OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

"JACK P. HEUKERT," who is now engaged in the newspaper business at Rainier, in answering an article in THE MIST of two weeks ago, is not quite so weighty in brain matter as we had supposed him to be. In our article we spoke of the Review management, but "Jack" throws down the gauntlet and rushes into print over his own signature and single-handed, and we now presume ourselves at liberty to deal with "Jack" alone, and not the Review. In the first place, "Jack," you say it is your policy to be sure of anything before you rush into print to condemn, hence your slowness to condemn Sanford, and just a little farther along in your argument you say our attack on Sanford reminds you of a coyote, which waits until all danger is passed, etc., and asks the question why did we not tackle Sanford before he left here. The reason we did not, "Jack," is because it is our policy to find out the truth before we condemn. Sanford left here so quickly, as soon as he got out of the clutches of the law, that we had not time to learn of his helly until he was well away from here. We did not even know for sure, until Sanford had gone, that he "did" you, "Jack," for $100 or $150. You, perhaps, "Jack," didn't know it, either, until he had gone, but you suspiciously did, did you not, "Jack?" If you will inform us how we might have found those things out before they happened, you will greatly oblige us. In the second place, "Jack," your accusation of cowardice on our part falls a little flat when it is recalled to mind that we one time dealt with Sanford through our columns in such a way as to make it quite unpleasant for him, and he was in the newspaper business at the same time, yet he failed to defend himself to the satisfaction of the public. We cite you to the issues of THE MIST of May 13 and 27, 1898. That was when Sanford was bombarding Wall street with the Spanish fleet, last summer. Do you remember, "Jack?" Our attack on Sanford at that time didn't look much like cowardice, did it, "Jack?" Sanford didn't defend himself with his paper, as one naturally would suppose him to do, but he threatened all sorts of calamities for us, such as shotguns, pistols, chained lightning, etc., but do you remember of our running, "Jack?" We observed your policy to a letter. We found out we were right before we went ahead. "Was that right, "Jack?" We are really surprised at you, after being "done up" by Sanford for nearly $150, to get out and defend him as hard as you know how, but may be you have heard, "Jack," that Sanford was coming back, and there may be a little tinge of "cowardice" about your methods. Now, "Jack," let us give you just a little bit of advice. It was unnecessary for you to rush into print over your own signature, because we are familiar enough with newspaper etiquette to suppose you would rather your article in your paper, besides you would not have laid yourself so wide open to criticism. And further, when we are dealing with you, individually, which your signature to that article gives us the privilege, we could go into detail and say a good deal, because—well, you know, "Jack," we have chapter after chapter of our sanctuaries which we could use if we were so disposed. You remember, now, "Jack," will you be good?

ELECT ROAD SUPERVISORS.

Measure Passed Legislature Which is Apparently Good.

That sections 4081 and 4082 of Hill's Annotated Laws of Oregon be and the same are hereby amended so as to read as follows: Sec. 4081. The several county courts shall, as often as they deem necessary, but not oftener than once in two years, divide their respective counties, or any part thereof, into suitable or convenient road districts, each of which shall be numbered, and cause a brief description of the same to be entered on the county records. No road district shall be so made as that it shall be partly in one election precinct and partly in another, but each road district shall be so formed as to be wholly within one election precinct. Provided, that all territory within any incorporated town or city may be one road district. Each county court, at the January term, 1900, thereof shall so arrange the road districts in its county so as to conform to the provisions of this section, and at the January term of said court every two years thereafter, and at no other time, make such change in road districts as may be deemed necessary, but no changes, either in road districts or election precincts, shall be made which shall interfere with the relative arrangement thereof as provided in this section.

Sec. 4082. At the general election in 1900 and every two years thereafter shall be elected in each election precinct in this state in which there is one or more road districts, as provided in section 4081, a road supervisor for each road district in such election precinct, who shall be a resident of the road district for which he is elected and shall hold his office for two years, or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. At such election every person entitled to vote for precinct officers in a given precinct shall be entitled to vote for one road supervisor for one road supervisor for each road district in such precinct. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties, each road supervisor shall take an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office, and when any person shall fail or refuse to accept the office of road supervisor to which he shall have been elected, he shall be fined in the sum of twenty-five dollars, which fine shall be appropriated to road purposes in the road district in which such person shall have been elected. Such fine shall be imposed and collected by any justice of the peace in the county in which such road district shall be located or by the county court of such county and the amount of said fine shall be turned over to the road supervisor of the precinct in which it is to be used. All vacancies in the office of road supervisor shall be filled by the county court at the next term thereof, after such vacancy shall have occurred.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for the grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure the grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist, St. Helens.

to the best of his ability. They both are from Washington county, and this county is certainly not benefited in the least by the acquisition. Mitchell says Tom Miter is a tax-dodger because Beagle & Davis gave in their individual assessments. Let us ask Mr. Mitchell if he ever was on a tax-roll in Columbia county. His name does not appear on either the 1897 or 1898 rolls. And further, who is the News Publishing Co.? There is no such firm or company on the 1897 or 1898 tax rolls. We find the following on each of the rolls above mentioned: "E. B. McFarland, nonresident, printing press used by Columbia Co. News." Who is it, or who was it ever in Columbia county that constituted the News Publishing Co.? Such a thing is not on the tax-roll. Was the tax paid by the News last year paid as company property? If it was we failed to find it on the tax-roll. And let us say further, that the tax on the plant of the News was not paid until very late in November last, and not then until Sheriff Rice threatened to attach the plant and sell it out parcel by parcel until he had realized the amount of the tax. The News is a warty. It would break its neck to save the taxpayers a few cents. But if it has such great interest in the taxpayers why did it not pay its tax earlier in the year and thus save the county the interest on $23.45 for several months. The tax of THE MIST, while not that much, was paid on March 10th, 1898. The News tax was paid eight months later. "The News received less than $500 for printing a larger tax list than that for which THE MIST at one time received $1200 and at another time $500," says Mitchell. A more unreasoning lie was never uttered. The first tax list printed in this county for many years, if not the first, was paid for on July 20th, 1892, and amounted to $800. The next one printed in 1894, was paid for on November 14th, 1894, and amounted to $329.47. There was an $871 lie to start with. The third tax list THE MIST printed was in 1895, and was paid for on November 14, 1895, and amounted to $217.45. So it will be seen that we could yet print a couple more tax lists and yet be under the amount claimed by Mitchell that THE MIST received for two tax lists. Is Mitchell a perverter of the truth? We extend to Mitchell an invitation—yes we issue him a challenge to accompany us on a research of the records to deprive the statements contained in this article. He will not accompany us, because records reveal truths, and Mitchell is not dealing in that commodity. His stock in trade is to misrepresent. While, as Mitchell claims, THE MIST is a tax-dodger, Mitchell is undoubtedly an adept as a truth-dodger. A revoir, Mitch.

more and more than you have. Do a little hustling yourself. Don't be a knocker. If you can say a good word, say it like a prince. If you are full of bile and disposed to say something mean, keep your mouth shut. Don't be a knocker. No man ever helped himself up permanently by knocking his neighbors down. Give up a kind word. Give it liberally. It won't cost you a cent, and you may want one yourself some day. You may have thousands today and next year be without the price of a shovelful. So don't be a knocker. You can't afford it. It won't pay. There's nothing in it. If you want to throw something at somebody, throw cologne. Or roses. Don't throw bricks. Or mud. Don't be a knocker. If you must kick, go around behind the barn and take a good kick at yourself. For if you feel that way, you're the man that needs kicking. But whatever you do, don't be a knocker.

INQUIRY FROM OHIO.

Result of Write-up in New Year's Oregonian.
Mr. ORAN, Ohio, January 31, 1899.
David Davis, St. Helens, Oregon. Dear Sir:—We had sent you the Morning Oregonian of January 18th, giving description of Oregon by counties, and the description of your county struck us very favorably; in fact the description of all were excellent. We are dealers in timber and have been for years, and it seems from the description of Oregon there is surely enough timber to last for years. I have a few questions I would like to ask if not imposing too much on you. (Will enclose envelope and stamp for reply.) You speak about railroad land for sale, selling at $2.50 per acre. Is the railroad land well timbered, and what kinds, and how far from railroad? Is it mountain land or rolling, only? Could you tell us the expense of logging from woods to railroad—that is, on the railroad land at $2.50 per acre—and what does timber bring at railroad station; different grades? How near St. Helens or any other town of any note could we buy this $2.50 railroad land? Please give population of St. Helens and manufacturing interests. Will you please give us the names of your leading lumber manufacturers in your town or county. Hoping you may not consider this imposing too much on you, we remain Yours truly,
KIRK & KAY.

One From Minnesota.

FERRIS FALLS, Minn., Feb. 12, 1899.
David Davis, St. Helens, Oregon. Dear Sir:—Through a friend of mine, I got hold of the Morning Oregonian of January 18th wherein I read a letter from you describing Columbia county. You say therein that there is considerable vacant land there, subject to entry under the homestead law. Now, I should like to know what kind of land this is—heavy timbered or brush and prairie. Is irrigation necessary? How far from school and market? This applies as well to good land as railroad lands you speak of in the same letter. How can a poor man make a living for himself and family while he gets a start on his land if he should take up some? There are several families in this neighborhood who would locate out West if they only knew that they could make a living for themselves and families until it could be gotten out of the land. Most of them have barely enough to take them out there. They have also homes here, but cannot sell at present. From the maps I see that Columbia county must be between the Coast Range mountains and the Columbia river, north from Portland. I am surprised that this county has not been settled up before now, unless the vacant lands are worthless, or such that they cannot be cultivated without great expense. How is that? Which would be the best place to stop at if I should go out there—St. Helens, Goble or Scappoose? Could I get work out there with some real estate firm or in some store in which I have had some experience here? I believe if the lands are fit for cultivation I could induce a good number from here to go out there and settle up the country. Good many here are getting tired of four to six months winter at from 15 to 40 below zero. If you can possibly find time to answer all these questions it would greatly oblige me, and it may do some good for your country. Hoping to hear from you in the near future or as soon as possible, I remain Yours very truly,
HENRY J. COLVINS.

Another From Dakota.

TERRY, S. D., Feb. 9, 1899.
Mr. David Davis, St. Helens. Dear Sir:—I have been reading your description of Columbia county in the Portland Oregonian, and I would like a little information about buying railroad land. Is it all timber land or is there some of it open? Can they work in the lumber woods in winter, or does it rain too much. What wages is paid in the woods and also in the sawmills? I am thinking of buying a farm some place in Western Oregon the coming summer. At present I am running a hoisting engine and air compressor. Can you put me in communication with some real estate agent who has farms for sale?
Respectfully, Myo SWAIN.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

Geo. W. Walt, of South Gardner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grippe and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grippe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross, druggist, St. Helens.

Don't Be a Knocker.

If your neighbor is prosperous, let him prosper. Don't grunt, growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Don't be a knocker. Your turn will come. No one man is the whole show. If you see the town is moving along nicely, feel good about it. Help things along. Shove a little. Push. Try and get some of the benefit yourself. Don't stand around like a chilly old cadaver. Don't waste your time feeling sore because some other fellow has a little
