

AT HIS TRADE.—A. F. McDonald, of Deer Island, has rented his dairy to Alonzo Merrill and left last Tuesday for Portland where he will engage in the carpenter trade during the summer.

GETTING ACQUAINTED.—Judson Weed, county clerk-elect, came over from Varona last Friday and has since been putting in his time familiarizing himself with the duties he will have to perform in the clerk's office after July 1st.

OUR WATER SUPPLY.—Messrs. Orchard & Jones have been in town most of the week looking after their water works plant which has been submerged for some time. They expect to be able to resume operations in a day or two. "Water, water everywhere, and not a drop to drink."

LARGE STRAWBERRIES.—Specimens of this fruit were exhibited in this city during the week which were only samples of what can be produced by Columbia county soil. The berries in question were raised in the garden of E. E. Quick, and one of them measured six inches in circumference, and were well matured.

OFF FOR THE GRAND LODGE.—O. H. Newell, past grand counselor of the grand lodge I. O. G. T., left Monday for Eugene to attend the annual meeting of the grand lodge. Mr. Newell has been present at and taken part in the grand lodge for the last nineteen years successively. He expects to be absent most of the week.

POSTING THE NOTICES.—Sheriff T. C. Watts has had a number of deputies busy for several days posting notices on land in all parts of the county which is to be sold for taxes on July 15th. The sheriff, after obtaining the best legal advice in the state, is strictly following instructions and the law in his procedure to collect the delinquent tax.

A RUNAWAY GIRL.—A report was sent to the Oregonian, dated at Goble, last Friday, to the effect that Libby Lemont, a young girl about 17 years of age, living two miles west of Goble, ran away from home that morning about 4 o'clock, with her brother's clothes on. The hat she wore was found floating in the Columbia river the same evening, but no trace of the girl was found, though her family made diligent search.

SEEKING INFORMATION.—The county clerk, received a letter a few days ago from Hugh Smith, of Battle Creek, Iowa, enquiring about his son, Edwin A. Smith, who is supposed to have taken up a homestead in the Nehalem valley, near Pittsburg, a year or two ago. The son is 44 years old; 5 feet 6 inches high, and light complexioned. Anyone having information as to his whereabouts will confer a favor by addressing Hugh Smith, Battle Creek, Iowa.

FOUND A FIGHTER.—The remains of an Indian woman in a rough box, says the Cathlamet Gazette, was found by some parties floating down the Columbia last Friday. Quite a number of beads and Indian relics were also in the box. It is supposed that the box had been buried on some point along the Columbia which was subject to the flood and had been washed out. From the appearance of the body it had been in the ground for many years.

THIRTY YEARS IN OFFICE.—B. W. Wilson, the present clerk of Benton county, retires from office on the 1st of July after thirty years as clerk of that county. He was first elected in 1854, and has served continuously ever since. We know of but two others whose official records compare in length with Wilson. They are Joel Ware, of Lane county, who served as clerk twenty years, and a sheriff of San Jose county Cal., who has served about twenty years. A democrat by the name of Hunter succeeds Wilson.

WILL BRING A HIGH PRICE.—Hay and potatoes, undoubtedly, will be in greater demand this fall than has been the case with such products for many years. Hundreds of tons of tame hay have been destroyed by the flood, and hundreds of acres of land planted to potatoes have succumbed to the inevitable. The potato crop in California is a total failure on account of drought, and the farmer who has a large acreage of potatoes which he can market early is indeed fortunate, for that one product is going to yield handsome returns, for a few months, at least.

MUCH ACTIVITY.—The little town of Goble is probably the liveliest little place along the Columbia. A force of thirty-five operators and linemen are stationed there by the Pacific Postal Telegraph Co., for the purpose of transferring messages from one side of the river to the other, by means of boat, as the cable was carried away by the flood. The lines have to be taken the very closest care of as the falling water causes many changes in the wire supporters, which are on floats. Such a condition of affairs is likely to exist for two or three months.

RICH GOLD FIELDS.—We are reliably informed that a rich quartz ledge has been discovered on Upper Rock creek in Nehalem valley. The find is said to be located in the vicinity of the old military trail, and yields about $5000 of gold to the ton. Some Portland parties have made an investigation of that region and slipped out without the knowledge of their presence being known to the people of that valley. As to the correctness of the report we cannot vouch for, but be that as it may, there is no end to the excitement in certain circles over the report, and some startling developments may be looked for in the near future. In the meantime those in possession of the facts are trying to keep it as quiet as possible.

HIS BAIL FORFEITED.—In the early part of the May term of Circuit Court for Columbia county, J. W. Campbell was convicted of the crime of purposely pointing a pistol at another. The Court suspended sentence until last Friday and in the meantime the defendant was admitted to bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance, pending a motion for a new hearing. The day set to hear the motion arrived and the defendant came not, consequently the court declared his bail forfeited and issued a bench warrant for the defendant and ordered that he be held in $1,000 bail to appear and abide the further judgment of the court in the matter of said conviction, and that he be safely kept in the Multnomah county jail awaiting the further order of the court. A second sentence of twenty-five days in the Multnomah county jail was passed for non-compliance with the order of court at the October, 1893, term.

TIME FOR A HALT.—There is some person in the vicinity of Gilton who is very likely to get himself into a very serious predicament if their fruit-stealing and orchard-wrecking does not come to a sudden and final halt. The parties are known who allowed their destructive disposition to get the better of their slight conception of what was right in this respect, and if their conduct does not cease immediately they will be reported and punished by the law, which is very explicit in that respect. There is no excuse for such wanton destruction to orchards as has been practiced on the farm of R. Cox, and the party will do well to keep shy of the premises.

SCENES OF BUSINESS.—The scene which greeted the eye of the St. Helensite on Monday morning was one of encouragement. After days, even weeks of stagnation in business, brought about by high water, the citizens once more began the week in a busy way. Some were engaged in the work of cleaning up the streets, others clearing away the debris of wrecked buildings and wharves, and getting their property in shape generally, while the merchants and business houses were showing signs of more activity in trade than for weeks previous. Since the water began to recede long drawn-out countenances are not so numerous in these parts.

LARGE SALMON.—Fishermen at the mouth of the Columbia are reaping a harvest this season. The fish are considerable larger than have been known for a number of years, and the run is excellent. Wheelmen and trappers are out and inured since the flood carried away most of their gear, and the result is that the gillnet fishermen are the lucky fellows. A number of fish have recently been caught which weighed eighty pounds each, but although the run is good and the fish are large, the pack will be considerably short of last season's.

THE PICNIC GROUND.—Our at one time pleasant little picnic ground presents a rather deplorable appearance owing to the fact that the recent cyclone played sad havoc with the trees. Limbs are scattered all over the ground, the seats are down and the entire premises present a very sickly appearance. We offer the suggestion for a few of the citizens to see that the grounds are put in shape, since the picnic season is here, as the premises do not present a very creditable appearance to strangers.

HUGGING THE SHORE.—The captain of the Northern Pacific transfer boat, Tacoma, seems bent on completing the wrecking of wharves and buildings along the route from Kelso to Portland. The boat is run close in shore and the waves are very destructive to property. People who have property in danger along the river should interview the individual who operates the wheel on the big boat and impart a little advice to him.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.—The people of Scappoose are making preparations to celebrate the Fourth with appropriate ceremonies and exercises. The day will be taken up with various features of amusement. Mr. W. W. West is preparing a racecourse on the east side of the county road, which will be ready for use on that occasion, and in other matters as well no pains will be spared to make the day enjoyable.

FOURTH OF JULY EXCURSION.—Letters have been received by parties in this place, this week, from the secretary of the Young Men's Institute, in Portland, asking if the picnic grounds at this place could be had for that society on the Fourth. The same society gave an excursion to this place last Fourth, and about 1600 persons accompanied it.

PLENTY OF BLUEBACKS.—Fishermen in this vicinity have been making a very good catch of Bluebacks for the past few days. Wednesday one boat caught about sixty during the day. There is also an occasional Chinook captured. Fishermen generally are of the opinion that following the high water there will be a good run of salmon.

GIVE DUE CREDIT.—We do not seriously object to the Clatskanie Chief appropriating our matter for its own use, particularly the election returns, but we would prefer to see them correctly quoted, besides, Bro. Blackford, don't you think your readers want to know where you got that tabulated report?

SCHOOL CLOSURE.—Mrs. S. S. Way will close a very successful three months' term of school in this place this (Friday) afternoon. The attendance has been an average good one, and the patrons as well as the pupils, are much pleased with the session.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.—The sentence of George Morey, who was convicted of murdering Gus Barry in Portland recently and sentenced to be hanged, was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Pennoyer Tuesday.

MILTON CREEK BRIDGE.—Commissioner Barnes was in town Tuesday and went out to Mainville to inspect the bridge being built by Mr. Crouse across Milton creek. The bridge will be ready for travel in a few days.

MURDERED HIS NEIGHBOR.

Farmers quarrel, and the Result is a Coroner's Inquest. KALAMA, Wash., June 15.—About eight o'clock this morning, during a quarrel over a half an acre of ground, a man shot and instantly killed John Keller. The two men were neighboring farmers, living about four miles north of this place, and had lived in peace for many years. Mrs. Kuch testified that Keller was passing by with some cattle, going to pasture. The two quarreled about Kuch having torn down a fence. This led to blows, and then Keller slapped Kuch. The latter went to his house for his shotgun, and followed Keller. When the latter saw Kuch coming, he stopped and asked him to come closer, Kuch then fired, two shots piercing the body, one passing through the stomach. Keller crawled through a fence and walked a few steps, then fell on his face. He must have died almost instantly.

A DIFFERENT VERSION. Arthur Collins, a neighbor, witnessed the shooting, and his testimony differs a little from that of the Kuch family. He claims that Keller came to his house after the gun shot would receive from a gun in the hands of Joseph Kuch, and told him to shoot Keller. The coroner's verdict was that Keller came to his house after the gun shot would receive from a gun in the hands of Joseph Kuch, and told him to shoot Keller. The coroner's verdict was that Keller came to his house after the gun shot would receive from a gun in the hands of Joseph Kuch, and told him to shoot Keller.

CLATSKANIE.

An addition is being built to the Goume residence. The deputy sheriff has been posting up some tax sale notices this week.

G. F. Lindgren, of Mist, was in town on Monday to take the steamer for Portland. Captain Bureau has selected a slightly lower level for his residence, for an old friend who was washed out along the river.

The water has receded so that the lower floor of the Clatskanie hotel is now dry. The City and Riverview hotels are not so fortunate.

The Fourth of July will probably be celebrated here by a basket picnic, in which surrounding schools and their friends have been invited to participate.

The supervisor is doing some work on the new road to Rainier, and if he makes a passable grade up the hill a large number of our citizens will be accommodated.

It is announced that Mr. Thomas Van Scovry, of the Portland University, will be here the first Sabbath in July to dedicate the new church now nearing completion.

Charles Conyers has moved his household goods out of the English residence and stored them in the back part of the store building, preparatory to moving out on his place for the summer.

Giggy & Co. have their shingle mill set up on the Fred Langlet place in bar, and ready sawed out something like 200,000 shingles which are ready to be delivered at the steamer landing as soon as the road is passable.

Henry Doerr and his cousin started on Wednesday last week for the Willamette valley to take a look at that favored region, and ascertain the prospects for skilled labor in the direction of lumbering. Owing to lack of logging and mill business here this season that trade has not been a very remunerative one in our city.

Miss Abbie Bryant returned Friday last from McMinnville college, where she has been in attendance during the past school year, and from which institute she is now a successful graduate, having passed the ordeal of a final examination. She studies with satisfaction to the college faculty, entitling her to the literary degree and diploma of the college.

MAYGER.

Our assessor had to swear in his vote. How is that for a pop?

Crops are looking good for all the cold weather. I think there will be a larger potato crop than last year.

There was a pleasant dance at the house of C. N. Davidson, on Saturday night last, and all had a good time.

Our friend G. Larsen has his house furnished, and we are looking every day for him to bring home his bride to put in it.

My prediction came out true. The pops are politically dead and Dr. (?) Tryon can either resurrect them or bury them, and make a stake.

One more week of school and our "school-marm" will be of the past, and I do not see how George will content himself, say George, keep her and you will do well.

Prof. H. Henderson got elected again to the high and dignified office of J. P., and he is swelled up like a toad, even worse than "Phattie" W. when he took steam for his brains.

We now have a good road to the Beaver Falls schoolhouse, and if we had a few more supervisors like the present one, O. E. Wonders, we would soon have good roads all through the county.

John Boles has one of the finest orchards I have seen for many a day, and he says that the worryment on his mind is the cause of his being berefted on top of his head, but I think it is caused from sleeping on a short bed.

The Mayer Company have commenced repairing their dock, which was destroyed by the present flood, and when they have it completed, will commence the erection of their new store which I hear will be larger and more substantial than the old one.

DELENA.

Geo. Mayger was in our midst last Sunday. J. B. Meserve returned from Houlton last week.

Miss Gertrude Washburn is visiting relatives and friends at Columbia City.

A. B. Little, of Houlton, spent several days here last week, returning Saturday.

Meserve Bros. started their mill Monday and expect to run it most of the summer.

Mrs. L. J. Morgan has been ill for several days past. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Wm. Holsapple has been in Portland the past week where he was called to the bedside of his father who is not expected to live, as the doctors have pronounced his case hopeless.

A meeting was held at this place last Sunday, at which it was decided to have a rousing celebration on the Fourth of July. Much interest was manifested by all present and we feel no hesitancy in predicting a grand time for all who attend the celebration here. A very entertaining program is being prepared, and in the evening a grand ball will be given in the hall, to which all are invited. Everybody is expected to bring edibles with them, and a late supper will be served by the ladies. Tickets will be sold for just enough to cover the cost of music. The following committees were appointed:

On program and general arrangements, L. J. Meserve, Mrs. L. A. Richardson and F. M. Fowler.

On grounds, G. W. Richardson, O. E. Wonders and Almer Meserve.

Music, Gertrude Washburn, Maud Barnes and W. N. Meserve.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS.

Oregon redeems herself! Pennoyerism and Populism are down.—Hercules Journal. The wide swath that has been cut by the populists and Pennoyer, turned out to be a very narrow one.—Fuyallup Commerce. Their golden image has turned to brass. The populists are as completely cooled as a hot iron by the water of the Pacific. Water at freezing point.—South Bend Herald.

Pennoyer and populism are snowed out in Oregon. This is only the beginning of republican victories which will be coming along until November.—Pomeroy Washingtonian.

The result of the Oregon election is the best bit that could have been made by that state for capital to develop her resources and multiply her industries.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The result is encouraging to all who are opposed to an extreme measure of the republicans, and who fear the effect of populism victory upon the business interests of the country.—Davenport Times.

Amid the gloom of strike, food and tariff republicans have been cheered from Pennoyerism. The overthrow of this blatant demagogue is a good enough victory for one time. Oregon is redeemed.—Ellensburg Localizer.

Oregon, as well as Pennsylvania, know the political parties and people who are the west made up of cranks, knavish but little. Scholars and thinkers are between the plow handles in the great West.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Pennoyer, the Oregon idiot, will not rush into the United States senate just yet. The legislature is handsomely republican along with everything else. This year Oregon will carry her record. Carry the news to Washington.—Wheeling Intelligencer.

Oregon deserves congratulations upon an achievement—it is assured of being relieved of Pennoyer as governor. The expiration of his present term. It is to be hoped that it will not be afflicted with him in any other capacity.—Vancouver Columbian.

Of course the republicans swept Oregon. They will sweep everything they find along the road to the rehabilitation of the country, outside the worm fence staked and around the Southern Confederacy. We want the consolidated Southern States.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

The redeeming feature about the Oregon election is that if the democrats are beaten so are the populists of the Pennoyer brand. No such fusion as that of democracy and populism is really deserving of success, and the sooner democrats everywhere appreciate the fact the better for the party.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Pennoyer's ridiculous posing and theatrical climaxes lost many votes for his party, and the people of Oregon who have not been misled by his demagogues, were not to be talked into a belief that the tariff contention between the old parties is merely a shadow.—Chicago Tribune.

"Silence is golden," exclaimed Governor Sylvester Pennoyer, of Oregon, when a reporter sought an interview with him after the late Wolfcut election. Governor Sylvester Pennoyer might have ridden in the band wagon after election had he appreciated the wisdom of that remark on numerous occasions prior to election.—Columbia Democrat.

The great mass of thinking people of Oregon felt populism principles, as exemplified by Pennoyer, to be a menace to good government, and they have voted to continue the republican party in power. It is to be hoped that the republicans of that state will show a clean record at the end of their term, and justify the confidence placed in them.—Spokane Review.

Oregon has declared to the world that she will have no hand in such a state of affairs. Washington and Idaho will make the same declaration next September. The result is to drawing party lines between anarchy and economic idiosyncrasy on one side, and law and patriotism and common sense on the other.—Spokane Review.

The republican victory in Oregon this week is significant of good things to come. The stronghold of populism has been successfully stormed and beaten. Oregon enters the ranks of the faithful. The policy of the present administration has proved that republicanism alone represents the interests of the masses. The republicans have changed their politics.—Aberdeen Herald.

The result in Oregon is having a demoralizing effect upon the populists of Washington. Many men are with that party because they are afraid of the people, and the proper thing, because they thought that party would win and they wanted to be on the winning side, regardless of principle. These men are weakened by the report from Oregon, are flopping daily.—Fullman Graphic.

The whole Pacific coast is to be congratulated on the result of the Oregon election. It demonstrates that the majority of the people—even in Oregon—are still sane, and that they have at last weaned of Pennoyer and Pennoyerism, sufficient to enter an emphatic protest against the party which has been a lesson to populists and also to many wavering republicans and democrats—the flood trash of the two old parties, ready to be directed by an eddy they may be passing, or to plunge over any cataraict which may promise a change from their steady, onward course.—Fullman Tribune.

CIRCUIT COURT.—There will be an adjourned term of circuit court reconvened on the 9th of July, held for the purpose of finishing up the business continued from the May, 1894, term.

MAINVILLE.

Mainville will celebrate the Fourth. The money which was to have been expended by the Young Peoples Christian Endeavor Society) to get up an oyster supper on the Fourth will be used to purchase lamps and suggest to make free lemonade for that day, limited.

This place has a jail and is to soon have a saloon. All we want then is a dry goods and grocery store.

The dance given by Messrs. Pope and Kelso at Howard's last Saturday night was a success in every way.

Who was that young man on Middle Milton creek buggy riding around with a certain lady not long since? That man better look a few rods out or we will no more keep still next time.

The pops of this place are very quiet since the election. They think they do not take well. We think so neither.

County clerk-elect Weed paid a business trip to Portland Thursday.

The business part of town presents a sorry appearance since the water has fallen.

DEER ISLAND.

The river is continually going down so that the tops of the fence posts on the high ground, are making an appearance.

E. Demerest gave a dance at Columbia City last Saturday evening, which was a pleasant affair.

All kinds of crops look well. Hay and grain look magnificent. The fruit, except cherries, will be equal to the evergreen. Potatoes are already in bloom, and promise a big yield.

Edwin Merrill has one of the best grain-fields in this neighborhood—just on that gravelly ridge.

C. E. Olsen has a field of rye that beats anything we ever saw in the shape of that grain.

H. Reimer is talking of adding a new engine and boiler to his mill plant.

Are You Insured? If not, now is the time to provide yourself with a policy with a reliable Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as an insurance against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. It is almost certain to be needed and should be procured at once. No other remedy can take its place or do its work. Twenty-five and fifty cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

EDWIN ROSS.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 20th day of May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seven years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a twenty-cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a similar attack. Everyone should procure a bottle of this Remedy before leaving home. For sale by Edwin Ross.

A Small Doctor Bites. Fifty cents is a small doctor bill, but that is all it will cost you to cure any ordinary case of rheumatism. If you use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, try it and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. The first application will quiet the pain. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION AND order of sale duly issued out of said court under the seal of the Circuit court of the State of Oregon for Columbia county, to me duly directed, dated the 21st day of May, A. D. 1894, upon adjournment and return rendered and entered in said court on the 19th day of May, A. D. 1894, in favor of George W. Cross and Elyne J. Cross as plaintiffs, and against Isaac N. Shatto and Charles Shatto as defendants, for the sum of one hundred twenty-seven and fifty-eight hundredths ($127.58) dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent, per annum from the 19th day of May, A. D. 1894, and the further sum of fifty dollars as attorney's fees, and the further sum of twenty-three and forty-five hundredths ($23.45) dollars, costs and disbursements, and also the costs of and upon this writ, commanding me to make sale of the following real property of the above named defendants, to-wit:

The northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section nineteen, in township north, range three west of the Willamette meridian, in Columbia county, State of Oregon, together with the improvements, tenements and appurtenances thereto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment, order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will, on Saturday, the 23rd day of June, A. D. 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, at the front door of the county Courthouse, in said county and state, sell, subject to redemption, at public auction to the highest bidder therefor for cash, all the right, title and interest which the above named defendants, Isaac N. Shatto and Charles A. Shatto had on the 14th day of October, A. D. 1891, in and to the mortgage, or has since acquired in and to the above described real property, to-wit: said judgment, decree, execution and order of sale, interests, costs and all accruing costs.

Dated May 22d, A. D. 1894. T. WATTS, Sheriff of Columbia County, Or.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION ISSUED out of the Circuit court of the state of Oregon, for Columbia county, in favor of Robert Day and against William Symons and Eleanor Symons, dated May 11, 1894, for the sum of $3.45 cents, and for the further sum of $225 U. S. gold coin, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from the 22nd day of August, 1892, and for the costs and expenses of sale and of said writ. Now, therefore, by virtue, in pursuance of said judgment, I will, on Saturday, the 23rd day of June, 1894, at the front door of the courthouse, in St. Helens, Columbia county, Oregon, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following-described real property, to-wit: The southwest one-quarter of section one, in township north, range four, west of the Willamette meridian, in Columbia county, state of Oregon, to satisfy the herein before named sums, and for the costs and expenses of said writ, and the property will be sold subject to redemption, as per statute of Oregon. Witness my hand this 18th day of May, 1894.

T. WATTS, Sheriff of Columbia county, Oregon.
