BRIEF MENTION.

The cherry season is about over. This is the month when every dog has his day.

A. B. Little done business in Portland Monday.

Commissioner G. W. Barnes was in town this week.

E. W. Potter, of Kalama, was in town last Sunday visiting friends.

Dust, in profusion, prevails. Either mud or dust; people never satisfied.

There will be a Baptist church organized at Mainville on the 12th of this month.

S. C. Davis returned Monday morning from a business trip to down-river points.

The steamer Potter and Lurline are not sleeping. They come quite promptly at 12 M.

The reports of the county clerk and treasurer appear in this issue in another column.

Mr. Jones, of the City Water Works Company, was in town this week attending to water affairs.

The Potter continues to bring a large number of passengers to our town each evening from Portland.

A visit to the farm of H. Corlies, at Mainville, reveals the fact that there is no scarcity of hay in that locality.

Chas. O'Connor, of Glencoe, Washington county, was in town the latter part of last week, the guest of Jas. Cox.

Assessor W. H. Kyser gives notice in another column of the meeting of the board of equalization, on the 28th of this month.

Mongolian and domestic pheasants may be lawfully killed now, the time for their shooting going into effect on Tuesday last.

There is some talk of locating a powder house at Reuben. Reuben is quite a favorable point for the location of such a concern.

Jack Balmanno, who had been visiting his grand parents here for two weeks, returned to his home in Portland, last Saturday.

We can hardly recommend to those who enjoy driving, the new plank road to Mainville from Houlton. No dust or little, if any, sunshine. It is, indeed, a pleasant driveway.

B. W. Plummer, the Reuben merchant, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Plummer reports business quite lively at his little town, but reports the usual stringency in monetary affairs.

A one hundred dollar forfeit has been put in the hands of responsible persons at Reuben to prove the good faith of the promoters of the new fish freezing establishment talked of at that place.

The Mist man noticed one good thing while driving through the country last week and that was numerous guide boards at many of the cross roads. Places and distances are correctly given.

Robt. McNutt and wife, of Vernonia, were attending the entertainment and dance at this place last Friday evening. They expressed themselves as hugely enjoying the entertainment and say they will come again, as St. Helens people know how to enjoy themselves and spare no means to see that visitors have a good time.

The Mist office is in receipt of a lib of gooseberries from the farm of H. A. Corlies, for size surpass anything we have yet seen. They are called "Our New Gooseberry," and come to our office highly recommended. These berries were not placed on the market until last year, but we bespeak for them great favoritism when once introduced.

The law concerning fires in Oregon forests reads as follows: Sec. 4. Any person or persons who shall willfully set fire to any wooded country, or forest belonging to the state or the United States, or to any person or persons, and upon conviction before a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to any person who in good faith sets a back fire to prevent the extension of a fire already burning.

The continued dry weather has made the conditions unusually favorable for timber fires. Several small fires have been burning for the past few days, with in a few miles of town, and campers, hunters and fishermen should be extremely careful about leaving any fire where there is the least possibility for its spreading. We publish the law on setting fire on another page, but fear of the law should not be the motive for using caution in this matter. The present and future prospects of this section of the country are directly dependant upon the forests, and the loss consequent from a destructive forest fire would press heavily on the whole community.

Last Sunday morning the junior editor, in company with one of St. Helens' young gentlemen, started out of town by private conveyance to visit some of the many fine farms in this vicinity. Our first stopping place was the farm of E. E. Quick, where we found a splendid looking potato crop, a fine young orchard, with flattering prospects for a splendid fruit yield, a large barn well filled with good quality timothy hay, such as Columbia county soil can produce, and everything about the farm bespoke general health and prosperity. Mr. Sausler is managing the farm for Mr. Quick and the appearance of the place speaks for itself in Mr. Sausler's behalf.

We are informed that Will Hoyt, an old time resident of Scappoose, who sailed from Astoria in the sealing schooner Bessie Butler, two years ago has been heard of at least, the vessel has been heard from, it having been spoken in the China sea in April, 1892, by a vessel which has since arrived in Astoria. Mr. Hoyt's continued absence has been the source of much to his relations here who had quite despaired of ever hearing from him again. It is now almost certain that since Mr. Hoyt left here he has been in the Antarctic ocean, where there are said to be many thousand of fur seals.

The Mist wishes to correct a statement made in a recent number of the Oregonian, that the fruit crop in Columbia county is a complete failure. Such is not the case. The cherry crop in this county was short, but further than this, Columbia county has no complaint as regards the fruit crop. There are localities where the fruit is not quite up to the average, but taking the county over, reliable old Columbia will get to the front this fall with just about as much fruit, and better quality than the average county.

The choir of the Catholic church of Portland, east and west side, chartered the steamer Young America Wednesday, and came on an excursion to Sauvie Island and St. Helens. The party stopped at Taylor's place opposite St. Helens, a few hours, when the members of the party came down to the latter place and took possession of the opera house and spent a couple of hours dancing and singing. The party included about thirty ladies and six gentlemen.

An alarm (false) of fire was turned in by some miscreant at about 9:30 Tuesday evening, to which responded the entire department, in fact the whole population of our city was on hand. The apparatus was taken out but no sign of fire could be found, and everybody repaired to their homes better pleased than though there had been a fire, yet there was a disgusted look lurking on the countenances of everyone that they should have been fooled so badly.

Last Sunday evening about 7:30, smoke and flames were seen issuing from the northern portion of the city, and quite a little excitement ensued until some of our citizens went to the scene, which was the picnic ground, where they found that fire had been set in the brush along the north bank of Nigger creek. There were no bad results from the fire.

Our park is becoming quite a noted resort for picnickers. Last Sunday the steamer Young America brought down from Portland nearly one hundred persons who were out to enjoy the day in the country. They put in the time, as best they could, in the Park and late in the afternoon started home very much pleased with their outing.

George Anderson returned Wednesday afternoon from an extended tour of the Eastern and Middle states, visiting a number of large cities, including Chicago, where he viewed the exhibits from all nations, at the big show in that city, returning by way of San Francisco. He reports a pleasant, though somewhat expensive trip.

There is some complaint about the morning steamers arriving here so early on their way to Portland. Their former schedule made them due at 8 A. M., but of late they arrive here at 7 o'clock, which is not generally known and which causes some trouble and waiting.

Bairner people did without their mail last Monday. Their mail stopped at this place on its way down, perhaps for a rest, but Tuesday morning Postmaster Dolman started it down the river with instructions to not stop on the way.

It looks very natural once more to see the beacon light on the jetty opposite this place. Ed Hayburn put in two days this week in placing it on new steamboat-men can glide safely along the east shore of the Columbia.

Rev. S. E. Faxon will preach at Mainville next Sunday morning and evening. Morning theme, "Why Baptists think it necessary to hold a separate organization, or why Baptists are not protestants."

Science says that one cannot be stung by a bee if the person holds his breath. It would be more conducive to a man's moral welfare, perhaps, if he could hold his breath after getting stung.

James Wharton, of Columbia City came over from Vernonia Tuesday, where he had been looking after his hay crop. He made the trip in a few hours, arriving here before 12 M.

Miss Stella Goodin, of Glencoe, Washington county, and Miss Stella Masters, of Goldendale, Wash., were in this place the latter part of last week visiting friends.

Weather hot. Times dull, but Mr. Dolman keeps stocked up full in all lines of general merchandise. Buys 'em cheap sells 'em low, catch the bargains while they go.

It is reported that if the salmon run is good through this month the cannery-men will operate their packing establishments until the run is lighter.

Times are so blasted hard that salmon are a little precarious of going up the river. They are afraid the river will run out and they can't get back.

The statement of the condition of the Columbia Bank appears in another column. The same is for the first three months ending August 1st.

It was quite a thunder storm that visited us last Sunday. It beats thunder the amount of noise some elements can make when they are so disposed.

How about those false alarms of fire? Can't there be an ordinance passed making such an offense punishable by fine or imprisonment?

The first wood from the new wharf at this place was taken Saturday evening by the steamer Fannie.

Judge Grant and wife, of Woodland, Cal., are visiting at the home of Chas. Caples, of Columbia City.

Mr. H. E. Cliff and lady friends from Portland, are rustivating at Dr. Cliff's place, near Bunker hill.

"AFTER THE BALL."

The I. O. O. F. Anniversary a Pleasant Success. "The Odd Fellows were in it out of sight." Such, in common and very expressive parlance, is the unanimous verdict of those who attended the entertainment and ball given by the Odd Fellows Friday night in commemoration of their first anniversary as an organization in this place. In true generosity and consideration for the entertainment of their many friends, so characteristic of that splendid organization, the Odd Fellows of St. Helens have for several weeks been preparing a programme with which to entertain the citizens of this place, and that their efforts were crowned with success is attested by the large number who assembled to accept their hospitality and to have many expressions of pleasure at having been so. The ball, which was the principal feature of the evening was preceded by a very amusing farce comedy entitled "Joining the Tinpanies," which was presented by members of the order here. Of this part of the programme it is only necessary to say that the gentlemen who participated did themselves ample justice and succeeded in entertaining their hearers. The opening exercises were followed by one of the most enjoyable balls ever given in St. Helens, and although the weather was uncomfortably warm for dancing, the delighted devotees of Terpsichore were unwilling to disperse until "after the stars were gone." All who attended declare the Odd Fellows fairly outdid themselves on this occasion and their first anniversary will long be remembered with pleasure. Among those present from other places were R. U. McNutt and wife and Gus. H. Bynon, of Vernonia; N. A. Perry and wife, of Houlton; G. H. Essler, of Portland; Miss Stella Goodin, of Glencoe; Miss Estelle Masters, of Goldendale; Messrs. Robt. McKay and Lee Oldendorf, of Scappoose, and Charles O'Connor, of Glencoe.

Recent Bank Failures. The unprecedented runs on banks all over the country has caused them to tumble right and left, and although they are, with few exceptions, solvent, they have not been able to call in loans and realize on securities fast enough to meet the demands of depositors, and in consequence a large number have been forced to close their doors temporarily in order to prevent sacrificing their entire assets. Below is an incomplete record of failures and suspensions of houses in Oregon the past few days:

Portland—Northwest Loan & Trust Company, Oregon National Bank, Commercial National Bank, Astoria National Bank, Portland Savings Bank, and First National Bank of East Portland.

Forest Grove—C. M. Keep & Co., Bank of Forest Grove.

Astoria—I. W. Case Banking Company.

With one or two exceptions all these have far more assets than liabilities and will reopen their doors during the present month. Now that the people have succeeded in making an exhibition of themselves and causing a lot of unnecessary trouble, they will probably be content to accept the hard times in a more philosophic manner and permit business to assume normal proportions.

Teachers' Institute. Agreeable to notice the Teachers' Institute for this county was called to order by Prof. T. J. Cleaton in the new opera hall, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The attendance though not large was enthusiastic and the meeting opened auspiciously for an interesting and instructive session. A systematic line of work had been mapped out for this session by Prof. Ackerman who was to have conducted the institute, but because of the professors' inability to be present, the teachers will be permitted to take miscellaneous subjects of their own choosing and this rule will obtain throughout the session. At the opening of the institute the following teachers and their friends were present: Prof. T. J. Cleaton, Mrs. Way, Mrs. Kessy, Mrs. King, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Gaddis, Mrs. Perry, Misses Olivia Jacobs, Mildred Boyle, Luella Ray, Aitla Matthews, Harmer, Messrs. W. A. Wood, W. L. Kyser, Case, Demsey and Marchion.

Of Interest to Mothers. The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Jonstown, Pa., after the first fever, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhea very badly. I got some Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of our children. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

Develop the Farms. Evrona Mist: Just west of St. Helens to Bunker hill spring, there is a stretch of miles and miles of fertile land that is a wilderness. If it were in cultivation the value of town lots in St. Helens would double and triple in no time. Very soon all the way to the fertile Nehalem valley would be opened up and your county seat town, so beautifully located on the breezy bank of the Columbia, would take a big stride forward. This town needs a back country to make it grow. This land from Mainville west is owned by rich speculators in Portland and elsewhere, who will neither improve or sell reasonably to small farmers. There are two measures that might remedy this evil and give St. Helens a boost. One is to tax that rich land at $20 per acre. The other is for some live, young St. Helens man to procure contracts with these land owners, and organize colonies in Portland and elsewhere, to settle this rich region. There's money in it for this young man, on commissions. The same is for the lot for owners of town lots in St. Helens, on increased values. NEHALMITE.

Curaka. Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, some giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief, and in a few days the medicine was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

Loring Adams, of Hillsboro, is the guest of W. H. Dolman.

DEER ISLAND.

The weather has been very hot here the past few days.

All trains stop here now when flagged.

The blackberry season is in full blast, but the crop is very short.

Mr. Burchman moved his camp out to the dam of Tide creek last Monday.

The N. P. R. R. company notified section foreman E. Demerest last week to discharge all hands, and to parade the section on foot. This looks like the world was coming to an end indeed.

Last week one of Ed Barns' work cattle, a valuable bull, was knocked out of time in short notice by the train. He was struck with such force that it sent him one hundred and twenty feet along the track.

It has been so warm here the past few days that Mainville is rather dull.

Mr. Chas. Brown left for Rabier Monday, where he will be engaged this summer and fall driving team for F. Brown.

Mr. Plinckney gave a magic lantern exhibition here last Saturday night. There was quite a large crowd present.

You should each and all remember the organization of the Baptist church at this place Saturday, August 12th, at 2 P. M. All interested are most cordially invited to be present.

School Report. The following is the report for school district No. 16, for the month ending July 21, 1893: Number of days taught, 19, number enrolled, 30, average daily attendance, 23, number of visitors, 2. Those neither absent or tardy during the month were: Sibyl Furrow, Eugene Furrow, Ollie Rice, Frank Rice, Alpha Harner, Joseph Doan, Raymond Doan and Lee Clark.

M. E. HARMER, Teacher.

PEKIS. The weather is warm and has been so for the past week.

School in this district will close next Wednesday.

Some folks say it never thunders in this country, but they think the way it thundered here Sunday is sufficient to convince the most skeptical that it is not the case.

Mr. Perimius came home Thursday to cut his hair.

Vegetables are growing fast since the warm nights are here. A good shower of rain would be very timely.

Real Estate Transfers. Seven deeds, aggregating $2,175, have been received for record in the clerk's office for this county during the past week, as follows:
