SIDEHEAD PARAGRAPHS.

WILL NOT APPEAR.—The bills allowed by the last court will appear in our next issue. Lack of space prevents us from publishing them this week.

YET IT GOES.—It will be borne in mind that the skating rink is still in full blast, and to those who enjoy such sport there is no place equal to it. By all means you should attend the skating on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday evenings.

SPECIAL RECEIPT BOOKS.—At this office we are engaged at present in printing a large number of receipt books, general and special. If you use a special recipt, order now, so that we will be able to print and furnish them at the same rate as the general receipt book.

GROWING LONGER. One who is the least observing can discern a decided difference in the length of the days. By the time another month has passed it will be found not necessary to use artificial light in order for one to complete a day's labor. It is a relief to know that we are soon to have more daylight.

VERY HIGH.—The Columbia river has raised very rapidly for the last few days and is at present higher than it has been since the high water of last summer. Advices from the upper Willamette country are in effect that the Willamette is very high, but no damage is reported. All the small streams in this vicinity have been bank full and the larger ones are high in consequence.

WHETHER OR NO.—The recent sudden changes in meterological conditions had a peculiar effect upon migratory fowls. During the time such conditions prevailed, both ducks and geese were to be seen in great numbers, traveling both north and south—seemed bamfoozled, as it were. 'Tis a fact that the temperature was as that of approaching spring, and the birds, probably, like some of our statesmen, knew not "where they were at."

IT TOOK THE LEAD THERE.—"During the epidemic of la grippe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy took the lead here and was much better liked than other cough medicines." H. M. BANG, druggist, Chatsworth, Ill. The grippe is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. This Remedy is prompt and effectual and will prevent any tendency of the disease toward pneumonia. For sale by Edwin Ross.

WARM AND MILD.—The fall of snow which visited us some time since, was of short duration, insomuch that the temperature moderated shortly after and a south wind prevailed, accompanied by warm rains. The warm current extended for several miles either distance from us as the mountains on our east were disrobed of the white covering they had borne for some time. From the general forecasts our people are to be favored with about the style of weather which suits best—lots of rain.

CAN BE PERMANENTLY CURED.—The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grippe can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, Ohio, says: "La grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected immediate relief. I have also found it to be without an equal for children when troubled with colds or croup. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

WE WERE ALONE.—The senior editor has been absent all week and the duty of doing the role of editor, compositor, foreman, and pressman, fell to our part. An exceedingly large lot of court proceedings appear in this issue, hence our local and editorial columns are sparsely filled with spicy, live local matter. Readers of THE MIST, especially those to whom road district and voting precinct locations are of interest, we direct your attention to their boundaries which appear in full, explicit and correct, in other columns of this paper.

CHRONIC KICKERS.—The request to "Keep it out of the paper" is the cry which the newspaper publisher daily hears. To oblige often costs considerable, though the party who makes the request does not realize it. A newspaper is a peculiar piece of property in the public's eye. The newsgatherer is stormed at because he gets hold of one item, and is abused because he does not get another. Young men and often young women, as well as older persons, perform acts which become legitimate items for publication, and then rush to the newspaper office to beg the editor not to notice their escapades. The next day they condemn the same paper for not having published another party doing the same thing they were guilty of, forgetting, apparently, their late visit to the printing office. The subscribers expect to read the news, and there is always wonder when any of these items fail to appear in the next issue.

DISCREPANCY INCREASING.—One of Sheriff Watts' first official acts after taking possession of his office was to look over the delinquent tax roll and notify a large number whose name appear thereon that their taxes were delinquent and would be advertised if not paid. In response to these notices the sheriff has recived letters and affidavits from about fifty persons stating that they had paid their taxes to ex Sheriff Massie and could produce his receipts for the same. Many of the letters enclosed the receipts which is indisputable evidence that Massie actually received the money but failed to either credit it on the tax roll or account for the money. These receipts are coming in at the rate of something over $100 a week, and now aggregate nearly $800. The accountants who are segregating Massie's account are adding these amounts to the discrepancy reported by Expert White, so that Massie's total shortage is now nearly $4900, and is rapidly increasing.

The recent storm has made its effects noticable near Mist, this county, as the mail carrier over in that country had to take to the foothills with the mail, on his trip last Saturday, in consequence of the high water, arriving at Clatskanie three hours late.

Mr. and Mrs. R Cummings entertained a large number of their friends and neighbors at their home at Deer Island last Saturday evening. Dancing, music, conversation, and luncheon were the entertaining features of the party, and all present report a pleasant time.

Fluhrie Bros', shingle mill, at Mayger, is idle, the result of their inability to procure shingle bolts plentifully enough to keep the mill in constant operation. It seems a sad plight that in this land of overabundance of cedar timber, that there cannot be material enough kept on hand to keep a mill in operation.

W. H. Dolman is once more in his place of business, after a protracted siege of la grippe. Mr. Dolman has been a long and patient sufferer from its effects, and is able to attend to business with only a part of the vigor which he heretofore exerted. The disease left him quite deaf, besides there being other evidences of its terrible effects.

Last Saturday our people looked in vain for the Telephone to arrive with the mail, but ha lo Telephone; she had met with some misfortune on her trip up the night before, and did not put in an appearance here until Monday morning. Meantime we satisfied our hungry news appetites with back numbers of the daily papers, and on Sunday we were supplied with two days' papers—Saturday and Sunday's.

It may not be generally known, but another of those social dancing events is to take place in the opera house at this place on February 14th. This time it will be a grand masquerade, and preparatory work is already progressing. The management expects to make this occasion one to be long remembered, and as St. Helens people have established for themselves an enviable reputation for giving pleasant dances, there is no reason to doubt but that they will use every means to retain this name.

Clatskanie's new churchhouse is nearing completion, and when it is ready for use it will be a credit to the place. St. Helens people might devote some of their energies to the erection of a comfortable church building, and it might not be out of place to suggest that the site be chosen in a place where the elevation is not of so great proportions, as the present building is on a prominence so high that after one has scrambled to its summit they imagine they ought to be in heaven if they are not, and have ascended into the extreme realms of felicity, hence the appeals of the pastor are of little effect.
