Judge Joseph B. Doan, Rainier

ST. HELENS, OREGON, JULY 31.

In a speech delivered at Atlantic, Iowa, Aug. 28, 1894, Mr. Bryan said: "I do not believe in stopping tariff reform until the last vestige of protection is eradicated from legislation."

ENGLAND is more nearly a free trade country than any other, and her system of taxation furnishes an unmet example of the practice and principle of a revenue tariff.

The teachers' institute should be attended by every friend of education, whether as teacher or patron.

The effect of the democratic administration and its hard times tariff legislation is shown in the increase of foreclosures of railroads.

The populist convention at St. Louis last week, nominated W. J. Bryan for president and Thomas F. Watson, of Georgia, for vice president.

COLEY, At Glencoe, Washington County on Friday July 29, 1894, of cancer, Mrs. Louisa Coley, aged 74 years.

HE ROBBED A WIDOW, TOO.—The books of George F. McConnell, the defaulting Knight of Pythias grand keeper of records and seal, are being examined by experts, and from present indications the loss to the grand lodge will not amount to more than $1000, although the subordinate lodges will lose whatever remittances they made to McConnell after the change in the constitution.

HE ROBBED A WIDOW, TOO.—The books of George F. McConnell, the defaulting Knight of Pythias grand keeper of records and seal, are being examined by experts, and from present indications the loss to the grand lodge will not amount to more than $1000, although the subordinate lodges will lose whatever remittances they made to McConnell after the change in the constitution.

died in the order by the late H. G. Mathies, and spent it with the rest of his belongings. The money was placed in McConnell's hands to pay the widow, and he blew it in, and the widow is deprived of the benefits which the husband provided for her by withholding the order.—Wednesday Oregonian.

TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL.—The State Normal at Monmouth has developed a strong training department. The senior year is made almost wholly professional, with a half-year of psychology and general and special methods, and a half-year of teaching under the supervision of thoroughly competent critic teachers.

WILL PLAY BALL.—A match game of baseball on the hills for tomorrow at 1 o'clock p. m., between the St. Helens and Clatskanie nines. The visitors will arrive on the Shaver to-night. The game will take place at the grounds of the home club about a half a mile back of the city and promises to be one of more than usual interest, since the home team are exceedingly anxious to regain the laurels lost on the Fourth, at Clatskanie.

Is the probate court this week Judge Doan transacted the following business:

In the matter of the estate of E. L. Jenson, deceased. Final report of administratrix accepted and administratrix discharged.

VALLEY ITEMS. Forest fires are doing great damage in this part of the county.

Hay is about over and farmers have commenced cutting grain. The haycock is a little over the average this year.
