is one of great importance.

THE PROPLE MAKE THE TOWN .-THE PROPIE MAKE THE TOWN.—
Live people make a live town. There are such people in the cities of Rainier and Clatekanie, and business activity in those places is the result. An ambition to excel is the principal thing that builds large cities. We do not suppose either Rainier or Clatekanie reach the several thousand mark right away, but they bear evidence of substantial growth, backed up by progressive people.

FOUND A FLOATER.—On Thursday of last week a man was found lodged against the jetty on the opposite side of the river. The coroner of Cowlits county was notified, who made an examination, and took the remains to Kalama where they were buried. It is thought the body had been in the water for months, owing to its awful state of decomposition. There was nothing by which to establish the iden-tity of the body.

New Water Plant.—The city council at its meeting Monday night passed a resolution appropriating $400 from the city treasury to be applied on the new water plant which is now under consideration by Orchard & Jones. It is estimated that the works proposed by these gentlemen will cost about $1500, and they asked the city for a bonus as above stated. The water will with the Portland Weekly Sun wherebonus as above stated. The water will be brought from Wikstrom's place into the city, and it is intended to begin work on the new system at once.
