A number of cases of smallpox are reported to be in Portland. It will be a wonder, indeed, if someone does not bring the disease to this county.

Mrs. Mary T. Williams, of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived here Tuesday in company with her sister, Mrs. Deming. Mrs. Williams expects to remain some time.

We have been requested to print the precinct and road district boundaries again this week, owing to the fact that precinct primaries are to be held right away.

The county treasurer will withhold the state tax for a few days in order to pay the school districts the amounts due on the quarterly apportionment to be made April 1st.

Captain Henderson, of Houlton, is rapidly improving from the effects of an operation he had performed some time since. His physician expects him to arrive home soon.

Robert Patrick, formerly of Vernonia, who went to the Klondike mining region two years ago, writes that he is prospering. He expects to return from the mines this fall.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) druggist called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scoles, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale at the St. Helens pharmacy.

An exchange, in bidding farewells to a departed citizen, who was a man of push; he played marbles for keep when a boy, and cheated all of his playmates out of their alleys; he swapped a blades-out knife, eight unseen, for a four-bladed, sold that for 50 cents, bought a dozen lemons and a pound of sugar and made a barrel of lemonade, which he sold one circus day for $8. He started in business and sold bad meats for choice cuts and made a fortune. When he got a thousand dollars, he organized a company with $5,000,000 capital, mostly watered, and sold at par. When the company busted, it was found that he had sold out some time before. When he died he was a millionaire and he left it all here. It is very warm where he is now.

Every editor makes enemies. A little squib, aimed at no one in particular, will hit some hollow-headed individual, and he at once declares himself "agin" the paper. The paper may have given him many complimentary notices, but the imaginary thrust puts him on his dignity, and he at once establishes himself as a critic, but he hasn't enough nerve to go to the editor with his supposed grievance. Just notice and you will see that the men who are "agin" their home paper are, as a rule, men who would not be missed if they would leave the community forever. On every question of local interest the home paper stands ready to take a fight for the best interests of the greatest number of the citizens at its back.—Exchange.

The editor of this paper acknowledges the receipt of an invitation from the state democratic central committee to attend a reception to be tendered to Hon. Wm. J. Bryan in Portland April 4th, and to occupy a seat upon the platform. We should like very much to hear Mr. Bryan expostulate, and if business leaves sufficient time for us to get away from home at that date, we may attend, but if so, we would prefer a seat along with the common herd, of which class we are the component.

At every log, wood and lumber camp on the river between Astoria and Portland preparations are being made for work on a more extensive scale this spring than ever before. This is due to the fact that the logging men have secured several large contracts which call for immediate delivery. At one camp it said 300 hands will be employed for at least two and maybe three months to come.—Astorian.

Judge M. C. George, sitting in the criminal department of the state circuit court in Portland Tuesday, sentenced Frank E. McDaniel, convicted of manslaughter in having killed Adelaide Claire Fitch at Cycle park, last July, to fifteen years imprisonment in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $500. McDaniel made a statement to the court in which he again declared his innocence.

The Oregonian ought to have the smallpox, "in a mild form," then it might scratch its own scab and let alone the dissections in the republican camp. If President McKinley should come to Oregon next summer, Harry will dig out his own navel unless his finger tips are clipped.—Moro Observer.

Astoria papers of late have contained little else than the interviews with C. J. Curtis, who has bolted the republican party and joined the citizens movement. Curtis has always been a political jumping-jack, and any movement of his should not cause Astorians so much concern.

Mrs. Emily Bishop, of Goble, sends word from that place that she has received no tidings from her husband, Frank Bishop, since last October. Mr. Bishop went to the Yukon district considerably over a year ago.

Several persons of this city, entertaining fear that smallpox might be brought to the place, have been vaccinated. They seemed to be strong believers in the adage that "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure."

L. L. Decker and wife came down from Cornelius last Friday and visited relatives a day or two. They were accompanied by Mrs. Godfrey, of Cornelius, who also visited friends here.

A fresh assortment of seeds at Collins & Gray's, St. Helens.

Blank note and receipt books for sale at this office.

Precinct Committeeman.

D. A. Pattullo came down from Portland last Sunday on a visit to the ranch.

Floyd Puzey made a business trip to Portland last Friday. Wonder why he went?

Charles Lynch, who is employed at the Honeyman ranch, visited with his parents last Sunday.

Marion Cooper returned from Portland last week and is now visiting with his parents for a few days.

H. Larson, R. O. and M. F. Hazen attended the I. O. O. F. lodge at St. Helens last Saturday evening.

Miss Mueette Grewell is stopping at the home of Henry Duncan, whose whole family is down with the gripple.

P. A. Markham, jr., and son, Phillip, of Portland, drove down in a buggy last Sunday and visited at the Pattullo ranch.

A couple of parties from Portland were down last week looking around at some of the farms with a view of locating in our vicinity.

Most everyone in this neighborhood is suffering from the gripple. Some have been very seriously ill, but at last accounts were improving rapidly.

George Decker returned from Portland one evening last week. He is going to build an addition to his home which will add very much to the looks of the place.

The magic lantern exhibition and lecture given at the schoolhouse was not very well attended, but, nevertheless, all were highly entertained and well pleased with the entertainment.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. F. Nagle last Sunday, the occasion being the anniversary of Mr. Peter Anderson's birth. A few invited friends were present and all had an excellent time.

The services at the home of Henry Larson were not very well attended, but few being present. Rev. Decker gave a very nice sermon and a good speaker. He was ably assisted by Rev. Benshaw, who conducted the business meeting after the services.

Fruit Prospects.
The Telegram says: "Those who ought to be informed say the prospects are good for a full fruit crop next summer. So far, unless possibly in a few localities, the buds have not been injured, and the season is now so far advanced that extensive damage is improbable. This is encouraging to both growers and consumers of fruit. While a large and general crop causes low prices, growers in general can endure too great an abundance rather than so universal and extensive a shortage as occurred last year. This latter condition renders a few growers exceptionally prosperous, but does not compensate for the loss and expense sustained by the majority of growers and all consumers. Oregon is sure of a large fruit crop almost every year and it will rapidly increase in quantity. The problem presented to the horticulturists is to find a profitable market outside the state for their surplus. This, with prunes and sound, first-class winter apples, properly handled, is easy; the distant demand is so loud that it reaches to the Oregon orchards; but with some other fruits some efforts will be necessary. The principal requirements, however, are: Sound fruit, honestly and carefully packed, so as to meet the critical demand of retailers and consumers. When Oregon fruitgrowers act up to this rule, they will receive a very large aggregate sum annually from all over Oregon, and horticulture will become one of our greatest industries."

Card of Thanks.
We take this means of extending our thanks to friends and neighbors whose kind treatment we received during the recent illness in our family.
MR. AND MRS. L. MEKKEE.

A. R. De Finet, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Col. J. B. Eddy tells of an editor who eloped with another man's wife and the people of the town tried to lynch him when he was brought back. But when they found out that the injured man was a delinquent subscriber and had "refused" his paper at the postoffice, they let the editor out of jail and presented him with a gold watch.

Effecting School Clerks.
Under date of March 1st, Prof. J. H. Ackerman, superintendent of public instruction, has issued a circular letter to the county superintendents throughout the state. It is in circular letter No. 10, and deals with the salaries of school district clerks, being, to a certain extent an explanation of circular letter No. 9, treating on the same subject, and issued by the department several weeks ago. The text of the letter follows:

"According to circular letter No. 9, school clerks are not allowed to use any of the common school fund for salaries. The decision was given in order to give you a working basis to disallow the exorbitant salaries to school clerks which has been the practice, in some districts, in the past. However, I would suggest that it might be as well to allow school clerks a nominal sum for their salaries; enough, at least, to cover the ordinary expenses, such as postage, stationery, etc., and perhaps a small sum for their services."

The Shoulder-Slapping Fad.
A friendly shoulder slap broke a man's neck a few weeks ago in New York City. There is only one worse nuisance in the world than the rib-poker, and that is the shoulder-slapper. They have both outlived their usefulness and are fit objects of solicitude for the Society for Doing Without Some People. The fad which takes care unaware on a crowded pavement with a facious bat on the shoulder blade when you are meditating on the ideal and beautiful, and expects you to twist your shaken vertebrae into a genial nod and greet him with a happy, fatulent smile, possesses an heroic soul that would not recognize the language of conventional reconstrance. He is not criminal and he is not crazy; he is simply an idiot. The lunatic asylums and the jails are overworked, but the folk-killer doesn't half know his business.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy and as a result we never have to send for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARNS, General Merchandise and Farm, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.
