TWO PROCLAMATIONS

Issued by Americans and Rebels in the Philippines.

FIRST IS OF SPECIFIC CHARACTER

Warns the Natives Against Continuing Opposition—The Other Urges Them to Revolt.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The postmaster-general has received from F. W. Vailie, director-general of posts in the Philippines, copies of two undated proclamations, one by the American commissioners and the other by the insurgents.

The American proclamation is of a pacific character, but warns the natives that they have nothing to expect from continuing opposition to the Americans. It promises free transportation home to all insurgents who surrender their arms, and directs the confiscation of all money and hamp belonging to the insurgent government. The natives are notified that the American soldiers are expected to pay for everything they obtain from the Filipinos in the way of food and supplies, and it requests the natives to report any case of looting or extortion to the nearest military commander.

The Filipino proclamation, issued in reply to this, announces that for a period of 10 days amnesty will be extended to all Filipino spies in the employ of the American forces, if they present themselves to the insurgent military or civil authorities. A single exception is made in the case of one Marcello Abinsay, who is denounced as an outlaw beyond the pale, and a reward is offered for his apprehension, dead or alive, while the death penalty is pronounced against anyone found in his company at the time of his capture. The proclamation further declares that all the threats of the Americans of pursuing the insurgents to the hills are idle, as the American forces are short of food and ammunition, and have received no reinforcements for many months.
