SESSIBLE VIEW OF IT.-In Ilwaco is SENSIBLE VIEW OF IT.—In Ilwaco is a sensible couple. They cannot agree, and separate. The husband publishes a notice that he will not be responsible for debts contracted by his wife, and she publishes a notice that she has opened up business for herself and will make her own living. The husband is sensible when he found that he could no longer support his wife, in quitting the effort, and the wife showed sense in grappling the stern realities of life without sitting down and bawling about it. and bawling about it.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETINO — The an anual school meeting for district No. 2 took place in this city Monday even ing. S. A. Miles, senior member of the board, presided. C. H. N. well, clerk, read his report for two years by request of Mr. W. H. Dolman, which report was referred to a special commutate of three consisting of James Dart, E. E. Quick and W. B. Dillard, to report at a later date. Dr. Edwin Ross was elected director for three years and C. H. Newell re-elected clerk for one year. Dr. Ross was not present. ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING -The an one year. Dr. Ross was not present to carpenters and others as an easy method of finding the length of rafters for any given pitch without the use of square root. Try it.

Bound Over.—Victor Wisel, of Goble, was brought before Justice Clark last Tuesday on a charge of burglary preferred by T. C. Watts, of Reuben. It was alleged that Wisel broke into Watts' store at Reuben last Saturday night, and there being no pitch without the use of square root. Try it. Rule—¼ pitch, multiply width of building by the decimal .559; ½ by the decimal .65; ¾ by the decimal .8; ½ by the decimal .8; ½ by the decimal .8; full by the decimal .71; ½ by the decimal .8; full by the decimal .12.

states to send congressmen to repre-sent them?" The foregoing question appeared in the Toledo Bisde, and the answer is as follows: "Such a contingency has never scisen, because the people of no state have ever all been lunatics; and it is not likely ever to elect congressmen would be rebellion." That is a pretty bard lick at the Salem bstructionists who refuse to meet to elect a member of congress to succeed Senator Mitchell, as well as refuse to organize for legislation.

1000 cigars and several gallons of whisky were taken. No clew was had to the guilty parties. Saturday after-noon Mr. Lindley Mecker, at Houlton, noon Mr. Lindley Mecker, at Houlton, discovered a large package conceased among the hay in his barn, and upon examination found it to contain 15 boxes or 750 cigars, and upon closer examination they were found to be the same brand taken from Clouinger's saloon only a few nights previous.
Saturday night two men alept in the baru to watch for the thief, but the watchers slept so soundly that the guilty party came and went unnoticed.
The whisky was not found. The tracks about the barn indicate a person with high the salour property in the salour property.
