BRIEF MENTION.

The barbecued ox was liberally partaken of.

"And we all swore off drinking in the morning."

Honorable Judeon Weed, of Vernonia, was in town yesterday.

Dentist Griswold will do your dental work well and reasonable.

Commissioner Barnes and son and daughter helped us celebrate Tuesday.

J. W. Jaquish, and Mr. Fowler, of Reuben were callers at this office Wednesday.

F. D. Henri and wife, of Montavilla, were enjoying themselves here on the Fourth.

John Wesley, a fisherman on the St. Helens bar, came in Saturday with a 72 pound chinook salmon.

Our little town was very neatly decorated, showing considerable patriotism to be entertained by her many good citizens.

The steamer D. S. Baker is now on the Astoria route in place of the E. R. Thompson which lies on the bottom at Coffin Rock.

The sports were quite sporty at the race track Tuesday. Walter Blakesley carried away the championship for the fastest runner.

This has been the coolest June on record, being five degrees below the normal and three degrees below any previous June.

A. B. B. Lewis, C. S. McNutt, John Pruet, Emery Mills, E. Binder and Josh Seseman, of Vernonia, were in St. Helens on business yesterday.

Richard H. Bailey, of Carrioco, and Martin Lobin of Mist, appeared before County Clerk Quist Wednesday, and made final proof on their homesteads.

Rev. Judy will not hold services in the grove next Sunday, as previously announced, but will preach both Sunday morning and evening in the church.

At a sheriff's sale Friday of property belonging to John Maynard, of Clatskanie, 201 acres of land were sold for $463.93, the simple amount of judgment and costs.

Commissioner Schoonover, of Vernonia, did honors in St. Helens on celebration day. He came up the river Monday after a several days tour of inspection throughout the county.

Now that Fourth of July festivities are done with people will settle down to labor and thought which will make themselves felt as prime factors in enlivening trade and business pursuits.

The initial social gathering in the new hall at this place was a decided success, and if each to follow are like the first the hall will be the scene of many most pleasant social events.

Ross the pharmacist, is strictly in it with his stock of pure and fresh drugs. He also carries a stock of good cigars. His specialty is compounding prescriptions which he does at all hours of the day and night.

It is thought that the threatening inclemency of the weather kept many persons at home on the Fourth who otherwise would have been out in all their glory to give vent to the feeling of patriotism which burned within them.

That was a jolly crowd from Kelso and Castle Rock that attended the celebration here. Many of them as they were taking their leave for home could be heard to remark, "O, what a difference in the morning."

The reports relative the number of persons accompanying the Young Men's Institute excursion which came to this place Tuesday, are conflicting, but we feel safe in saying that there were twelve or fifteen hundred persons on board the steamer and barge.

The saloon and fixtures together with two lots and a building belonging to Chas. Konkle, of Scappoose, were sold by Sheriff Massie Monday under mortgage held by Myerfeldt & Ganz, wholesale liquor dealers of Portland. The property was bought in by the latter firm for $764.12.

Astoria people do not shoot a man when he asks them about the railroad but it is evident by their countenances that their better judgment is strongly remonstrating with them in railroad matters for the present year.

Wm. Wilson, of Reuben was brought here Friday and placed in the hands of a deputy for confinement in the county jail in default of $1,000 bail in which he was held by Justice Woodham on a charge of arson preferred by Geo. Foster. Wilson furnished bailmen and returned home Monday.

At the residence of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Downing, of Warren, last Sunday at 10:30 A. M. Miss Maggie Downing was married to Mr. John Nelson, Rev. O. Kelly officiating. The congratulations were many, in which they were wished a happy future. The bride wishes the newly married couple a long, happy and prosperous life.

R. P. Graham, a young, yet promising lawyer, now of Portland, but formerly of this county, was seen among those who were in this place on Tuesday last. Mr. Graham, through hard study and strict adherence to business, is building for himself a splendid reputation as a careful and successful business man and we know of no other man now in his business whom we can more cheerfully recommend to the people of this county than Mr. Graham.

A small ration of hay fed with regularly three times a day, and a suitable ration carefully incorporated with it, with water twice a day, and a thorough grooming, will make a spirited, rough-coated horse with distended body, in four cases out of five, a much more alert, a handier and vastly more efficient animal. The grain ration should be of ground or cracked corn, and ground oats or bran, the grain being mixed with the hay, so that the hay and grain will have to be eaten together, as it has been found that in this way the grain is much more fully digested. As to the amount of grain that shall make up a ration, that must depend on circumstances and the ability of the owner to provide the grain, or, perhaps better, his inclination to provide the grain, and also the work which the horse is called upon to do. The thing of chief importance is to get farmers to discard a part of the hay ration, and substitute for this discarded hay at least its value in the more condensed nutrition of corn, oats, or bran; the rest will naturally follow. Corn has too much oil to be fed alone.

Acting Coroner A. D. Holiday, of Scappoose empaneled a jury and held an inquest on the remains—or as much of them as could be collected—of the man killed at Scappoose, last week, and held an inquest, but as no one saw the accident and nothing was found on the body to identify it, the jury agreed upon the following verdict: We believe that the man found dead on the railroad track came to his death by being run over by a train unknown to the jury. No blame is attached to the railroad company as the deceased was evidently a tramp stealing a ride at the time he was killed. In appearance the man was five feet seven inches tall, dark hair, sandy mustache, wore a No. 7 1/2 hat and No. 7 shoe. The body was literally cut to pieces and strung along the track the distance of half a mile.

Influential business men from Astoria, recently in the city, tell us that not for many years has that city experienced such quiet times during the summer season as is the case at the present time. Hopes are entertained that the present month will bring about a great increase in all branches of trade and business. As the salmon industry is the main support of that town every kind of business is greatly decreased when the salmon catch is light.

One of the large barns at H. O. Howard's place, on Milton creek, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 4th instant. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is supposed to have been the work of some passerby, who, not maliciously, but thoughtlessly made too careless use of his lighted cigar. Insurance had been written to about the amount of the loss, hence besides being greatly discommoded the direct loss will be nominal.

The cards are out announcing the entertainment and ball to be given on the 28th of this month by the Odd Fellows. The entertainment in the early part of the evening will consist of a long and carefully prepared programme, being concluded with a drama which will consume nearly an hour in its recitation, followed by a grand ball in the opera house.

If Columbia county will properly exert itself we see no reasonable excuse why a part of the great influx of people to this coast this fall should not partly be located with us. There, undoubtedly, will be many persons from all East with money to invest and if there be a place in Oregon where money can be placed at a good advantage it is in this county.

Just in order that the Goddess of Liberty and all the little goddesses would not be sunstruck during the procession here Tuesday, the weather clerk arranged for a sheet of fog, accomplished by a little rain, to be on hand, which served its purpose in a most fitting manner. A natural consequence, of course.

Another pair of Columbia county's young and promising people have decided to travel the same road in life, and accordingly proceeded to Troutdale, Multnomah county, where Miss Annie J. Beaver was united in marriage to Homer T. Bennett, both of Warren.

It will be seen by the correspondence from Deer Island that there will be a social dance in the new school house in that district Friday this (Friday) evening. The proceeds will be applied to furnishing the building with desks, etc.

If the saying that "Tis when Greek meets Greek then comes the tug-of-war," has any significance, we don't know what would happen when some of our Oregonians meet the weather clerk.

At the sheriff's sale of real estate Monday, 100 acres belonging to G. H. Bynon brought $270. The property is a homestead situated on the Nehalem river six miles south of Vernonia.

If the man who bet a dollar that it would rain on the Fourth would put in his appearance in St. Helens some of the people would be tempted to give him a plunge bath.

The warmer weather is causing the snow to melt more rapidly, but the major portion has already been melted so that there is no longer any danger of a flood.

People from nearly every part of the county celebrated with us on the wet but glorious Fourth. All seemed to enjoy themselves hugely.

The County Court yesterday appointed Dr. J. E. Hall justice of the peace for Clatskanie precinct, in place of C. C. Lee, resigned.

If there is ever a time when one really needs a holiday it is the day immediately following the one after which one has celebrated.

Work on the new wharf is progressing in nice shape. Its completion is the work of only a few more days.

There were a number of excursion boats passed down the river Tuesday. All appeared to be well patronized.

St. Helens entertained a very large crowd Tuesday, larger, even, than was expected.

CLATSKANIE.

Miss Maud Shannahan took occasion to visit this interesting town during her holiday vacation.

The families of E. H. Lane and Charles Boisvert spent their holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Fabrice.

Charles English and wife came in on the steamer Monday and spent the Fourth with their relatives.

Ed Page was in town on the Fourth and made the occasion memorable by getting rid of an aching tooth.

R. S. Hattan is giving his scholars at Fishhawk a vacation this week and is spending the time in our city.

The new time table of the steamer is very satisfactory to our people as it gives an opportunity to go to Portland and return the same day.

John Wallace's hay baler seems to do good work and John has been taking advantage of the improved condition of the roads to get his hay out from Mist to a better market at this place.

Edgerton's new railing in front of his store makes it very much safer than it used to be about that building. A coat of paint is getting his combination building reduced to a uniform color. He has a good mercantile building now in which to display his goods.

John Myers, who recently returned from school at Monmouth, is displaying the right kind of a spirit in his desire to educate himself. He proposes to pay his own way as nearly as he can, so he started out to work at the Hodgkins seining grounds during his vacation, to earn as much as he can. John is on the right track and will not regret the effort he makes to secure an education.

Clatskanie went away from home to celebrate the Fourth this year. There was an unusual demand for conveyances to some place, and in most cases parties went to Mist where there was to be a picnic, and as they learned when they got there, that there were to be picnics at two or three different places. The girls, generally, seemed to want to go to Mist, as it was a long way off and they had never been there, so early on the morning of the Fourth and all through the forenoon, people were going in carts, in buggies, in wagons, on horseback and on foot, headed for Mist. One picnic party out on the "burn," one at Jones' and one among the Swedes, gave visitors a chance to make selection. A pleasant day was enjoyed and the return was made at the pleasure of the parties, anywhere from 7 p. m. to next morning. A strawberry and ice cream festival was held in Merrill's hall in the evening where there was a good attendance, and where all who attended seemed to have a good time. Vocal music varied the exercises at the different tables where the cream, berries and cake speedily disappeared under the efforts of a good company.

DEER ISLAND.

Most of the farmers are making hay.

The potatoes are abroad in the land, and the cattle are ready for harvest.

Mrs. L. Belle Gaddis of Reuben, has secured a three month term of school in this district to commence Monday.

Ed Merrill supervisor has been doing some road work which is going to stay. He has been grading and graveling considerable lately.

Frank Merrill and family, of Clatskanie, is visiting his mother, grand mother and other friends and relations here last week.

Ex-County Clerk George Merrill, of Rainier, is visiting his mother (Mrs. Susan Merrill), last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Merrill was the guest of her step-mother-in-law, Mrs. Susan Merrill, last Sunday. They are both old people and pioneers of 1847.

There will be a party this Friday evening at the school house. In this district for the purpose of raising means to assist defraying the expense of furnishing the building with desks, charts and whatever else is needed to make this one of the best appointed school buildings in this county. The admission fee is quite reasonable considering that the proceeds are to be applied to so good a cause—only one dollar. The ladies of this community have kindly consented to furnish the supper in the school house, which assures us of a most plentiful and well prepared luncheon. Everybody is most cordially invited to come and have a good time with us as that is what we are going to have.

At the special school meeting held here a week ago yesterday considerable public spirit was manifested. Edwin Merrill was in the chair and A. F. McDonald at the table—as he says, the "Preferred place." The report of the subscription building committee was read, which showed all the money on hand was exhausted, and a few dollars are still to come in. The outside of the building, including the floor is finished and painted and all paid for, which shows the building committee, Messrs. E. M. Wharton, C. H. English and A. A. Merrill, are men of more than ordinary ability as builders. A motion was then made to accept the building as public property for this school district (No. 3) which was carried unanimously. James Gaitens, in behalf of the people in this school district, tendered a vote of thanks to the building committee, in a befitting manner, in consideration of their utilizing energy and public spirit in completing the building in such a creditable manner, to the benefit of the subscribers and the community at large. When the building was accepted it was left with the board of directors to furnish it with desks and other necessary articles. Geo. W. Frasier, of the firm of C. F. Wheeler & Co., of Portland, was on hand and sold the district twelve improved desks and one teachers desk. Mr. English tendered the district a teacher's essay chair, thus fitting our school in good shape, and it looks as if this district is taking a long leap out of poverty and a delapidated school building. The board of directors are men of good business ability and personal means. When ever a district gets such men on their school board there is little trouble to get them to attend to business.

THE CELEBRATION.

The Day, as it was Observed at the County Seat.

It takes a good deal of Oregon "mist" to effectually dampen the patriotic ardor of the average Oregonian, but the shower-bath, Tuesday forenoon, was more than large and very wet installments upon the devoted heads of those who attempted to celebrate the glorious Fourth at this place. Tuesday forenoon, was more than could be received with perfect complacency by the assembled thousands who came to St. Helens for that purpose, and no doubt profanity was consequently indulged in. Every preparation had been made by the different committees to entertain a large number of visitors and with a reasonable contribution of good weather every feature of the day would have proved a gratifying success, simultaneously with the advent of day, rain and visitors began to arrive and by 11 o'clock large consignments of each had been received. Just before noon, however clouds and rain gave place to sunshine and the full enjoyment of the day.

THE PARADE.

The parade was the principal feature of the forenoon and although it was neither lengthy or elaborate, it was all that had been expected and was, therefore, a success. At the scheduled hour the Liberty Corps, bearing its flag of beauty, escorted by the Kelso band and Grand Marshal, started for the park, where a large number of visitors were waiting to meet it.

EXERCISES AT THE PARK.

The usual programme of exercises at the grove had been prepared and was promptly carried out with the exception of the oration by Dr. Drake. The Colonel failed to materialize but sent a written address which was read in part by G. H. Newell. Periodical rain made the exercises nearly impossible at the grove and precluded the exhibition of patriotic abandon customary on that day. Nothing was wanting in the way of appointing refreshments which large quantities were put where they did least good. The inspiring music so generously discoursed by the visiting bands was thoroughly enjoyed and contributed no little toward keeping the crowd in good spirits.

SPORTS.

At an early hour after lunch the committee on sports began the exercises on its programme which were promptly carried out. The Young Men's Institute had prepared a lengthy and interesting programme of sports with which all were entertained.

IN THE EVENING.

Although our visitors were perhaps, not as agreeably entertained as they had hoped to be during the celebration, they were treated to the pleasure of a ball in the evening which, for unbroken enjoyment, was rarely seen in the city. At an early hour large crowds began gathering at the Building Association grounds, where the music, and shortly before 8 o'clock Mosher's orchestra began the opening number of the grand ball ever enjoyed at this place. The building had been brilliantly decorated for the occasion and its spacious floor was soon a scene of brilliant animation never equalled in this country. One hundred and fifty couples were present and many took advantage of the free admission to the building and danced without tickets. It was probably correctly estimated that not of them were dancing at one time. The managers of the hall have made an enviable reputation for themselves by the gratifying success of this ball, and are justly entitled to great credit.

THE MUSIC.

The executive committee made a happy choice in engaging the Kelso Silver Cornet Band, and success of the occasion is largely due to the successful efforts of this excellent organization. This band has an inexhaustible supply of excellent music with which they were prodigally generous. They added greatly to the enjoyment of the day and their efforts were fully appreciated. Mosher's orchestra, of Castle Rock, discoursed excellent music in the evening which drew the attention of the entire assembly.

TROUPEURS OR VISITORS.

It has been generally estimated that no less than three thousand visitors were present at the celebration Tuesday. The Young Men's Institute, of Portland, brought 1,725 excursionists and it was estimated that fully as many more visitors were present from other places.

GILLTON.

Mr. Harsh is moving his stock back to the farm.

Mr. Anderson and family, of Mt. Tabor, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Olson of this place.

Mrs. Kellogg of Portland, is visiting her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. William Beaver.

Mrs. E. H. Flagg and family, of Salem, are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mrs. Wilson, of Portland, a cousin of Mr. J. P. Fox, our general postmaster, is visiting relatives here this week.

The many friends of Dr. Blanchard will be pleased to learn that he is much improved in health the past few days.

Mat Hazen and Lewis Ludwick are engaged in the logging business this summer and are getting out a lot of fine logs.

Mr. Dick Owens, who has charge of the electric dynamo at the hot Portland, spent Sunday at this place, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mat Hazen.

Everybody in this neighborhood attended the celebration at St. Helens Tuesday, and all pronounce it a great success. Quite a number stayed for the dance.

Mrs. Anna Richardson, who has been visiting in Salem the past two months, returned to this place last Sunday and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beggie.

Mr. E. Hawkins returned from Lafayette Monday last week bringing a wife with him much to the surprise of the people here, as he had kept his love affair all to himself.

A very pretty wedding took place here last Sunday when Miss Maggie Downing and Mr. J. Nelson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. O'Kelly of the Evangelical church, officiating. Mrs. Nelson is the daughter of our esteemed townsman, Mr. J. Downing, and is one of the substantial young men of this place, and took the wise precaution to get the cage ready and secure the bird afterward.

COUNT NOTES.

In response to the advertisement for bids for the construction of the Vernonia bridge the following were received:

Pittsburg Mill Co., $2,600; Hoffman & Bates, $2,450; Pacific Bridge Co., $2,275; Oregon Bridge Co., $2,850; T. Miller, $2,400.

The Pacific Bridge Co., being the lowest responsible bidder, were awarded the contract, upon which they will begin operations at once. A deposit was required, and received with each of the bids excepting that of J. Miller, whose bid was not considered in the absence of his certified check. The Pacific Bridge Co. has never done any work for this county, but is well recommended and will undoubtedly give entire satisfaction.

A case at law between F. A. Lamont and J. A. Lamar came up for hearing by Judge Blanchard Wednesday. It was brought by Lamont to recover rent and miscellaneous accounts. Counter accounts were submitted in rebuttal, and after a strong contest between the opposing counsel the case was given to the jury at 9 o'clock, and that august body seemed to be equally divided in their opinions as to the merits of the case, and finally decided to give Lamar a verdict for $13.75.
