Two o'clock Thursday of last week the Benson men succeeded in organiz-ing the lower house of the legislature with a majority numbering thirty-one, There was a large crowd of spectators present, as it had been announced in the morning session of the house that organization would be attempted in the afternoon. A collision of the factions was expected, but nothing of the kind

At 2 o'clock, when Temporary eaker Davis mounted the rostrum Speaker Davis mounted and called the members to order, an audible rustle of expectancy passed around the house. The speaker directed Clerk Moody to call the roll, and the following answered to their names: Benson, Bridges, Brown, Chapman, Conn, Crawford, David, Davis of Umatilla, Gratke, Gurdane, Hogue, Hope, Hudson, Huntington, Jennings, Lake, Langell, Marsh, Merrill, Misener, Mitchell, Nosler, Palm, Riddle, Rigby, Simth of Marion, Somers, Stanley, Thomas, Thompson, Vaughan, Ven-ness, Wagner.

The first formal move of the Benson men was made by Brown. He left his desk and came forward to a position just in front of the speaker's rostrum. Brown addressed Speaker Davis, and, being recognized, began a speech. He said:

"We have sat here for ten days in our effort to organize this house. But rulings of the temporary speaker have at all times been adverse to the possibility of organization. If he has been conscientious in his ruling, I re-spect him."

Brown then went on to recite the history of the failure to organize and, con-cluding with the statement that it was ir earnest purpose and steadfast resolution" to proceed with the business, offered a formal resolution, as fol-

"Resolved, That the present tem-orary speaker, E. J. Davis, be, and he hereby removed, and that Dr. J. N. Smith be, and he is hereby elected speaker pro tem. in his stead. That E. R. Lake and F. S. Stanley be and they hereby are appointed a committee to escort Dr. J. N. Smith to the speak-

The reading of the resolution was seted with great cheers by the lobby, own raised his hand in protest, and led to the spectators to keep

We have serious business to do," he said. "Mr. Speaker," interrupted Riddle of Douglas," addressing Davis. I desire to enter an emphatic protest against this proceeding. I am against this resolution. We have heard some opinions read on this floor from Sena-tor Hoar of Massachusetts, and from nator Thurston of Nebraska. I take it as a piece of impertinence on the part of the senator from Nebraska to offer unsolicited advice as to what we should do in Oregon, and our answer should be in the language of the great and only Pennoyer, 'You attend to your business and we'll attend to ours.' "I will ask the speaker to put the question," said Brown, "although I realize it is a delicate matter for him." "This whole proceeding is out of or-der," replied Davis, coolly, "and I decline to put the question."

"I will then put the question," continued Brown. "All who favor the resolution will say, aye." There was a loud chorus of ayes. "Those opposed, no." Several yells of "No" came

"Carried," cried Brown. Speaker Davis calmly watched the rogress of events and said nothing. mith was marched up beside Davis between Lake and Stanley. When he was opposite the speaker, Smith, who is a very small man, extended his hand to Davis, who is quite tall, and there crowd breathed a sigh of relief and smiled. There was to be no tragedy. It was just plain comedy. Smith asked the pleasure of the house, and Somers promptly got on his feet and read a printed resolution removing Temporary Chief Clerk Moody and appointing R. R. Hays, the Benson caucus nominee. Smith put the mo-tion and it was declared carried, and Hays took a place beside Clerk Moody. Chief Justice Moore was waited upon by a committee, and he swore in the members. Conn then offered a resolution to proceed to permanent organiza-tion, and it carried. H. L. Benson, of Josephine, was placed in nomination for speaker. The roll of the members sworn in was called by Hays. Benson got twenty-eight votes, Benson, Gratke and Misener voting blank.

Moore swore him in, and he made a short speech of thanks. The following officers were then reading clerk, Frank Motter; calendar clerk, E. W. Bartlett; sergeant-at-arms, H. W. Murphy; doorkeeper, s. White (colored.)

Assistant chief clerk, H. S. Jordan;

These were the Benson caucus nominees. They were sworn in by Justice Moore. Bridges presented a resolution empowering the speaker to appoint three pages, a mailing clerk and one three pages, a mailing clerk and one upstairs doorkeeper, and it was adopted. Thomas offered a resolution extending the usual courtesies to newspaper men, and that, too, was adopted.

There was some discussion as to the proper way to notify the senate of the house organization, but it was finally settled by adoption of a resolution by Brown, appointing a committee of two senate and three from the house to notify the governor that the te and the house were organized close season from April 15 to June 1, and from August 15 to September 15. It makes it unlawful for anyone to take salmon with a trap or wheel of any kind. It also restrains the use of seines at any point above the mouth of the Illinois river. A penalty of not less than $25 and not more than $200 fine, or not less than ten days or more than six months' imprisonment is provided for violation of its provisions.

Senator Wade has introduced a bill for the returning to Union county of more than $3,900 that was paid into the state treasury as taxes. Of this amount, 1,708 was paid to the state as

Manifesto Issued by Popultate The Populists have held a caucus and smed the following manifesto, which ives their side of the tangle in the

"To the People's Party of Oregon The undersigned, your members elect to the legislative assembly, ask your ayal support and that of all good citins in our contest for such an organzation of the house as we believe will result in economical and remedial legis-lation that will make an honest vote and a fair count possible in Oregon. and a fair count possible in Oregon. We are contesting for a fair organization of the house, in order to make possible the passage of the Bingham registration bill, the Holt judges-of-election bill, and an amendment to the constitution providing for direct law-making by the people by means of the initiative and referendum in its optional form.

"We are assured by eminent lawyers that the Bingham registration bill is constitutional, and likely to be effective. The Holt bill allows county central committees of each of the three principal political parties to designate one judge of election in each precinct, and committees of the two principal parties to each name one clerk of elec-tion in each precinct. The initiative and referendum need no explanation to Oregon Populists. These measures we believe to be all important in obtaining honest elections and control by the people of lawmaking in Oregon, and there-by preserving our liberties. The situa-"Last June the Republican party elected thirty-eight members of the nouse of representatives. Only twentyeight of this number have agreed to act together in organizing the house. Part of the remaining ten Republican memrs support Mr. Bourne and part do not support any candidate. The Populist and Democratic members are staying out until such time as a Republican majority may agree upon a candidate of its own for speaker, or until a suffi-cient number of them unite with us to assure Bourne's election, which we believe will enable us to obtain the measures herein named. As long as Republicans are thus divided, and it is possible that we may, by preventing organization, finally elect Mr. Bourne, and probably obtain the legislation be-fore mentioned, we feel it to be our duty to the people of Oregon to stay out-wages or no wages. With this knowledge of the facts, we feel that we are entitled to your support for our-selves and our allies."

The manifesto is signed by two sen ators and twelve representatives. It is said that the remaining Populist senstor and representatives, who were out of the city when the caucus was held, fully indorsed the manifesto.

A short session of the house was held Sunday, the temporary speaker having ruled that it was necessary according to the constitution.

The house has again failed to organize before Tuesday and this defers the senatorial election until Tuesday, February 2, and, of course, no ballot can be taken on that date unless the speakership problem is solved before Tuesday of next week.

The senate meets daily, but no business other than the introduction of bills is taken up.

Senator Harmon has introduced vill designed to restore to sheriffs of the various counties the duty of conveying all committed persons to the state ane asylum, reform school and penitentiary. It is merely made the duty of the committing court to place such in charge of the sheriff. Nothing is said as to compensation, but the pre-sumption is that the state is to pay, as at present.

bill in the interest of bicyclists. It directs that all transportation companies shall be required to check and transport bicycles like other baggage. The bill is general in its provisions and de-scribes at length how railroad and other transportation companies shall convey free of all charges to each passenger, with a ticket, not more than 100 pounds of baggage. How it shall be checked and how reclaimed are described, the provisions simply enacting into law the present pratices of railroad

Senator Smith has introduced a bill changing the beginning of the close sea-son on the Columbia from August 10 to August 1. This is in accordance with the recommendation of United States Fish Commissioner McDonald. There are provisions for the regulation A committee was appointed to escort of fishtraps, by which none shall have Benson to the chair. Chief Justice a lead more than 700 feet in length, and no fish wheel shall have a lead of more than forty feet in length. Other regu-lative provisions are added.

Senator Mulkey has introduced a bill intended to prohibit, as far as possible, corrupt practices at elections. It limits the sums of money that may be legitimately expended in securing a nomination or election to any office created by the constitution of state or for representatives in congress. It pro-vides for a public inspection of the expense account of any candidate or political committee. Other states have similar measures on their statute books. and public sentiment in the state of Oregon, Senator Mulkey thinks, is ripe for a similar statute in this state.

A fishtrap bill has been introduced in the senate by Smith of Clatsop. It is provided by the bill that it shall be unlawful to construct, own, maintain or operate any poundnet, fishtrap, fishwheel or other fixed appliance for catching salmon in any waters of the state after January 1, 1899. Penalties are provided. The measure is the same as that introduced in 1895, except that time, until 1899, is given to re move the traps. Two years ago the bill passed the house, but it was defeated in the senate by a close vote.

State Printer Leeds has furnished the senate the first batch of printed bills. The state printer has a large force at work, and is not likely to be far behind at any time in his work.

WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Downing, Hopkins & Company's Review

There has not been any great amount of activity in wheat, nor has the interest in the market from the outside been conspicuous this week. Trading from a speculative standpoint has been lagging, and commission mendid not have so many orders. Fluctuations in the market have been fairly frequent, but the daily range has narrowed some-what. Sellers have been loading up buyers all week on every little rally, and the latter class appear to have got-ten the worst of the bargain, because in their wheat lower down the scale. This depression is traced to many causes and the principal one is as men-tioned above, duliness and lassitude on the part of the trading public. The news of the week has not been sensational in any degree, and one of the points emphasized by sellers, and used with a great deal of effect, is the slackening in the inquiry for flour. The news that several mills that have been grinding away for dear life for the past six months shut down and are actually looking around for storage room for their surplus, is one of the factors that helped to press down. Whether this is a sufficient excuse for the decline remains to be seen, as many of the mills in the Northwest are yet not experiencing difficulty in dipsosing of their product. Elevator systems in the Northwest, in their reports, are, of course, governed largely by farmers' deliveries at their stations. One system operating a line of houses in Minnesota, North and South Dakota, says that deliveries are increasing, which is taken to mean that receipts at Duluth and Minneapolis are bound to increase within the coming week. This was mother argument why wheat should fall off in price.

It is true that cables are steady but ecceptances of offerings made from this side within the past week are not so liberal, and general counterbids have been from the United Kingdom.

SAN FRANCISCO DRUMMER'S CLOSE CALL.

George E. Hendrickson, a Well-known Traveling Man, Describes a Nevet-to-be-forgotten Experi nce— Thought He Was Going to be Launched Into

From the Chronicle, San Francisco, Cal. George R. Hendrickson, of 506 Market street, San Francisco, Cal., is one of the best known commercial travelers on the Pacific coast. Mr. Hendrickson has grown gray in the service but his frosted hair and patriarchial beard are due more to an experience he had about three years ago, than to age. "There was not much to hope for,"

ing his experience yesterday, "and I never expected to take an order again. It is not a pleasant thing to contemplate, when walking along the street, to be seized with a sinking spell and think you are about to be launched into eternity. That was the condition The doctors told me that I was suffering from nervous prostration. Well I guess I was. I had had an attack of the girppe, and my complaint was the re sult of that disease. THE SEED IS THE VITAL THING

Planting must be begun right, else no amount of cultivation or fertilizer can prevent the crop being a failure. The nest step is the selection of the seed. Do not take any risks here. Get seeds that you can depend upon—seeds that are fresh, that have a reputation behind them. The most reliable seeds grown in this country are Ferry's seeds. Wherever seeds are sown the name of D. M. Ferry & Co., of Detroit, Mich., is a guarantee of quality and freshness. The greatest care and strictest caution are exercised in the growing, selection, packing and distribution of their seeds. Not only must they be fresh, but they must be true to name.

On a par with the quality of the seeds is Ferry's Seed Annual for 1897, the most comprehensive and valuable book of the kind ever printed. Every planter, large and small, should get, read and digest this book before planting a single seed. It is free to all who address the irm as above.

Delicious Spells of Provence.

The Provencal annils, which feed in a gourmet fashion upon vine leaves, are peculiarly delicious, and there was a murmur of delight from our company as the four women brought to the table four big dishes full of them; and for a while there was only the sound of eager munching, mixed with the clatter on china of the empty shells. To extract them we had the strong thorns, three or four inches long, of the wild acacia; and on these the little brown morsels were carried to the avid mouths and eaten with a bit of bread sopped in the sauce; and then the shell was subjected to a vigorous sucking, that not a drop of the sauce lingering within it should be lost .- Century.

MILLIONS OF COOK BOOKS GIVEN

There is one large house in this country that has taken business on its turn and means to ride on the rising tide. Alive to the signs of better times and to the best interests of the people, they are now circulating among families a valuable publication known as The Charles T. Vogelen Company's Cookers Book and Book of Cooking. Receipts for the preparation of good, substantial and dainty dishes, prepared especially for it by a leading authority, will be found in its pages. Much care has been taken in its preparation and distribution, with the hope that it will be just the thing needed of for housekeepers, and just the thing needed of for housekeepers, and just the thing needed of the beauth and household. As a Cookery Book it will be invaluable to keep on hand for reference.

It also contains full information in regard to the great remedies of this house, which provide against bodily alments, especially the Master Cure for Pains and Aches, St. Jacobs Oil.

To give some idea of the labor and expense of this output, more than 200 tons of paper have been used in its publication, and at the rate of 100,000 a day, it has taken several months for the issue.

FERRY'S SEED ANNUAL

A short man with the remains of a 'jag" wandered into the Midland, says the Kansas City Journal, and asked for a typewriter's studio. He lives in Kansas, and had been winning bets on the foot-ball games. He wanted to stay another week, but his wife expected him home, so he was in search of a typewriter to send home a letter to serve as an apology for his nonappearance. "Kansas City, this date, ninetysix," he muttered to the typewritist. "I have that." "My dear wife." "Yes." "Very important business will require my presence in Osawatomie for a few " "Let's see," interrupted the artist; "how do you spell that Osawatomie?" "Spell it yourself. It's your typewriter," "I can't." "Can't spell Osawatomie?" he asked, in disgust. 'No." "Then I'll go to Fort Scott."
