St. Helens, July 28, 1893.

PARAMOUNT to every other consideration with the single exception of silver is the hope that the coming democratic congress will define the policy of the government and give the people some kind of an idea as to what they are to expect from the present administration.

ACCORDING to an eastern authority the world's fair is going to be an important factor in making money plenty and relieving this imaginary idea of closeness. Money has been saved up in hundreds of small places for months, and the stream is running into Chicago.

As eastern manufacturer was compelled recently to close his factory in consequence of the prospective changes in tariff laws, and the unsettled condition of values.

The emperor of Siam is literally between the devil and the deep sea. If France does not clobber him up England will, and in either event he must witness the fall of his empire.

An extraordinary session of congress convene August 7th, and its first duty will be to repeal the Sherman law and place it with one requiring the free coinage of American productions.

appressed there will be more money and better money in the country and our productions will have better values and fewer fluctuations in prices.

FRANCE is strutting around Siam with a chip on her shoulder but if the British lion knocks it off he is very liable to get himself paddled by the Russian bear.

VOLUME I No. 1, of the Oregon City Herald came to our table this week. Typographically, the Herald presents a neat appearance and its columns are filled with much live and interesting reading matter.

Farmers report the hay crop to be an excellent quality this season.

Hon. N. Merrill, of Clatskanie, called on his mother last Friday.

W. B. Bush left the misfortune to lose a fine dairy cow last week by getting run over by the railroad train.

A. A. Merrill has the lumber and material on the grounds for an addition to his house.

Alonso Merrill and Alex F. McDonald shipped a fine cow last Monday to Norman Merrill of Clatskanie.

Quite a number of large strawberries have been picked this season in this vicinity but Mr. Robert Thorp picked the largest.

Tide Creek Drain & Boom Co. have let a contract to Mr. M. Burham of Etna Wash, for replacing their dam.

R. C. Enyart lost a good work ox last Saturday evening by the express train. The ox was standing on a high grade facing the train.

C. H. Spencer lost all of his "twenty-five years gathering" by fire which consumed his house, barn, shop, and out-houses.

The farmers of this community are harvesting a fine large crop of cordwood.

Hay making is in full blast at present.

Phillip Neer's fine residence is rapidly nearing completion.

The latest novelty in the way of amusement is for a young man to capture a wild deer and ride to the World's Fair.

Mr. John Beaver of Savies Island gave a dance at his house on Saturday of last week.

We were all glad to see our old friend E. S. Faxon on Sunday evening.

We hear that Miss Cora Letman has returned from Parkplace, Clatskanie county.

Frank Brown came up from Ranier last week, and Tuesday of this week took his family down, to spend a few days.

H. O. Howard's new barn begins to look like the one we used to see in "Old New England." Work on it is being pushed rapidly.

The Rev. Faxon and wife, of Columbia city, were here last Sunday. Rev. Faxon preached morning and evening. He promises to come again as soon as possible.

Make the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Corlies, fell from a cherry tree, last Friday, and striking on her back was hurt quite badly, although not dangerously.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION, I issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Columbia, in favor of W. B. Moyer and John Maynard for the sum of $750 with interest thereon since the 18th day of March, 1893.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION, I issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Columbia, in favor of W. H. Couvres and against John Maynard, for the sum of $180 Dollars judgment with interest thereon since the 18th day of March, 1893.

CLATSKANIE.

Harvesting is going on and all our merchants are kept busy-whittling.

Bert Tichenor has returned from Astoria where he has been visiting his sister Mrs. L. Cox.

Mabel Blackford is spending this week with friends in Yamhill county and elsewhere.

Miss Mary Conyers left Friday evening for Oregon City, taking her young sister Laura along for a visit there.

C. Lindall was in town on Sabbath, with a sister and cousin from Portland, showing them the city and surroundings.

Dr. Hall is now a full fledged Justice of the Peace. Young people contemplating matrimony will please take notice.

Anton Gunnou living near Marshland lost a boy three years of age last Friday from pneumonia, complicating whooping cough.

A pleasant gathering assembled at W. H. Cox's residence last Thursday evening in the nature of a surprise party to greet Miss Mary during her visit here.

The matter of purchase of an organ for the school building has been quietly resting for some time. There is a sufficient fund for the purchase of an organ and it is thought to be sent or in time to have it here before the school opens in September.

Dr. Wm. Griswold left Saturday evening for St. Helens. He did very satisfactory dental work here and will return occasionally to his services here as needed.

That fine young man, who is with a very agreeable young gentleman and a social addition to any community where he may be located.

Hugh Cameron lost an account of himself for an hour or two on Monday evening by being taken from a horse and falling on his back of his head, some time passed that he has no account of and does not remember what hurt him, after a night's rest with some medical aid he felt much improved the next morning.

Another calamity weighing about two hundred pounds or more is visiting the city this week in the shape of an electric bell man who proposes to give all the waists of the city that can be navigated a waste of dollars on the enterprise.

They say there is a doubt as to whether 7:30 P. M. is a proper time to start out to gather blackberries. We would not, however, attempt to set our judgment against that of the two ladies who started out for that purpose Wednesday evening.

In the account of the conflagration last week, the writer thinks that Miss got the initials of the owner of the motive power from W. E. to E. W. It was not E. W. Couvres house that burned, but W. E. Couvres that was the loss. One is the father, the other the son, and the latter is the one who is generally known to distinguish him from his Uncle Bill, is the sufferer. He takes his loss very philosophically however and as a student of the matter is interested in just what will probably begin another building.

The Mellin's Food Company ought to send to Clatskanie to get a picture of Gomme's two boys, out in their carriage these pleasant afternoons, each one armed with a bottle of baby food.

Johnston met with a mishap last Saturday afternoon, while coming down his hill from the summit his lock broke and the horses were unable to hold the load. He held to the lines until they broke then slid off the wagon to a wall.

Mentioning fire suggests that an effort is being made to purchase a hand pump and hose for better fire protection. The pump to be placed over a stream where a supply of water is always available, and hose enough is desired to reach all the principal buildings in town.
