OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

If the investigations continue much longer it can never be said that the roast of beef was not well done.

General Coxey's tent show will be the first one to take the road this season, and therefore the first to come to grief.

If Columbia county orchardists would raise more winter apples of good shipping variety they could always find a market for the product.

Logging camps and wood camps in Columbia county continue to employ numbers of men. In fact work is plentiful for all who really seek it.

An experiment with a new kind of gun-powder resulted in wrecking a labratory belonging to the French government. Of course the new explosive is a success.

California's new law requiring newspaper communications to be signed by the writer is a good thing. At last "Old Subscriber" is to be unmasked, and "Pro Bono Publico" made to disclose his real name.

If existing circumstances can be depended upon as indicating anything, prosperity has struck Columbia county. Ask the sheriff how tax collections compare this year with those of previous years since he has been the collector.

The question of why W. J. Bryan united with the Presbyterian rather than the Baptist or Christian church, has been quite freely debated. May be it was because he was unwilling to sink from public gaze long enough to be immersed.

Here is a puzzle picture: William J. Bryan is in favor of free silver and opposed to expansion. Dick Croker is opposed to free silver and in favor of expansion. Grover Cleveland is opposed to both expansion and free silver. Find the democrat.

The letter we published last week from the state treasurer to the county treasurer acknowledging the receipt of the state tax in full was a real neat compliment and a pretty tribute to our county's ability to liquidate its debts. It meant all it said. It conveyed no hidden meaning: Columbia county is enjoying prosperity.

The season of the year is approaching when all sorts of fake peddlers and bunco steerers will be broadcast throughout the land. Our people are now sufficiently educated so they should no longer trust itinerants going through the country taking orders and receiving money in advance. A person who is so credulous deserves being bilked once in a while as a lesson.
