

OREGON MIST.

Friday, August 20, 1909.

Evangelical campmeeting is in progress at Vernonia this week, commencing Wednesday. It will continue one week.

All matters pertaining to the county business will regularly be found in the columns of this paper as they transpire. Ask your neighbor to subscribe.

Merchant Dolman is making preparations to build a large addition to his store building on the north side. Work is expected to be commenced in a few days.

Best brands of hams 1 1/2 cents; best brands of bacon 10, 11 and 13 cents; Union Meat Co. and Cudahy's large best quality, 45 and 50 cents per 5 lb. pack at St. Helens Meat Market.

The county judge has a notice in this issue asking for sealed bids for the construction of a bridge over Tide creek, in road district No. 6. Plans and specifications are on file in the judge's office in Rainier.

I will be in Woodland, Wash., until September 15th. Any communication will reach me at that place. I will return to St. Helens during that time by appointment only.

Assessor White will have the assessment roll for 1909 completed and submitted to the board of equalization, which sits at the courthouse next Monday, August 23. All claims for correction must be made before the board.

We have decided to furnish the Weekly Oregonian and Oregonian Mite together one year for $1.75, invariably in advance. Better yet! The Mite will be sent until January 1st, 1910. The price of the Oregonian one year is $1.50.

Mr. Mead, the woodman, was down from Portland last week looking after contracts to cut the winter's wood for persons in this town. Mr. Mead told us he would be here with his machine about September 15th, so it is necessary for all concerned to have their wood on hand.

So far this season, Lou McCauley, who resides near Keasay postoffice, carries off the honors for champion hunter of Columbia county. Lou bagged 700 pounds of bear meat last Saturday in a berry patch near his home. There were two of the bears, and one shot each from rusty rifle and snuff. The largest one weighed 400 pounds.

The rates of admission to the Oregon Industrial Exposition are going to be kept within the reach of all. Considering the vast amount of amusement and instruction afforded, the price is very low, being only 25 cents for single admission and $1 for coupon tickets good for five admissions; $2.50 for coupon tickets good for 15 admissions; children under 12 years of age, 10 cents.

School Superintendent Copeland has had printed and sent out a number of circular letters announcing the date of and a general outline of the teachers' institute for this county. It is definitely settled that the institute will be held at Rainier, commencing on Monday, September 5, and closing Saturday, September 10th. A very profitable session is promised, and teachers of this county are urged to attend.

It was perhaps reasonable to name a few towns, and vessels, and streets after Dewey, but the rage for giving things the name "Dewey" has become so rampant that it is nauseating. We have "Dewey" forests, am cigarettes, and garages, and trusses, and puke medicines, and calves, and dogs, and cats, and chickens without number. Half the mangy, flea-infested curs and scrawny, caterwauling cats in the country are named "Dewey," and the rest are called Sampson, Schley, or Hobson.

The hop-picking season in the Willamette valley is near at hand. Picking will begin between September 5th and 10th, and in some instances a trifle later. The yield this year will equal that of 1897 in quantity, but the indications now are that the quality will be more in accordance with that of 1896, which was exceptionally good, being about 90 per cent choice. Various estimates place the coming crop at from 55,000 to 70,000 bales. It is possible, however, that the crop will be from 60,000 to 65,000 bales.

J. B. Jameson, of Edison, who operates the Blanchard logging road, five miles in length, has 45 men at work, and turns out 60,000 feet of logs daily. The price average from $2.50 to $3.50 per thousand. Since the destruction of the New Tacoma mill by fire the logs are sent to Tacoma. They operate now by steam and look for still more modern methods of conducting the business. Many improvements are being contemplated, and they may be adopted in course of a short time.—Cathlamet Gazette.

Captain Thomas Dole yesterday returned from a visit in the Nehalem. He reports there is the largest crop of wheat and oats this year ever raised in the valley. The hay crop, which was large, is all in. The new flour mill will be ready to operate near October 1, when the farmers will grind their own flour. The only trouble about crops in that section is that the farmers cannot get their products to market because of the bad roads. Good roads is the crying necessity of the hour, so far as internal development is concerned.—Astorian.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about, and it is now perfectly healthy.—O. L. Boggs, Sault Ste. Marie, county, W. Va. For sale by Dr. Ross, druggist.

Westport is a busy scene at present in the woods. Westport slough has four loggers putting timber in the water. H. Colvin operates at Marshland. T. Boyle has 20 men in camp; he uses a donkey. Olson Bros have 13 men and use a donkey to yard out and an engine on the bank, which hauls from 10,000 to 12,000 feet a load. W. J. Ross uses a team of cattle and horses. His road is about three miles long. He has about 18 men on his payroll. McFarlane Bros. use a donkey to yard out and cattle on the road. Their crew will average about 20 men. H. Williams is logging on the Tompkins place. He uses two ox teams and hauls one-half mile. Angus McGregor is working on the old McFarlane works. The road is about a mile long and very steep in places. He generally works about nine men. Wilson & Poole use a four-horse team, and put in at Driscoll's slough at quite a lively gait. Driscoll & Ohlholm are logging on Hunt creek. They use four yokes of cattle and employ six men. Logs from these camps are going into the water quite plentifully.—Cathlamet Gazette.

We will within the next few days send out statements to persons who owe us one year's subscription or more, as the same is shown by our books. We hope that everyone receiving these statements will give the matter prompt attention. An amount which you owe is small, and may be considered by you as of no particular consequence, but when you take into consideration that four or five hundred persons owe amounts from one dollar to three dollars each the amount in the aggregate is a neat sum. We will continue to give our readers the best paper published in Columbia county and the best paper our limited means will permit of. You can further assist us by asking your neighbor to become a subscriber to THE MIST, and thus assist us in our efforts to build up and develop the best county on the Lower Columbia river. Our interests are identical with your own, and by assisting us you help yourself. THE MIST will be sent to any address until January 1st, 1910, together with THE Weekly Oregonian for one year for only $1.75.

Last Sunday was a red-letter day in Scappoose. It was the occasion of the dedication of the beautiful new Methodist Episcopal chapel. Dr. W. H. Hill, of Portland, was present and conducted the services. At the opening of the services a debt of two hundred and fifty dollars was hanging over the little chapel, but at the close every dollar had been provided for in good reliable subscriptions. Then Dr. Hill named the edifice "Que M. E. Chapel," and, assisted by Beva M. Burlingame and G. G. Haley, formally dedicated it. At the close of the services a prayer lady came forward and received the ordinance of Baptism. Rev. G. G. Haley is pastor of the circuit in which the new chapel is situated and Rev. M. Burlingame is the local pastor. He should be congratulated on the success of so great an undertaking, having been appointed as supply at Scappoose June last. In two months, about, the church was erected complete and debt-free.

No exposition, state or county fair, on the coast ever opened up in a more brilliant and glorious way than will the Oregon Industrial Exposition at Portland, September 5th. The committee and all the officials are working diligently toward a common end. Everything is tending toward complete success. The big building where the exposition is held is being rearranged and made more convenient, and will soon be transformed into a bower of beauty. The music hall particularly will cause exclamations of surprise and delight. And every other part of the great institution is being improved and beautified.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., who is attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that station, was attacked by cholera morbus. He was taken to a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by Dr. E. Ross, druggist.

The Best Remedy for Flu. Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Palisade, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flu, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I purchased and tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." They returned home Wednesday.

Will Messers returned last Friday from Moro, Sherman county, where he had been on a business trip. Will reports all kinds of trade as very lively in that section of the state. He continued on home Tuesday afternoon. Emmett Quick, driver on the Forest Grove stage, tells us they are doing a roaring business now. It has required two teams to take the passengers out for several days past, as many as ten passengers going a day. —Tillamook Headlight.

Camping at Bunker Hill. Senator McBride arrived down from Portland Tuesday evening on the Shaver, and next day left for Bunker Hill, where he expects to remain two weeks rusticated and enjoying camp life. The body will be brought there.

Flouring Mill Ready to Start. Clatsop county's first flouring mill will be in operation in a few days. It has been built by several progressive Nehalem farmers, and is situated on the Big Fishhawk river, four miles from Modley. It has a capacity of 24 barrels per day, and is operated by water power. The volume of water supplied will be sufficient to run the mill at all seasons of the year. This is but one of the many co-operative plans which are on foot there.

CLATSAMAN NEWS.

O. E. Lindgren came in on the steamer Wednesday morning. It has been decided to postpone the opening of the public school here until September 12th in order to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the institute. Prof. Whitton and wife returned from Newport, Oregon, Monday evening. They visited the professor's parents and attended the summer school for teachers, brushing up for use in the school room this winter. Sven Johnson, of Oak Point, came in on Tuesday evening with his fingers so badly mangled that it was found necessary to amputate two of them—the first and second fingers of his right hand. He was coming out at Benson's logging camp when his hand was hit by an unfortunate accident.

KEASAY NEWS. Mrs. Lida Brown and daughter are visiting relatives at Reed's mill. Ailie Blitt is reported much better. Medical attendance from Clatskanie was summoned. The little daughter, Looy, youngest child of Joseph Reed, is still quite ill with whooping-cough. Never was a more bountiful crop of both fruit and vegetables than here, brushing up for use in the school room this winter. Mrs. W. B. Derbery and family have gone for an extended visit to the home of her invalid mother, near Willoughby. The family expect to engage in berry-picking. Closely following the music of the whistling whirled the rhythmic swing of the grain cradle, and the prolonged whirr of the thrasher will greet the ear in the days to come, when the autumn rains shall say "sleep still till next year."

The inmates of Homewood ranch were most pleasantly surprised August 12th by a visit from Hon. T. J. Cleeson and wife and Mrs. Spencer and daughter, leading them in the day by a call from Dr. J. E. Hall. Proud are we of such honorable men, not only in title but in reality. The mania for the hop-fields—like the yellow fever in Cuba—has broken in upon the Nehalem and Keasay people, brushing up for use in the school room this winter. "If I meet my brother to offend" also the interrogative, "Am I my brother's keeper?"
