OREGON MIST.

DECEMBER 9, 1898.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Clerk Watts issued a marriage license Wednesday to John P. Wager, of Portland, and Mrs. Olive B. Gilbreath, of Columbia county.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Dr. E. Ross, druggist.

The work of copying the assessment roll of 1898 will probably be finished this week. There are 174 pages of the roll this year, as compared with seventy-five and eighty pages four years ago.

The thousands of dollars spent annually on roads in this county is thrown away in bungling patchwork and make-believe repairs, and yet the system in vogue is exactly the culmination of what the law invites.

Mr. Dillard is having some noteworthy improvements made on a block of land he owns, adjoining this place on the west. The land is being cleared and fenced, and will help the appearance of that part of the city very much.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council held Monday evening Mr. G. G. Mayger was appointed city recorder to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of G. A. Sanford some time since. It will in future be Police Judge Mayger.

Sigel Wilkinson made final proof before the county clerk last Saturday on homestead entry No. 9824, for the north ½ of the northwest ¼ of section 27, and the east ½ of the northeast ¼ of section 28, township 5, north of range 4 west. His witnesses were F. M. Parker and Wm Mellinger.

The friends of the Sunday school here are endeavoring to have a Christmas tree or Christmas boat for the children and community generally on the evening of December 24th, and hope for the hearty co-operation of all in the undertaking. Make the hearts of the little ones happy and there can never be a regret.

Monday night's frost was the most severe of any this winter. However, the clear heavens and frosty earth presented a combination on Tuesday morning to be admired, but the attraction of a warm stove within far overbalanced the beauty without as Old Sol presented himself to the people of St. Helens from behind the rugged slopes of Mount Hood.

The masque ball to be given in this city on Friday evening, December 30, will undoubtedly be the most brilliant affair of its kind ever given here. The Knights will spare nothing to make it a signal success and those who attend are assured a pleasant time. Invitations will be sent out in a few days, and matters looking to the success of the affair are being arranged.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by Dr. E. Ross, druggist.

The bazaar in contemplation by the ladies of the Episcopal church of this city promises to be an elaborate affair. At a meeting held last Saturday evening definite arrangements were made and the committees appointed. The work will progress now and the outcome will be a grand success. A literary programme will be rendered and a good social time will be had each evening of the bazaar, which will continue three nights.

At the semi-annual election of officers of Avon lodge Knights of Pythias, held in this city Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Chas. Blakesley, C. C.; G. G. Haley, V. C.; Martin White, prelate; Edwin Ross, M. of F.; Ed Joseph, M. of E.; E. E. Quick, M. of W.; H. R. Cliff, M. at A.; M. C. Gray; K. of R. and S.; James Rice, I. G.; J. G. Plank, O. G. James Muckle was elected trustee for three years.

At a regular convention of Rainier lodge, No. 58, Knights of Pythias, held Saturday evening, December 3, 1898, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: C. C., G. A. Rigge; V. C., F. M. Fowler; P., M. Burlingame: M. of W., T. C. Watts; K. of R. and S., J. B. E. Bourne, M. of F., F. L. Hedges; M. of E., J. B. Doan; M. at A., M. R. Pomeroy; I. G., A. P. McLaren; O. G., C. W. Mosher: trustees, W. A. Wood and J. B. Doan for three years, and A. L. Clark for two years.

On last Wednesday evening a coterie of St. Helens people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Watts, of Reuben. The party was given in honor of Mrs. J. G. Muckle, prior to her departure to San Diego, California, where she goes to spend the winter months. The visitors arrived on the Iralda and were immediately served with one of Mrs. Watts' sumptuous repasts, afterwhich cards were indulged in and a most delightful evening passed, until the Shaver whistle called from refreshment to labor.

November was a fair business month for the county. The receipts of the clerk's and sheriff's offices were, in the aggregate, $3,261, the clerk having turned over to the treasurer $1,018.63, and the sheriff turned into the treasury $2,243.05. A great deal, or most of the money received in the clerk's office for the month was for land redemptions and tax sale certificates, yet the fees amounted to a real snug figure. Taken altogether it was a good month, and demonstrates to what degree of perfection the affairs of the county are being administered in each part by those responsible for the county's welfare. Treasurer Ross will, in all likelihood, issue another call in the near future for outstanding warrants endorsed prior to March 1st, 1897, in which event the warrants outstanding would date back only twenty-two months. Many of those warrants have been received for taxes, so the county's indebtedness is being gradually diminished.

The many friends of Edward Watts will be pleased to learn that he has received a license from the board of inspectors to act as pilot on river steamers operating on the waters of the Columbia river and its tributaries. Ed had been employed on the Young America for over two years before he met with the misfortune of having his thigh broken, nearly a year ago, since which time he has been unable to perform any sort of labor until right recently. Ed has command of the Young America, and his friends are now congratulating him upon his success.

We received an interesting letter this week from Mr. John Beegle, who is a deputy under Mr. Ivey in the customs service at Dyea, Alaska. John states that the weather at that place recently has been something terrible. The cold winds from the north, with a velocity of eighty miles an hour, makes existence out of doors almost impossible. On the morning before Thanksgiving the thermometer registered two degrees above zero. Mr. and Mrs. Beegle, according to the letter, are both enjoying excellent health, and are prospering in a financial way, as John says he owns a half interest in two placer claims which promise fabulous returns to the owners. May the expectations be fully realized.

The steamer Mascot running between Portland and Woodland, was sunk in Lewis river, about a half a mile from its mouth, while on her way out Wednesday morning. The boat struck a snag and sank in less than a minute in about eight feet of water. It is thought that about fifty feet of her bottom is ripped off. There were about 75 passengers on board, many of the number being women, as a number of Odd Fellows and Rebeccas had been to Woodland instituting a Rebecca lodge at that place the night before, and were returning to Portland on the illfated steamer.

After this date until Christmas I will do all kinds of dental work at a reduced price. All parties having work partly done will please call and have same finished as soon as convenient as I will not be in St. Helens after Christmas for three months; and remember any work done by me the past year is fully warranted; any defect will be made good free of charge by calling on me. Thanking you for your liberal patronage in the past and asking for a continuance of the same, I am yours truly, J. A. REID, dentist.

Rev. Mr. Philbrook will preach at Deer Island next Sunday at 11 a. m.

That Bowling Contest.

The last three of a tournament of twenty-one games at the bowling alley was played last Monday evening, resulting in a victory (not much of a victory, either) for Gray's team. The contest was spirited all the way through, though kindly feeling and good nature prevailed among the contestants. Occasionally a bowler would "strike a frost," and naturally feel a little put out. The scores are given below—the totals of each bowler:

HOW IS YOUR WIFE?

CLATSKANIE NOTES.

There is quite a demand for houses in town; more than can be supplied.

John English has been in Portland a few days seeing to some repairs on logging machinery.

Dr. Hall spent a day in Portland this week stocking up for Christmas trade with goods in his line.

The bad roads compel the closing of the mails at the postoffice a little earlier so as to make sure of getting them on board the trains.

A young Mr. English from Ilwaco has been spending a few days in town the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John English.

Edgar Colvin finished his school in the Nichols district, and is spending some time in town, assisting Bryants at their store for the present.

It is decided to have a Christmas tree and appropriate exercises at the church on Christmas eve, and work to that end has already begun.

The school in the Barr district closed last Friday. Miss Myrtle Jones succeeded very well as a teacher, and the scholars seem to have been benefitted accordingly.

Nathan and Harvey Tingle were over from Quincy Monday accompanied by ex-Judge Dobbins, a former citizen of that locality, who is on a brief visit among his friends.

The new desks in the high school room are in place and add very much to the appearance of the room, as well as to the comfort of the scholars. The third school month was completed last week.

Our store-windows have more than the usual variety of articles on exhibition designed for the holidays. Persons can have an unusually good opportunity for making selections at the different stores.

Isaac Baumgardner has secured an acre of ground and built a house just at the edge of town in a very sightly location. He can make a very pleasant home, and will doubtless do so as he is not afraid of work.

Work is being done on the road to the depot, where a mud hole becomes so deep as to render the road about impassable. Elliott Wood is a good supervisor, but has a contract on his hands in trying to keep that road in order with the small facilities at his command.

Prahl & Lovegren have been rafting their logs the past few days and expect to get them to market soon. Some of the Howitson logs from Wanburg's place were floated to tidewater on the recent rise, but there was not water enough to get them down above that place.

Miss Maud Bryant had a birthday anniversary a few days ago, and a few of her friends were invited in that evening where a very pleasant evening was spent. She has quite recently completed a term of school at Mist where she has taught several terms, giving patrons and scholars excellent satisfaction.

It is a little late to mention it, but Angus Elliott and Miss Ada M. Allen were united in marriage on Thanksgiving Day by Justice Orwig at the home of the bride's parents, and are receiving the congratulations of their friends. Angus is working among the section men on the railroad and thought he needed a good wife to meet him with kind words on his return home after a day of toil. He seems well satisfied, and this scribe wishes them a long and happy matrimonial experience.

The morning train Monday brought a funeral party from Westport bearing the remains of Beryl Graham, a 11-year-old son of Charles Graham and wife, who died at Westport on Saturday evening of brain trouble following pneumonia. The boy was sick less than a week, receiving prompt and careful attention during that time, but the disease could not be abated and a fatal result followed. Funeral services were held in the church where Rev. Smith gave a brief discourse to the large number present, after which a last look was taken and the casket borne to the cemetery. The father is a son of Samuel Graham, at Marshland, and a number of the friends from that place were in attendance.

The Modern Woodmen gave a social to their friends last Saturday evening that was quite a social success, notwithstanding a very disagreeable night made attendance quite an effort. An excellent literary and musical programme had been prepared and was carried out to the delight of all present. Songs and instrumental music by Miss Jones and Ida Blackford, a recitation by Miss Mabel Blackford, reading by Miss Reid, brief addresses by Rev. Smith and Dr. Hall, were followed by refreshments served in woodman style—on a board or shingle, covered, however, by a dainty Chinese napkin, and served by the Woodmen's fair wives and daughters, with the help of a few of the woodworkers themselves. This part of the programme was enjoyed also, and the audience decided that men could be woodmen and not woodenmen, the way they got around to look after the comfort of their guests. The order is fortunate in this place by being represented by a good class of citizens, and is at present the leading fraternal institution in the city. Its members here will be pleased to give any information with regard to the advantages and objects of the order. Harry LaBare was master of ceremonies, and, if correctly informed, the secretary or "scratch-all" of the order, while neighbor Dan Rice seems to be chief director or "mauler." Who handles the square and broadax has not been told. Ed Page, W. C. Buck, Al and John Blackford seem to handle some of the tools or carry the chips, and will give information. We hope they will give another social.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you cannot get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public, both are certain to be tried, and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist.

WARREN NEWS.

Gus Hegele and family, of Bachelor Flat, were Warren visitors Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Clark was a passenger on the noon train for Portland Monday.

Ed McFarland has been attending to business in Portland the last three or four days.

Walter Crosby, of Portland, spent a few days with his sister at this place the first of the week.

Jimmie Bacon, who has been spending some time in Portland, returned home on Friday last.

Miss Ryan, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Crosby, our school teacher, the first part of the week.

Charles Clark and George Young have taken a contract to clear twenty acres of land on the Gill place.

Archie Collins, who is employed in the Franklin Market, Portland, spent a few days here the last part of last week.

John Downing, jr., who is employed in the machine shops in Portland, is spending a few days with his parents at this place.

Amos Slavens came down from Portland Saturday to take part in the closing exercises of the school, returning on the noon train Sunday.

Mr. John Downing, sr., who has been in the Rossland, B. C., mining district for the last two or three years, returned home on Tuesday last, whether to remain or not we do not know.

The entertainment given at the schoolhouse on Saturday evening last was one of the best of its kind given here in a long time, and was witnessed by a large crowd. The stage was handsomely decorated with green boughs, forming an arch. At the background against the wall, the large flag recently purchased by the school was very prettily draped, under which were the words "Remember the Maine." The programme was rather long, but well rendered. The opening song of welcome by the small pupils brought forth hearty applause; also the recitations by Lena Wilson, Eva Grewell, Maude Wilson, Mrs. Hoyt and Miss Crosby were well received. The instrumental solo by Mr. Berg brought him repeated applause. Mr. Berg is a musician of rare ability, and richly deserved the applause he won. The solo by Miss Maude Slavens was very pleasing, also was the recitation by Miss Ryan, entitled "The Draw Keeper's Child." The violin solo by Amos Slavens was a very clever bit of work. The color exercise by the little girls, representing the "Red, White and Blue," was short but sweet. The vocal solo by Misses Crosby, Mae and Maude Slavens came in for its share of applause. The duet by Birdie Downing and Mrs. Sheffield, entitled "The Maine," seemed to strike the audience as being of special merit. Both ladies sang well and received a round applause. Miss Edythe Hazen's comic recitation was good. The young lady dressed the part to perfection, and if opportunity would present Miss Hazen would be a success upon the mimic stage. The flag exercise by the second grade pupils was good. The quartette composed of Mr. Hegele, Miss Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt, rendered a fine selection. It was singing that is not our good fortune to often hear. The entertainment concluded with a dumb-bell drill in which were Ella Bacon, Laura Pusey, Edythe Hazen, Birdie Downing, Mae and Maude Slavens. Too much praise cannot be given these young ladies for their splendid work. Their statuary effect could not be excelled. Every movement was made with ease and grace, which showed careful training. At the end of the drill Miss Crosby sang "The Old Oaken Bucket" in a masterly manner, and the curtains closed with red fire effect.
