OREGON MIST.

Kasserial to Good Government.—
Although election is nigh unto seven months in the future, there are exveral aspirants for county and state offices grouning themselves for the covoted positions. The importance of this election should cause every republican to be on the alert and work for the success of his party. The only way to insure the people good government, is to elect a republican administration from top to bottom.

SEE IT Too LATE.—The town of Dallas has a woolen mill that has recently received so many orders that it has been found necessary to run the mill day and night, and to add 40 employes to its force. The owner of the mill a year ago offered to move it to The Dalles for a reasonable consideration. Since it is doing such a thriving business we can see what we lost by refusing the offer, and will probably not let such another chance slip by.—Times-Mountaineer.

THE GOVERNOE IS AT IT.—Governor Lord is said to be figuring on reuomination, and is making combinations to that end, remarks the Corvallis Gesette. It is also said that he has made a trade with a Benton republican for Banton county support. As if a dosar men could be found in Benton county goldite or allverite, Mitchell or anti-tickell, Oregonian or anti-oregonia who would favor or "stand in" on an itrade made with Lord. Benton county people have memories and dead when you get the bill."

DIXON LACROMED.—The steamer Garah Dixon, which has been on the ways at Johuson & Olson's shipyard, in South Pertland, for the last two months, was launched last Thursday afternoon, and is now tied up at the company's dock at the foot of Washington street. While on the ways the steamer was given a complete overhauling, and her hull and cabin repainted. A complete system of electric lighting has been installed, including electric headlights, the current being supplied by a 150 candle-power dynamo. The Dixon is one of the largest and finest appointed steamers on the river, and in speed has but few aguals. She has always been a favorite with the traveling public on whatever route she has run. For the Shawer Transportation Company, to go on the Clatkanie route should an accident befall the steamer G. W. Shaver, which is regularly on that run. Gaptain J. W. Shaver, manager of the state can get all the state naws, of spring the Dixon may be put on either the Antoris or The Dalles route, but as yet nothing deficited as to the future route for the boat.—Tribune.

Indication is that Umatilla county will have another enormous crop next year. All farmers of authority guite in the declaration that the weather of the last few weeks has been exactly like the weather of a year ago, when nature laid the foundation for the great crop of 1897. It this prove true and another mammeth yield he obtained there will be an limit to the tide of prosparity that will sweep over that locality. The production this year, including the production the seal of stock and other products of the farm, amounted to a per capita wealth of $300, or about $1800 to every man in the county. Double this amount, and next year there would not be a single mortgage on Umatilla real estate, and every resident would be free fron all future financial troubles. Everything is fairly on the road to the realization of this hope.
