

Don't fail to vote. Next Tuesday is election day. Dr. Cawood, the dentist, will be in this city each Wednesday.

D. J. Switzer was in Portland Monday attending to business matters. Fine growing pigs for sale cheap, by F. E. Oliver, Yankton, Oregon.

Misses May Whitney and Maude Watts visited in Kalama Tuesday evening.

Rev. C. E. Philbrook will preach next Sunday at Peris and Yankton at the usual hours.

Any lumber on the yard at Stanwood's mill $5 per thousand; special order $6 per thousand.

Miss Laura Conyers, of Clatskanie, visited in this city a few days this week.

Circuit Court adjourned last Saturday afternoon until Thursday, December 1st.

The regular term of County Court for November will convene in this city next Wednesday.

Messrs. M. E. Pomeroy, Mayor, and Dr. M. K. Hall, of Rainier, were visitors in our city Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. T. G. Wats, of Reuben, spent last Saturday and Sunday in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day.

Deputy District Attorney W. H. Powell went to Vernonia Thursday to be present at the trying out of a case in the Justice Court to take place there today.

By the way, do not forget that next Tuesday is election day. It might be well to tie a string around your finger to keep yourself in remembrance of the fact.

George Foster, of Goble, was in town Tuesday afternoon. George has just recently returned from a six week's visit to relatives in Iowa, and reports a most pleasant time.

Mr. Wm. Blair, of Sauvie's, was in town Tuesday evening, taking back to the island, Wednesday, about twenty head of young cattle, which had been on pasture in this vicinity.

President McKinley has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation for this year and designated and set apart the last Thursday of November, the 29th, to be observed as a National Holiday.

The citizens of Columbia County are not chewing the political rag very much. They are right down to work reaping the benefits of Republican prosperity. But they must get out and vote next Tuesday.

I. G. Wikstrom, of Kalama, was a passenger for Portland last Friday. His says he has such a demand for lumber at his mill this summer and fall that he could not attend to all the business that came his way.

Some idea of the immense lumber business conducted in this section may be had when it is known that the lumber shipments from the Columbia River during the month of September aggregated 5,409,643 feet.

William T. White, of Scappoose, was adjudged insane by Justice Cox and Dr. Koen and last Wednesday afternoon committed to the asylum, where he was taken Thursday by J. B. Duncan, of Scappoose.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fitzgerald, of Rock Creek, came over from Vernonia Monday on route to Los Angeles, Cal., where they will remain during the winter with their son, James Fitzgerald, who is in business in that city.

Mr. T. R. Hains, of Clatskanie County, and Miss Theresa Guild, of Houlton, were married Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harris, Houlton, Rev. J. E. Smith, of Portland, officiating.

The Rainier Knights of Pythias have let the contract for the erection of a large building, 48x68 feet, two stories. The lower floor will be used for a public hall, the upper one for a lodge room. The contract price for the building is $3000.

The great Presidential campaign will soon be over for another four years, but no matter which party holds the reins of government, we have all got to battle and that is just what Collins & Gray are going to do. A good line of staple goods at reasonable prices.

From different sources it is learned that an advance in the price of logs is expected. This will be welcome news to loggers and it also indicates that there is a healthy lumber market. In fact, mill men in this vicinity are quite busy, and report a good market for their output at all prices.

The trial of W. A. Keutemeyer for the murder of William Luntz was set for November 29 in the Criminal Court in Portland Monday. His attorney, Ed Mendall, moved that the trial of Keutemeyer go over until after the trial of his co-defendants, H. J. and F. V. E. Epperson. The motion was denied.

Prof. Bull, of the Trinity Medical Specialty Company, will be at the Oriental hotel, St. Helens, on Saturday for consultation. Makes a specialty of all chronic diseases. No cure no pay. Uses no knife, no detention from business. A perfectly speedy, painless, safe cure or no pay.

There seems to have been a change all around in the management of the White Collar Line of steamers. Purser Donahue, who has served so long on the Gatzert, has sold his interests in the company and retired to dry land life. E. W. Crichton has become the Portland manager, and U. B. Scott seems to be out of the company altogether.

Tomorrow (Saturday) there is to be a monster parade and demonstration in Portland in honor of the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President. This affair promises to be the greatest of its kind ever seen in this State, and from what can be learned of the political complexion in Portland about seven-eighths of the population of that city will participate in the parade.

In the list of funds appropriated for Northwest rivers, mentioned in the Oregonian Tuesday, appropriated by the general government for the improvement of streams, it is found that $10,000 is now available for the improvement of Clatskanie River, $8,000 for Lewis River and $5000 for Cowlitz River.

Mr. E. E. Quick received a telephone message from Hillsboro Wednesday morning announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Permetia E. Quick, wife of D. O. Quick, of Benton County. Mrs. Quick died at the home of her daughter at Mountaineer, Washington County, at 1 o'clock, Wednesday morning, at the age of 85. Mr. Quick and family drove to Mountain Dale Thursday to be present at the funeral, which will take place today at the old Scotch church.

Mr. J. Yoon, of Plantagenet, Ontario, Canada, has been in the city several days, the guest of the Mockle family, with whom he has been intimately acquainted for many years. Mr. Yoon has a son at Cathlamet engaged in the logging business, and came to the Coast for a good visit, and seems to be enjoying himself very much in this respect.

A story is printed in an exchange relating to a Swede who, on being asked who he will vote for this year, replied that he would vote for "Brain." Asked why, he stated that he was told four years ago that if he voted for "Brain" it would bring good times. He did so, and good times came, and he is going to vote for his man again. It is often the case that the wrong man is ignorantly given credit that is not his due.

Judge Stephen A. Lowell, of Pendleton, will address the citizens of this city on the burning political issues at Houlton this Friday evening. Judge Lowell is one of the best informed and most able speakers in this State and failure to hear him is failure to hear one of the most convincing arguments of this Coast. Everybody, regardless of their political belief, should go to hear Judge Lowell tonight.

The O. R. & N. Company is evidently going to make a strong bid for travel to the coast next summer. A new boat for the purpose has been ordered, it is learned from Portland, and will be completed and ready for use by the time the summer travel begins. The steamer is to be 275 feet long, of light draft and a side wheel, with a three decker and fitted up most expensively in every way.

Sidney Dell, through the columns of the News, has asked Mr. Hammond some very pointed questions. Keep your shirt on, Sid, old boy. Andrew will take a day off some time and answer you. The newspapers of Astoria have on several occasions secured some valuable information from Mr. Hammond about the weather and other foolish subjects. Hammond is chock full of information.—Astoria Herald.

Daniel Bates, of Goble, very narrowly escaped a watery grave Tuesday forenoon. He was attempting to tow some timbers across the river at that place with a rowboat. When well out in the stream his small vessel swamped and he, in an effort to save himself, was thrown from drowning by Daniel McCoy, who in a small boat, went to his assistance, arriving just as Bates was disappearing beneath the surface for the last time.

Thos. Cloninger and Harry West were down from Scappoose Tuesday. Mr. Cloninger reports that the rains have had quite a demoralizing effect on farm work. Few potatoes have been harvested in this section and some fear it is expressed that opportunity may not now be had for that work. Mr. Cloninger states that the potato crop in Washington County is said to be very short, and prices for potatoes are almost certain to look up.

Johnny Peck, aged about 17 years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Phinias Peck, of Vernonia, died at Houlton last night of an aggravated case of whooping cough. The young man had been ill less than a week and no alarm for his safety was apprehended. His brother, who was with him at the time of his death, states that the young man was apparently no worse than he had been for a day or two previous. His remains were laid to rest in Odd Fellows cemetery, near Warren, Sunday afternoon.

Nearly 100 homestead locations is the record during October, 13 more than were filed during September, a month that surpassed any like period for homestead filings in the history of the Oregon City land office. Settlers are making the greater number of homestead filings now on lands in the limits of the Siletz reservation, now the file are coming in from every section of the district. Of the recent locations many are from Clatsop County. Settlers are in great haste to secure homes before speculators have the opportunity to locate the remainder of the desirable Government lands with lieu land scrip.

Captain George W. Shaver, of Portland, President of the Shaver Transportation Company, and father of the gentlemen who conduct the business of that line of boats, died at his home in that city last Friday night. Deceased was one of the pioneers of this State, and his efforts must be ascribed much of the success and development of this part of Oregon. His aged wife and these children survive him: John Rille, residing at Molalla; Mary Alice, wife of H. Wittenberg; Captain James W. Captain Lincoln, Captain James W. Captain Delmer, Susan Elizabeth, wife of A. S. Heints; Pearl M., wife of George W. Hoyt.

Electioneers who are not registered and who desire to vote at the Presidential election, should lose no time in preparing the means for so doing. Registration blanks to be witnessed by six freeholders can be obtained at the County Clerk's office, and these should be returned to before any Notary Public or Justice of the Peace. Young men who have become 21 years old since June, who were deprived of registration before, must get registration blanks, and ought to do so immediately. Persons who have full citizenship papers who are not registered and who are otherwise qualified, should also have certificates filled out at once, if they do not want to be deprived of their votes.

Some people are wonderfully generous, but not to such degree as to cause any surreptitious depletion of their finances. The following from the Oregonian is a splendid example of some people's abundant generosity: "The story comes from Salem that a Populist Sheriff took a convict to the Penitentiary, and upon going to the Secretary of State's office to get his warrant for expenses, asked one of the clerks to make out the formal claim. The clerk figured up the expenses incurred by the Sheriff and made out the claim against the State for the day of $10.00. The Sheriff, realizing that the clerk would give him the $10 and keep the 5 cents to pay him for his trouble."

The style of the official ballot to be used in the election next Tuesday and the manner and place to mark it appears elsewhere in these columns this week. At the right hand margin of the ballot appears the name of the candidate for President and Vice-President together the group of the names of the Presidential Electors representing that party. In the form of the ballot as it appears printed today, the number and name of the county appears in the upper right hand corner, and the name and place you are to mark your ballot. Since the Australian ballot law has been in vogue there has been no simpler form of ballot issued than the present one, and voters should expect to no difficulty in voting by marking it. In the form which appears this week is contained all the information that will appear in the ballot which you will be required to vote next Tuesday, and a careful perusal of it will be a help to the voter when he enters the voting booth.

REUBEN. G. C. Jaquith was doing business in Portland Monday.

W. D. Satterlee is working for the R. N. & P. R. R. this week.

Thos. Pawan is doing business down on the Cowlitz this week.

Peter Muller shipped a fine steer to Kalama Monday morning for beef.

Mrs. Roberts, of St. Johns, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Elliott, this week.

Mrs. Ray E. Wats went to St. Helens Saturday to visit the O. E. S. Chapter.

Minnie and Kittie Lindsay were passengers for Portland Monday morning on the Kellogg.

J. A. Carter, of Kalama, was in this vicinity Friday and Saturday looking for beef cattle.

Frank M. Foster, of Morris, Ill., arrived here Sunday and will visit old friends for a month or so.

Fred Kuble is improving very slowly from the injury he received by a fall from his house some time since.

Wm. Rose returned from Coeur D'Alene mines last week. He says Columbia County is good enough for him.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rankins visited friends in Portland Saturday and Sunday, returning home Sunday evening.

Miss Minnie Lindsay, who has been in Portland under a doctor's care for a number of weeks, returned home Wednesday.

R. W. and R. E. Foster, of Portland, were visiting friends in this burg on Sunday. They returned to Portland Sunday evening.

The R. N. & P. R. unloaded a large lot of ties at this place and are distributing them along their grade this week. They are busy with their pile driver driving piles for the trestle from the hill to the river, south of this place.

Mary A. Lovell Has turned with disgust from an otherwise lovable girl with an offensive breath. Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the breath by its action on the bowels, etc. as nothing else does. Sold for years on absolute guarantee. Price 25 cts. and 50 cts. Sold by Dr. Edwin Ross.

Dr. H. R. Cliff returned last Saturday night from a trip to England, whence he went over two months ago. He reports a delightful trip and a most pleasant visit with his relatives and to the scenery, his boyhood home in England being called upon Captain James Godd's mother, visiting the old home of that gentleman, as did he also visit the mother of Mr. Arthur George, of this city. The doctor says that with all the wealth of England and his natural inclination to admire the place of his birth, he had no desire to remain there. America, in every respect, says the doctor, is far superior to England, and he was overjoyed to return to the land of his adoption. The voyage from Liverpool to Philadelphia consumed thirteen days time, his vessel experiencing the most extremely severe weather the entire time. Dr. gained fifteen pounds in weight and shows other evidences of a thoroughly enjoyable trip.

Some inking of the plans which the O. R. N. Co., has for the improvement of Seaside traffic has leaked out through a semi-official source. It is said that the purchase price paid for the Ilwaco route was $142,000. According to the advice received the road is to be made broad gauged. The sum of $350,000 is said to be expended upon general improvements, and the new terminal will be Knappaon, on the north bank of the Columbia, where tides will not bother. Valuable improvements are to be made at the other end of the line, according to the same source of information. The road is to be extended westward from Nabotski, its present northern terminus on Long Beach, to the shoreline of the "Peninsula," nearly to Leadbetter Point. It would make a longer and more profitable branch to extend the line as proposed and give consider a larger scope for sightseeing, and fishing and hunting.

J. H. Farrel, of Astoria, better known as "Happy Jack," received his sentence from Judge McBride in the Circuit Court in this city last Friday morning for the offense of slugging a Chinaman on the train while on route from Portland to Astoria. From what can be learned of Farrel he has always been a noisy or less disturbing element, and while under the influence of liquor, he made himself particularly obnoxious. The Court sentenced Farrel to seventy-five days in the County jail, and at the time of pronouncing sentence took occasion to remark that only for the expense it would incur in his imprisonment, he would give the offender the full limit of the law. Deputy Sheriff Rice took the prisoner to Multnomah County last Friday, where he can languish in durative vile and meditate upon the error of his ways.

The viewers and surveyors, who are laying out a route for a new County road between this city and the Upper Nehalem Valley, encountered an unexpected difficulty yesterday. They were at work on the Haystack farm, a short distance from Greenwood cemetery, when they were stopped by Andrew Olson, the owner of the place, who ordered them off the premises. Complaint was made before Judge Gray, and Sheriff Linville left this afternoon to arrest Olson. The viewers are acting under the instruction of the County Court and Olson will be held in contempt of the orders of the Court.—Astoria Budget. This is one man's idea of promoting the good roads question, but it takes all kinds of things to make up this big world of ours.

There has been a change in the time of arrival and departure of mail by boat at St. Helens. For a considerable length of time the O. R. & N. Company's boats have not handled the mail, the Gatzert taking it both ways, but last Friday a change in the programme went into effect whereby the tip boat in the afternoon will take the mail instead of the Gatzert on her up trip at night. This is a much safer schedule and will be greatly more convenient to the postmasters and the public.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as close as possible with a sharp drawing blade and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Peter Stewart, held to the Circuit Court charged with rape upon the little Lilliah girl, was taken to Multnomah County jail last Friday by Deputy Sheriff Rice. Stewart's trial will be had on December 1st. On the fact that Judge McBride would convene Court in regular session at Oregon City on Monday last, Stewart's trial would have taken place before Court adjourned last Saturday.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had the attacks been that we feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the danger is averted before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for its contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as an adult. For sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the friends, and especially to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Matthews and Mr. T. E. Mills, for their kindness in caring for our son and brother, during his late illness and death, and to all others who proffered help in any way.

RELATIVES OF J. J. PACE, DECEASED.

SIX FRIGHTFUL FAILURES.

Six frightful failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen, of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs, including coughs, colds, la grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough, 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at the St. Helens Pharmacy.
