

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

We met the enemy and they're our'n. Editor Sanford visited Kalama last Monday. Dr. H. R. Cliff was a Portland visitor last Friday. Harry West, of Scappoose, was in this city Tuesday. W. A. Wood, of Rainier, was in Portland last Friday. Sheriff Rice was doing business at Clatskanie last Monday. The assessment rolls will be completed probably this week. Miss Bertha Detrick, of Pittsburg, came over from that place last Sunday. Columbia county outdore herself on Tuesday, the 3d, by casting nearly 2000 votes. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dow spent several days on their farm during the present week. Mr. and Mrs. A. Davis witnessed the ratification in Portland last Wednesday evening. Mr. H. O. Howard, of Yankton, was attending to business affairs in Portland last Monday. Captain James Good has moved his family into the Kubert house recently vacated by J. S. Cloninger. Judge McBride was in town a short time last Friday, and in the evening went to Astoria to hold court. Professor Hall has moved into the Miles house next to the schoolhouse, recently vacated by Captain Good. The populists elected the county clerk, commissioner and school superintendent in Clatskanie county, Wash. Burt Schoonover, of Vernonia, came over from that place last Sunday, and returned with relatives one day during the week. Mr. R. A. Habbersham, of Portland, Oregon's surveyor-general, was in this city over last Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dillard. Sunday, November 15th, Rev. A. Weinert will preach at Goble, in the morning at 11 and in the evening at 7. All are cordially invited. Mrs. J. G. Muckle, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Beagle, David Davis and Geo. H. Lemont were passengers on the Kellogg for Portland last Friday. President Cleveland has proclaimed Thursday, the 26th day of November, as a thanksgiving day, it being the last Thursday in this month. Captain Good, of the steamer Young America, severely sprained his ankle one day last week, and in consequence was off duty for several days. Mrs. W. H. Conyers was in this city Tuesday visiting friends. Accompanied by her husband, she went to Oregon City the same day to visit her daughters. It was simply a spontaneous combustion of public sentiment that elected McKinley president of this glorious country of ours. May it continue to so explode. County School Superintendent J. G. Watts was among the number from this county who witnessed the great republican demonstration in Portland Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Allen went to Astoria last Friday night. Mr. Allen had matters pending in the circuit court of Clatsop county which required his attention. The Astoria steamers are carrying a large amount of salmon from the lower river canneries, and in consequence the mail boat is usually late in arriving at this place. Circuit court will begin at Hillsboro on Monday, November 23, at which time the trial of X. N. Steeves, on a charge of venue from Multnomah county, will take place. Miss Nora Conyers, of Oregon City, started for California this week, where she hopes to find a more congenial climate, as her health has not been good for several months past. R. H. Mitchell, of Vernonia, was in this city a few days this week. Mr. Mitchell says that while the result of the late election did not suit him, it was as he expected it to be. Attorney W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was in this city Tuesday shaking hands with friends and jubiling with fellow republicans over the marvelous success of the republican party. Charles Meserve, of the Oregon City Enterprise, was visiting friends in this city last Sunday. Mr. Meserve was just recovered from a siege of sickness, and was out on a recuperating trip. Mr. M. C. Gray, the efficient operator at this place, is deserving of thanks for the diligent manner in which he executed his part of the agreement to supply St. Helens people with the election returns. I. G. Wikstrom's steamer, Harvest Moon, took a scowload of cedar telegraph poles to Astoria yesterday from Lake River. The cargo consisted of 800 poles, and are to be used along the line of the new railroad. Owing to the fact that there has been an over amount of work in the clerk's office this week it was impossible to prepare the copy of the court proceedings for the printer. We will publish the matter next week. Hon. John F. Caples received 197 more votes in this county for presidential elector than did N. L. Butler, first man on the Bryan ticket, while T. T. Geer received 193 votes more than Hofer, second names on the two tickets. Mrs. E. Perry, of Houlton, returned last Saturday from a four week's trip through Iowa. She visited mostly at Muscatine City, that being her old home. She reports a pleasant trip, and comes home much pleased with the journey. The Mist wants a correspondent at Scappoose, Goble, Deer Island, Mist, Mayger, Warren, Delena, in fact in every locality in the county. Will every person in each locality who is interested in having their section represented in these columns volunteer to do this work? Stationery will be furnished for that purpose.

Mrs. R. Cox was a Portland visitor yesterday. Mr. C. H. Piggott was in Portland Wednesday. Henry Burnett, of Yankton, was in town Wednesday. THE MIST and Oregonian one year for $2.00 in advance. Mrs. E. Perry went to Rainier yesterday to visit relatives. Dr. C. G. Caples, of Columbia City, was in town Wednesday. Mrs. Jesse Hendricks, of Paris, was in town Wednesday last. J. S. Cloninger is moving into the Kelly house on Cowlish street. Ed Joseph took in the sights in the metropolis Wednesday evening. County warrants taken at their face value on subscription at this office. Andrew King was a Portland visitor Wednesday, taking passage on the Potlar. The Semi-Weekly St. Louis Globe-Democrat and The Mist for $1.75 for one year. Mr. W. H. Dolman expects to start for California in a short time to spend the winter. School report cards for sale at this office. Teachers desiring them should write at once. Mrs. James Cox and Mrs. Harry Dunn, of Houlton, visited Portland Wednesday. L. W. Vandye, of Vernonia, was in this city this week attending the teachers' examination. Ed Webster and John Baker, of Vernonia, passed through this city Wednesday on their way home from Portland. Now is the time to secure your winter's reading at a low figure. Get the Weekly Oregonian and The Mist together for $2.00. A. H. Blakesley, Dr. H. R. Cliff went to Portland last Wednesday to take part in the great republican ratification meeting. If any one doubts that the rainy season is with us, let him leave home for a few hours without an umbrella, mackintosh or rubbers. Mr. Perry Hall expects to have a harness shop in operation in this city soon. It will be located adjoining A. King's blacksmith shop. Mr. George Merrill was in this city Tuesday last. He exhibits some beautiful owl specimens taken from a mine near Kalama, Wash. Miss Lillie Buser, who is teaching school in the Musgrove district on Sauvie island, spent last Saturday and Sunday with her sister at Caples. Good advice: Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross. Justice Edwin Merrill of Deer Island, and Justice A. N. Clark of Houlton, were in the city Tuesday assisting in making the official canvass of the votes cast on November 3. Mr. H. L. Warren, of Clatskanie, was a passenger down on the Shaver last Sunday evening from Portland, where he had been attending to business matters for several days. J. N. Russell shot and killed his son-in-law, Andrew Carlson, at Marshfield last Sunday. Russell offered no excuse for committing the crime, and said he was willing to be hanged for it. Prof. W. A. Wood, of Rainier, was attending to business in our city Tuesday. He will spend the winter on his ranch in Beaver valley, and expects to recuperate his health. Tom Nordby, the Shaver's pursuer, is a stayer. Before election he guaranteed Sheriff Rice that if McKinley was elected he (Nordby) would pay Mr. Rice 98 per cent for his county warrants, and true to republican principle, Tom is staying with the agreement. Mr. C. F. Blyth, of Portland, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Blyth has been investing in Columbia county warrants for several years, but some time ago withdrew from the field to await the result of the election. He is again buying the county's paper, paying the highest market price. On last Monday afternoon the ladies of Houlton met and organized a Ladies' Aid Society for the purpose of helping the cause of the church and such as are in need. With good courage they meet on Thursday to begin their active work. If you have any employment to offer come and see them, and they will go and see you and do you good. Hen. Norman Merrill, who was recently taken to the hospital in Portland for medical treatment, was seen in this city last Friday by a Mist reporter, and his physical condition is much improved. Mr. Merrill is taking as good care of his health as possible in order to be able to be on hand at the session of the legislature to convene in January. The steamer Sarah Dixon was the first boat to make a round trip from The Dalles to Portland and return through the new locks at the cascades. She was in command of Captain Fred Sherman, with Captain Dell Shaver as first officer. The Sarah Dixon and Dallas City are making regular trips between Portland and The Dalles. On the bank of Willamette slough near Scappoose landing there are perhaps more than 5000 cords of wood, which have been placed there by people living in the vicinity of Scappoose. This is the result of one year's work, and if prices were what they were six or eight years ago those persons would receive more liberal compensation for the year's product. To prove the extreme faith Robert Patrick, of Vernonia, had in the republican party being able to carry its issues to a successful termination, we record a bet Bob made on the election with one of his neighbors. Bob has a horse which he prizes very highly and which he wagered against the neighbor's dog, that McKinley would be elected president. So as the result was in Bob's favor he now has both dog and horse.

PROBATE.—Judge Doan has made the following appointments: Matilda C. Johnson, guardian of Carl F. Gustafson, insane; Anna C. Berg, guardian of the minor children of Erik L. Jepson, deceased. MARRIAGE LICENSE.—The following marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk: Angus McGillivray and Nellie Popham, Fred A. Ramsay and Susie Bachman, G. A. Riggs and Lilly B. Sutton. TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.—The regular quarterly examination of teachers took place this week, commencing Wednesday. The following applicants were present: H. S. Miller, Goble; L. W. VanDyke, Vernonia; Miss Bertha Detrick, Pittsburg; Miss Sarah Smalley, Clatskanie. A STRANGE DISEASE.—A strange disease has developed in the young salmon at the Clackamas hatchery, by which, it is said, about half of the 2,000,000 brought from the salmon river have been destroyed. The only visible sign of the disease is a white spot on the belly of the young fish, and in every case it appears to be fatal. Superintendent Hubbard will send specimens that have died of the strange malady to Washington for examination. BRITISH BARK ASHORE.—The British bark Zinita went ashore near the entrance to Gray's harbor last Monday. She is an iron vessel of 1525 tons, and lays close to where the bark Abercorn was wrecked a few years ago. The Zinita was 40 days out from Japan to Portland, Or., in ballast to load wheat, and first sighted land on Sunday morning about 9 o'clock, she being then about five miles off the coast, and abreast of Quinsault river. The heavy current that sets in along the coast, and a heavy southwest gale, made it impossible for her to stand out to sea, and at 1 o'clock she was forced to hold her, and she gradually drifted ashore, being in a similar position to the Glenmorang, wrecked north of the mouth of the Columbia. The crew consisted of 27 men, under command of James Fraser, and all were landed safely on shore. A dispatch from Aberdeen, Wash., contains the following: "This makes the seventh vessel that has gone ashore on the stretch of beach lying north of Gray's harbor, all of them being foreign vessels, and all strangers to the coast, easily being caught in the same treacherous current that sets in along this coast, and sucked ashore in spite of their efforts. This section of the coast is particularly dreaded for the reason that there is no lighthouse or life-aving station within many miles, the nearest being at Willapa harbor. If there had been telegraphic communication with the North beach, word could have been sent in time to have tugs arrive and tow the bark out of danger, but the length of time necessary to get to Hoquiam was fatal, and when the tugs arrived, no help could be given." VERNONIA VARIETIES. Mr. Bottom, of Jewell, visited Vernonia last Sunday. Lloyd Detrick has returned home from Eastern Oregon. "Mike" Knudson has returned from the Eastern Oregon mines. Some very nice apples have been shipped from the valley this fall. Election bets are being paid off with long faces and the gold standard. Albert Parker has returned home after an absence of several months. The roads near Vernonia have been greatly improved in places by a coating of gravel. Robert Patrick is undecided as to whether he is the winner or the loser in his election bet. Anyhow, he won the dog. L. W. VanDyke gave his school near Mist a vacation on election day, and came home to act as clerk of election. Several parties from Washington county and other points are camped near Vernonia waiting for the fall run of salmon. Mrs. Holstrom, of Mist, was thrown from her horse last week and sustained a broken arm and dislocated wrist joint. Rev. Stewart, of Philomath, presiding elder of the United Brethren church, preached in the Evangelical church last Monday night while on his way home after holding quarterly meeting at the Burn. The Vernonia Literary Society held its first meeting for the winter last Friday evening and elected the following officers: President, Prof. Dow; vice-president, Omar Spencer; secretary, Guy Mills; editor, Miss Myrtle Powell. The society will meet every Friday evening at the Webster hall. RAINIER NEWS. J. R. Beagle, of THE MIST, was in the city Monday. Justice was dispensed in Judge Clarke's court this week. "Old Saul," the cigar drummer, spent Tuesday in Rainier. It is reported that work on the railroad will begin in the near future. Don't forget the grand masquerade ball Friday night at the Masonic hall. Mrs. Kistner visited the metropolis Wednesday, returning Thursday night. The schooner Emma Clandina, Captain Nelson, of San Francisco, is loading lumber from M. Roemer's mill. Professor Wirtz delivered a course of lectures here this week, and the manner in which he handled the subject convinced one that he thoroughly understood it. Dr. A. P. McLaren has opened up a drug store in the new addition to Anrys & Kistner's store, where he is prepared to deal out all kinds of drugs, patent medicines, etc. He also has quite an assortment of cigars, perfumes and toilet articles on hand. The Rainier Review has again changed hands. Mr. Brown, of Kalama, is now at the helm, and we have reason to believe he will put forth a paper second to none in this county. He seems to be the right man in the right place, and we all join in wishing him success. Mr. Arthur Riggs and Miss Lillie Sutton were married Sunday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Riggs, officiating. They are both well known in this community, having lived here for a number of years. Their numerous friends wish them many long years of happiness and prosperity. MARRIED. FOWLER-MILLER.—At the house of F. W. Makinster in Deer Island precinct by Justice G. W. Makinster, on October 22, 1896, Mr. Samuel A. Fowler and Mary M. Miller.

Deer Island to get a beef. Well, John arrived there, captured a nice fat cow and started home with his prize. On the return, however, John got cold and got off to walk, making the larist fast to the horn of Billy's saddle, and turning the horse loose to bring the beef home. Now, Billy knows just how to manage a beef, and it is no uncommon thing for him to bring an animal from miles in the country, alone. He started up the road toward Columbia City, and things went smoothly for a time, but by and by the cow rebelled, and Billy set all of his animal instincts in operation and made use of all the schemes which presented themselves, but manœuvre as he could, that cow wouldn't move. In a little while, before the butcher boy caught up, a minister came along, and seeing the horse pulling one way and the cow the other, cut the rope to liberate them, the cow going toward home at breakneck speed, with fifty or sixty feet of rope dangling after her, and Billy remained at his post, and as near as is possible for a dumb brute to do so, expressed utter disgust at the liberating preacher had taken. John's humor was somewhat crossgrained, and he would not have done a thing to that minister if he could have found him. He returned next day and got the beef. ST. HELENS SCHOOL NOTES. Joe Everell was a caller at school Wednesday. Bessie and Della Turpin entered school Monday. Elmer Newell was sick Wednesday, and therefore was necessarily absent from school. The advanced classes in written and mental arithmetic are reviewing this week for examination next Friday. Miss Hayburn, lately from the East, and who now resides with her father at the lighthouse, was a pleasant visitor at school Friday. The civil government class had a very animated question up for debate Monday, which was, "Resolved, that the Rights of Suffrage should be Granted to Women as well as Men." Of course the girls affirmed with a good deal of spirit. They say our forefathers of revolutionary fame fought because they were taxed without being represented, and the women of today are, and the principle is the same. So we, of the male persuasion, may look for war in four years. Answers to the questions in last week's Mist were given by Fred Watkins, Grace Miles, Elmer Newell, Daisy Watkins and May Whitney. The last two have not been answered yet. NEW QUESTIONS. 1. When, where and by whom were the stars and stripes floated for the first time? 2. Which is the oldest town in Oregon? 3. Who was the first white child born in America? 4. Divide 36 into two parts that one may be five-sevenths of the other. 5. A and B are traveling together. A has $100; B $48. They are met by robbers who take twice as much from A as from B and leave to A three times as much as to B. How much was taken from each? 6. Divide 96 pennies among A, B and C, giving B twice as many as A, and C five more than B. How many will each have? 7. Who is President Cleveland's cabinet? 8. What celebrated authoress died recently, and what books was she the author of? 9. What enlightens the world, though dark itself? 10. Who was president of the United Colonies from the close of the Revolutionary war to adoption of the Constitution? A Pleasant Surprise. On Tuesday, after a somewhat rainy day, the evening was calm. In the beautiful little city of Houlton all seemed in an uneasy and nervous condition, with one exception and that was at the minister's home where all was quiet and settled to do an all evening's work. But soon the tide changed and all was at sea, with one exception and that was at the parsonage, for the occupants were surprised by a sudden rap at the door. Upon opening, there stood (to the greatest surprise of the openers) a large number of friends with smiling faces and arms well filled. Not knowing what it all meant until the poor chickens began to cry for mercy, they were taken care of while the tables, stands, etc., were fast being loaded. The evening was very pleasantly spent together in talking, laughing and singing. It was one long to be remembered for the complete surprise, the sociability, and last but not least for both quantity and quality of the liberal donations to us, for which we heartily thank the many kind friends. Mrs. and Mr. A. WEINERT. For the Homesteader. OREGON CITY, Nov. 11.—Another one of the Oregon and California contests of homestead entries has been decided by Secretary Francis in favor of the settler, on appeal from the commissioner. This entry was by Andrew J. Bagley, and included the west half of the southeast quarter of section 21, 9 s. 5 w. being in Folk county, near Airline. The land embraced in this claim was taken by Israel D. Davis, in 1854, under the donation law. Davis never perfected title, and in 1887, his notification was formally cancelled. About three years ago Bagley entered a part of the land as a homestead, and the Oregon & California company contested, on the ground that upon the extinguishment of Davis' claim, the railroad company's right attached, the corporation having filed its map of definite location January 29, 1870. The secretary sticks to the ruling that Davis' notification segregated the land from the public domain, and that it remained segregated at the time of the railroad company's selection, and, therefore, the company obtained no right to it under the grant of congress, and, of course, cannot dispossess Bagley. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day she was told that she was all right, the pain had left her in two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less.
