ST. HELENS, OREGON, JULY 15. The Illinois militia seems to be made up of different stock from that of California. Illinois soldiers were always true patriots.

The professional agitator always knows more about everybody's else business than the persons interested. For proof of this investigate his assertions.

"To Carry a banner bearing a legend 'Peace on earth, good will to men' on public property, on their own grounds, send men to jail for twenty days in 'free America.' Let's emigrate to Russia." - Hillsboro Democrat. Russia might object.

It is an undisputed fact that every man has a right to quit work whenever he chooses, but it is none the less a fact that having quit he has not the right to interfere with others who desire to take his place. No man has a right to say what another man shall or shall not do.

WHATEVER else may be said of President Cleveland it cannot be doubted that he is a loyal American citizen and a man of strong convictions who is free from anarchistic proclivities. He is also endowed with the courage to execute the laws where they are being violated.

THE man who quits work without any grievance of his own but just because some agitator asks him to does not deserve to be reinstated. On the contrary his place should be very promptly given to those who are anxious to earn a living by labor instead of begging it. The world has no sympathy for the man who goes so far out of his way to court dissension. It is gratifying to note that during the last few weeks in the labor world Oregon has not lost its head to any great extent.

WHEN one is brought to the stark realization of the fact that because a person is industrious and saving of their earnings, there are always ten persons ready to inflict some injury upon them and cause their downfall, if possible, the spirit of self maintenance and industry is stricken with a paralyzing thrum. We have to look no further than our own insignificant surroundings in order to witness the same prevailing jeopardizing spirit running rampant. There is evidently a premium on worthlessness, for such a term can truthfully be applied to two out of ten of the people of the United States.

THE people party state executive committee held a meeting last week and went out of their way to endorse the American Railway Union and offered encouragement to that organization which is today endeavoring to tear down the most substantial and beneficial institutions in the United States. We may again reiterate that the peoples party is the essence and breeder of disorder; that its very doctrine and teaching is anarchy and disloyalty; that its only hope to ever succeed is to encourage disorder and incite people to riot, create dissatisfaction, which would in the end lead to open insurrection. The American Railway Union by its unreasonable demands sanctioned by the dishonest motives of unscrupulous politicians, have within the past few weeks cost the United States many millions of dollars besides a number of lives. Our popular friends have a great deal to say about the hard times, at the same time they wait until conditions are at their worst and aid their assistance to the very thing that is at work to destroy our business interests. Such is populism.

It is just as impossible for labor to prosper without capital as for capital to prosper without labor. The one is dependent upon the other, and to eliminate one would result in ruin to both. The number employed and the amount of wages paid depend entirely upon the demand for labor's product. The price of labor, in the abstract, always has and always will depend upon consumption. Two things lower the price of labor. One is close competition and the other is stagnation in business. The former, with reasonable people, is considered the better condition of the two, for, while the wages will necessarily be low there will also be employment for a great many more people; the latter will be attended not only by low wages but employment for but few people. In either event, the result is the same, and always ends in proportionately greater loss to labor than to capital.

LABOR deserves its just reward in all branches of industry. But is there any justice in a laborer quitting work and then declaring that no one else should work? Such is the position of the Pullman strikers. They have boycotted work which has been on for the past month. Men quit work at Pullman, Illinois because their employer, through a falling off in business, was compelled to reduce their wages. This was not all. They refused to allow others to work who were actually in need of employment and were anxious to work. To add to the general confusion and disorder, nearly all labor organizations without any grievance with their employers and without having had their wages reduced joined the strikers, with the avowed purpose of so embarrassing the business interests of the country that the demands of the Pullman strikers would be acceded. But this result did not and will not come. When a man willfully quits his employment without provocation, only to assist a kindred organization in riot and plunder, he richly deserves the condemnation which will surely follow. This strike is non-sensical in the extreme, because the wages paid at Pullman were on a parity with wages paid in all other branches of industry and because it did not affect any but those employed in those shops. The countless thousands who are rioting belong to other trades had no cause for quitting work, and further, the laboring people are the ones who suffer most in the end. No industry can suffer without labor feels the immediate effect.

A Second Proclamation. WASHINGTON, July 9. - The president this evening followed up his proclamation of last night by a second one, which is tenor, only that it extends martial law over the states of North Dakota, Montana, Washington, Wyoming, Colorado, California, Utah and New Mexico.

CHICAGO, July 9. - The town of Westville was the scene of disorder today. A crowd of rioting miners was charged by the militia. The troops fired over the heads of the miners, but the rioting continued. The rioters destroyed a number of cars and considerable other railroad property. Word was telegraphed to the head of the train with a company of state troops started at once for the scene of the trouble. About one mile from Westville a large crowd of miners and their families met the approach of the train bearing the militia, began warlike demonstrations. Pistols were fired at the troops, who returned the fire, slaying several of the rioters. In this shooting the two women were killed. The militia left the train and charged the crowd, securing the release of the train. The rioters were made to withdraw, but some of the ring-leaders of the rioters are said to be anarchists.

RIOTING AND BLOODSHED. Pullman Boycott Being Handled by the United States. CHICAGO, July 7. - The strikers and state of Illinois came together this afternoon in a pitched battle. The number of killed and wounded may never be known, for the strikers carried off a number of men who were seen to flee. The state militia, in their attempt to clear the railroad tracks so that the Pullman train could pass, were stoned until they could no longer endure it and when reinforced by the police they bailed and opened fire on the infuriated mob. After a sharp conflict the mob was driven back and quiet temporarily restored only to break out again in another place.

Placed Under Martial Law. WASHINGTON, July 8. - Just before midnight President Cleveland issued the following proclamation: WHEREAS, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblies of persons it has become impracticable, in the judgment of the president, to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial procedure, the laws of the United States which relate to the state of Illinois and the city of Chicago within said state; and

WHEREAS, for the purpose of enforcing the laws of the United States and protecting its property and removing obstructions to the United States in the state and city aforesaid, the president has deemed it necessary to employ the military forces of the United States. Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens and all persons, who may be or may come within the city and state aforesaid, against siding, countenancing, encouraging or taking any part in any unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblies, and I do hereby warn all persons engaging in or in any way connected with such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblies to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before 12 o'clock noon, on the 9th day of July, instant. Those who disregard this warning and persist in taking part in such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblies, or in obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, or with interfering with the functions of the government, or with attempting to destroy the property belonging to the United States, or under its protection, cannot be regarded otherwise than as public enemies.

As the train pulled out of the depot an ominous silence prevailed. The strikers were crowded to the side and frequently hinted that the train would not reach San Francisco. Such proved the truth. Not long after the train left the depot, a shot was fired, and it had been fired upon by the strikers and ditches. The strikers had unspiked the rails for a distance of about 100 feet and covered the tracks with stones and debris. Engineer Clark, notwithstanding that he was on the alert for such cowardly tactics, plunged into the trap. The engine was overturned and the train wrecked. Engineer Clark and Private Byrne, Lubbering and Clark were killed.

All Quiet in Chicago. CHICAGO, July 11. - The strike in the state of Illinois is considered to be over, and are returning to work. Mail trains are running on time and freight traffic is being resumed. No further serious trouble is anticipated.
