

MEMORIAL DAY

THE SILENT MARCH.

NOT with the clash of the sabers, not with the roll of the drums... For these were the silent ones who, for the nation's sake, were silent.

DECORATION DAY IN A VILLAGE

They called it Decoration day in a little village some twenty years ago. It was one of the great days of the year. The village itself was all green and white.

draw it have tiny flags between their ears and waving on their backs; white horses always, the whitest in the land, and the more speckled at the wheels. The little maidens rise from their uncomfortable night's sleep, with sore heads and exceedingly wavy hair.
