APRIL 5, 1901.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE.

Mr. S. Chas. Davis has associated himself with the editorial and business management of this paper, and is authorized to transact business of any nature concerning the publication of the paper. DAVID DAVIS, Publisher.

It has been definitely settled that President McKinley will be in Portland on Wednesday, May 22. The president has expressed a desire to visit as many towns in the state as possible, and every opportunity will be extended to do so.

We have felt satisfied all the time that Oregon would be entitled to some of the honor for Aguinaldo's capture. Funston one time worked in an Oregon City paper mill. This is somewhat farfetched, but no more so than the story of the dog that ran through the orchard.

The Mist is growing in popularity and consequent increase of circulation each week. We have solicited none whatever, but the average weekly increase in circulation since January 1st has been five. The increase will be more rapid and the total proportionately larger before the year closes.

AGUINALDO is a prisoner, awaiting the decree of the government to deal with him. Funston, his captor, has been promoted to a brigadier general in the regular army. Aguinaldo might be induced to behave himself by being presented a $100,000 residence in Manila and being placed on the retired list at a salary of $50,000 a year.

Is there was ever a time when St. Helens and Columbia county should awake from their lethargy it is now, when thousands of home-seekers are pouring into the Pacific Northwest. Nowhere in Oregon is to be found a more congenial climate nor better opportunities for profitable investment than in Columbia county.

We desire to suggest one thing as an attraction for the Portland summer carnival. Aguinaldo has been captured. If Portland could lease him from the government and exhibit him in that city during the carnival, he would attract 5,000,000 people there, each of whom would gladly pay $1 for the privilege of seeing the rebel general. Now, let Portland act hastily in this matter. Portland is to have a Lewis and Clark centennial, why not have an "Aguinaldo exhibition"?

An officer of the czar's household took a shot at his majesty the other day but the bullet missed its intended mark about 27 feet, after which the shooter very sensibly turned the pistol towards his own head and blew out what few brains he had, thus saving the government the trouble of doing it for him. Some of those Russian nihilists will make a mistake and kill "Nicky" some of these days if they don't stop such foolishness as this, and then a big emigration to the Siberian mines will be the next sensation.

The people of this state will again vote on a number of constitutional amendments at the next general election, five altogether, among them being one for adoption of the initiative and referendum. The adoption of such an amendment, in our opinion, a theory, wild and useless. No doubt there are less than one-third of the voters who understand and want to know nothing about the proposed workings of the initiative and referendum. At the general election last year the people voted on five proposed amendments to the constitution, and how intelligently did they vote? Not one-half of them voted at all, and so would it be with the initiative and referendum. Not one-half of the voters would, by their ballot, express an opinion as to the adoption of a law, as the initiative and referendum would intend, because they would know nothing about it and care less.

Mr. W. B. Dillard, of this city, spent a few days at St. Martin's springs, Wash., last week.

Collins & Gray carry one of the largest stocks of general merchandise on the Lower Columbia; call on them when you need anything, they will treat you well.

A landslide on the Astoria road, just below Mayer, detained the passenger trains for a short time Wednesday morning. In fact, it was necessary to transfer.

We are pleased to state that Miss Daley Watkins has been elected to take charge of the Columbia City school for the spring and summer term. Miss Watkins had charge of that school last year, and gave excellent satisfaction, as is the case with all the young teachers of our city. While the school of our city is not so very pretentious it has to its credit the fact of turning out a number of students who are doing it credit by their service as instructors in the county schools.

CLATSKANIE NEWS ITEMS.

Isaac Bumgardner was in town last week. He looks a little bleached yet from his illness, but reports himself all right.

Martin White is taking notes of our wealth this week for the information of the county court. As a consequence we will find ourselves on the tax roll later.

The new shingle mill of Dugan, Marvin & Holter is now ready to split out shingles and the partners feel that they are well equipped to do good work in that line.

Miss Mand Bryant has gone to the Nehalem valley to teach the school at Natsal, above Mist. Miss Mary Tichenor has a school secured above Mayker, and begins work there this week.

The steamer Shaver looked familiar as she steamed in Monday afternoon after an interval of several weeks. The McMinville is scarcely large enough to do the work between here and Portland.

Henry Kratz went over to Mist the first of the week on a business trip. He happened to strike rather bad weather for an outing, but the business in hand required his attention at that particular time.

Miss Leona Popham, attending school at Plimotham, and Miss Annie English, at Forest Grove, each expect to come home this week to be present at the graduating exercises of our public schools.

Roy Edgerton left on Monday morning for Dundee, to take charge of his father's store for a few weeks. Roy has been a trusted and faithful employee at Page's store for some time and is a competent salesman.

Watson Elliott and A. S. Graham were in town Saturday and represented Marland at the court house meeting that afternoon. Upper Clatskanie was represented by Oliver Anderson, W. H. King, Ole Erickson, and others.

Word received from San Diego indicates that A. M. Tichenor, who is spending the winter there, is quite seriously ill and thought to be in a very critical condition. His daughter, Mrs. J. A. English, started on Monday morning to visit and assist in caring for him. The last reports from him were a little more favorable.

Friday and Saturday evenings of this week are to be given over to graduation exercises and an entertainment, participated in by the teachers and scholars of our public schools. A graduating class of about 200 persons will appear on Friday evening to receive the congratulations of their friends and listen to an address by Hon. C. W. Fulton, whose presence the school board are happy to have secured for the occasion.

Our neighbors in Hazel Grove have felt their school building should be more accessible and secured a new location for the county road so as to make it possible to reach it without trespass upon anyone. The new road is now open to the public. Enos Hankins has been getting his school property, nearly a fourth of a mile from the new road, and C. W. Jones wants to turn his around so that passers by can see the front instead of the back of his house. The new road will prove a convenience to quite a number of persons.

The order of United Artisans gave a social to which the public was invited for a small consideration of 15 cents, at Conyers' hall on Saturday evening. A goodly number were present and listened to an entertaining programme of music and recitations, after which lunch was served and a general social time with music, games, etc., made the time until midnight pass very quickly. The order would be able to replenish its treasury by the addition of a few dollars. This order being one where a husband and wife can both join seems to have very enjoyable meetings, as the reports and enthusiasm of its members indicate. It has a good class of members here.

Our city election came off Monday of this week. A citizens ticket comprising the present officials almost entirely won in the field unopposed for a time, until a party of half a dozen concluded to put up another to excite some interest. It did excite considerable interest, and a lively canvass was made on election day by the friends of each, resulting in a close race for the winners. The following is the ticket elected: President of Council, S. C. Tichenor; councilmen, A. E. Myers, Frank Merrill, J. E. Hall, Bruce Haines; recorder, Charles L. Conyers; treasurer, M. E. Page; marshal, George Sutherland. The majorities ranged from three to six only, resulting in a mixed ticket.
