New York, Duc. 31.—A dispatch to the Herald from Mauila says Adminal Dewey considers it absolutely necessary that a first-class slatesman be sent to Manila to thoroughly investigate the situation there and accortain the aspira-tions of the Filipino republicanz. He forther states that the United States must accent their regrammibilities in forther states that the United Suites must accept their responsibilities in the Philippines which have been se-quired by conquest. If they should shirk this duty they would put them-seives back 200 years in the workly

The first republican government has resigned over the question of American intervention in the government of the Philippines. Owners of property desire

Philippines. Owners of property desire American co-operation. The present temporary cabinet, which will exorcise power pending the elections, is very anti-American. It allows no American co-operation what-ever, and wants to declare a free repub-lic and to consider Americans as allies. It is willing to grant liberal commer-cial treaties, with a monopoly of the mines and railways, and to repay the expenses of the American occupation of Mauila. of Manila
