Joseph Copeland Presented With a Cane—Log Broken—Masonic Officers Elected.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Licenses to wed were issued by the county clerk during the past week to James McNaughton and Grace F. Archibald, Frank M. Gilson and Florence B. Fisher, John G. Pringle and Ethel B. Dow.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—At the regular communication of St. Helena lodge No. 32, A. F. & A. M., held last Saturday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: D. J. Switzer, W. M.; E. E. Quick, S. W.; U. W. Clark, J. W.; Jacob George, S. D.; Judson Weed, J. D.; A. King, Tyler; Fredrick Vivian and W. Muckle, stewards; C. H. Johns, secretary; Jas. Muckle, treasurer.

MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.—The Mayor Company made an assignment Tuesday for the benefit of all their creditors. The estimated value of the property belonging to the company is $24,532 less mortgages and notes held by creditors to the amount of $9,922.30, leaving assets of $14,610. The total liabilities are $9,030.09, which amount is divided between numerous creditors in many parts of the country.

WHAT IT DID.—Secretary E. C. Masten, of the exposition committee, has submitted his final report, showing the financial results of the big fair. The total receipts from all sources reach the sum of $20,400.23; total expenses, $18,233.57; leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer of $2,166.66. Total number of free tickets collected, 32,955; total number of single paid admissions, $5,000; total admission except those on exhibitors' tickets or season tickets, 87,355; estimated total attendance, for season, $97,355.

COGGSWELL A REPUBLICAN.—Lakeview Examiner: "It is quite probable that I shall support the next republican candidate for president," said Senator Cogswell to the editor of the Examiner, who called at his office to inquire as to the rumors to that effect which were being circulated on the street. Upon inquiring into the cause of the change the Senator said: "I left the republican party in 1872, on account of the reconstruction policy of the party; this issue is now a thing of the past. Since the new issues have arisen I find myself more in accord with the republican than with the democratic party."

MR. COPELAND CANCELED.—The Odd Fellows of this city summoned Mr. Joseph Copeland, of Warren, to their lodge room on a Christmas day and in the presence of a number of the members presented him with a fine gold-headed cane as a mark of respect for his resulting from business dealings. It will be remembered that about three years ago the Odd Fellows purchased a cemetery site from Mr. Copeland at a cost of several hundred dollars, the trustees giving their notes as security. These notes came due but through the advent of the late depression they could not be met and Mr. Copeland generously extended the time for payment from time to time until the notes could meet them, and now the notes are all paid off and St. Helena lodge I. O. O. F. has a warranty deed to the most beautiful cemetery site in the county. Mr. Copeland was not aware of the object of the summons, hence the greater was his surprise when the presentation was made.

LEG BROKEN.—About 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning the peaceful slumbers of Mr. W. D. Dillard were disturbed by the cry of some one seemingly in great distress. Mr. Dillard dressed himself and started in the direction from which the sound came and found that it was the cry of a man on the opposite bank of the river. When he reached the wharf there was no available smallboat, so that the call for help could not be responded to until the steamer Kellogg came along a few minutes later on her way to Portland. Captain Whitcomb's attention was called to the matter and he proceeded to the scene and discovered that the cries came from an old gentleman by the name of Sanford who, while walking along the bank of the river before it was light, had fallen over the bank and injured his left leg. The steamer took him on board and brought him to this city where he was placed in care of Dr. Cliff, who, upon examination, discovered that the leg was broken, and he proceeded to reduce the fracture. Sanford lives just opposite this place at the end of the riverment.

SCORES OF PEOPLE.—To say that the Knights of Pythias and Odd Fellows' entertainment and ball given at the opera house Wednesday night was a complete success is only reiterating the expression of almost every one present. The entertainment, which was the conferring of the third degree of the Froggie Clan upon a candidate, was announced to begin at 7:30 o'clock but before the hour of 7 arrived people began to gather in order to secure good seats, and by the time the performance began the house was packed, it being estimated that there were at least 250 people present. At the conclusion of the performance the hall was announced to take place as soon as the seats could be removed, and seventy-two couples from all parts of the surrounding country occupied the remainder of the night following the melodious strains of Henrici's orchestra. Supper was announced at the Oriental hotel at 11:30 o'clock, and twenty couples at a time were seated around the festive board, and amid laughter and general merrymaking, enjoyed the splendid spread prepared for the occasion. As stated in the beginning, the whole affair was one of the greatest successes ever witnessed in St. Helena.

The people of these two communities ought to enjoy more of each other's society, for indeed the pleasure of one community should be the gratification of the other.

BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE

Commission to Investigate Boundary Dispute.

Free Coinage Resolution Adopted in the Senate—Some Pointed Discussions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The United States senate by unanimous vote, and without the formality of a roll-call, today passed the bill already adopted by the house of representatives empowering the president to appoint a commission to determine the Venezuela-British Guiana boundary. This was the culmination of a debate adding a memorable page to congressional history. It was a day of notable speeches by notable men. The subject of war between the United States and Great Britain was the prevailing theme, which found expression in lofty and patriotic sentiments, in stirring appeals for preparation and defense, in graphic portrayals of the horrors of war, and at times in defiant warnings to the people across the water.

Mitchell of Oregon introduced a wool tariff bill, and gave notice that he would move to incorporate in any tariff measure coming from the finance committee.

The resolution of Peffer directing the interstate commerce commission to inquire into the recent traffic arrangement between various railway lines was agreed to.

The resolution of Allen for a coinage of silver to meet the contingencies of war came over from yesterday, and Allen spoke upon it in a facetious vein. He read, with running comment, Chandler's bill "to increase the armament of the United States." He referred to the bill as "the bill presented by Hale to increase the armament of the United States."

John and Warren Dobbins, of Hillsboro, were here on Christmas night participating in the fun.

County Surveyor Meserve was in this city Wednesday, and left for down river points the same night.

to be settled in 20 years, but the president, that idol of aristocrats and capitalists of Great Britain, is described as insane."

Just as Chandler concluded, Tillman of South Carolina made his entrance into the senatorial arena for the first time. He appeared anxious to cross swords with Chandler, and that gentleman, although at first reluctant, finally acquiesced.

The incident caused considerable amusement. Tillman wanted to know whether, if Chandler were convinced that the passage of this bill would result in the extinction of the gold reserve and the establishment of the silver standard for the United States, he would vote for it.

Chandler—The senator from South Carolina, like his other populist associates, is disposed to mix up all questions.

Tillman—I am not a populist.

Chandler—Then what are you?

Tillman—I am a democrat. If there are any democrats. I am a follower of Thomas Jefferson, Calhoun and Lincoln.

The reference to Lincoln and democracy provoked a laugh, and Chandler ejaculated, as he looked around the senate, "I guess we are all democrats, then."

Tillman—Answer my question: would you vote for the resolution? I would.

Chandler—Oh, yes; I will vote for it. I will vote for any sacrifice save the absurdity of the senator from Nebraska (Allen), to sustain the national honor.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding a gripe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery: it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Ross' drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00."

THE CHRISTMAS TREE.—The Christmas tree in this city Tuesday evening, given by the Ladies' Aid Society, was a decided success. The short literary program which had been arranged and took place before the presents were distributed, was well rendered by the little folks and much appreciated by the older ones. After prayer and a short address by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Philbrook, the presents were distributed among the many bright and smiling little faces, and the little heart of each one as his or her name was called, seemed to throb out loud as they were handed some kind remembrance from a relative or friend. The presents were not costly, but were sufficient to show the good will of the donor. The society had used every effort to see that each child received some present, and from the facial expressions of those receiving them, the matter of cost cost no figure. The whole affair was over by 8:30 and the little ones hurried home chuckling as they passed along, over what Santa Claus had done for them.
