An adjourned term of County Court will convene here on the 19th of this month to settle with the Sheriff and dispose of the delinquent tax list.

Members of Avon Lodge are requested to be in attendance at the weekly convention next Tuesday. Team work and other interesting features will be in order.

This office acknowledges a call from United States Senator Simon last Friday. Mr. Simon was in the city preparing to start a legal action in our court.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mellinger and daughter, of Vernonia, were in town Monday and Tuesday. They visited Portland and Oregon City while absent from home.

The Assessor and his deputy, Chas. Blakesley, left on Wednesday for Oregon City and Salem, in quest of information concerning assessable lands in this County.

Mr. Harry West and Mr. John Morgan were down from Scappoose last Friday. Mr. West reported his mother quite sick at Monmouth, and he visited her at that place last Saturday.

The October term of County Commissioners' Court convened last week. The appointment of viewers to select a route for a road from Astoria to the Upper Nehalem was then made.—Astorian.

Farmers coming in from the Nehalem report the roads in a worse condition than ever before. A large number of the farmers are talking of organizing and doing their trading at Clatskanie.—Astoria Herald.

Messrs. R. O. Hazen and William Cooper were down from Warren Wednesday. Mr. Cooper and his family returned last Saturday from a three month's visit in Kansas, which Mr. Cooper reports they thoroughly enjoyed.

The summary of the assessment roll of Clatsop County for the year 1900, as finally equalized by the County Board of Equalization, has been completed by the County Clerk. The assessment for the year amounts to $3,686,015, this being $115,000 more than for the year 1899.

An entertainment and dance will be given at Scappoose this (Friday) evening by the United Artisans. A good programme has been prepared, after which dancing will be indulged in. Admission to the entertainment 10 cents; dance tickets 50 cents; supper extra, 25 cents.

Captain W. E. Newsom, of Rainier, was in town Monday attending to business. The captain says he is enjoying a much-needed rest and waiting for the steamboat companies to attempt to put the fare up between Rainier and Portland, when they would find him on hand with another boat to force down the fare again.

Attorney S. H. Gruber, who succeeded Mr. G. W. Cole in the practice of law in this city, is at his place of business ready and willing to attend to the needs of clients. Mr. Gruber comes to our midst highly recommended, seeking a share of the public patronage in his line of business. The community extends to him a welcome.

The real estate and improvements belonging to the James Cook estate, near Pittsburg, was sold by public auction at the front door of the County Court House last Friday. There were several bidders, but the auctioneer, Mr. John Dolan, knocked the property down to William Elliott, of Portland, as the highest bidder, his bid being $440.

Mr. J. W. Lane, of Mist, who is serving as a juror in the present term of Court, informed us that he is preparing to rebuild his mill which was destroyed by fire some time ago. Mr. Lane states that business conditions warrant the belief that such an enterprise will be more of a financial success in the future than it was in the past. He expects to have the mill in operation in about two months.

Attorney W. H. Powell is now located in our city, having established his residence and opened a law office. Besides attending to the duties of the Deputy District Attorney's office he is ready to accept any other business in his line that the public may see fit to favor him with. Mr. Powell and wife are welcomed to our town and County. Mr. Powell, while having resided in other parts of the State for several years, resided in this County many years.

There were two political speeches in this city Tuesday night. The Bryan advocates had arranged for Judge O'Day to come from Portland and debate Mr. Cleeton, but that gentlemen did not arrive, a Mr. Bryan, of Benton County, coming in his stead. There was not a very large crowd in attendance, and instead of its being a debate it terminated in each of the speakers delivering a political oration. There was no outlined plan for conduct of the affair, excepting that Mr. Bryan opened the discussion by a fifteen-minute speech. Mr. Cleeton replied and Mr. Bryan closed. There does not seem to be very much interest in political discussions this fall, for some reason or other, perhaps because there is nothing to discuss, nothing to cause discontent, nothing to arouse antipithy toward the present administration. People are too busy to allow themselves to be worked up to a fever heat over politics. Time was, however, when such was the case, but that time is past and gone. As evidence of this statement we predict just here that Columbia County will give the Presidential Electors a majority of at least 500 on the 6th of next month, where four years ago the majority was about 150.

One reason for the present horrible condition of County roads in Clatsop County is due to the system inaugurated by the County Court, of having the Road Supervisors collect the tax and pay them $2 a day for the work. In Astoria district, where the tax has usually amounted to $4000, the County Court has not received a dollar. In the Olney district, the total collection after paying expenses of collection, is $3.80. This is the largest sum in any one district. How the County Court expects to keep the roads in repair under such a system is a mystery. A prominent Nehalem farmer says that there has been collected during the past twenty years over $60,000 in road taxes, and there is not five miles of good County Road in the County.—Astoria Herald.

Again we are confronted with railroad procrastination. W. W. Whipple, who has just returned to Astoria from San Francisco, states that the opinion is general among Southern railroad men that the Astoria railroad is to be extended down the Coast to San Francisco. It is reported in San Francisco that the work on the extension will commence early next spring, and will be pushed to completion. The idea of the extension is to avoid the heavy grade on the present route of the Southern Pacific. It cannot be be stated authoratively whether or not the report is correct in all its details, but there is no doubt in Astoria that the extension will be made in the near future.—Tillamook Headlight.

Judge Doan and wife met with a rather severe accident last Sunday forenoon, whilst on the way to their farm back of Rainier. The wheels on one side of the buggy ran up on an eighteen-inch embankment, the weight of the occupants being forced to the lower side, causing the end of the seat to slide over the edge of the bed, precipitated the judge and his wife into a nice, soft mud hole. Mrs. Doan was considerably bruised and unconscious for a short time, while the judge treats one leg, one hand and his back with much consideration. It is extremely fortunate the result was no more serious.

Down at the telephone office is an improvement which the patrons of that convenience will hail with satisfaction. It is a new oak booth, in which hangs the instrument. Patrons may now converse over the wire with absolute secrecy so far as being overheard at this station is concerned. It is an addition to the service that has long been needed. In fact patronage has been driven away by reason of the publicity that the speaker was subjected to. The booth as well as being a convenience is very much of an ornament.

One of our County candidates, while addressing an assemblage of farmers and trying to illustrate the advantage of electing competent men to offics and paying them good salaries, said: "Now you can buy a cow for $20, but you can buy a better one for $30. You can hire a school 'marm' for $40 per month, but it pays to pay $65 for a good one. Your cheap cow won't give much milk, and the same is true with your school 'marm.'" This brought the house down.—Kelso Journal.

On Wednesday the Sheriff conducted by public auction the sale of lands in this County on which taxes for 1899 had not been paid. Private individuals purchased nearly all the parcels of land advertised, the County Judge bidding in but very little, the Sheriff estimating the amount at not over $500. About $1500 of tax money was received. The exact amounts are not obtainable at the time of going to press, but the outcome of the sale is very satisfactory for the County from a financial point of view.

A basket social and dance will be given at the Peris school house on Saturday evening, October 20th, the proceeds to apply on the purchase price of an organ for the school room. Some time since an entertainment was had there, the proceeds amounting to over $20, and it is hoped to soon raise a sufficient amount to pay for the instrument. The cause is a commendable one and the effort of the teacher and pupils should be encouraged by a large attendance.

The general opinion is that the Mongolian pheasant is wild and untameable, but according to the Eugene Register it appears that there are exceptions now and then. It says: "Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ray Delano heard a noise on her porch and opening the door found a China pheasant making an effort to get into the house. She bid it welcome and the bird is quite at home in its new environment. It is a wild bird and is evidently seeking safety.

Circut Court convened Tuesday morning, and after the calling of the roll of jurors and the reading of the docket, several jurors were excused from duty, after which the entire jury was excused until Monday morning, when the case of the State of Oregon against Manley Lane will be taken up. There is but little business to be attended to, the Lane case and the case of Bowers vs. the Star Logging Company being the most important.

Col. E. Hawkins was down from Warren Monday with a load of garden "truck." The colonel sold 85 gallons of his splendid dill pickles besides a quantity of other products. Mr. Hawkins put up over 300 gallons of pickles this year and will have demand for more than that quantity. He sold over 400 gallons of pickles last fall, and it wasn't a very good season, either.

Senator McBride came down from Portland Thursday morning and expects to make this city his headquarters for a few days.

The St. Helens hotel building will be repaired at once and placed at the disposal of a renter.

It is perhaps unfair, at least it would be embarrassing, to ask the nominee of the Kansas City Convention how he would apply the principles of the Declaration of Independence to the thousands of voters south of the Mason and Dixon line.

NOTES FROM VERNONIA.

L. W. VanDyke and sons, Elbe and Lonnie, were at St. Helens last week.

Lester Mowe made a trip out to Forest Grove the latter part of last week for a load of supplies.

A. Soule and family moved into town last week and occupy the property bought of B. F. Tracy last summer.

S. B. Rose and August Schlevie have been on the sick list the past week, but are both convalescent at this writing.

O. Malmsten and son O. B. were out to Portland last week, returning last Monday morning with a fine light Mitchell wagon.

Frank Tracy and Lon Emmons went out to Clatskanie last week with teams, each bringing back a load of household goods for Mrs. Bynon.

John Edholm and Gust Gustafson left Tuesday of this week for Portland, where they expect work at good wages as longshoremen during the heavy shipment of wheat to foreign ports.

Reube Sesseman, who has been working in a logging camp near Westport, came home Saturday for a few day's visit with his parents and sisters. He returned to the river this week, but will get work near Quincy, on the new flume being built between Quincy and Delena.

Rev. G. Stroup and C. A. Malmsten started to Portland Monday to attend the annual district meeting of the Y. P. A's, which convenes at Memorial church this week. Rev. Stroup will be gone over Sunday and there will be no preaching here or at Keasey, but there will be Sunday school at 10 a. m., with class meeting following, and the regular Y. P. A. meeting in the evening.

The Vernonia literary club had its regular meeting for the winter last Friday evening and elected the following officers for the coming year, viz: President, Dr. C. L. Hatfield; vice president, J. E. Dow; secretary, Sidney Malmsten; assistant secretary, Alice Soule; treasurer, Bert Hosford; censor, Mrs. M. W. Hatfield. The work to be taken up for the winter will probably be the study of Ancient history.

Louis Hight, recently from Michigan, has contracted for the ranch of J. L. Young, on Beaver Creek. The price is to be $950, and he gets with the quarter section the stock Mr. Young has and most of the household furniture, and with his family will take up his residence there in a week or two. We understand Mr. Young's family will stop in Houlton this winter, while Mr. Young himself will go to British Columbia to investigate that part of the world, with a view of making it his future home. We are sorry to lose the Young's but shall welcome the Hight's.

William Webber, of Portland, in the interest of Portland capitalists, spent most of last week investigating the coal outcroppings on East Fork, Pebble Creek, and other places in this vicinity. He took with him to Portland several samples. He says the signs for coal here are very excellent indeed, that the outcropping coal is all right for fuel and that he believes coal for commercial purposes can be found by going down deep enough into the earth. He will endeavor to induce the parties he represents to spend a little cash with a diamond drill. A hole 500 to 1000 feet deep could be put down at a very small outlay, and we hope it may be done in the near future.

The Nehalem Bridges.

The new bridge at Pittsburg was thrown open to the public last week. It is said to be first-class in all respects, a much better bridge than the old one was when new. Work on the bridge here is now in full blast, Commissioner Case and his force of men pushing it with all the vim and vigor possible. In tearing out the old bridge it was found to be even more rotten than was at first thought and this has stirred up our people about the condition of the bridge up the river. In fact it amounts to a pretty good-sized scare, for all three of these Nehalem bridges were put in at the same time, so that the probabilities now are that this bridge also must be replaced by a new one at once. Commissioner Case has notified Judge Doan and Commissioner Frakes of the state of affairs here, and definite action will no doubt be decided upon in a few days. We learn with regret that some of the citizens of other parts of the County and one of our County papers are criticising the County Board very severely because they have not built these bridges by contract, which plan, it is claimed, would have been the cheaper. These criticisms are certainly very unjust. The three original bridges mentioned above, we understand, were built by contract, the price paid to a Portland firm being $2900, this not including the approaches, which cost the County several hundred dollars more. Let us compare present figures with this. All the bills for the Pittsburg bridge are in and the total cost is $700. Work has progressed far enough on the Vernonia bridge so that it is positively known that the cost will not exceed $500. At a reasonable estimate the bridge above town will cost about $400, or a total of $1600 for the three, a difference in favor of the present building of $1300, nearly a half less. But the great advantage of the present plan is that all the work has been and is being done by the taxpayers of this community, thus keeping the money at home instead of letting it go into the hands of outside parties. We have watched the men at work and we can assure these kickers that the men are putting in good, hard, honest days' work of ten hours each, so that the County is getting these improvements at actual cost, so that no taxpayer in the County ought to grumble.

FROM KEASEY.

Mr. Wm. Hacker has bought several head of stock, young and old, presumably for outside market.

Dow Keasey is among the builders engaged on the Vernonia bridge. He reports timber hewing somewhat of backaching work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keasey spent Saturday at Vernonia, attending the quarterly meeting, and were delightfully entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Hatfield.

The last of the hoppickers residing on Rock and Crooked Creeks have returned, bringing reports of well-earned dollars with which to increase their stores.

The bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCauley, are among the returning hoppickers. Where they intend to take up their abode we have not yet learned.

Miss Alma Throop is pursuing her studies for another year in the schools of Portland and Miss Amanda Cheldelin expects to go to the city to learn dressmaking. Success to such enterprising girls.

September 9th at 6:30 p. m., a wee little nameless, barefoot boy came to the house of C. C. Keasey, at Rolla, Mo., crying for food and raiment. Being of goodly countenance, and having buried a little one about his size about a year ago, they concluded to give the child a home, also a full suit of wearing apparel and the name of Theodore Frankel. We trust he will be content to remain as it is a very cozy, pleasant home and we are sure they will love him dearly.

Two Mormon proselyters were through this vicinity Saturday and Sunday. They dispensed the beauties of Mormonism at the Keasey school house on Sunday to fourteen listeners, but how many converts were made we know not. If they would send out some of the wives to tell their story of some of the horrors of polygamy, people might become enlightened on both sides of the question.

Kansas has shipped a cargo of flour to Hong Kong. But this is Expansion.

The only "swell" thing about some people is located just beneath their hat.

David B. Hill is going to preside at some of the Bryan meetings and show how he can take medicine.

The returns are now complete and it is now believed that Mr. Bryan has heard from all of his notification committees.
