

OREGON MIST.

SEPTEMBER 29, 1909.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NOTES.

Mrs. H. R. Cliff visited Portland last Monday.

Largest stock and lowest prices at W. H. Dolman's.

Harry West was down from Scappoose last Tuesday.

Dr. M. K. Hall was up from Rainier Tuesday afternoon.

J. B. E. Bourne, of Rainier, was on our streets Tuesday.

George Mayger was down from Portland Tuesday evening.

For a complete stock of merchandise call at Wm. H. Dolman's.

There seems to be but two seasons in Oregon—August and September.

Mrs. A. J. Rubert and Mrs. Andrew Rubert spent Monday in Portland.

J. G. Plank was attending to business matters down the river on Tuesday.

Miss Leah Wilson, of Portland, visited friends in this city a day or two this week.

Mrs. Frank Dow and sons, of Oak Island, were in town last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Muckle, of Rainier, were in town two days of last week visiting with relatives.

Some new planks have been added to the floor of the McNulty creek bridge, on the Scappoose road.

Some alterations are being made in the interior of the city meat market which will add to the convenience of the room.

Mr. Chris V. Anderson, of Goble, was in the city on Tuesday in attendance upon the justice court in the case of Felber vs. Ed Black.

Mr. A. S. Foster, of Portland, was in the city Wednesday attending to business and visiting his nephew and niece, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Cliff.

Rev. C. E. Philbrook will hold services next Sunday at Paris at 11:00, a. m.; at Yankton at 3:30 p. m., and at St. Helens in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Price and children, of Scappoose, spent Saturday and Sunday last visiting in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Watts.

Mr. W. B. Duell, of Portland, came down Monday and proceeded to Bunker Hill, where he went to adjust the tone on the Catholic church, which burned there some time ago.

When your supply of printed stationery becomes exhausted, send in an order to this office, where best quality of stock and workmanship are furnished at prices consistent with such qualities.

After remaining in camp for nearly three months, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dolman and other members of the family, returned to this city from Bunker Hill last week, bringing their camp outfit.

Hereafter, instead of "rubbering" or "rubbernecking," the up-to-date slang devotees must say "penetrating," because it means the same thing—a long, narrow neck extending out to (see) sea.

The St. Helens Sunday school vacation ends this week and exercises will begin promptly at 10:45 next Sunday morning. All are welcome and earnestly desired to attend. M. C. GRAY, Superintendent.

Miss Willie Caples, who has been visiting her parents at Columbia City for the past six weeks, left Monday for Wawawai, Wisconsin, where she assists her brother, Dr. B. M. Caples, in a sanitarium.

This office turned out the posters a few days ago announcing a ball to be given at Scappoose on October 13th, under the auspices of Scappoose assembly of Artisans. Undoubtedly a most enjoyable time will be had.

Miss Nora Dillard, who visited her brother and his family at this place for six months past, started on her return to Virginia last Monday. During her stay in this city Miss Dillard made many warm friends who regret her departure.

Washington county farmers are very much elated over the fact that the government has recently purchased 750 tons of timothy hay in that county, putting several thousand dollars in the hands of the producers. Other large purchases of hay are expected.

The steamer Joseph Kellogg hung up on a sunken pile in the Swilla river last Monday morning on her regular trip out to Portland. She soon filled with water and sank, but the work of baling was soon commenced and the boat was able to proceed to Portland that night.

Postmaster Dolman on Tuesday received the first book of new-style money order, of which we gave a full description in a week or two since. The office has been without money order blanks for some time, greatly to the inconvenience of the public, but in future all demands will be supplied.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Perry, of Houlton, and Mrs. J. B. Watts, of Scappoose, returned last Friday morning from a week's visit in the Grande Ronde valley, in Eastern Oregon. Newton is much impressed with the appearance of LaGrande and Union and says that business in that vicinity is very brisk.

A town, unlike a city, is no place to foster jealousy and noxious contentions. All should learn to know that whatever will conduce to the welfare of a town cannot injure her citizens. The disposition made manifest by her citizens point to her downfall or rise. Harmony among the people of a community is as necessary to their success as air to sustain.

Nearly twenty members of the Trinity church section of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of Portland, came down to St. Helens Wednesday morning to visit the members of the church of this city and assist in making preparations for the annual bazaar to be given later in the season. The ladies of the church gave the visitors luncheon in Masonic hall, after which the Portland contingent returned to Portland on the Hassalo.

A passenger rate war is fairly on and the transportation companies are throwing out inducements to the public which make it cheaper to travel than remain at home. The steamboats seem to be after the scalps of the railroad people, putting the fare from Portland to Astoria down to 50 cents, which rate was met by the railroad. The steamer Cayton, on the Rainier-Portland run, reduced the fare to 25 cents for the round trip, while the Traida, on the same run, reduced the fare to 25 cents one way. Competition is the life of trade, and the public accepts the new conditions with no misgivings, to be sure.

WARREN AND SCAPOOSE.

Will Pattullo, of Portland, spent Sunday at Warren.

Mr. Gus Ostby was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

J. S. Bacon was attending to business in Portland on Monday last.

Mr. George Volens was a passenger on Sunday evening's train for Portland.

Mr. Harry West spent a few days at Salem last week attending the state fair.

Mr. D. Price and family spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Houlton.

Miss Lulu Frakes was visiting with friends at Warren and Scappoose last week.

Mr. Emmet Stevens and Geo. Young, of Kilmore farm, spent last Sunday at Warren.

Miss Agnes Johnson and Miss Mollie Clouger drove to Portland on Sunday, returning the same evening.

Mr. Host, a prosperous farmer of Clark county, Wash., spent a couple of days at the Pattullo ranch this week.

Dr. Chesdale and Dr. Denny, of Portland, attended the assembly of Artisans at Scappoose on Saturday evening last.

Miss Ella Bacon, Miss Laura Pusey, Walter Collins and Dale Semple were the guests of the Misses Maude and May Slavens on Sunday last.

Max Berg boasts of the swiftest turnout in Columbia county. He has recently purchased a three-seated carriage and a new set of harness.

The large oil painting which was raffled off at Scappoose this week was won by Mr. A. Stump, number forty-eight being the winning number.

The Cudaly Packing Company's representative and Closes & Devers representative were doing business with Merchant Price on Monday last.

John Downing has purchased a horse from the Linton cannery which he is now breaking to drive in his new buggy. Now girls, here is the chance of your lifetime.

Mr. Henry Bartell, who is engaged in hauling wood to Johnson's landing, fell from his wagon last week, and was injured to such an extent that he had to take a lay-off.

Max Berg, Mr. Jensen, Mr. Nagel, Mr. Plinick and Mr. Larsen, with their respective families, and Peter Anderson spent Sunday with Mr. Tetz and family in Dutch canyon.

Mr. Ed McFarlane went to Portland on Saturday to attend a fare-well dinner party given at his mother's home, in honor of Miss Flora Robinson, who leaves for California to spend the winter.

Louis Pusey, while riding his brother's bicycle one evening last week, collided with another bike, damaging the borrowed wheel to such an extent that it had to be sent to the shop for repairs.

Mr. E. M. Jones, traveling representative for Burns, the photographer, of Portland, has been doing a land office business in our vicinity. For the next two months photos will be as numerous as flies.

John Bushman and John Sparks quit the section last week and went to making hay, but we understand that Sparks, after working a couple of days in the hay field, went back to his old job of tamping ties. Bushman is expected to arrive later.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Hattie Elizabeth Tumpkins to Mr. Joseph Reserve, of Portland, the ceremony to be performed at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday, October 1st.

Bills are out announcing a grand ball to be given at Scappoose on Friday, October 13, under the auspices of the United Artisan assembly number 173. First-class music will be furnished and a pleasant time is expected to be had with supper included, have been fixed at $1.25. The following gentlemen compose the committee: Messrs. Ostby, Engler, Vandermost, Brown, Chambers and Fox.

Those who happened to be in the vicinity of the store at Scappoose a week ago Monday evening, were treated to a first-class chawing contest between three young ladies and Jack Chambers. Jack got his pedigree read in a strictly up-to-date style. Mercy—these young ladies had none. They ripped Jack up one side and down the other, much to the amusement of the bystanders. Chambers tried to get a word in edgewise, but he might as well have tried to fly. All he could do was to say a few words under his breath and take his medicine. When the young ladies had finished with him he was a wreck. We understand from good authority that Jack has worried so much over the roasting he received that it caused two of Job's comforters to appear on each side of his nose about the size of an egg, which has made it impossible for him to attend to his work.

On Wednesday, October 4th, the Pickering Confectionery, which is composed of some of Portland's best known musicians, will give a grand concert at Wats & Price's hall, at Scappoose. Mr. Pickering himself is well worth the price of admission. His violin playing has gained for him a wide reputation and he is acknowledged by musicians to be one of the best composers on the coast. Mr. H. Bartella is also well known and his cello playing is really remarkable. Mr. M. Seaman is the piano player whom one must hear to appreciate, and the other members of the company are equally well known. We have had the pleasure of hearing these gentlemen and can assure those who attend that a treat is in store for them. Although not making a practice of playing at cheap prices, Mr. Pickering, the advance agent, has been prevailed upon to cut the price of admission to 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children, in order to give every one a chance to attend.

A Word to Mothers. Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by Dr. Edwin Ross.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but nothing in the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses, I was entirely cured and I feel that I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. E. MOORE. Sold by Dr. Edwin Ross.
