HIGHER AND HIGHER.—Notwithstanding the cool weather and rain for the past ten days, the Columbia has been gradually raising. Stockmen and others on the low lands have watched the water guage each day and hour almost, hoping at any minute to see it come to a standstill, and hoping against fate that they would not have to abandon their homes, but they found that hope did not stop the water, and proceeded to embark for higher ground. About the only man left on Sauvie's island is Frank Dow, whose place is somewhat higher than the general lay of the land, but he too, will be compelled to vacate should the water come three or four feet higher. It looks now as if the water would remain high for some time, inasmuch as there is said to be a great deal of snow in the mountains, in fact more than usual at this season of the year. The lateness of the season when the water shall recede from the bottom lands will hardly give the grass time to make hay before the fall rains and it will also be too late for potatoes, a great deal of which is usually raised on the Columbia bottoms. The limit of water is not yet reached and the weather conditions will have to do with the extent of the flood, so that at the present all is speculation.

SURPRISE PARTY.—At Warren, Upper Town, last Tuesday evening there was an enjoyable surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and chat, and at 12 o'clock the merry throng dispersed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hegele, Mrs. E. Harms, Mrs. H. Larsen, Misses Minnie and Birdie Downing, Laura Pusey, Allo Bacon, May Harms, May Larsen, Messrs. F. Pusey, J. Sammons, F. Beegle, C. Harms, E. Harms, J. Bacon, W. Bacon, H. W. Larsen, R. Downing, O. Clark, L. Pusey, Frankie Hoyt and Dell Semple.

SAFE ROBBERS AT LARGE.—No clew has yet been had to the parties who blew open the safe in the county clerk's office last week. The safe doors have been in Portland several days for repairs and in the meantime the more valuable documents of the clerk's office are kept in the large vault, causing considerable inconvenience. The burglars got away with very little money, the greatest loss being the damage to the safe.

BOATING PULP.—I. G. Wikstrom's steamboat and scows have been engaged for two or three weeks boating pulp wood from Government island, just above Vancouver, to the paper mills at Oregon City. The rapid rise in the river required that the wood be moved at once or be washed away.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Andrew King was in Portland Wednesday.

W. J. Deits, of Rainier, was in town Wednesday.

B. T. Smith, of Rainier, was in town Wednesday.

Newton Perry, of Houlton, was in Portland Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Wikstrom were passengers up to Portland on the Gatzert Wednesday.

Dr. Edwin Ross was in Portland Wednesday attending the State Medical Association's meeting.

H. Varwig, of the firm of H. Varwig & Son, Portland, was interviewing some of our business men Wednesday last.

Newell & Watkins have within the past few days added a new and convenient office desk to their store furniture.

Muckle Bros. were very busy the first of the week hauling rock onto the wharf to prevent damage by the high water.

Dow Keasey, of Keasey, who has been in Portland for several months, passed through this place Wednesday on his way to Nehalem.

Rev. C. N. Plowman will preach on Sunday, June 14, at Foster's hall, Reuben, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. He desires to meet all his old friends.

The annual session of the Masonic grand lodge met in Portland Wednesday. The representatives from St. Helens are D. J. Switzer, E. E. Quick and U. W. Clark.

T. J. Cleeton returned from Vernonia last Sunday evening, leaving Mrs. Cleeton at the bedside of her sister at that place, whose serious illness is a cause for much uneasiness among her friends.

The Order of Eastern Star held its annual session in Portland, beginning Monday. Mizpah Chapter, in this city was represented by Mrs. J. G. Muckle, Mrs. C. H. Johns and Mr. Jacob George.

C. H. Newell and Mrs. G. H. Lemont, of this place, and Mrs. John Urie and Harry Dunn, of Houlton, left Tuesday for The Dalles to attend the grand lodge of Good Templars now being held in that city.

The young blood of this city has organized itself into a baseball team, and the usual subscription paper was circulated and quite liberally patronized. The grounds will soon be placed in good condition, and then—well, we don't know what.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.

CLATSKANIE.

James Van and son, Nathan, made Portland a visit last week.

A. F. Myers made a business trip to Portland the first of this week.

Miss Maud Bryant was over from Mist to spend a day or two with her parents.

Rev. Atkinson is spending a few days in Portland, and will be absent next Sunday.

Too much water for seineing brings some of the boys in off the river. It is worse than the strike.

A sale of furniture and effects took place at the City hotel last week. Mrs. Mary C. Hill was the purchaser.

Dr. Hall is in Portland this week attending the sessions of the State Medical Society on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Laura Nichols returned to Clatskanie last week after an absence of some months spent at The Dalles.

Arrangements are being made for special exercises in the church next Sabbath evening appropriate to childrens' day.

Miss Rhoda John was a passenger on the steamer arriving Friday morning and is spending a few days with friends in this neighborhood.

The latest at the home of Ferd Prahl is a daughter, and the father views the scene with tranquility. No little matters like that disturb Ferd any. All doing well.

Mrs. Fisk and daughter, of the Clatskanie hotel, took an outing to Portland last week, and as a result some new furniture is being added to the equipment of the hotel.

George Barr has been looking in on us for a few days, and as we look back on him we declare he is the same old George. We did not learn where he is sojourning at present.

The inimitable R. C. Frits passed through town last week towards the Nehalem valley, returning in time to spend a day hereabouts and take the steamer for Portland Monday evening.

Oliver Wilson and Miss Macoon, of Nehalem, are said to have united their hearts and fortunes to sail together over the matrimonial sea. We wave our 'kerchief and wish them "bon voyage."

Miss Hovey, of Portland, passed through town last week for her claim on Lower Nehalem. She left for Mist in a wagon with Mr. Beckman's family, who were on their return from Portland.

Attorney George Davis, of Portland, was in our town on legal business last Wednesday. He carried away with him some impressions of the place taken with a kodak which he brought with him.

John Blackford struck out for Mayger Monday morning with a paint can or two and a supply of brushes, ready to do any painting that was in sight. John knows how to handle a paint brush.

Norman Merrill is not required at this time to thank the numerous persons who cast the one vote that elected him. The majority now is not overwhelming, but enough to relieve him of the embarrassment occasioned by the narrow margin of four years ago.

Ed Carlson at the Beaver logging camp was unfortunate enough to get a fearful gash cut in his right elbow from an ax that slipped out of the hands of a companion while the two were barking a log on Saturday. The injury will be likely to put him off duty for some time.

Mrs. Fabrique, accompanied by Mrs. Marshall Shearer, came in from Nehalem one day last week, partly to see the folks, but mostly to get rid of an aching tooth or two that made life in the woods "mighty oncomfortable." She left next day minus the teeth, expecting to enjoy ranch life better.

Mrs. Hall, sr., left on Wednesday evening's boat to take steamer at Portland for San Diego, Cal., where she has a daughter residing. She spent something over six months here in the family of her son, Dr. Hall, and expressed herself very well pleased with the people she met during her stay here. She will be missed from our town.

A supply of new singing books and new musicians has added additional interest to the Sunday school gatherings. Misses Carrie Tichenor at the organ, Annie English and Leota Merrill with their violins, combine to make an excellent orchestral accompaniment to the vocal music that is a prominent part of the exercises of each session. The music alone is well worth a visit to the school.

DEEP CREEK.

JUNE 8, 1896.

EDITORS MIST:—Thinking a few items from this part of the county might be of interest to your many readers, the present affords me leisure sufficient to jot down a few of the many incidents that has taken place since the correspondent of this locality was heard from.

Mrs. G. T. Daywalt went to Portland last week for medical treatment.

The Sunnyside school is progressing nicely under the efficient care of Mr. Edgar Wilson.

The road supervisor of district No. 12 has been interviewing the able-bodied citizens of this vicinity, presumably for the betterment of the public highways.

Although there has been quite a number of people complaining more or less, there has been no serious cases of sickness, and at the present time we hear of but very few cases, except those of a chronic nature.

The Deep Creek school began last Monday with Miss Beatrice Gregg in charge. Miss Gregg is a teacher of wide experience, having taught several terms in Clatsop and other counties, and in all cases giving perfect satisfaction; therefore we can safely predict a successful term in this case.

The election has been the all-absorbing topic for the past few weeks, but now it is a thing of the past, and the result is satisfactory—at least to the victorious—while some of the vanquished candidates have consolation in the fact that they are not dependent on a county office for their "bread and butter."

Our old and trusted friend, Anton Oleson, is to take his departure tomorrow for Southern Oregon, where he expects to try his luck in gold mining. He takes with him the sincere good wishes of all who know him. If industry, sobriety and persistent dilligence counts anything, we can expect that success will crown his efforts.

The farmers are happy in the thought that they are yet the most independent class of citizens, in this county, at least. Crop prospects were never better although it has been an unusually cool and wet spring. There will probably be a surplus production of wheat in this neighborhood, with a gristmill near at hand, which is an assurance that "the staff of life" is not wanting. The fruit crop prospects are not so flattering, especially the earlier varieties. Late apples will probably be about an average yield.

There has been a material change made of late in what is known as Wood's Landing road, which is decidedly the most practicable route to the summit of the divide between the Nehalem and Columbia, that has yet been found. There has already been several hundreds of dollars expended on the opening of the new road, which was subscribed by parties in and out of the valley. The manner in which the work is being performed reflects great credit to all who have taken an active part in this most commendable enterprise. At the present time there are ten or twelve men at work, with all necessary appliances with them, camping on the grounds where the work is to be done; with a united effort, a union of purpose and a mutual good feeling they will, by the last of the week, have accomplished their task. The new part of the road is cleared of every obstruction twenty feet wide with bridges and corduroy wherever needed. Mr. John Boxler is boss "ex-officio" because he is the hardest worker. "ANON."

MARRIED.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long, and perhaps fatal billious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 60 cents and $1 per bottle at Dr. Edwin Ross' drug store.

Jones, He Pays the Freight.

Send for a copy of "The Buyers' Guide," with latest reductions and market reports. Sent free to any address. Freight on $20 order of goods paid to any point on the Columbia river, reached by Portland boats. Jones' Cash Store, 105 Front street, between Washington and Stark, Portland, Oregon.

OFFICERS ELECTED. — The grand chapter, Order Eastern Star, held in Portland this week, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. F. A. Helm, worthy grand matron; John Vert, worthy grand patron; Mrs. M. Lutke, associate worthy grand matron; C. H. Janes, associate grand patron; Mrs. M. B. Conkling, grand secretary; Mrs. G. M. Strange, grand treasurer; Mrs. Carrie Wise, grand conductress; Mrs. Jennie Muckle, associate grand conductress.

How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.)

First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add, always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best, and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.
