

OREGON MIST.

Friday, August 5, 1906.

It is rumored that the sawmill at Rainier is to be sold, and that a purchaser for it has been found, the price being $12,000.

Visitor—I have looked all through the history catalogues, and I cannot find "Great Naval Victories of Spain." Librarian—You'll find it in the fiction list.

"How is it with you?" inquired the editor of the subscriber who was dying in arrears. "All looks bright before me," snapped the subscriber. "I thought so," said the editor, "in about ten minutes you'll see it blaze."

Enterprising people do not loose any time in a bewildering amount of loose talk and inconclusive argument about what should be done to improve their section of country, but go at vigorous work to see that it is done.

A Salem man who has been up on the Yukon river to mine, writes back to a Salem friend: "Offer a premium at the next state fair for the biggest fool in the country, and I'll try and be there in time."

A certain Tillamook lady, hearing there was to be an earthquake in that vicinity about the middle of July, sent her two boys to visit her relatives in Idaho. Not long ago she received this telegram: "Take the boys home and send the earthquake."

The Kalama Lumber and Fuel Company is progressing nicely with their work, and will soon have their new flume completed from Wikstrom's sawmill to the county road. Wikstrom says he will be prepared in a few days to fill orders for lumber.—Kalama Bulletin.

J. H. Peterson "phoned" in to Miles Sheerin Tuesday eve for ten more men to work in the logging camp. He ought to get them if they are to be had in the country, as there has never been any complaint about anything at the camp of the Star Logging Company.—Rainier Review.

Houlton is to have a new church edifice, bids for its construction being now under consideration. It will belong to the Methodist denomination, and when completed will fit a want which has existed for a long time. It will be located on a lot just across the road from the residence of John Lamberson.

A circular just issued by the department of education of Oregon shows that the average monthly wages of male school teachers in the state is $42.95, and of females $33.75. Multnomah pays the highest wages, the figures being $65 for males and $45 for females. Lincoln pays the lowest wages—$31 to males and $25 to females.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by Dr. E. Ross, druggist.

Jay Denning has adopted one of the planks in the late populist platform as his most sacred slogan. He has a blackberry vine growing near his case in this office, and protests vigorously against our desire to remove the plant. His explanation is that at a later day he intends to graft into the vine a milk-weed so that he can have blackberries and cream at his disposal.

The largest searchlight in the world has been secured by the government and placed at the harbor of San Francisco. The light is calculated to be equal to 375,000,000 ordinary candles. The reflecting mirror is five feet in diameter and will cast its light the distance of 100 miles. Any moving object on the face of the water within its scope can be detected on the darkest night as far as marine glasses will carry.

Mr. W. B. Dillard informs us that he has viewed the route for a bicycle path out of this city which would afford an easy grade, and shady, pleasant route the entire distance to Houlton. The proposed path could be built for not more than $50. It would connect with the road leading from Houlton to the St. Helens-Scappoose road by way of Camp Gibson, where little improvement would be necessary for a splendid course.

The busy man thinks the loafer has a constant picnic, with not a thing in the world to worry his mind. In this the average loafer is misjudged. He has his task to perform and is kept pretty busy these times. There is the war strategy board to look after and articles in addition to his regular duties of condemning the town, settling all political and financial questions, and when not otherwise engaged he runs down the local paper.

On Sunday, August 21, the dedicatory services of the new Methodist church at Scappoose will be held, conducted by G. W. Gies, D. D., presiding elder of this district. Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. It is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance. Scappoose people are fortunate in being able to support two churches, and if reports are true both denominations—Congregational and Methodist—are receiving the undivided support of the entire community. Do not fail to attend the dedicatory services, as a day of pleasure and profit is in store.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better. By its continued use a complete cure was brought about, and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Booth, Stumptown, Gilmer county, W. Va. For sale by Dr. Ross, druggist.

The Oregon Lumber Company of South Baker is working a full force of men and turning out an immense quantity of lumber, all of which finds a ready market.

Mr. A. Shannahan and daughter, Merie, came over from Vernonia last Friday, returning Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Olsson, who will remain over there several days.

The well known Somers family will be in St. Helens next Monday night and favor our people with another of their delightful entertainments. Their concerts are highly spoken of by the press, and certainly they need no commendation to the St. Helens people.

An error was made in our last issue concerning the date for holding the county institute. We inadvertently stated that it would be held the first week in August. It should have read first week in September. It is almost a certainty that the institute will be held at Rainier.

It has been found that while the explosion of the magazines on several of Admiral Cervera's cruisers tore up the decks in a terrible manner, in none of those vessels was the keel found sticking up through the decks, as in the case of the Maine. This illustrates the difference between an internal and external explosion on a ship.

Ed T. Gore, who has been engaged at fishing at Eagle Cliff this season, returned to this place early in the week, and is now at Scappoose, where he will remain this winter. Ed says the run of salmon on the lower river has been very poor for a number of weeks and many of the fishermen have put their gear away for the season.

Even steamboat purser have their tribulations. A good-natured purser, such as Tom Nobby, of the Shaver, is many times grossly imposed upon, but Tom is large and healthy, and accepts the mistakings of the public as a matter of course. As the Shaver was proceeding this way from Portland Tuesday a lady passenger desired to be put ashore at McIntyre's place on the island. There was a furious gale blowing and a comparatively high sea running, and as the steamer neared the shore she swung into the swell. The footplate was heaved ashore and Tom gallantly mounted it, leading the passenger. When nearly half way down the plank the steamer suddenly lurched, causing the purser and passenger to lose their equilibrium. Two or three bystanders grabbed the lady, but the purser was out of reach, and soon out of sight. The descent was rapid, the hole in the water large, the effect cooling, but notwithstanding all this misfortune Tom waded ashore, and more determined than ever, ascended the plank, and after a moment or two escorted the lady safely to terra firma.

Mr. A. A. Smith, who about eight months ago left his Milton creek farm and logging camp and went to Joplin, Mo., returned to this place on Thursday evening of last week, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Smith says the heat is something terrible there, and that the fruit crop is a total failure. His two sons are still in the East, they having some work to finish up, but are anxious to get back home, and will be here in a couple of weeks. Mr. Smith is satisfied with Oregon and says it is a better country for the laboring man than the East. His friends welcome him back.

The August appropriation of state school funds has been made by State Treasurer Metehan, the whole amount being $166,903.60. Columbia county's proportion being $2,583.60, which amount is on hand, but not yet apportioned. There is $400 liquor license money to be added to the amount received from the state treasurer, the whole amount for the county schools being $2,983.60 to be apportioned among the 56 districts. The number of school children in the county is 2153. The rate per capita, by the state, being $1.30.

County Clerk Watts is authority for the statement that buyers have for some time been in the vicinity of Scappoose offering and paying $2 per cord for wood delivered at the bank of the slough, or at the car track, a condition which has not existed in that place for several years. And yet prices of commodities produced by the laboring class have not advanced. Two years ago the wood-layers in that vicinity accepted $1.30 per cord for wood, waiting several months for their money.

About 55 persons availed themselves of the opportunity to visit Kalama last Friday evening by accompanying the excursion party. The run to that city was made in 45 minutes, and the visitors strolled about the city until 9 o'clock, when Captain Good notified them it was time to leave. St. Helens was reached at 10:30, and all who went were glad they did so. About $13 was realized for the minister.

A friend from Scappoose writes us that a very peculiar snake was found on the railroad track near that place recently. The snake is described as being 28 inches in length, of a very light brown color, and a little over an inch in diameter. The tail was very stubby. In fact the snake was nearly as large at either end as it was in the middle. The head resembled that of a mountain trout very much.

Wood-dealer Lemont predicts that the price of wood on the docks at this place will soon rise to $2.25 per cord. George has several hundred cords in the woods, and the only difficulty he experiences in getting it out is finding teamsters willing to work for $1 per day and board. He says wood will sell readily here this winter at $2.25.

A man saves the cost of a county paper several times a year by taking it and carefully reading it. He not only tells him where to find the best bargains when he comes to town, but warns him against swindlers and dead beat who are constantly hatching some new ruse wherewith to swindle and prey upon the people.

M. I. G. Wikstrom came down from Portland last Monday evening, continuing on to his sawmill near Kalama Tuesday. Mr. Wikstrom is nursing a very painful injury recently received to the index finger of his right hand, just back of the nail.

A fair patronage was had at the ice cream open air social Wednesday evening. The condition of the atmosphere rendered eating ice cream more of a displeasure than comfort.

After the Election.
A valued exchange belongs to the free silver party publishes this joke about some of his people:
Two brothers from a North Missouri county appeared one morning at the portals of the St. Joseph insane asylum, one of them to be incarcerated there as a patient, the other having him in charge as far as the asylum. They were dressed very much alike, and the casual observer on the train would not have detected signs of insanity in either. When the keeper appeared each insisted that he brought the other. The asylum manager was in a quandry. He waited with the visitors until a late hour, and then looked them in a room together. Then he telegraphed the authorities at the town where the brothers lived: "Two men from your town arrived today; both dressed very much alike; one calls himself Jack and talks about constructing an air line to the moon; the other goes by the name of George and advocates free coinage of silver. Which shall I keep?"

VALLEY ITEMS.
J. W. Donnell and family have returned to their home in Portland.
F. Brown and family paid a flying visit to their friends in this section last week.
A letter received from the Karth brothers, who are in Alaska, says they are getting along nicely.
Last Monday a cougar was discovered in Wm. Rossmann's field, and three shots were fired at the daring intruder, but apparently none took effect as the beast jumped the fence and disappeared in the brush. He succeeded in bringing a cat, which was put in the field for pasture, and partook of a square meal therefrom.

Ladies, take the best. If you are troubled with constipation, allow skin and a tired feeling, take Karli's Clover Tea. It is pleasant to take. Sold by Dr. Edwin Ross.
Dyspepsia cured. Shiloh's Vegetable immediately relieved stomach, coming up liver-digestion, and to the great kidney and liver remedy. Sold by Dr. E. Ross.

A FLAG OF TRUCE.—An Albany boy rebelled at parental chastisement and took flight. The father gave chase, but was soon distanced. Occasionally the boy would slacken his speed and call out: "Dad, if I come back will you promise not to lick me?" and the puffing dad would answer "No." Finally the boy put on extra speed and disappeared. The Albany Herald says that the latest news from the front is that dad has raised a flag of truce.

YAKIMA WOOL INDUSTRY.—Some idea of the vast importance of the wool industry in Yakima county, Wash., may be had when it is remembered that there is now stored in the warehouse of Weston & Ragger, at Prosser, over half a million pounds of wool from last year's clip, and all grown and sheared in that portion of the county. As a wool-growing district, Yakima is far in the lead of any portion of the state, either for pounds produced or length and quality of fiber.

PAINTING THE OREGON.—The Oregon, as she appeared on her long run, is the subject of a painting ordered by the Bohemian club of San Francisco. Admiral Farragut's famous old flag ship will furnish the oak for the frame. The club intends to offer the painting to congress as a gift, says the Salem Statesman. Why does not some club have the Oregon painted on the hull of any vessel in the fight at Santiago? That would make a war picture which would fire the hearts of the present generation, at least on the Pacific coast.

COWLITZ VALLEY LIVELY.—Kaiser Journal: "If there is an idle man in Kelso it is his own fault. Every day inquiries are made for men, and on last Tuesday at least ten men could have found employment. This is a busy time of year, and our streets are almost deserted, as everyone who desires work can secure it. The harvest is a bountiful one, loggers are doing well, and plenty of money will be found in the hands of the people this fall. The good times are allowing the cry against the gold standard, and but little free-silver talk is heard."

TO SPORTSMEN.—Oregon's game law boiled down is as follows: Game and bird can be killed only during the following season: Grouse, Mongolian pheasant, and quail, September 1st to December 1st; prairie chickens, July 1st to October 1st; wild ducks and water fowl, September 1st to March 15th; deer, mountain sheep, etc., August 1st to December 1st; killing for hides or parts of carcasses is prohibited. East of the Cascades it is unlawful to kill or take time Mongolian pheasants, quail, or Bob White quail. Trout may be caught from April 1st to November 1st. Explosives to kill fish, nets, seines, obstructions to free passage of fish, etc., are prohibited.

PROPERTY IN GRANT COUNTY.—Grant county stockmen have sold more stock this year than for the past seven, and from present indications there are enough buyers in the field to handle every marketable hool in the county, says The Dalles Chronicle. Not only are the regular foreign buyers taking all they can contract for in the way of sheep and cattle, but local men are buying for speculation. Money seems to be unusually easy, and the general prosperity and rise of wool and livestock since the inauguration of the present administration has instilled old-time energy and confidence into the hearts of Grant county's citizens.

PARALYZED AND INSANE.—The Salem Statesman of Friday, July 29th, says: "P. M. Weber, of St. Helens, Columbia county, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the Salem hospital, charged with being insane, and at 7:30 last night he was examined by County Judge G. F. Terrill, District Attorney S. L. Hayden, and Dr. W. B. Morse conducting the examination. Weber, whose right side was partially paralyzed, seemed to have but a dim realization of his surroundings. He was found to be insane and was committed to the asylum, Sheriff F. W. Durbin and Deputy B. B. Colbath taking him out. The unfortunate man is a native of Aurora, Indiana, 45 years old, and single. He is a farmer by occupation, but has spent several weeks tramping through the country." Mr. Weber has a small farm at Bachelor Flat, four miles back of this city. A brother resides there, and a sister, Mrs. I. G. Wikstrom, resides near Houlton.

MACADAM ROAD.—It has been suggested by citizens interested in the development of the farming interests of Clatsop county that a mile of macadam road be built somewhere in the community. The idea is to make it a simple and a practical illustration of the advantages and cheapness in the end of a road of this kind. If the plan is followed out, and those discussing the subject now see no reason why it should not, the residents in the neighborhood in which the road is built would be expected to assist in building it. There are now 250 miles of road in the county, which cost $3,000 annually to keep in repair. The county court has not the money to build such a road, and the necessary money must come from parties interested in the welfare of the farmers of the county. If the plan is carried out and the advantages of a macadam road are seen, in a short time the county would be supplied with roads that would be a lasting benefit to the farmers as well as to the merchants and citizens of Astoria.—Astorian.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Carian Olsen, wife of C. L. Olsen, died Friday morning, July 29th, of consumption, after an illness of many months. She leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, three small children, and a sister, Mrs. Pearson, of Fishhawk, Or. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Victor Carlson, of Portland, at Deer Island schoolhouse, after which the remains were followed by a large number of sorrowing and sympathizing friends to their last resting place. None knew Mrs. Olsen but to love her, and sadly will she be missed by her bereaved family and friends, yet they can be comforted by knowing their loss is but gain. Her life here was one of Christian fortitude and good works. Truly can it be said of her "Blessed are they that die in the Lord." Mrs. Olsen was 54 years, five months and 29 days of age when she was carried by the angels to that land of rest. Music sweetly sounding through the skies; Welcomed by the Saviour to the heavenly mansions. Gathered with the loved in Paradise." R. M.
