

SIDE-HEAD PARAGRAPHS.

K. OF P. BALL AT RAINIER.—There will be a grand ball given at Rainier on Friday, October 18, 1895, under the auspices of Rainier lodge, Knights of Pythias. Tickets, including supper, are on sale at the low price of $1. The Rainier Knights never do anything by piece meal, and those who attend the masquerade ball will enjoy it. Music will be furnished by the Portland Exposition orchestra.

VERY LOW WATER.—The water in Lewis and Lake rivers is so low that for some time the steamer Mascot has been unable to ascend the former and only with the greatest difficulty has she reached Ridgefield on the latter, always coming back to the month of the river and proceeding up the Columbia instead of passing out through Bachelor slough. The little steamer Eagle has been doing the Lewis river service, connecting at the mouth of the river with the Mascot. Last Monday the steamer Elwood, which is of much lighter draught, was put on the route in place of the Mascot, the latter taking the run between Portland and Vancouver temporarily.

NEW ROAD SURVEY.—Surveyor Messers returned last Tuesday from Scappoose, where he had been for ten days past surveying out a new road from that place to Vernonia, or rather a connecting link between two pieces of road already opened from either end of the route. The new survey making the connection is 11 miles in length, and the distance between Scappoose and Vernonia over the new survey is 26 1/2 miles. The road follows the divide between North and South Scappoose creeks the entire distance to the summit of the mountain, and at no place on the 11 miles just surveyed does the grade exceed 10 per cent. On the road leading out of Scappoose climbing the mountain the grade is very heavy, but it is believed some changes can be made that will greatly relieve it. The new route will furnish an outlet for a number of settlers on the west end.

AN INTERESTING SESSION.—The regular October term of the circuit court for Columbia county convenes here on the 15th of the present month, and promises to be an interesting session. There are two murder trials on the docket. George Upton, who killed DeJournette near McGraw's landing some eight years ago, is now in Multnomah county's jail awaiting trial on an indictment for murder in the first degree, and the case will probably be disposed of at this term of court. Then the case of G. W. Badger, sr., for the murder of Hugh Cameron which occurred at Clatskanie last Saturday, and for which Badger is now in the Multnomah county jail, will be a matter first for the grand jury and later the circuit court. Besides the two murder cases there are any number of civil actions which will occupy the attention of the court, among them are several cases for right-of-way for the Astoria & Columbia River railroad. The session promises to be a long one, more is the pity.

FOR A CREAMERY.—A movement is on foot to establish a creamery here. It is the intention, if the proposition is successful, to utilize the boiler recently used at the pumping station for the purpose of furnishing power to operate the creamery. It is also the purpose of the projectors to establish a plant with capacity sufficient to handle the milk from at least 500 cows. This is, beyond question, the most desirable location for a creamery on the Columbia river, since it is convenient to Sauvie island, entire, to Lewis and Lake rivers, Deer Island and the Scappoose country, an advantage not possessed by any other point on the river. Milk from all the places mentioned could be shipped here on the regular steamers, so that it would not be necessary to have special boats for the delivery of milk. A stock company will probably be organized this week with a capital of about $2500, and if details are arranged satisfactory no time will be lost in pushing the enterprise forward.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of the grand domain of Oregon, meets in Salem next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. On Wednesday the parade will take place, and Wednesday night the representatives are invited to attend the well known drama at the opera house entitled "Damon and Pythias," which is always appreciated, especially by members of the order. There are but two lodges of the order in this county—one at Rainier and the other at St. Helens. The representatives to the Grand Lodge from the former are J. B. Dean and Martin Both, and from the latter David Davis and J. R. Beegle. These two lodges, though young (ages three and one years, respectively) have a membership of over seventy, while in the state the order numbered something over 4000 at last report, and according to figures already made up in the report for the past year there has been a substantial gain notwithstanding the hard times. There are sixty-three lodges in the state and all apparently in a healthy and growing condition.

SHIPPING SAULERS.—Captain Vint, of the British ship Pass of Leny, which went down the river several days since, has been brought back to answer to a suit for damages for breach of contract, brought by Jack Grant of Oregonian. It is alleged that Captain Vint made a contract with Grant to furnish him a number of sailors. He was to receive $40 advance, and $15 blood money—that is the $10 blood money allowed by law and $5 for shipping fees or something of the sort. It appears that Sibson & Co., the consignees of the Pass of Leny, would not allow the blood money to be paid, and so Captain Vint engaged four men from the Seamen's Home. They only required $10 to $20 advance, and no blood money. These men were taken down the river last Friday night and put on board the ship. Grant claims that by reason of his not being allowed to furnish the men according to contract, he is injured, and wants damages. This is the opening chorus of the trouble which may be expected with the sailor boarding-house men this winter. Business in that line has been going on very quietly of late, but the trouble is commencing.

MURDER OF HUGH CAMERON

George W. Badger Uses His Shotgun.

All Clatskanie in a Furore of Excitement—The Murderer Safely Lodged in Jail.

CLATSKANIE, Or., Oct. 2.—The killing of Hugh Cameron in this city last Saturday evening was the most unfortunate and deplorable occurrence that has ever happened in our city, and our citizens very deeply regret that the record of such a tragedy should ever stain the annals of this usually peaceful community.

Hugh Cameron had lived in this vicinity, until quite recently, for over two years just past. Some two months ago he left here and went to British Columbia, returning Saturday afternoon, having come in from Mayer. He knew as well as others that the assailant, George W. Badger (whose home is just outside this city), felt very unkindly toward him, and it was pretty generally known, had threatened to shoot Cameron, a threat that had included one or two others also, and had been made over a year ago while Cameron was living here, but no one suspected that such a threat would ever be carried into execution. Cameron as little suspected it as any one else. On the fatal Saturday of Cameron's arrival here he was seen by Badger, and somehow his presence here so aroused Badger's passion that he went out to his house half mile distant and got his double-barreled shotgun, which he loaded, brought to town and secreted somewhere about the lumber piles near the Clatskanie hotel. He was noticed walking about town and a short time before the shooting set on Myers' front porch talking with him until Myers excused himself to go in to supper. Seeing his victim sitting on a pile of lumber near the hotel talking with John Conway and one or two others that were sitting near, Badger left the porch and passed close in front stooping a little as he passed to be sure of the man he wanted for it was about half past six and getting a little dark. The men sitting there noticed him passing but paid no special attention to him. Going around the lumber piles he soon returned with the gun so close to his side that no one noticed it. Cameron in talking with Conway was leaning forward and looking into his face so that he probably did not notice Badger's return, and certainly did not notice the sudden movements made by Badger in bringing up his gun and firing at a distance of not over four feet from him. Conway saw what was coming just as the gun went off and as he jumped up, Cameron fell lifeless just in front of where he had been sitting, pierced by a heavy charge of shot, which entered by the lower part of the side of the neck, cutting off the large blood vessels and passing out through the spinal column, fracturing its bones and injuring the spinal cord. Half a dozen persons were in the vicinity, the marshal among them, who at once took Badger into custody but not until he tried to discharge the other barrel of his gun. The report of the gun brought a number of persons to the scene of the disaster, among them his daughter, Gerrie, who came out from Nicholas' hotel, ran to her father and catching him cried out, "O, pa, what have you done?" Badger made no effort to get away and preserved a remarkable coolness in the midst of excitement called A. F. Myers to take the gun, when Badger remarked coolly: "Be careful of that gun, there is a load in the other barrel and it is cocked!" Badger was taken to the city jail, accompanied on the way by his daughter, whose cries made the scene an extremely sad one.

Cameron's body was taken to the City hotel and later to a vacant building adjoining it, but not until an inquest had been held by City Recorder Warren in the absence of a coroner or justice of the peace. R. S. Hattan, student in medicine, examined the wound in the absence of a physician, and the jury soon brought in a verdict in accordance with the facts as stated. At a preliminary hearing before the recorder the accused waived an examination and was taken to St. Helens Monday night. Robert Cameron, a cousin of the deceased, went to Portland and procured a caasket, sent word to two sons living about Columbia City, who with their uncle, were in attendance at the funeral Tuesday morning. A brief religious service was held at the grave by C. C. Lee, the minister resident here being away to conference. Many of Cameron's friends, including the men at the camp where he once was foreman, were present at the funeral.

[Badger was taken to Portland Tuesday by Sheriff Doan and placed in jail. He has employed Allen C. Cleston to defend him. They had already been employed by Badger in a suit for divorce against his wife, who is said to be responsible, in some degree, for the murder.—En.]

REUBEN.—Frank Clark made a visit to Portland Friday. G. C. Jaquish went to the city on Wednesday. W. L. Brown is suffering with a felon on his hand. He went to Portland on Wednesday. John McGrath was doing business in Portland. Emil Wasser and his bride moved out on their Oak Ranch farm Saturday. Chris Anderson moved his family from his farm at Mooreville Saturday. H. O. Brown and wife made Reuben a visit on Saturday, the former on official business. Frank Bishop and T. C. Watts attended the K. of P. lodge at Kalama last Thursday night. Mrs. Ida Bowen, since the death of her husband, has concluded to move to Portland to live with her parents. A new "section box" arrived at the residence of J. Severson last Wednesday morning, bright and early. Jake will have to "walk the chalk" now for the newcomers is prepared to take full charge. A four-mast ship, Dampson Hill, bound for Liverpool, ran into the sand bank off the island lying between Kalama and Reuben and was there one week before she could get out of the sand. Most of the rain fall during September came with the north wind. Mr. Dolman says that may indicate a cold winter, so he is laying in a full stock of goods to meet it, if it comes. Best to always be on the safe side.

MARRIED.—BONNICK-REDMAN.—At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Redman, by Justice Van Dyke, Mr. James Bonnick and Pauline Redman. JORDAN-SHULTZ.—At the home of J. B. Doan in Beaver valley, on September 25, 1895, Mr. George W. Jordan and Miss Minnie Shultz, Justice Doan officiating.

Quick visited the Oregon metropolis last Saturday on business. Lloyd Deitrick and his sister, Miss Bertha, of Pittsburg, were in the city last Saturday. Try Hunt, the hardware man, when in Portland. He carries a complete line. Mrs. W. A. Harris, of Vernonia, came over Tuesday for a visit to her husband. The work of grading the north end of Columbia street is progressing in a most satisfactory manner. N. A. Perry and wife were passengers on the river Tuesday on the mail steamer Thompson. Thomas Cloninger, a prosperous farmer from Scappoose, was doing business in our city last Monday. Constable Bruce Haines, of Clatskanie, was in town Tuesday, having come up on official business. Lewis Kihni, of the Clatskanie Lumbering Company, was a passenger for Portland last Saturday on the Shaver. Mr. Henderson Orchard was in Kalama the first of the week looking after a franchise for a water system at that place. Mrs. J. Gilmore and little daughter returned from Oregon City last Monday, where they have been visiting relatives. Frank George, Charley Cooper, Bert Whitney and several others of our young men returned from the hop fields the latter part of last week. See the announcement in another column of the church entertainment and basket social to be held at Houlton on Saturday evening, October 12. Charles A. Girt, of Beaver valley, will locate in this place about the 20th of this month and resume his old trade, that of watch and jewelry repairing. He has a card in this issue. Mr. Henry Woodham, of Reuben, was in town last Monday. He took advantage of the pleasant sunshine for a day's business at the county seat. Mrs. G. H. Shinn, nee Miss Dell Caples, arrived here Thursday of last week from Baker City, on a visit to relatives at Columbia City and this place. Dr. Byron Caples formerly of Columbia City, who has been practicing his profession in Wisconsin for several years, returned to Columbia City last Wednesday for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Allen were passengers down to Astoria last Monday on the Harvest Queen. Mr. Allen went down there on legal business. They returned Tuesday morning. George C. Jaquish, of Reuben, was in town Wednesday on route to Portland where he went to procure the material for ironing twenty government buoys which are being gotten out at Borthwick's mill. If we could build a creamery and operate our sawmill, with the amount of cordwood which is handled here St. Helens would present a lively appearance, indeed. S. H. Tryon, who has been absent from the state for more than a year, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Tryon has been in Colorado most of the time since he left here, and his family is still in Denver. Those interested in the organization of a brass band in this place are requested to meet for discussion at the Oriental Hotel, Monday, October 7th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Sheriff Doan and family, who have been residing at Houlton, moved to this place Monday last, where they will in future reside. The family is domiciled in the residence recently made vacant by the removal of Mr. Orchard and family to Kalama. John Lawrence, the "bogus bishop," who was arrested in Astoria some time ago on a charge of fraud, having fooled, for a time, Archbishop Gross and Father Orth in Portland, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven months in the Clatskanie county jail last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dolman, Mrs. Holman and Mrs. Dr. Yeargain went out to Bunker hill springs Saturday and returned the next day. They report the autumn tints of the foliage along the road as being marvellously beautiful at this time. Mr. Dolman has great faith in Columbia county and predicts a prosperous future for the settlers. THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—The Oregon annual Methodist conference was held in Portland last week and continued over until Monday of the present week. Rev. H. T. Atkinson, a graduate of the Portland university, has been assigned the Clatskanie charge to succeed Rev. O. A. White, who is placed in charge of the church work at Cleone, Multnomah county. St. Helens and Rainier were not supplied, the bishop evidently thinking the people of those two places were "saved" beyond the power of human assistance.

OLD LEGISLATIVE BUILDING.—The Oriental hotel at Oregon City has recently changed ownership, having been sold to the Gambrian Brewing Company for $8000. This is one of the historic buildings of Oregon City, and was erected in 1850. The territorial legislature once promulgated laws within the walls of this building, and after the old court house on the hill at that place was burned down the second story of the building was used as a court room for some time. The lumber used in the construction of the building was brought around Cape Horn in 1840. During the forty-five years that this building has withstood conflagrations on either side a variety of enterprises have been carried on within its walls.

UNITED STATES AND CUBA. The People of Chicago Hold Mass Meetings. Messages Received From a Great Many Prominent Men in Behalf of the Cubans. CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—As much of the population of Chicago as could find entrance to the auditorium of Central Music hall and the Y. M. C. A. buildings tonight shouted itself hoarse in approbation of a series of resolutions in which the government is asked to recognize the Cubans as belligerents. Mayor Swift presided at the main meeting in Central Music hall, while Judge William A. Vincent was chairman of the overflow meeting in the Association building. Among telegrams from men who could not be present was one from Governor Altgeld, and its ringing words called forth cheer after cheer. It was as follows: "It is time that Spanish misrule, Spanish brutality and Spanish outrage should be driven from the American continent. The nations have long asserted the right to interfere for the purpose of suppressing a practice that shocks the moral sense of the civilized world, such as cannibalism and the slave trade, yet the cannibals do not torture their victims and do not indulge in wholesale slaughter, while in Cuba the torture is fiendish and the butchery continues. We trust and trust that our countrymen will see Christian civilization. Besides when viewed from a geographical and political or military standpoint, Cuba should be ours. Let our country first extend recognition, then a helping hand, and, lastly, a place in the Union. This done, the richest island of the world will soon become the gem of the seas." "The people of the United States strongly sympathize with the Cubans struggling to be free from Spanish domination. Our government should do everything consistent with national honor in their behalf." General Alger's message read: "It seems to me what has been previously done by our government and so clearly defined by President Monroe, concerning belligerent rights of those countries, should now be granted Cuba. She has made a magnificent struggle and has made a magnificent government; has been victorious in many hard fought battles, with every advantage against her, save that she is right. I trust and believe she will win her independence." The Rev. Dr. Thomas read the resolutions, which were adopted as by one mighty voice. The resolutions also declared for a permanent organization to continue the work.

CLATSKANIE. R. H. Mitchell, of the Sentinel, was in our city Wednesday of this week. Dr. Hall and wife spent two or three days in Portland, returning Monday evening. A. B. Gordon came in on the steamer Wednesday from hopping in the Willamette valley. Mrs. Bungardner went home with her mother one day this week for a few days in the country. Mrs. G. P. Hiatt and daughter returned Friday from hopping, by way of Portland, where they took in some of the sights of the city. The first monthly report of the school in our city shows a splendid record of attendance. The pupils seem to be getting there regularly on time. The big cut from a tree on the W. H. Conyers place, destined for the exposition at Portland, met with an accident and did not get to the steamer entire, as it was intended to. Plank for the bridge over the marsh below the Riverview hotel are being hauled and delivered. It is earnestly hoped that the bridge work may be done before the rains soak the place with water. Orville Merrill cut his foot quite badly last week while at work making a road for the mill, to be located near Lower Beaver. He is resting at home and the foot is progressing finely towards healing. Mrs. W. H. Conyers is taking special interest in having a creditable exhibit sent from this part of the county to Portland for the coming exposition. A number of articles were sent by the steamer on Thursday. J. D. Nelson was in town Wednesday and took his daughter Minnie back with him. The little girl is an invalid, and had spent some ten days in the family of Dr. Hall to another appointment for treatment. She is considerably improved in health. Among the exhibits sent to the exposition is a mammoth turnip, weighing 17 pounds, raised on the James Barr place. It is a big one for certain. Thos. Flippin contributes thirty-two varieties of Oregon wood from the vicinity of his house. Rev. White and wife returned on the steamer Wednesday after an absence of ten days, attending conference at Portland. The conference authorities have sent them to another appointment for the coming year, and their place here is to be filled by Rev. H. T. Atkinson, who has not yet arrived.

ELOPED WITH A SQUAW.—The well known story of Pocahontas is brought to the mind by the escapades of Edwin Shepard, a traveling man of Portland, says the LaGrande Chronicle. Not long since Shepard met a young Indian woman at Pendleton and fell violently in love with her. As he had a wife and two sons in Portland this was a sad state of affairs. However, he eloped with the dusky maiden and went to Union. There his wife found him out and he is now in sackcloth and ashes as he had been hiding his light under a bushel. Since then there has been consternation in the Shepard family and the old man don't dare show himself in Portland. He is over 50 years of age and ought to know better, but he don't. He is now in Boise and will probably stay there until the smoke clears away. The squaw has returned to her father on the Umatilla reservation and will no doubt await the final outcome of the expose. Stoves and ranges are offered by F. R. Chown, Portland, at bedrock prices. See his announcement in another column of this paper.

E. WEAVER, Hair-Cutting and Shaving Neatly Done. Clean Towels and Quick Work. YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED. ST. HELENS, OREGON. Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. Bunell, Centerville, Wash. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, Druggist.

Congressman Ellis expects to make Columbia county a visit in about two or three weeks. He has again been compelled to use crutches on account of a second operation performed on his lame leg and it is therefore very difficult for him to travel about. He expects, however, to be able to take up his work promptly when congress meets in December. Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me, and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficacy." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist.

RAINIER RUMBLINGS. Robert G. Johnson who has been working in W. I. Shulte's logging camp near Rainier, met with a serious accident on Monday. Mr. Johnson was barking a log with an ax which glanced and came down diagonally across his right foot, cutting almost through it. Dr. McLaren dressed the injured member. Justice Doan was notified last Sunday that the body of a man had been found floating in the Columbia river and tied up at a point on the beach a short distance below the residence of J. B. E. Bourne and near where Henry Johnson made the fatal leap from the steamer Blatnie on September 19th. The justice procured a boat and, taking three men with him, went to the spot designated, and there found a body which was positively identified by the parties present as the person of Henry Johnson. The body was taken to Rainier that night and given respectful burial on the premises of Judge Blanchard on Monday. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Philbrook at the grave.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal., says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size had been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles as I was, to give it a trial. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist.
