

SIDE-HEAD PARAGRAPHS.

THE FIGURES ENORMOUS.—According to the report of Internal Revenue Collector Blackman there are 1882 saloons and 29 breweries in Oregon. During the year, 178,268 barrels of beer were manufactured by the 53 breweries in Oregon and Washington and consumed by the inhabitants in the two states. These figures seem unreasonable, but coming from the official report of the collector must be authentic.

PLANNY IN COLUMBIA COUNTY.—A stick of timber passed through Eugene Monday on the Southern Pacific cars from the American Falls county, Washington, to Denver, Col., says the Guard. Its dimensions were 24x36 inches and 68 feet long, containing 4896 feet of lumber, and was clear of knots. It was truly a giant piece of wood of the fir specie, such as the forests of Washington abound in and can be duplicated in Oregon.

GRAIN SHIPS COMING.—The steamer Harvest Queen passed on Sunday towing a large ship, the first of the grain fleet of 1896. From this time on the tow boats will be kept quite busy handling the large ships that annually come into the Columbia river for the product of Oregon soil. The wheat crop this year is abundant, with a steady advance in price. This will insure a larger tonnage out of the Columbia river this fall than ever before.

A GRUBBING MACHINE.—T. S. Riddle, an old man of Eugene, aged over 80 years, has invented a grubbing machine, a model of which he now has on exhibition at his place at the south end of Olive street. The machine, for which Mr. Riddle has applied for a patent, consists of a large drive wheel, five feet in diameter, set in a frame, which gives it 32-horse power. It pulls stumps or trees straight out of the ground, requiring only one horse to operate it.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENT.—In Marion county it is intended to assess the Southern Pacific railroad bed at $5000 a mile. The Marion county assessor says: "Correspondence indicates that some county officials do not understand the apparent low rate of assessment paid on this road in Oregon, as compared with California. The rate fixed by California is over $12,000, but that includes the steamship lines, depots, real estate and all property. Oregon assesses all property separately so that there is very little, if any, favor shown the road in this state."

STEAMER AGROUND.—During the denseness of the fog and smoke combined last Saturday morning the coasting steamer Alice Blanchard ran aground in the Columbia just opposite this place. She was unable to back off with her own power and consequently was obliged to wait until 1 o'clock when the steamer Thompson was signaled to her assistance. The Thompson was unable to tow her off and proceeded her way leaving the unfortunate steamer. During Saturday night when the tide was high the Blanchard floated off and when morning came she was well on her way to Portland.

A PROSPEROUS SECTION.—County Surveyor Meserve returned Monday from the Lower Nehalem country, where he has been most of the time for the past few weeks, engaged in surveying for different parties. Mr. Meserve thinks the section of country tributary to Mist and Fishhawk is the most prosperous part of Columbia county, and expressed great surprise at the development going on in that locality. "The farmers," he says, "are striving to make themselves independent, and are succeeding in a very satisfactory manner." We do not understand that the Lower Nehalem is any better than many other parts of the county, but the prosperity down there must be mainly due to contentment among the people. Perhaps there have not been any populist agitators down there to preach calamity among a prosperous and contented people.

NOT CANNING HORSE MEAT.—It is a mistake that the factory at Linnton is canning horse meat, as is generally supposed, says the Times-Mountain. Not one can has so far been put on the market at this place, and the horses have been butchered, and the hides saved and the meat cooked, dried and ground up and turned into fertilizing material. The company has now 3000 pounds of the meat in pickle, which will be sent to Germany and France. About 4000 or 5000 of the Switzer band the company has purchased at a cost of $2.90 a head, and have received several hundred of this lot. The capacity of the works is about 55 head a day, 45 horses and 10 colts. After the animal is killed it is denuded of its hide by pulling it off. The hide is started in places and then jerked off by a winding machine. This is tanned into leather and used in the manufacture of boots and shoes. The offal is fed to hogs and this furnishes good feed. Anyone desirous of purchasing an animal may take his choice for $10, but our informant says there is none he can see that is worth this amount.

TWO EXAMPLES.—From a report of the teachers' institute, by the Republican, held last week at Union, Oregon, the following is taken: "Superintendent Irwin addressed the teachers and friends of education on the subject of how to obtain an education. It was recommended from a practical standpoint that the boys should have a part in obtaining the means for getting an education. This same thought was contained by President Chapman, of the State University, who said he had started to school with $50 which he had earned by teaching a two months' term of school, and so determined was he to obtain an education that he did not so much notice the poverty through which he had to go in order to obtain his education, and which was never regretted. He is now the honored president of our grand University of Oregon, while Mr. Irwin is our state superintendent—two good examples of what our boys can do who have the pluck and energy to push out into the world and make a name for themselves, regardless of poverty, from the worst condition from which some of our best men have come."

The last will and testament of Edward Webster was admitted to probate Tuesday, and Judge Blanchard has appointed Mrs. Webster executrix of said will.

The Mist was in error last week in stating that the state fair would open on September 25th and close on the 28th. The fair will not close until October 4th.

Rev. Charles E. Philbrook preached to a large audience here last Sunday evening. His subject was a practical one and left a good impression with the audience.

Mrs. W. A. Harris returned last week to Nehalem, where she will remain on the ranch for some time. Mr. Harris took the family out Thursday and returned Saturday.

We learn of the death from diphtheria, of two small children of Mr. Mitchell last week. The family reside on the House place on Sauvie island, opposite Scappoose.

The total eclipse of the moon Tuesday night was a great surprise to persons who had come to town without taking the precaution to provide themselves with lanterns.

Jacob George and James Muckle went to Stella Wednesday and brought back with them a logging engine from that place. We are not informed as to what use will be made of it.

A revival meeting will be opened next Tuesday evening, September 10, conducted by Rev. McElroy, of Houlton, in the Masonic hall at this place. It is desired to have the meetings continue for two weeks.

The Work of covering the pipe line of the St. Helens water system is completed and Messrs. Orchard & Jones have the thanks of the water consumers for furnishing them a good supply of pure mountain water.

The Roseburg Review has this to say about one of the men lynched at Yreka, Cal., last Monday morning: "Garland Stiemler was a member of the Stiemler family at Dora, Coos county, on the old Coos bay wagon road. He attended the Corvallis college last year, leaving there in February, and while there was frequently accused of theft. The family is an excellent one, and Garland's brother, Milton Stiemler, graduated at the Agricultural college this year with high honors. The lynched boy was a "black sheep."

W. D. Connell, administrator of the estate of S. F. Hunter, deceased, sold by public auction last Saturday the real estate belonging to said estate, which was bid in by Charles Gore, the purchase price being $1000. The property is located at Hunters Point, and is said to be a bargain.

The artistic rustic fence under construction around Dillard's park attracts considerable attention. It is composed of logs about thirty feet in length with morticed cross-blocks forming the joints. The fence when completed will certainly be "horse high and bull strong."

Enough rain has fallen to lay the dust, and to see the large stock of rubber goods opening out at Delman's store one would think that lots of mud was expected. More rubber goods are probably worn in Oregon than in any other state by the same number of people. That is the best evidence of our mild rainy winters.

Lee Stewart, for many years a resident of Columbia county during his boyhood days, is, according to the Fossil Journal, successfully engaged in the photographing business in Fossil, where the Stewart family located some years ago. Since their residence there Lee has held the office of county surveyor a part of the time.

It would seem from the tone of an article in last week's Review signed by one "L. F. Banzer" that that individual does not consider a rape case a "rotten affair." We are not surprised at this, emanating from the source it did, but we are inclined to believe, however, that all friends of moral decency will disagree with the afore-said individual.

Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. Bunnell, Center-ville, Wash. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist.

At a meeting recently held in a neighboring town the preacher sprung that old, worn-out chestnut, "All who wish to go to heaven to stand up." All but one man is said to have instantly jumped to their feet. The minister with surprise depicted on his face, advanced down the aisle saying, "Why, Bro., do you not want to go to heaven?" "No," replied the man, "Oregon is good enough for me."

It is the desire of Rev. Judy and others interested in maintaining a Sunday school at St. Helens to have a meeting of all who will lend their assistance. Sunday, September 8th, 10-15 a. m., for the purpose of determining the most convenient hour for the lesson, and other matters of importance to the Sunday school. Rev. Judy will speak on a special subject in the evening.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me, and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist.

Administrators Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Charles Isaaksen, deceased, by the Hon. County Court of the State of Oregon for Columbia County. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to me, with proper vouchers, at the law office of Dillard & Cole, in St. Helens, county and state aforesaid, within six months from the date of this notice, to-wit: August 23, 1895. CHRISTEN HOVEN, Administrator of the estate of Charles Isaaksen, deceased. a23220

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia. Emma May Davis, Plaintiff, vs. Herbert Davis, Defendant.

YOU are hereby required to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint herein on the first day of the month of September, A. D. 1895, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said month, which shall commence six weeks or more after the first publication of this summons, to-wit: On Tuesday, the 12th day of October, 1895, and if you fail to so appear and answer, plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her petition, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of Hon. T. A. Stephens, judge of the circuit court of Multnomah county, Oregon, made by his said court on the 22nd day of September, A. D. 1895, as by statute provided in the absence from the State of Oregon of the Honorable T. A. Stephens, Judge of the court before whom this action is pending; that this summons be served upon the defendant named herein, and that the defendant do appear and answer to the same on the first day of the month of September, A. D. 1895, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said month, as by statute provided, in general circulation, published at St. Helens, Columbia county, Oregon.

VALLEY ITEMS.

J. Dupont and family and Wm. Miller have gone to French prairie to pick hops. The first ripe tomato gathered in this valley this year was picked in Wm. Miller's garden on the first day of September.

J. Deloski and A. Wisnaski have taken a contract to clear a number of acres of land for Thomas Holstein, on Milton creek.

Wm. Dearing has lost all of his buildings and fences by fire recently. His crops were saved, but barn, which was destroyed.

We were visited with a very heavy thunder storm last Sunday, leaving this part of the country very much refreshed, and the forest fires nearly subdued.

The oat crop is very good out here this season. One head measured 28 inches, and from it were taken 600 grains of oats. This particular head was raised on Mr. Rudolph Karth's place, and goes to show how fertile our valley is.

Several camping parties who thought it to be great pleasure to camp in the mountains in the Banker hill district, passed this place on their return home, bringing with them a number of fine specimens of forest fire. They say that forest fires have played general havoc in the country through which they passed.

QUINCY NOTES.

Miss Lulu Quigley is visiting friends at Neer City at present.

Miss Lu Rico, of Clatskanie, was visiting friends here the first of this week.

Mr. Bruce and Elmer Rutter started for the Cowhills last week where they will soon commence a fine fishing.

Mrs. A. J. Quigley, of Upper Clatskanie, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. W. Barnes, last week.

Mr. Harvey Rutter sold his place and contemplates going East, where he thinks he will find a better place to live than in Oregon.

Martin White was once more with the lodge people Saturday evening. Mr. White is one of the leading members of the lodge, and he is greatly missed while away.

The picnic at this place was well attended by the Clatskanie people. Every one present seemed to enjoy themselves and the refreshments were ample for all.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal., says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size had been used I am pleased to say, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles as I was, to give it a trial. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist."

Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Dr. G. C. Osceola, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphia, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." Dr. J. F. KINGSTON, Conway, Ark.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.
