

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—T. J. Cleaton will speak at Watts & Price's hall at Scappoose, on the political issues of the day, next Saturday evening, May 15th. The public, including the ladies, are invited.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.—There will be a grand republican rally at Mooreville this (Friday) evening, May 15th, at 8 o'clock. T. J. Cleaton will be the orator of the evening. The public is cordially invited to be present. The ladies are especially requested to be present. People of all political faiths are invited.

TRAIN STOPS AT HOULTON.—Mr. C. W. Garrison, who lives two miles out of town, came in last Saturday morning to go to Portland on the Iralda, he having urgent business in the city that day. On arriving here he learned the Iralda was not running. It was then necessary to take the train, and upon being informed as to the train stopping at Houltou, he drove to Scappoose to make connection.

SOVEREIGN SPEECH.—J. H. Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, spoke in this city last Tuesday night upon the political issues of the day from a populist standpoint. The meeting was fairly well attended and considerable enthusiasm was at times manifested. Those in sympathy with the speaker's ideas thought it a fine speech, while those who take issue with him pronounced the effort a failure, inasmuch as the speaker severely criticized the legislation of the two old parties, yet did not offer any remedy in case the populists got into power.

LADDERING UNDER A MISTAKE.—The newspaper is considered the legitimate prey of all classes, and consequently a printing bill is the last one to be paid. A very large per cent of the public seem to take it for granted that a printer does not need money; that he has nothing else to do but work incessantly for the public good and pay for the privilege. There are those persons who have money for every other purpose save paying their bills. If some who owe us had our bills to meet at the end of each month they might discover that a little cash was necessary to carry on the business, and forthwith present themselves at the business office for an accounting.

THESE ARE NUMEROUS.—The business man who is always ready to say "it doesn't pay to advertise," is always very anxious to have a note made of the fact that he has just received a large invoice of goods direct from the factory, etc. And the person who does not subscribe for his home paper, but who, by the way, reads it every week, is always watching to see some mention in its columns of himself or family. And again the local paper is expected to work to promote the general interests of the community, advocate new enterprises, to defend the good name of the citizens—collectively and individually—yet those who receive their "it doesn't pay to advertise," or, "I can't afford to subscribe."

STAY AT HOME.—There is no question but what the men who have been rushing off to Alaska, Cripple Creek, and other places for gold have made sad mistakes. The Salem Post tells of one case: A man arrived in Salem today from Cripple Creek, Colorado, who does not paint the situation there in the most rosy hue. He stated that he was able to ride there, but had to walk back, and is now on the way to his home near Myrtle Point, Coos county. He said the land for sixty miles around Cripple Creek was staked out in mining claims, and that very few of them are worth the paper the claim notice is written upon. There are 4000 idle men in the district at present, who have no means of getting away from the place but by walking. Everything in the way of a necessity is very high priced. Rooms are so scarce and costly that men are glad to pay 50 cents for the privilege of occupying a chair in a saloon during the night.

SAWMILL ENTANGLEMENTS.—Smith's mill at Rainier has of late attracted considerable attention. First a company was formed consisting of one of the owners and two others, and operations were to begin at once. A raft of logs was purchased and delivered to the mill, stores were purchased to start the mill, and other arrangements made. About this time Smith died, leaving the two new partners in charge. Meantime the parties from whom the raft was purchased wanted their money, but it could not be had. A few days later one of the remaining lessees succeeded in ousting the other, and from this time the entanglements increased at a rapid rate. The ousted partner, who in person had purchased the raft of logs, but who had not paid for them, determined to have the logs and negotiated a sale of them to a down river saw mill at a low price, so the story goes, than he agreed to pay the original owner. The party in charge of the mill refused to permit the logs to be taken away, whereupon a little later under cover of darkness a tow boat was secured and early morning dawned the sawlogs were well on their way to a second market, still in their unfinished state. The story is a long one, and is not yet complete.

Public Speaking.—T. J. Cleaton, whose intention it is to stump Columbia county, in the interest of the republican party, will speak at Mayer on the 25th, at 8 o'clock p. m.; at Beaver Falls on the 26th at 1 o'clock p. m., and at Aply at 7 30 p. m. of same day; at Mt on the 27th at 7 30 p. m.; at Fishhawk on the 28th at 1 o'clock p. m., and at Vernonia on the 29th at 8 o'clock in the evening. Committeemen will please secure halls, make announcements, etc.

It May Do as Much for You.—Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back, and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures, but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to the cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50 cents and 1.00. For sale at Dr. Edwin Ross' drug store.

MORE POINTED REMARKS.

VERNONIA, Or., May 11, 1896.

EDITORS MINT.—The difference between myself and the managing element of the county populist convention is a matter of principle and not a matter of office, as the "organ" of the "judge" would fain make believe. I presented the following resolutions to the committee on resolutions, of which W. A. Wood was chairman, and R. Seeseman was a member:

"Whereas, The state constitution, Article 11, Section 10, provides that no county shall incur a debt to exceed $5000; therefore be it resolved, That any excess over the constitutional limit without law, and therefore void, and any tax levied by the county court, with any other interest or principal of such excess of indebtedness is in violation of the official oath of said court."

Mr. Wood read the resolutions carefully and remarked that "every word of them were true. But they (the convention) dare not adopt them for they (the republicans) would call us anarchists." I then presented the resolutions to the convention which, through the ignorance in the chair, by his arbitrary dictum, utterly ignored their consideration. Many of the members of the convention, when they began to comprehend the substance of the resolutions, severely criticized the tyrannical action of the chair. As the matter contained in the resolutions was the "only clean cut and positive declaration of reform" in the administration of the county affairs if adopted by the convention it followed logically that I, being the author of those resolutions, would therefore, by all precedent and fair dealing, would and should be the nominee of the convention for the chief officer of the county board.

Mr. Wood saw this, and knowing that the central committee had slated the office to Seeseman, refused to adopt the resolutions although "every word of them were true."

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.)

First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom. To this we would add, always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best, and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.

THEY ARE INELIGIBLE.

Women Cannot Act as County School Superintendents.

PENDLETON, Or., May 11.—The supreme court, in session here, handed down a decision in the case of the State of Oregon ex rel. Carter, vs. Nellie M. Stevens, involving the eligibility of Miss Stevens to hold the office of county school superintendent of Union county.

The decision, which is a lengthy one, quotes article VI, sec 3, of the constitution, which provides, "No person shall be elected or appointed to a county office who shall not be an elector of the county," and section 2 of article 11 of the same instrument, which defines an elector as a male citizen. "Hence," the court says, "it necessarily follows that none but male citizens can be elected or appointed for county offices. Now, the office of superintendent of schools, although not so mentioned in the constitution, was, at the time of the adoption of that instrument and ever since has been and is now, unmistakably a county office. It is so named and designated in the statutes creating the office, and providing for the jurisdiction and duties of the head thereof. The incumbent is nominated and elected at the same time and in the same manner as other county officers; his jurisdiction is co-extensive with the boundaries of his county; his salary is fixed and paid by the county, and vacancies in the office are filled by appointment of the county court. In short, the office is in every sense a county office. Therefore it follows that whatever views we may entertain as to the propriety of the constitutional provisions prohibiting women from holding county offices, we have no alternative but to declare that, under the provisions of that instrument, as it now exists, they are ineligible to the office in question, and that the act of 1893, as far as it conflicts with the constitution, is void. The judgment of the court below is therefore affirmed."

The decision was rendered earlier than was expected, owing to the approaching elections. There are 15 women candidates for this office in the state. In Morrow county the three candidates are all women. As candidates' certificates must be filed before May 15th, the time is short in which to prepare them.

I will condescend to notice a few bold assertions made by the "judge's" organ, and as the article in question is the leading editorial in the issue of May 7th, it shows how highly favored is the "judge's" interests. "When a man obtains an election on two votes is counted out, and is appointed when there is no vacancy and his bondmen verify to less than the law allows, etc." There were seven votes cast for recorder, of which R. Seeseman, received two and M. Davison five, but on a technical point the election was decided illegal, and Davison was appointed. As to the bond, the council had so much confidence in their appointee if it had not been a matter of form they would have required no bond at all.

In the issue of The Mint of the 8th inst., I see an article signed "E. Seeseman." "The hand is the hand of Esau, but the voice is the voice of Jacob." It says: "We are sorry (that is, Seeseman and the writer) that the (Davison's) petition for a place on the populist ticket for judge met with such poor success in his own neighborhood."

This statement is made out of whole cloth and there is not a word of truth in it, not even a shadow of truth. I did not wish to impeach the veracity of the learned (7) "judge," but he has compelled me to do so, and I challenge the proof as I am not expected to prove a negative. But I will say Mr. Frank Baker circulated a petition (so I am informed) in favor of ousting Seeseman and putting the name of L. W. Detrick on his place. I did not sign the petition, neither did I see it. Seeseman's man, "Friday," "chief counselor," etc., writes in a grandiloquent VanDykean style, and if he continues writing for illiterate candidates he may yet reap his reward and write his name high on the temple of fame.

VERNONIA VARIETIES.

Editor Mitchell and family of the Sentinel was visiting in Vernonia Sunday.

J. E. Dow, Ralph Rodgers and Bessie Wilson are attending the teachers examination at St. Helens this week.

The populist crowd from Vernonia built a boat especially for the purpose of attending the populist speaking at Mt.

C. W. Blakesley, our next sheriff, was wading Nehalem and last week posting election notices and notifying jurors.

Five bears were seen at one time feeding on the carcass of a drowned cow near Parker's. The Parker boys have "bagged" two of them.

The Young Peoples Alliance is talking up the feasibility of having a Union county convention of the various young peoples' religious societies of Columbia county.

The populist debaters of Vernonia are fixing up some "hard nuts to crack" to present to T. J. Cleaton May 29th when he is expected to address the people of this vicinity.

Messrs. Reed, Stark, Black and others have located what they think will be some very valuable mining claims near the headwaters of Rock creek in the coast range, about twelve miles from Vernonia.

L. W. VanDyke ran up against a bear with two cubs a few days ago. Van says the bear got away. Others say it was the man that got away. It seems to have been an exciting race any way.

The republican ticket is sure to show up a good majority in this precinct next June. The populists cannot seem to offer any excuse at all for voting for any of their candidates, with possibly two or three exceptions.

When Edly was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a man, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

B. T. Smith, of Rainier, was in this city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Muckle visited Portland Monday.

Mr. W. H. Dolman did business in the Metropolis Monday.

Attorney W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was in attendance on circuit court Tuesday.

Mrs. T. J. Cleaton left yesterday for Vernonia which she was summoned to the bedside of a sister who is very ill.

Mrs. T. C. Watts, of Goble, was in this city last Saturday, and in the evening was present at the meeting of the Eastern Star.

Try those delicious flavoring extracts at the New drug store. They are made by us, and are the pure extracts of the fruit.

Miss Lula Henderson, of Clatsop county, is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Captain and Mrs. A. Henderson, at Houltou, this week.

Miss Minnie Willis and Mrs. Hattie Crandall, of Hillsboro, were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Beegle last Sunday, returning home on Monday.

T. J. Cleaton returned to Clatskanie county yesterday where he was billed to speak at Needy last evening. This concludes his campaign in that county.

At the New drug store there is a large invoice of the very latest novels by such authors as A. Canon Doyle, Hall Caine, Anthony Hope and Robert Louis Stevenson and other popular writers.

The district lodge, Good Templars, will hold their next meeting in St. Helens on the second instead of the first Wednesday in August, as stated in these columns last week. Note the change.

Merle Shandaban, who has been living with her sister, Mrs. Cleaton, of this place, left on Tuesday for her home at Vernonia to assist in caring for her older sister who is very ill at that place.

W. M. Perry, of the Rainier Review, was in the city Tuesday looking for whom he might devour in a political way, and incidentally looking for other matters necessary to the publication of a newspaper.

George Merrill, populist candidate for county treasurer, has declined the nomination and has filed his declination with the county clerk. As the matter now stands the race for that office is between J. H. Swager, republican, and W. H. Dolman, democrat.

In the probate court yesterday Judge Blanchard heard the final rehear of the Bailey estate matter and discharged the guardian of the minor heir and released his bondsmen on condition that Rice pay to the estate the sum of $200, which amount, it seems, is all that is left of the estate after paying expenses.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.

The following named persons presented themselves as applicants for teachers' certificates, at the examination being conducted in this city by Superintendent Watts: Messrs. Ralph Rogers, J. E. Dow and A. J. Smith; Misses Tillie Cheldelin, Grace Moeck, Emily L. Adams, Mattie Zook, La A. Bonser, Iris W. Tarbell, Minnie V. Myers, Susie Godman, Daisy Silver, Belle Wilson, Mrs. J. F. Zimmerman, Josephine Preston and Mrs. L. M. Little.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism, and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm ceased the pain, and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paragoric, Batesman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Piercher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive rights to Dr. Piercher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 25 cents, or one-cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.
