves and Paul Chandler were the proud recipients of the booby prize—a penny each. A plentiful lunch was served after which the latter part of the evening was spent in chat and music.

The probabilities of Astoria securing a railroad this year seemingly become fewer daily. For some time there has not been any mention of the fact given out, though when questions are asked the same stereotyped, regulation answers are made. To be sure, the meteorological conditions have been such as to discourage almost any attempt at such an enterprise yet, if one is to draw conclusions from the workings of the promoters, the chances are, by no means, too flatteringly brilliant. To be sure, railroads are not built in a few days, but it would seem that if there was to be any very great amount of activity this summer, some move would be made, as the season is advancing quite rapidly.

In towns and villages where are not to be found all the conveniences which people of modern times are so prone to look for, there sometimes arise many little dissatisfactions brought about by the lack of enterprise. One thing which is so much desired by people, especially transient, is a neat and clean bath, and which many small places, and even large ones, are devoid of, but in this respect St. Helens is well up with the times. At Mr. Colburn's we had a first-class shave and hair-cut, and the most pleasing to all, is the knowledge that one can procure a bath, with all the modern conveniences, for the small sum of twenty-five cents.

Michael Fitzgerald, an old resident of Scappoose, died last Saturday at St. Vincent's hospital, in Portland, of a combination of diseases. Though Mr. Fitzgerald had resided on Scappoose several years, little was known of his antecedents. He lived alone on his farm and was considered somewhat eccentric. He was reticent and unapproachable and never spoke of his early life, a fact which led all to believe him a confirmed bachelor, but since his death it transpires that he had formerly been married, and has a son and daughter, the latter being a sister of charity, in New York.

Judging from the tenor of an article in a recent number of an Astoria paper, the people there are bent upon having a railroad. It says: "There is considerable talk of circulating a petition among the business men and all others interested asking the amount of five dollars per week to be subscribed, and it is estimated that $10,000 a month can be raised in this way, thereby, with the aid of what can be realized out of the land subsidy, build the railroad." It is high time some movement of this nature was made if Astoria expects to secure a railroad.

On Thursday evening, May 26th, quite a number of invited guests attended a whist party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cox. The high score for the evening was twenty-seven, made by Mrs. J. C. George and Paul C. Chandler, while T. J. Egan and D. Davis succeeded in captivating the booby prize. Lunch was served, after which numerous vocal and instrumental selections were rendered to the entire satisfaction of all present. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were unanimously voted the thanks of each one present.

The Columbia has fallen over two feet since it reached its highest mark and is rapidly returning to its normal stage. This fact is due to the cold, cloudy weather which has prevailed during the past few days, and while we greatly miss the sun's genial rays, we are forced to admit that the country can do without them better than it can stand a flood.

This office is in receipt of copies of the state Fish and Game laws passed at the last session of the legislature. Copies of these laws may be had by sending address and two-cent stamp to State Printer F. C. Baker, Salem, Oregon.

At W. J. Muckle's general merchandise house in Rainier, can be found a large and varied assortment of everything carried in a general merchandise store. Give him a call.

Recent advices from Astoria are to the effect that salmon are running very plentifully and the canneries are supplied with all the fish they are capable of taking care of.

A more pleasant day could not have been wished for than was Tuesday, for the observance of Memorial Day exercises. Not to the extreme with either heat or chill.

We learn that the Knights of Pythias, of Rainier, intend giving a grand ball some time in the early part of June, in their castle, at that place.

It will be remembered that Clatskanie people offer great inducements for a creamery. Such an enterprise would prove beneficial in many ways.

In consequence of the number of persons from St. Helens, accompanying the excursion Tuesday, the town was nearly depopulated.

"Let There be Light."

The important question of whether or not we are to have electric lights should be decided at once and decided in favor of the lights. We cannot afford to do without so valuable an improvement to this place. The spirit of enterprise, public improvement and advancement is now in the ascendancy and we should not balk its progress for the sake of a few dollars. An agent for an electric light company will be here within the next few days to confer with our citizens and the city authorities in regard to this matter and it is to be hoped he will be given assurance of the necessary support to insure the success of this valuable addition to our many other public improvements. No similar investment will bring this city the large returns which will be realized by introducing these lights. They will not only prove to be a great and badly needed public convenience but will go further towards successfully advertising the place and bringing prominently before the public than any investment the city can possibly make. Added to our splendid system of water works, convenient and reliable banking house and fine new theater, electric lights will give us an advertisement that we cannot afford to do without just at present. We ask the citizens of this place to consider this matter seriously and candidly, and we are convinced if you take an unbiased view of it from a business standpoint you will not hesitate to see and admit the benefits to be derived from a good system of electric lights.

Ed Giltner came down from Salem Saturday night, last, and visited relatives in this place the next day, returning in the evening.

Word from Corvallis is to the effect that Mrs. J. S. Kendle, H. Blakesley's mother-in-law, is rapidly improving from her recent serious illness.

D. T. M. Beare, of Rainier, started yesterday for Michigan. On his way he will visit Chicago and the great exposition. He will be absent about three months.

Messrs. Paul Chandler and T. J. Egan, who have been visiting in St. Helens for the past two weeks, started Tuesday morning for their home in St. Paul, Minn. During their stay in this place they acquainted themselves with many of our people who regretted their departure.

DEER ISLAND.

J. M. (Jack) Spurgeon is nursing a cut leg for the present.

Mrs. Fred Ferchen, of Astoria, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. English.

All kinds of fruit promises to be in great abundance, as all danger of frost is past.

The greatest portion of the bottom land is under water. It has fallen about two feet and continues receding.

Mrs. Walker has secured the Upper Settlement Tide creek school, and commenced teaching there two weeks ago.

Mr. Chas. English returned home from Astoria last week, and improved in health. He is now about as well as usual.

Elay George made this neighborhood a visit last week, and left for his home in Benton county Monday. Mr. George seems to like it quite well up there, but he does not talk like he will make Benton county his future home.

The new school house is progressing very nicely, and will be ready for both teacher and pupil before very long. Much credit is due to the untiring energy of the building committee, Messrs. C. H. English, E. M. Wharton and A. A. Merrill.

This beautiful weather is allowing the farmers to get their crops in in good shape though a little late, but we are fortunate to even be able to get them in now while we would have the roads in good shape for travel Mr. Merrill is indeed the right man in the right place.

County Assessor Kysar has called on us this week. As he does not read this paper, we feel like saying what we think of him. It is our opinion he is filling the office with a good clear conscience and using good judgment in valuation. He differs very widely with us in his political principles.

W. B. Buell is indeed an energetic man, and has accomplished more work this season than any other farmer here judging from the amount of land he has cultivated. He has built a cool, commodious dairy and is now building one of the most complete barns in the county. The county could well hail a few more persevering men like Mr. Buell.

The committee on celebration and picnic grounds has a force employed preparing a track for foot racing and similar sports. The track is located on the west side of Oak street north from the east approach to the bridge. When finished it will be 150 yards long and 25 feet wide. It will be put in the best possible condition for the purpose for which it is intended.

So it everywhere known that St. Helens will out do herself this year in preparing for July 4th, and will give a celebration which will totally and effectually eclipse all former attempts to observe America's natal day.

There will be a social dance given at Scappoose tomorrow night.
