

OVERLAND.—On her down trip Monday the steamer Sarah Dixon passed through Deer Island slough and found plenty of water all the way.

FRUIT TREES KILLED.—All along the low lands where the flood reached for any number of days the fruit trees, particularly the cherries and peaches, have been greatly damaged.

CHANGE OF TIME.—During the high water the steamer Sarah Dixon will make three regular trips a week from Clatskanie to Portland.

WOOD IN DEMAND.—During the high water the wood dealers in and about St. Helens have been doing a thriving business.

THE RECORD SMASHER.—The water reached the highest point in the civilized history of this country on Thursday evening, June 7.

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE.—Now that the flood is receding, and at present rates in a few more days the river will be once more in its usual channel.

HIGH-WATER MARK.—The following is the correct measure, registered by Wm. H. Dolman: At 8 o'clock a. m., Thursday, June 7, the water stood 40 inches deep on the postoffice floor.

LADIES, do you know that Dr. Stanton's Female, the Famous Female Specific, will cure all those aches and pains peculiar to you, and will cost you only one dollar for one month's treatment?

ARE YOU INSURED? If not, now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months.

CLATSKANIE.

County Assessor W. H. Kyser has been informing himself as to our financial affairs during three or four days past.

M. O. Bryant has resigned from the school board, and notices are now posted to elect his successor on the 23rd inst.

The new church is receiving its finishing touches, and the first Sabbath in July has been fixed upon for the dedicatory services.

Mrs. Van Beber, of Woodland, spent a few days in the city with her sister, Mrs. Frank Merrill, returning to her home the first of the week.

Our mail is now taken to Mayer by boat, and James Van, finding himself unequal to the task, has employed Bert Smith to furnish the motive power.

Mrs. James Quinn met with quite a serious accident on Monday, causing a partial dislocation of her ankle. She will be kept from active duty for some time in consequence.

George Conyers returned home last Monday evening, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mevour, Charles was obliged to return at once, but Mrs. Mevour is visiting her father and mother here.

Mrs. E. C. Blackford was a passenger on the steamer coming in last Monday, returning to her home after an absence of two months in Yamhill county. Her health seems improved by the visit, and her many friends will be pleased to see her looking so much better.

Our hotels have changed their dining rooms to the second floor, believing it healthier owing to their first floor being covered by water to a depth of from two to five feet.

An assault and battery case, from Beaver, was on trial before the justice last week, in which one of our Finn citizens was defendant. The case attracted some attention, quite a large delegation of Finlanders being over as witnesses or spectators.

Clatskanie is suffering considerably by the high water, but getting off with less inconvenience than some less favored places. We are cut off from communication by horses or wagons from the rest of the world, except by the Nebalem route which is unimpaired.

Deputy Sheriff R. S. Payne brought Peter Johnson to the justice last Tuesday to be examined for insanity. He had shut himself in his house on the prairie, and could not be prevailed on to come out, though the water was four feet or more in the house.

Rather a serious joke happened in the family of one of the worthy citizens of our precinct last week. He was fortunate in collecting $80, one-half of which was in a bank check and the balance in two $20 gold pieces.

Water is scarce in St. Helens—that is for drinking purposes. Mrs. M. A. Swager, of Kelso, Wash., has been visiting in St. Helens this week.

The steamer Joseph Kellogg is now running between Kelso and Portland for the Northern Pacific railroad company transferring passengers.

DO YOU KNOW

That for the first time in a number of years, Clatskanie county elected a republican sheriff, and that the county gave the republican candidates a neat majority, with the exception of senator, who is a democrat, and who was elected by a majority of 867?

That Will Mervise received a greater number of votes than any candidate on the county republican ticket; his majority being 1657?

That the next incumbent of the clerk's office will be a man whom the people have the most extreme confidence in; and that the affairs of that very important office will be taken care of with the same degree of accuracy and reliability as has been the case under the management of former incumbents?

That the Astoria Weekly Acorn is publishing the delinquent tax list for Clatskanie county, and that the aggregate delinquent tax in that county amounts to $15,897.15—estimated.

That the following is something like the thoughts which were racing in the mind of the populist candidate for the legislature when he received the first inkling of his defeat: "O, my God, can it be; have my friends gone back on me; and the election that I looked for never came!"

That the result of the election fails to bear out that sixty per cent of the votes cast were for the populists, as was stated by the leaders of that party, before the votes were cast.

Mr. Sarvine came down from Portland last Saturday to spend a week with his family.

D. B. Fowler's youngest child is suffering with an attack of illness.

R. H. Bailey and wife and son, Lester, took in the dance at Mainville last Saturday night, and report an enjoyable time.

It still continues to rain in this section, and we are praying for the sunshine again.

Willie Sarvine spent Sunday with Lester E. Bailey.

The road across Milton creek bottom is very muddy where it has not been planked.

The rainy weather is making the crops look fine in this locality.

W. C. King is doing a flourishing business with his shingle mill.

Sunday was a fine day for buggy riding at Apriary.

Who was the fellow who herded geese here six months ago for a picker's worth of chewing gum. It must have been good old populists times without a doubt.

The Apriary debating society is getting to be quite an interesting affair. Anyone hearing a question discussed by the geese herder of Clatskanie and the Apriary shoemaker, who makes shoes out of hens' hides and glues his argument together with horse-foot glue, would consider himself in the legislature at Washington, D. C.

The dance given at Mr. Lindsey's on the 2nd inst. was a bad affair for the Apriary boys. "They got it where the chicken got the ax."

A woman spending the summer in an isolated farmhouse was much amused by the rather masculine sound of the names of her host's six daughters. This was the explanation offered: "Well, you see, me and my wife wanted to name the children after our brothers. She had three and I two. We neither on us had any sisters. My wife's a pretty smart woman 'bout most everything, but the way she twisted them names had made 'em do for girls did beat all. We never had any boys. There's Willie for my eldest brother Bill, Thomasine for Tom, Charline for Charlie, Joseph for Joe and Roberts for Bob. Well, when the sixth came, my father said we ought to name one after him, since we had twisted the other's names round.

TRAMPS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

Only 7.3 per cent of 1,239 enumerated tramps are now married, while 4.4 per cent more are widowers. Their total of children is 215, or considerably less than 2 to a marriage.

What has been well described as the bond which a man gives to society for his good behavior is therefore almost wholly lacking here, and even when given it is generally forfeited, in so many instances have wife and children drifted out of the tramps' sight.

Thus in only 2 cases were wife and children in the same town with the man questioned. In 29 they were in the same state, in 30 in another state, in 9 in a foreign country. In 8 the wife was dead and the children were unknown. In 16 the wife was dead and the children were in another state or country.

There are two sisters in Detroit about as unlike as two sisters could be. One is a democratic young woman who likes people for themselves, while the other is painfully exclusive and will have nothing to do with man or woman who has not the proper social brand.

"I do believe," said the democratic one on the other day, "that you would rather be 'swell' than be an angel."

"Certainly I would," replied the other, "for any one who is good can be an angel, but it requires a great deal more than that to be swell."

Jack—Will your mother let you go rowing alone?

May—No, but she'll have no objections if you are with me.—Brooklyn Life.

Fifty cents a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure any ordinary case of rheumatism if you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.
