OCTOBER 5, 1900.

WONDER IS 'TIS SUCH.

One fact in connection with the Sauvies Island murder which is giving the officers and citizens of this County some concern is how it was possible for such a thing to happen just outside of the border limits of Columbia County. It seems almost incredible, yet it certainly must be so, since Kentemeyer was arrested by Multnomah County officials and his hearing had in a Multnomah County Court. May be the hoodoo is off, and Columbia County will escape, at least, the trying out of one murder case. Murders, robberies, insanity and suicides seem to have chosen the soil within our borders upon which to commit their infractions of the code, and the County has been the sufferer in that as much that an enormous cost bill and expense account has been our misfortune to foot. It makes one feel almost like shaking hands with one's self and endeavor to forget that such a crime was committed. Our escape from a repetition of history in this connection was by but a hair's breadth, and partly by the grace of the Oregon Legislature in fixing the boundary line between the Counties just where it did. Our reference to all these immoral acts does necessarily argue that ours is a bad class of people, but the geographical location of the County seems to have been a handy dumping ground for all the criminal garbage of our sister State across the river, and the adjoining Counties. Terrible as such occurences are, we are in a congratulatory mood for ourselves that Multnomah County can have a taste of the fruit this County has feasted on. While such a bill of fare has appeased the mind's appetite of some individuals, it has had a nauseating effect upon good citizens and demoralized our character, beside impairing our financial progress by unnecessarily increasing our Court expenses.

WHAT CONSTITUTES BRYANISM?

Now it is up to the followers of Mr. Bryan and his code of advocated principles to explain just why Governor Roosevelt was attacked by a mob in a little town in Colorado, last week, while he was attempting to deliver a political speech. Four years ago Mr. Bryan and his crowd placed a great deal of stress upon the statement that the Republicans were coercing voters, and in some instances depriving them from casting a ballot, but if our memory serves us as it should, we are unable to recall one instance during that memorable campaign when a gathering of Republicans refused a Bryan advocate a hearing. Certainly not. The Republican party has always advocated and practiced the rule of law and order in the land, protected the rights of individuals—their life and property—and in some instances it has been found that the offenders were unanimously of the kind which is giving Bryan his support. To interrogations regarding the responsibility for such outlandish conduct the country has been given to understand that if people on such a mission as Mr. Roosevelt's was, do not care to undergo such treatment, they can remain away from Colorado. That's good United States Constitution advocacy. That accords to every individual the unrestricted enjoyment of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" with a vengeance, but it places the Bryanite in a decidedly contradictory position, and one not calculated to gain much favor with the American people. The principle of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" would seem to be all right with the Bryanites, when its application is intended for rebellious Filipinos, but for home folks and Americans it finds no place. Conditions would seem to be bordering closely on the desperate when such tactics are resorted to, and the people or set of people who sanction such conduct will not gain favor with the great masses of good American citizens. If that is Bryanism, away with it.

THE extremely narrow escape from death, or at least, very serious and permanent injury of half a dozen members of one family at Scappoose last Sunday, by reason of a runaway accident, caused, undoubtedly, by the foolhardy acts of two boys old enough to know much better, should be a warning to that class of individuals not to exercise their liberties at the expense of endangering the lives of other people. Bicycle riders should bear in mind that not every horse will coolly permit all kinds of confusion and excitement about them. It was by but an act of extreme kind Providence that one or all the occupants of the wagon did not lose their lives, in which instance there would have been no direct criminal responsibility attaching to anyone, lamentable as such a condition is. Bicycle riders should at least have regard for life if not for privilege of others.

FARMERS AND THE SCHOOLS.

One of the worst mistakes common among farmers is the attitude (or lack of attitude) usually taken toward the education of their children. Few visit the schools where their children are trained for weal or woe. The hired man is watched very carefully about the caring for the cattle and hogs, but the individual who is appointed to care for the children six hours every day is often a stranger to their parents or guardians. Some say, "I am no teacher and believe in leaving the work to the one who profess to be able to teach. But we must remember that our presence at school may be of great value in encouraging him who knows how to teach to do better and to keep our children, and their teacher, from getting careless and negligent of duty. How much good our presence and an encouraging word now and then may do, eternity only can fully answer, and how much evil a careless, indifferent manner—a grumbling about "that teacher" in the presence of our children—may do, can never be fully realized. Another common mistake consists in hiring teachers with reference to salary only. Many is the term of school taught each year by weak, incompetent teachers, simply because they will work cheap, when $5 or $10 a month would secure a live, wide-awake teacher who would be a power for good in the school, instead of allowing open disobedience and careless, unscholarly habits to be formed. The wise farmer considers it poor economy to let a good hand go for the sake of a few dollars increase in wages. Why not apply the same principle to teachers where the result of poor work cannot be estimated in dollars and cents only. Ten dollars more a month to secure a good teacher may mean 25 cents or 50 cents more a month from you. If you are poor your burden will be correspondingly light, while your children will receive as much benefit from the superior training of a good teacher as your wealthy neighbor's, and if wealthy you can hardly contribute to a better cause and at the same time be throwing safeguards around yourself and property. "Ignorance is the curse of God, knowledge the wing wherewith we fly to Heaven." It often happens that very poor people, with large families, object to building a new school house, hiring a good teacher, or purchasing a library, when the extra tax would not cost as much as a single vice would cost in a week. A man in a city in this State spent a great deal of time arguing against building a new school house, the cost of which, it was ascertained, would increase his taxes ten cents.

ONE of our correspondents thinks we were too harsh in our criticism of Mary Ellen Lease last week. Nay; we have no apologies to offer, either. The cause of Republicanism is not benefitted because Mary Ellen advocates it. She is the same old batherskite; was, is, and will always be a demagogue. What is bred in the bone will manifest itself in the flesh. Mrs. Lease will be no benefit to any cause she might champion.

Business Change.

Having had it in view to remove from St. Helens, I have disposed of all my legal business, including all unfinished business to Mr. S. H. Gruber, whom I recommend as a lawyer of honesty and ability, and who will, as I believe, faithfully attend to all business entrusted to him. In this connection I desire to thank all the people of Columbia County for their liberal patronage and great kindness to me during my many years residence at St. Helens. I hope and trust that all my clients and frends will call at the old stand and give to Mr. Gruber the same warm greeting and patronage, in a business way, that has been extended to me in the past. I also desire to state that hereafter all abstract and conveyancing business will be conducted by Mr. E. E. Quick, as heretofore, at the old office of Cole & Quick, in St. Helens. G. W. COLE.

The County Board of Equalization, which had been in session three days, adjourned Wednesday evening. There were but two applications for reduction of assessment on lands, both of which were denied. The Astoria Railroad Company asked for a reduction in its assessment of $400 per mile on road-bed and for a reduction of $9,500 on assessed valuation on rolling stock, all of which was denied. The lands assessed to F. E. Sanford was stricken from the roll. Sanford did not possess title to the lands assessed to him.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mr. W. A. Harris has recently received a letter from Robert Patrick, who has been in the Northern regions for over two years. His friends in the County will be pleased to learn that he is well and prosperous.

Persons from throughout the County coming to the County Seat to attend Circuit Court next week will find table board and rooms at Mr. and James Dart's residence. A large number can be accomodated.

The receipts of the County Clerk's office for the month of September amounted to $407.80. Recording fees, $104.40; Circuit Court fees, $28.00; land redemptions from the County on account of back taxes, $274.86. About a similar amount of redemption business was transacted through individuals, of which no accounting was made.

Commissioner Case informs us by letter that the Pittsburg bridge was opened for travel Wednesday morning. The bridge is not completed, however, but the work remaining to be done amounts to but very little. The timbers for the bridge at Vernonia are all ready and the work of framing was begun Tuesday. Mr. Case has a force of fifteen men at work and expects to complete the bridge before the 20th of the month.

Down at Saldern's logging camp, a railroad wreck occurred, which will delay operations for about two months. A piece of new road was being used for the first time, on which was a heavy grade. The locomotive could not hold the train of heavily loaded cars, and the driver was helpless to manage his train. An open switch, half a mile distant, was struck and the entire train, locomotive and all, was badly wrecked. No lives were lost.

How About Your Title?

ARE YOU SURE it is all right? Remember that it is the RECORD that governs. It is our business to search the records and show what they contain in relation to land titles. If you contemplate buying land or loaning money on real-estate security, take no man's word, but insist upon knowing what the record shows regarding the title. An Abstract is as essential as a deed. Insist on having it. We have the only set of abstract books in the county. All work promptly executed and satisfaction guaranteed. If you have property to insure give us a call. We are agents for the best fire insurance companies in the world. If you have property for sale list it with us and we will find a buyer.
