

Be on your Guard.

If some grocers urge another baking powder upon you in place of the "Royal," it is because of the greater profit upon it. This of itself is evidence of the superiority of the "Royal." To give greater profit the other must be a lower cost powder, and to cost less it must be made with cheaper and inferior materials, and thus, though selling for the same, give less value to the consumer.

To insure the finest cake, the most wholesome food, be sure that no substitute for Royal Baking Powder is accepted by you.

Nothing can be substituted for the Royal Baking Powder and give as good results.

INCIDENTS OF ARMY LIFE.

Unpleasant Social Experiences Sometimes Experienced in Posts and Garrisons.

Notwithstanding the fact that the officers of the American army are the very pink of courtesy, they sometimes in post and garrison life have very unpleasant social experiences. An officer in a garrison is assigned quarters not according to the necessities of his family, but in accordance with his rank.

It therefore comes out quite frequently when a new officer is sent to a post that there are many changes of quarters, so as to make room for him. When a new major arrives, for instance, he selects the quarters that suit him best, provided the occupant is below him in rank. He can turn out a major lower on the list or any captain or lieutenant, each of these when dispossessed can choose for himself what quarters suit him best if occupied by an inferior in rank. One move, therefore, may make a dozen others. The women of the army, it is said, are greater sticklers for their rights than the men. But the men themselves, while preserving all the forms of highest courtesy, sometimes push their authority to the fullest limit.

For instance, at a company post in the west some years ago a captain of infantry was in command, as his commission was of older date than that of the captain of cavalry also there. The two captains were mutually antipathic. In their official intercourse all the forms were observed, but still it was plain to all that they cordially disliked each other. One day the senior captain ordered the junior to take a file of men to the forest and cut the firewood needed for the winter. This duty ordinarily would have been given to a sergeant or corporal. The cavalry captain had no recourse and was obliged to obey. Just as he got outside the post the mail, which came only now and then at intervals of a week or so, arrived, and the cavalryman started for letters. One of these brought him his commission as major. He at once issued an order taking command of the post and then another order assigning the wood chopping duty to the late commandant.—Chicago Times.

Good When You Find It.

Judge Caldwell of North Carolina was slow to see the point of a joke. On trying a case on one occasion the solicitor called in vain for a witness named Sarah Mooney. As she did not answer he informed the court that he could not proceed "without ceremony." The bar laughed, but the judge looked puzzled. Some weeks after that when at home the point dawned on him, and he broke into a loud laugh. Upon his wife inquiring the cause of his merriment he explained that the solicitor had called Sallie Mooney, and when she did not answer he had said he could not proceed without ceremony. The wife said she did not see the point. The judge said it had taken him three weeks to find it, but when she did see it it would be very funny.—Green Bag.

A Bank Failure.

AN INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

A general banking business is done by the human system, because the blood deposits in its vaults whatever wealth we may gain from day to day. This wealth is laid up against "a rainy day," a reserve fund—we're in a condition of healthy prosperity if we have laid away sufficient capital to draw upon in the hour of our greatest need. There is danger in getting thin, because it's a sign of letting down in health. To gain in blood is nearly always to gain in wholesome flesh. The odds are in favor of the terms of consumption, grip, pneumonia, if our liver be inactive and our blood impure, or if our flesh be reduced below a healthy standard. What is required is an increase in our fighting strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood and makes it wholesome, stops the waste of tissue and at the same time builds up the strength. A medicine which will rid the blood of its poisons, cleanse and invigorate the great organs of the body, vitalize the system, thrill the whole being with new energy and make permanent work of it, is surely a remedy of great value. But when we make a positive statement that 95 per cent. of all cases of consumption can be taken in the early stages of the disease, be cured with the "Discovery," it seems like a bold assertion. All Dr. Pierce asks is that you make a thorough investigation and satisfy yourself of the truth of his assertion. By sending to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., you can get a free book with the names, addresses and photographs of a large number of those cured of throat, bronchial and lung diseases, as well as of skin and serofulous affections by the "Golden Medical Discovery." They also publish a book of 150 pages, being a medical treatise on consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, which will be mailed on receipt of address and six cents in stamps.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE

PROMINENT PERSONAGES FROM FAR AND NEAR.

People Who Have Gained Distinction in Their Particular Sphere in Life, Both in This Country and Abroad—Rev. Mary Baker Eddy.

Rev. Mary Baker Eddy is the founder and head of the Christian Science Church, which denomination has just erected a magnificent structure in Boston, costing over $200,000. The Boston church was organized by Mrs. Eddy, and the first meeting held on April 19, 1879. Mrs. Eddy was born in Concord, N. H., in 1825. She married Colonel Grover at an early age, but he lived only one year. In 1838 she met with a severe accident and her case was pronounced hopeless by the physicians. One Sunday morning, when her death was hourly expected, she suddenly became aware of angelic presence and ministrations, requested those with her to withdraw, but soon to their bewilderment, she walked into the adjoining room. Her friends thought that she had died and that they saw her apparition. Since that time she has been a believer in the principle of divine healing, which she has preached for nineteen years. In 1857 she married Dr. Asa Gilbert Eddy.

A. C. Williston.

Archibald Williston, of Cumberland, Md., is a very popular man in cycling circles. He was a leading candidate for president of the League of American Wheelmen, the new officers of which were elected by the national assembly held in New York City February 18. Mr. Williston first came into prominence by a display of his ability in the councils of the Maryland division. It did not take long for a man of his attainments to get into the national body, and for five years past he has been one of the most prominent in league work. He was last year chosen first vice-president.

King George.

With the rumors of a rebellion and insurrection in Greece attention is directed to the ruler of the country. King George, the present ruler, is the second son of the King of Denmark, and was born December 24, 1856. He is a brother of the Princess of Wales and uncle of the Czar of Russia. Otto I., the late King of Greece, abdicated in 1883, and the throne was then tendered by a majority of the Greek people to Prince Albert of England, but the English people refused to accept the nomination. It was next offered to Duke Ernest of Sax-Coburg-Gotha, and declined. Then it was offered to William Ferdinand Adolphus George, who accepted it, and has since reigned as King George I. He was married at St. Petersburg to Princess Olga, daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine, on October 27, 1867. His reign has been mild, and he has succeeded to some extent in winning the favor of the people.

Toad Superstitions.

Superstitions as to toads having been early inculcated, it has been exceedingly difficult to get rid of them. One remnant of this ancient credulity still exists. It is in regard to the absolute imperishable character of the toad. There are well educated Americans who believe that a toad hops out alive from a slab of stone, though he has been imprisoned there for several millions of years. We give in brief Dr. Buckland's experiments with toads in 1835. He took 12 cells out in sandstone, and over these he put plates of glass. They were buried in a garden for over a year. When exhumed, they were all dead. Then some were put in porous sandstone, and at the end of a year a few were found "greatly emaciated." When buried for another year, they all died. Toads were inclosed in wood, and they all died. The conclusion is, that deprived of atmosphere or without food, toads must die. If a toad as a tadpole could have entered a crevice in a rock, it might have grown, but would have died in time for want of air and food. This toad nonsense is so irradicable that it is supposable it never can be dissipated.

Wife Beaters in Germany.

They know how to treat wife beaters in Germany. The brutal husband has to work all through the week, turn over his wages to his wife on pay day and go to jail Saturday night and Sunday. About two weeks of this sort of fun takes all the wickedness out of a fellow.—New York World.

EVILS OF FREE MEDICAL RELIEF.

How London Dispensaries Tend to Drag Down Many Otherwise Good People. Gratis medical relief tends to pauperize in definite ways. The outpatients begin by getting physic and presently get food, and the system "leads them afterward, opprobriously pecuniary aid." This vitriolic effect is proved by the fact that during the 40 years from 1850 to 1890 the increase in the number of hospital patients has been five times greater than the increase of population, and as there has not been more disease the implication is obvious. Moreover, the promise of advice for nothing attracts the mean spirited to the extent that "the poor are now being gradually ousted out of the consulting room by well-to-do persons." People of several hundred a year, even up to a thousand, apply to the dispensary, getting a medicine, 20 per cent. of the outpatients in one large hospital having "given false addresses" for the purpose of concealing their identity.

Swarming as patients thus do, it results that each gets but little attention, a minute being the average for each, sometimes less, and diminished to 45 seconds. Thus those for whom the gratis advice is intended get but little. Often "assistance given is merely nominal" and "is both a deception on the public and a fraud upon the poor."

These gratuitous medical benefits, such as they are, "are conferred chiefly by the members of the unpaid professional staffs" of these charities. Some of them prescribe at the rate of 318 patients in 3 hours and 20 minutes—a pace sufficiently exhausting for men already hard worked in their private practice and sufficiently disheartening to men with little private practice, who thus give without payment aid which otherwise they would get payment for very much needed by them.

So that the 3,000,000 a year of the metropolitan hospitals, which, if the annual rate of the nation and buildings occupied were added, would reach very nearly 10,000,000, has largely the effect of demoralizing the patients, taking medical care from those to whom it was not, and obliging many impetuous doctors and surgeons to work hard for nothing.

These various experiences, then, furnished by societies and institutions supported by voluntary gifts and subscriptions unite to show that whatever benefits flow from them are accompanied by grave evils. They force on us the truth that, be it compulsory or noncompulsory, social machinery wastes power and works other effects than those intended. In proportion as beneficence operates indirectly instead of directly it loses its effect.—Herbert Spencer in Popular Science Monthly.

The Reading of Janvier's Poem.

An incident related by the late actor Murdoch is very characteristic of Abraham Lincoln. Few who lived through the war have not heard of the poet's "Sleeping Sentinel," which was written by Janvier in commemoration of an act of civility by Lincoln in pardoning a young Vermont volunteer at the very moment when he had been led out to be shot for sleeping at his post. The first public reading of this poem by Mr. Murdoch took place at the White House, the president, the poet and a large assembly being present. Before reading the verses aloud Mr. Murdoch privately pointed out to Mr. Janvier a slight poetic license, where he had described the arrival of the president with the "Sleeping Sentinel," which was written by Janvier in commemoration of an act of civility by Lincoln in pardoning a young Vermont volunteer at the very moment when he had been led out to be shot for sleeping at his post.
