A CORRECTION.

To the Public:—I have reported to some of my neighbors that Commissioner Frakes had charged $30.00 for supplying clothing to Thos. Headley, a county charge in my care, and after carefully examining into the merits of the case I find my mistake and willingly and gentlemanly apologize to Mr. Frakes and my neighbors. I saw the amount allowed to Mr. Frakes for $30.00, and thought it to be the amount allowed him for the clothing he had purchased for Mr. Headley, but instead it was for his services, and the bill for the clothing was allowed to Meier & Frank, amounting to $7.70. Yours truly, A. H. SHEFFIELD.

TWO GRAND DEMONSTRATIONS.

A meeting of patriotic citizens was held at the opera hall in this city last Saturday evening, at which time speeches were made by our leading citizens and singing of national airs and patriotic songs were listened to. Mr. W. H. Dolman presided, and the exercises were of a nature to create great enthusiasm among our people in regard to the present struggle between this country and Spain. Dr. G. W. Gue, presiding elder of the M. E. church, was the principal speaker, and his remarks covered a broad range, the principle part being, however, in relating his experience during the late civil war, his subject being "War Reminiscences." The doctor held the audience with his interesting remarks for over an hour. He repeatedly called the attention of his listeners to the important duty of assisting our executive in every possible way during the present conflict, appealing to their patriotism in this sense.

Mr. W. F. Timmons followed Dr. Gue with an address which certainly appealed to the true American spirit. His remarks were well chosen and aptly delivered. He said it was a time when there should be no populists, no republicans, no democrats, but all true, loyal American citizens.

Mr. W. H. Dillard dwelt at length upon the treachery and atrocities of the Spaniards as regards not only America, but other nations, and his remarks were such as to create the greatest enthusiasm.

Others spoke in practically the same strain, among them being Mr. Judson Weed, Mr. E. E. Quick, Dr. H. K. Cliff, Mr. G. A. Hall and others.

At about 10:30 the exercises were brought to a close by the audience and choir singing "America," amid the utmost enthusiasm and cheering.

Practically the same kind of a demonstration took place at Houlton Monday evening, when the volunteer company from that place, accompanied by many citizens, where a large crowd greeted them, and speeches were made and patriotic airs rendered. Speeches were made by Messrs. Judson Weed, M. C. Gray, Dr. E. Ross, G. A. Hall, W. H. Dolman, Rev. W. L. Blackwell, Capt. Henderson, Dr. H. R. Cliff and others. The exercises were brought to a close about 10 o'clock with three cheers for the stars and stripes, three cheers for President McKinley, and three cheers for the Columbia county volunteers.

CLATSKANIE NOTES.

W. B. Dillard and family are spending a few days in and about our city.

Mrs. Carl Ward left on Monday, intending to join her husband in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. James Ross, wife of our county sheriff, has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Arthur Hall, of Pennsylvania, is visiting the West, and has been spending a few days with his cousin, Dr. Hall.

John Lams, of Deep creek, was in town Monday and took part in the meeting that evening, expressing his loyalty in unmistakable terms.

Miss Myrtle Jones left for a brief visit to Portland Saturday evening, to return Monday morning in time to begin school in the Barr district.

Mrs. A. M. Wheeler, of Astoria, was in town two or three days visiting her parents, and attended the graduating exercises Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McGilvery moved their household effects the first of the week to Marshland. Max expects to spend the summer at Colvin's logging camp.

Prof. Anton Zilm was obliged to return to Portland as he could not be with us that evening, but we were fortunate in securing him for Friday evening.

Capt. Stewart, Fabrique, Rush, Conyers, and others, gave some amusing war reminiscences Monday evening. Another meeting was appointed for next week.

The city fathers are still extending the water system to accommodate new applicants. A visit to the source of supply recently suggests a sufficient quantity of clear water that is greater to be feared than some of the doubtful well-water in the residence portion of town.

Prof. J. H. Ackerman made many friends here during his brief visit, and his excellent talk Saturday evening convinced our people that the republican convention at Astoria did a good act when they nominated the professor for state superintendent of public instruction.

It is reported that A. T. Lams has sold his place on Bearer to N. T. Anderson, and will move in the near future to the vicinity of Portland. Tom is a familiar figure about here, a good road supervisor, a genial companion, and a good citizen, and his departure will be regretted.

An impromptu war meeting was held in Kratz hall Monday evening and was quite largely attended. W. B. Conyers was made chairman, and W. B. Dillard, being present, was called upon for some remarks. He responded in a brief address, full of patriotism and loyalty, which elicited hearty applause. His remarks were followed by several speakers, in fact everyone in the house had an opportunity to express himself on the pending difficulties with Spain, and there was but one sentiment of loyalty and cheer for our government with the president and congress in their efforts to repulse the Spanish tyrant and cruelty. A resolution to this effect was adopted, pledging our services with the patriotic fervor and were sung with a spirit. A few ladies were present, and more would have been had if the meeting were more freely circulated.

The graduation exercises of the high school were held in the church Saturday evening. The audience room about the pulpit had been decorated with ferns and flowers until it presented a very attractive appearance. Seated on the platform were the board of education; Prof. J. H. Ackerman, of Portland, the orator of the evening; Prof. Whitton, Edgar Colvin, the one graduate, and a half dozen young ladies and gentlemen composing the class of 1898. The church was crowded, and some of the later arrivals brought their own chairs, while many were compelled to find standing room only. Miss Louise Barr gave a piano solo, and three ladies of the junior class sang a quadruplet trio. Prof. Whitton then gave a brief report of the school work, and introduced Edgar Colvin as the first graduate of the Clatskanie high school. He spoke in high terms of his efficiency and industry. Edgar then delivered an oration on the "Acquisition of Territory by the United States," that was very well arranged and recited in a clear and pleasing manner. Miss Welch, of Portland, was called on and sang a solo, showing a rich, sweet and powerful voice, and a few words of congratulation. Following this, Dr. Hall, as chairman of the school board, after a few words of congratulation, presented the graduates with a diploma, after another musical selection, Prof. Ackerman, in a talk of half an hour, gave some excellent and practical thoughts on educational lines that were appropriate and well appreciated. He seems to have the faculty of saying the right thing at the right time. Another vocal selection by Miss Welch, and a few commendatory words from Directors Merrill and English, closed an evening of interest and profit to all who attended.

The exercises connected with the closing of our schools afford a rare treat to the people of this vicinity. The preparations for two evenings' entertainment. It was found necessary to reverse the order intended and have the graduating exercises on Friday evening at Conyer's hall, a rich and varied programme of recitations and music was given to a large and appreciative audience. The program was arranged by Prof. Anton Zilm, of Portland, a prince among violinists, and Miss LOUISE BARR, whose piano-playing always delighted a Clatskanie audience. Prof. Zilm selected three numbers in magnificent style with Miss Barr's piano accompaniments, and his playing is wonderful to say the least, while Miss Barr's technique and expression on the piano showed that she is a gifted and progressive pianist. Her playing in front as a pianist. Miss Laura Conyers recited the "Jesseville Singing Choir" from "Joseph Allen's Will" in beautiful style. "Joseph Allen's Will" is a beautiful and a disgusted old lady to perfection. Upon a recital she recited "The New Church Organ" in an equally effective manner. The recitations of Johnnie Campbell, Annie Perrine, and Alice Blackford, were well received, while the songs of little maidens in the "Milkmaid" and "Turkey Turkeys From Turkey Town" were enthusiastically applauded, as was "My Dad is Engineer" by the girls of the intermediate department. Madge Hart sang "O, Fair Dove" quite well, and Miss Jones' solo sustained her reputation, while "The Milkmaid" diast, not altogether new to the audience, was given with a spirit that was captivating. Mabel Blackford undertook a difficult part in her monologue "Hilad Margaret," but got through with it in a commendable manner. The spectacular character of the evening was given in the "Drill of the Japanese Lantern" by 24 young ladies, costumed in Japanese style, each carrying a lighted Japanese lantern supported by a wire and swinging on a stick about 4 or 5 feet long. The marches, evolutions, and skillful handling of these lanterns were brilliant in the extreme and forth the most enthusiastic applause. In fact it was the most attractive exhibition we had enjoyed for many a day, and was an immense success.
