OREGON MIST.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1898.

County court is in session this week.

Mrs. Sheldon was in Portland Tuesday.

Dr. McLaren was up from Rainier Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleeton were in Portland last Saturday.

Attorney and Mrs. Hall are visiting in Portland this week.

I. G. Wikstrom was attending to business in Portland Monday last.

County Surveyor Hayes and son were up from Mayger Wednesday.

James Sheldon was attending to business down the river last Monday.

Mr. S. S. Way came up from the Muckle camp on Coweeman Tuesday.

Rev. Philbrook will preach at Scappoose next Sunday morning and evening.

S. Salser, of Bachelor Flat, was sufferlast Sunday from a severe attach of la grippe.

Mrs. M. J. Watts and daughter, Maude, have moved to Gresham, in Multnomah county.

Miss Tillie Muckle spent Saturday last in this city. She returned to her studies in Portland Sunday.

Mr. Nelson Hoyt, for many years a resident of this county, near Warren, was in this city Tuesday evening.

Jas. P. Stapleton, an attorney of Vancouver, Wash., was attending to some legal business here Wednesday.

County Clerk Watts and family will soon occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. E. M. Wharton and family.

Miss Katie Nemela, of Clatskanie, 29 years of age, was committed to the asylum last Friday by Judge Doan, at Rainier.

Mrs. J. G. Watts and children returned to Scappoose last Saturday from Seaside, where they had spent several weeks.

On Sunday, September 11th, at 10:30 a. m., A. J. Smith will lecture at the schoolhouse at Mayger. Subject: "The Judgment to Come." The public is cordially invited.

Lincoln J Meserve is now installed in the mercantile establishment of W. H. Dolman as chief clerk, assuming the duties of Mr. E. M. Wharton, who, in future with his family, will reside in Columbia City.

M. C. Gray and wife, A. H. George, three sons, and daughter, Lulu, J. G. Plank's family, A. H. Watters' family, and Mrs. Gilson, of Houlton, were among those who went to Ilwaco to pick cranberries last Monday.

The public school at this place was called last Monday morning, but the directors decided to continue the vacation for two weeks on account of many of the children being away at the hopfields and cranberry swamps.

Coroner McLaren received a telegram at Rainier Monday night stating that John Bachtold, residing five miles west of Scappoose, died suddenly of apoplexy Sunday afternoon. It was decided by the coroner not to investigate the case.

Calvin Johnson, of the Jackson Creek creamery, near Scappoose, met with a quite severe accident last Sunday. He was loading a ten-gallon can of cream into a wagon, at the same time climbing into the wagon himself, when the horses started, throwing Mr. Johnson to the ground, the can following, lighting on his chest, breaking two ribs. Dr. Cliff reduced the fractures, and no serious results are anticipated.

Mr. W. B. Dillard one day this week presented this office with three very large, beautiful specimens of tomatoes, grown in his garden. The fruit is well developed and splendidly matured, which demonstrates conclusively that tomatoes can be successfully grown in this climate. Although this season many complaints are heard that a dry rot is infecting tomatoes, something heretofore unknown.

There are on exhibition in this office five apples grown on Mr. I. Bumgardner's place, back of Deer Island, which are splendid specimens of what can be produced in the fruit line in Columbia county. They are the "McKinley's Favorite" variety, and are large and luscious looking apples. Mr. Bumgardner has a large orchard in which grows many of the choicest varieties of apples and pears, besides many other varieties of fruit.

The public school at Warren will give an entertainment on the evening of September 10th. An excellent literary and musical programme has been prepared. The very small sum of 10 cents admission will be charged. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of a flag for the schoolhouse. Baskets containing lunch for two will be sold. The school asks the presence and assistance of all its friends in its effort to secure a flag.

Our office has this week been in a state of disruption, so to speak. It has been in the hands of the painter and carpenter, receiving a coat of paint and later in the week will be supplied with a new floor. The office force has had but little to say about the proceedings, and have been dodging around in out-of-the-way corners in order to set a few lines of type. Delinquent subscribers who come in to pay up have been welcome, but others—well, we won't say anything about them. We will soon be in a condition to receive our friends and enemies, if we have any, and invite all to call and see us.

About forty-five persons took passage on the Lurline at this place last Monday night for the cranberry swamps near Ilwaco, Wash. A few days prior to that time a great many of our people had gone to the hopfields, and now the number of absentees from the surrounding country is nearly 150. Picking cranberries is a new departure for the people of this part of the country, and is said to be a lucrative occupation, 50 cents per bushel being paid, and it is claimed that one can easily pick four bushels of the berries in one day. The swamps being handy to the ocean beach, renders the outing doubly attractive.

SWEPT BY FLAMES.

The House of E. O. Darling, of Pittsburg, Totally Destroyed.

A most disastrous fire occured at Pittsburg last Sunday, totally destroying the house, barn, and orchard of Mr. E. O. Darling, whose place is on the hill just east of the Pittsburg sawmill.

Mr. Darling had set out a few small fires about the place and guarded them carefully lest disaster might result. He was careful to know that no damage might be done before he left home to assist Mr. Powell with his threshing, but the smouldering embers were fanned to life and in a few hours the entire place was one mass of flames.

The house, which was a handsome residence, was entirely consumed with everything in it. The barn, which was filled with hay, was burned, and the fruit trees were all destroyed. Mr. Darling had hauled manure into the orchard to deposit about the trees, and the fire soon spread and caught in the piles, causing a terrible heat, which killed nearly every tree.

Mr. Darling is an elderly gentleman, and the loss renders him homeless and destitute. He had labored incessantly for over twenty years to improve his place that he might have a comfortable home in his declining years, but the result of his labors have been swept from him.

DAMAGES WANTED FROM N. P.

Based Upon the Killing of Edson Crosby at Houlton.

There was filed in the United States circuit court in Portland last Saturday a transcript of a removal of a $5000 damage case against the Northern Pacific Railway Company commenced in the circuit court of this county. The plaintiff is Samuel A. Crosby, as administrator of Edson Crosby, deceased, and the claim for damages is based upon the death of the latter, alleged to be due to the negligence of the defendant corporation.

Edson Crosby, according to the allegations of the complaint, was run over and killed by a Northern Pacific train at the Houlton crossing of the St. Helens and Nehalem county road, June 20th, last. The details of the tragedy were printed in this paper at the time. The railroad company is charged with negligence in not having proper safeguards placed at the crossing. It is alleged that the approach of a train cannot be seen at this point, owing to the lay of the land, and it is also claimed that the engine did not blow its whistle upon the occasion Edson was killed.

The answer, which accompanies the transcript of removal, is in the nature of a general denial.

The verdict of the coroner's jury attached no blame to the railroad company.

PROBATE MATTERS.

The judge of the county court this week appointed Thursday, October 13, as the time for hearing the settlement of the statements of account of Sarah E. Fisk, now Sarah E. Rutter, administratrix of the estate James F. Fisk, deceased.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

The Road from Clatskanie to Mist Almost Totally Destroyed.

Commissioner Peterson came up from his home Tuesday night, and reports that a terrible fire has been raging on the mountain between Clatskanie and Mist since Sunday. The plank and corduroy road between those places is damaged at least $500. The heat and smoke was so intense in that vicinity Tuesday that it took Mr. Peterson the entire day to make the trip, a distance of nine miles. The road is literally filled with fallen timber, and travel has been almost entirely suspended. Some parties started the fire Sunday, and the winds have been favorable to causing it to rapidly spread, and many hundreds of acres have been burned over and incalcusible damage done.

WARREN NEWS.

John Hawkins is digging a well for J. S. Bacon.

Mrs. A. H. Sheffield, who for the past month has been visiting relatives at this place, returned to Portland on Monday.

Mr. Slavens, sr., Mr. John Slavens, and Mr. Scott started for Bunker hill Wednesday morning, intending to be absent one week.

Chas Clark and family have moved from Bachelor Flats on to the old Gillchrist place, it now being owned by Mr. Clark's father.

A spirited team driven by Pete Anderson, became frightened the other day and started to run away, but Pete held to the reins like grim death and succeeded in checking their speed, thus saving a smashup and perhaps serious injury to himself.

The Epworth League at this place is still alive, due to our president's efforts, Mrs. Hawkins, who has worked very hard to keep it going. How well she has succeeded can be seen by the attendance and good order which prevails every Sunday evening.

The young people from this place who were camped at Bunker hill had a very mean trick played upon them. Someone drove their horses away from camp, and no amount of searching could reveal their whereabouts. As there were a number of young ladies in the party, two of the boys walked in and procured another team. The party reached Warren the next day.

BACHELOR FLATS.

S. Salser is on the sick list this week.

There are a number on the sick list this week.

Homer Bennett and family went hop-picking Monday.

E. F. Ridley has traded his horse team for a span of mules.

Most everybody in the Flats will soon be through woodhauling for this season.

Mrs. W. Resimius and Mrs. D. Pope went to Butteville hop-picking Monday of last week.

The showers of last week were very beneficial to roads, but if it could have continued a few days longer it would have been better.

D. H. Pope got quite severely hurt Saturday while attempting to get on a wagon loaded with cordwood. As the team was going his foot slipped and the hind wheel passed over it, breaking two toes and mashing the foot quite severely. He is now on crutches, but hopes to be around soon.

IN EXTRAORDINARY SESSION.

Oregon Legislature Will Convene on September 26th.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 6.—The following proclamation was issued from the state executive office today:

STATE OF OREGON,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Sept. 6, 1898.—Whereas, matters of vital importance to the people of the state of Oregon seem to require the convening of the legislative assembly in special session:

Now, therefore, I, William P. Lord, by virtue of the authority in me vested as governor of the state of Oregon, do hereby direct the convening of the two houses of the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon, in special session at the state capitol, in Salem, on Monday, September 26, 1898, at 10 o'clock a. m., of which all who shall, at that time, be entitled to act as members of said body, are hereby required to take notice.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the state of Oregon, this 6th day of September, A. D. 1898.

WILLIAM P. LORD, Governor.

Attest: H. R. KINCAID, Secretary of State.

A copy of the proclamation was mailed to each member-elect of the legislature.

The governor did not set out in the proclamation, nor would he state unofficially his reasons for calling the special session, preferring to follow the precedent established by earlier governors in reserving them to be incorporated in a message to the legislature when convened. It can be stated, however, that the election of a senator to fill Oregon's vacant seat in the United States senate when congress convenes in December is one of the prime objects of the call. Another is the passage of a general appropriation bill, to give the present administration a chance to clear up all business properly belonging to it in order to turn the states affairs over to the next administration free from entanglements entailed by the failure of the last legislature to organize.
