

WELL GUARDED.—The Northern Pacific bridge at Houlton is being guarded day and night in order to prevent any possible trouble at that point.

MOVING BACK.—The stockmen and dairymen who were compelled to move off the low lands some time ago are now returning with their stock as fast as the water recedes.

CHANGE OF TIME.—Beginning Monday morning, July 16, the steamer Sarah Dixon will leave Portland for Clatskanie on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings at 6 o'clock.

MASSONIC GRAND LODGE.—Thomas C. Watts and W. B. Dillard were in Portland yesterday and the day before in attendance at the annual session of the Masonic grand lodge which met in that city Wednesday.

AT LOWER BEAVER AGAIN.—Nathan Tingle and wife passed down the river last Friday from Oregon City, to their home on the Lower Beaver, accompanied by Mrs. M. White, who had been visiting friends in Oregon City for a few days. Mr. Tingle's health is much better than it has been, and we hope that improvement will continue.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge McBride convened the adjourned term of circuit court last Monday and the first matter taken up was the Dobbins divorce case which has been pending for some time and which was referred to a referee to take testimony. Dillard & Cole appeared for the plaintiff and McGinn & Simon for the defendant.

LOADED WITH BOOZE.—A man from Columbia City undertook to, and actually succeeded, to some extent, in bulldozing several citizens of St. Helens last Sunday afternoon. After filling himself to the chin with booze he went about the street using language unfit for the prize ring, and to finish up the job, in passing the hose house kicked in the door and a short time later left for home undisturbed.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The steamer Northwest has changed her time schedule. Instead of leaving Portland at 6 a. m., she leaves at 11 p. m. for Cowitz river and way points. The Kellogg leaves up for Portland Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning alternately. Persons going up on the Kellogg can have the afternoon and evening in the city and return home on the Northwest at 11 o'clock.

Good cooking is the basis of good thinking. Who ever lived on "soggy" vegetables, oily-cooked meats, muddy coffee and sour bread and lived to preach or to feel the gospel of light and love? Only well fed individuals think healthy thoughts; therefore, O cooks, it behooves you to feed well those who belong to you. Well does not mean richly, but thoroughly cooked in a sensible manner.

A WISE CHOICE.—Professor T. J. Cleiton has been employed to teach a four months term of school in St. Helens. Mr. Cleiton has a reputation as a teacher that recommends him wherever he goes. No word of complaint has reached us from any school he has taught heretofore, hence we arrive at the conclusion that he is thorough in the work. School will begin in the early part of September, so we are informed.

KNOW HERE.—Last week at Olney, Clatskanie county, Nathan Hilleary shot and fatally wounded John Miller. Hilleary immediately went to Astoria and related his story to the sheriff who placed him under arrest. At the preliminary hearing he was placed under $2,500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. Nate Hilleary has many acquaintances and some relatives living in Columbia county.

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.—Mr. George C. Fowler knew his own business best when he refused, so we are told, to qualify as county treasurer and then appoint a deputy to attend to the business. Mr. Fowler could not afford to neglect his farm and come to the county seat for the small salary paid; neither could he afford to trust such important matters into the hands of a stranger. Hence his very wise decision in declining.

DOWN TO BUSINESS.—After ten days of scramble and excitement about the courthouse things have again settled down to routine business. The new officers are properly installed and have become sufficiently familiar with the records and plan of procedure so that work is being dispatched as of old. The court fixed the salary of the deputy clerk at $1000 a year and the deputy sheriff at $880, after which court adjourned for the term Tuesday.

TEN DOLLARS DAMAGE.—The county court allowed Mrs. Henshaw $10 damage for timber that had been cut and used in repairing the roads in the vicinity of Houlton, by A. Crouse, road supervisor of that district. A road supervisor has a right to use timber or stone adjacent to the road for its repair, but the law does not contemplate the needless destruction of timber as was the condition in this case. The court examined the premises and very promptly allowed the damages claimed by Mrs. Henshaw.

COMPETENCY REWARDED.—E. M. Wharton, county treasurer, was appointed by the county court for the ensuing two years, vice George Fowler failed to qualify. Mr. Wharton has shown, during his term of office that he was qualified and capable in every way to fill the office of county treasurer. His books have been kept accurately and the county funds safely. The court did a wise act in continuing Mr. Wharton in the office. Mr. E. E. Quick has been appointed deputy and will attend to the office in the absence of the treasurer.

CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY.—The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association will hold its first annual meeting at Gladstone Park, Oregon City, on July 24, 25 and 26, 1894. For a long time the subject of a Chautauqua association for Northern Oregon and Southern Washington has been under consideration, and at last definite steps are being taken. As is well known the Chautauqua course is perhaps the best educational plan yet known, and very few people who have come in contact with its effects will object to its methods. For this meeting a number of the leading educators of the country have been secured to deliver addresses, among them Dr. Cantlie, of Los Angeles, Richard Wake, of Topeka, Kansas and Professor Strout of Chicago, Dr. Locke, Brown, Stratton and Grant of Portland, Senator Tongue of Hillsboro, and many others. Various musical societies have volunteered their services. A general invitation is extended to all Chautauquans and kindred societies and to all churches and Christian institutions to be present. Tickets for admission for the entire three days, 50 cents; for a single day, 25 cents; Sunday school children, 5 cents. July 24th will be young peoples' day; 25th, patriotic day; 26th, education day. For further particulars address Mrs. C. H. Dye, Oregon City, Oregon.

"SOMETHING TO EAT."—A company of men numbering about forty have been congregated just back of town for a few days. Where they came from could not be learned, but when questioned as to their destination they simply said they were going north. During the day there could be seen a number of them going from house to house begging something to eat. Some of them were willing to work to pay for food, while others declared they were not looking for work but for something to eat, and when work was offered them they turned away to a less inquisitive household. Some of the first contingent have moved on, but a number are still loitering about in this vicinity.

TAX SALE.—Tomorrow is the day set by the sheriff for the sale of property for delinquent taxes. Since the delinquent list has been advertised the sheriff has collected several hundred dollars of the original amount, which has been applied to the payment of outstanding county warrants. People generally have begun to realize that taxes are essential to good government and are paying as fast as possible. Some, however, who have been misinformed as to the law, have not made an effort to pay, but later on will find themselves not only paying the tax and costs but 20 per cent. interest to the speculator who bids the property in.

THE FOURTH AT DELENA.

Amid the booming of anvils and the merry shouts of boys eager to hurrah for their country and flag, the grand, old American eagle swooped down from his lofty perch, bringing glad tidings of the independence of his people. There could be no complaints made against the weather, for the day was all that could be asked. The grounds and speakers' stand had been well arranged and beautifully decorated with evergreens and garlands of flowers. Early in the morning people began to arrive, and by 10 o'clock the grove contained no less than 400 true American citizens. The chairman of the day, Mr. G. W. Barnes, being unable to attend, L. J. Meserve called the assemblage to order and Dr. Meserve was elected chairman of the day. The programme consisted of music by the Henric orchestra, and an occasional air by the choir, then, followed a song by the pupils of school district No. 23, under the leadership of Miss Fannie Meserve. Lucy M. Little then read the Declaration of Independence. A number of families were then singing, when the orator of the day, Hon. A. S. Dresser, of Oregon City, was introduced. Mr. Dresser spoke at considerable length of the past, present and future greatness of our country, refreshing our memory on the struggles and reverses, triumphs and successes of the founders of our republic, and in passing along touched upon the brave deeds of the defenders of our country. At the conclusion of the programme two long tables were laid, spread with the most delicious edibles, to which all did ample justice. The afternoon was spent by singing, dancing and various sports, and in the evening a grand ball was given at the hall. Everything passed off exceptionally smooth.

President Pullman's Statement.

New York, June 29.—George M. Pullman, president of the Pullman Palace Car Company, has issued a comprehensive statement to the public with regard to the efforts of the company to keep its works open and give employment to its men. Among other things he says: "At the commencement of the depression last year we were employing at Pullman 5418 men and paying out in wages $306,000 a month. Negotiations with intending purchasers of railway equipment that were pending at that time were stopped by them; orders already given by others were canceled and we were obliged to lay off a large number of men in every department, so that by November, 1893, there were only about 2000 men in all the departments, or one-third of the normal number. I realized the necessity for the most strenuous exertion to procure work immediately, without which there would be great embarrassment, not only to the employees and their families at Pullman, but also to those living in the immediate vicinity, including between 700 and 800 employees who had purchased homes and to whom employment was actually necessary. I discussed the matter thoroughly with the manager of the works, and the result of this discussion was a revision in piece-work prices, which, in the absence of any information to the contrary, I supposed to be acceptable to the men under the circumstances. Under these conditions, and with lower prices on all materials, I personally undertook the work of the letting of cars, and making lower bids than other manufacturers. I secured work enough to gradually increase our force from 2200 to 4200, the number employed according to the April payroll in all capacities at Pullman. This result has not been accomplished merely by a reduction in wages, but the company has borne its full share by eliminating from its estimates the use of capital and machinery, and in many cases, when going below that and taking work at a considerable loss. During the night of May 10 a strike was decided upon, and employees quit, leaving about 600 at work, of whom very few were skilled workmen. As it was found impracticable to keep the shops in operation with a force thus diminished those remaining were let out, and no work has since been done in the shops. The payroll at that time amounted to about $700 a day, and during the period of the strike, so that during which has elapsed the employees who quit their work have deprived themselves and their families of earnings of over $300,000."

A Russian scientist has been making a study of the criminal classes and has discovered that each group has its distinctive color in the eye. Murderers, it seems, have brown eyes of a chestnut tint. Thieves have slate-colored eyes, and vagabonds in general azure blue. When one considers how many criminals have black eyes from their quarrelsome habits, and others red ones from their indulgence in strong liquors, this really leaves very few colors for honest people.

PERSONAL.

T. J. Brink, of Vernonia, was in town yesterday. Mrs. M. A. Swager, of Kelso, was in town Wednesday. Attorney L. K. Adams, of Hillsboro, was in town yesterday. Martin Davison, of Nehalem, made final proof on his claim Wednesday. District Attorney Barrett was in the city Monday in attendance on circuit court.

Dr. H. K. Cliff has moved his residence from Second and Cowitz to the house recently occupied by J. H. Swager on the corner of Second and St. Helens streets. Dr. James McBride and family, of Watonsa, Wisconsin, arrived here a few days ago and expect to remain several weeks visiting relatives. The doctor also expects to take a trip to Mt. St. Helens before his return east.

Prof. and Mrs. Cleiton expect to move to St. Helens soon to take up their residence permanently. Mr. Cleiton expects to engage in the practice of law, and associated with prominent attorneys of Portland, will open an office here. Rev. Judy will hold religious services in the grove at St. Helens, on Saturday and Sunday July 21-22. He will be assisted by Rev. Mr. Lewis and others. People from the surrounding towns and country are invited to take part in the meetings. Bring lunch and be prepared to stay on the ground for services at 10 a. m., 2 p. m., 4 p. m. and 6 p. m.

It saves the children. "My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhea. We used various medicines, also called in two doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhea or colic medicine. J. E. Hare, Trenton, Tex. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

SPRING VALLEY.

We are enjoying very fine weather at present. Joseph Deleini went Monday to Scappoose, where he will engage in work on the dairy farm of Mr. Barber. J. Sintak is building a fine residence on his farm. Wm. Phole has gone to Portland to seek employment. W. Miller is making extensive improvements on his farm in this valley. The Vernonia-Houlton daily mail passes through here. The mail carrier says it is far the best road and three miles shorter than the old route. T. Deleini has just completed a large barn for himself. Crops of every kind are very good.

Summer Complaints.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhea. Soon after, my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Harstler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Edwin Ross.

PERIS NEWS.

The wheat in this part of the country is looking well but is not ready to be harvested yet. The picnic at this place on the Fourth was a grand success, and everybody had a good time. The saw mill at this place is running full blast. With Wm. Fluhrie at the saw we will see good work.

MAYGER.

The saw mill at this place is running full blast. With Wm. Fluhrie at the saw we will see good work. Wm. Blackford has his haymaking completed and thinks he will have a barn full of hay this year. Mack Johnson is putting in his best fields this year. And by the way, he has a brand new swapper. It is Geo. Wagner. The Mayger Co. has commenced to sell wood once more, and as they will soon have their new store under way, the prospects for Mayger's future are very good.

DEER ISLAND.

Ol Olson and wife are very sick. Some of the farmers are busy making hay this fine weather. Mr. Galvin, of Portland, is down spending a few days with his wife who is teaching school at this place. Ed. Merrill and wife and Mr. Mott and wife, of Deer Island, spent the Fourth at Scappoose. They report a very pleasant time. Rev. Stroup preached at the school house Sunday. There was a very small turnout for such a beautiful day, but we all hope the next time there is preaching every one will go.

Mrs. Isaac Bumgardner had a quilting party last Friday, and invited a number of her lady friends who, after quilting a while were invited to partake of a dainty lunch, and all enjoyed the day very much. B. C. Enyart's son Harry, had his leg broken two weeks ago, from the effects of which he has suffered greatly, but he is now improving with the aid of Dr. Darnell, of Kalama. Mr. Enyart has had rather more than his share of misfortune in his family lately, and we hope to see him enjoy a change of fortune soon.
