SIDE-HEAD PARAGRAPHS.

THE GRAND JURY.—The following gentlemen were chosen as grand jurors for the May term of circuit court: Jacob George, foreman, St. Helens; Andrew Anderson, Scappoose; Ole Bohman, Scappoose; A. Near, Goble; Adolph Bergerson, Vernonia; Ed. McClure, Clatskanie; Phineas Peck, Vernonia.

THE COUNTY.—The county court has extended the time for the return of the delinquent tax roll until June 15, after which time all unpaid taxes will be delinquent. This extension of time will be a great convenience to many taxpayers, and it is believed there will remain very little unpaid taxes at that date.

MONA CANNING.—The proposition for supplying St. Helens with better water, to be brought from Perry creek has again met with defeat. After all other matters had been satisfactorily arranged the right-of-way across Mrs. Perry's land could not be secured. It seems really to be that the right-of-way cannot be secured, but such is our fate.

CANNING HORSEMEAT.—Already the canning of horsemeat has begun. Mr. Merrick, of The Dalles, has canned six carcases which he has placed on the market as a test. It is not likely that this new product in the grocery line will find a ready sale at first, but the gentlemen interested in the scheme think people will be easily educated to the use of this new class of canned goods.
