

The Oregon Mist.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR.

St. Helens, June 16, 1893.

Now that the city has been to the expense of purchasing a carriage and horse with which to protect property from fire, it should not be parsimonious enough to deny property holders the absolute protection from fire which can be had by supplying a sufficient reserve of water with which to use the fire apparatus and successfully combat the fire which are sure to occur sooner or later.

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, the money panic continues throughout the country and numerous failures are reported daily. The principal sufferers are the banking houses, but commercial institutions of every kind are affected by the general depression and are going to the wall by dozens.

It is now becoming painfully evident to the transcontinental railroads that a very material reduction must be made in World's fair rates if anything like a large delegation of Pacific coast visitors is induced to see the exposition.

The collapse of Ford's Theater at Washington last Friday was a fitting end for a building which had been the scene of so great a crime as was committed within its walls.

The Chicago Exposition continues to open its gates Sunday, pending the hearing by the United States circuit court of appeals, of an order suspending the temporary injunction granted by the United States circuit court to restrain the management from opening the grounds on that day.

The California bandits, Sontag and Evans, were again fired upon by officers Monday in the Sierra foot hills, twenty miles from Visalia. This time the result was disastrous to the bandits and not at all pleasant for one of the officers.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become a household name. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases.

Oregon has for many years been wrestling with the problem of how to exterminate the hop louse, which has proven a great pest in the air for the agriculturist of much pecuniary loss to the hopgrower.

FRUIT growing of different kinds has become one of the most popular and profitable enterprises of this state, the peculiar adaptability of this climate and other conditions making that industry one of great profit.

worthy of favorable consideration by the county court. An institution suitable to accommodate the business of this county can be built and furnished for $3,000, and will be self-supporting from the time it is opened.

WOMING comes smiling to the front with the richest gold find on record, not excepting the wonderful days of '49 or the fabled riches of "Golden San Juan." The new Eldorado is said to be located in Fremont county, 140 miles from Rawlins, and the gold is found in Potsdam cement, for exceeding in richness any deposits ever before found.

DR. BRIGGS is a heretic. At least that is the verdict of a majority of the Presbyterian General Assembly, which has just concluded the memorable trial.

SCHOOL REPORT. The following is a report of the St. Helens school for the month ending June 9th: Number of days taught 19, number enrolled 33, average daily attendance 25.

People who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Wyo. county, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and hands, reads in his paper about how a prominent German citizen, of Fort Madison had been cured.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administrator of the estate of Josephus Jones, deceased, by the Hon. County Judge of Columbia county.

Are You Thinking Of what you ought to take with you when you go to the world's fair? Your outfit will not be complete without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
