

THE OREGON MIST.

DAVID DAVIS, Editor and Proprietor.

OF LOCAL IMPORTANCE.

E. W. Wright, commercial and national reporter on the Oregonian, was a guest at this office Thursday morning.

The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tarbell, of Bechler Flat, died very unexpectedly Wednesday forenoon.

This from the Grant's Pass Observer will be read with much interest by the people of this immediate vicinity.

The prune trees must go. Farmers in the vicinity of Scappoose and Warren, who have devoted time and land to the culture of that variety of fruit, have despaired and are riding the land of the trees.

Commercial interests at Rainier received a surprise last week when it became known that J. J. Schmidt, the Fox creek logger, had taken a pass by the light of the moon, leaving his creditors and laborers in the lurch several hundred dollars.

The county clerk is "quarantined" to go to the registration bureau again on January 1st. Many voters maintain the idea that because they registered two days ago that is sufficient.

Messrs. L. Hanson, of the Ophir Mining Company, and H. E. Cliff, of the Clifton Mining Company, were before the county commissioners Wednesday with a request for aid in opening and improving the road leading from Warren to the coal prospects in the hills west of here.

Another case of "not knowing it was loaded" occurred near Paris last Sunday and but for the intervention of a kind providence another victim would have been enrolled under the banner of unfortunate who fall prey to such careless acts.

Articles of incorporation of the Clifton and Mining Company were filed with the secretary of state and the county clerk last week.

The will of Susan B. Shattuck, deceased, was admitted to probate Monday by Judge Doan, and Thomas A. Cloninger was appointed executor without bond.

CLATSKANIE NEWS ITEMS.

Rev. Hawkins and wife spent a portion of last week in the metropolis.

C. A. Anderson and wife took their baby to Portland last week for operation for hare lip.

Miss Laura Conyers left on Monday for Oregon City, for a more or less extended absence.

The Imperial hotel is now at its new elevation and will be much improved when the debris is removed from around it.

The four teachers are finding enough to keep them all in employment during school hours, and school work progresses very satisfactorily.

Prof. Esson took time last Friday evening to slip shoes for the students, when defects were found in the shoes of the party leaders.

G. R. Higgins has returned to Clatskanie to look after his timber place. He did not seem to find a location to suit him to the letter, and came back to try us again.

We notice R. D. Kent brings his boy to town about twice a week for attendance to his broken elbow.

A league hat trimming social is announced for Friday evening at Conyers' hall. The men are to trim the hats for the inspection of the ladies, and for prizes that are offered.

Miss Elsie Hughes entertained about fifty of her young friends on Halloween evening, and thereby declares her efforts at entertaining company were eminently successful and that a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

The rains and consequent bad roads had a number of bad places where the sidewalks ordered built by the city council have not been put.

We have a new barber now. Fred Hill sold out last week to C. E. McCormick, who has been in the business for some time and is a capable young man for the place, besides being a very agreeable young gentleman.

Not much damage was done by the mischievously disposed on Halloween night, but some wagons did get out of place and some other articles had changed their location during the night.

The steamer is visiting us now but once per week, or at least, promises to change one trip weekly unless conditions change. We regret this action on the part of the Steamer Transportation Company and hope they will regret it sufficiently to re-establish the triweekly service in the near future.

To the great surprise of all who knew him, Perry C. Frenot, who had been in Oregon about six weeks, has relatives in and near town, made deliberate arrangements for his own destruction, writing a note asking that his body be placed in a neat coffin and sent to his father in Missouri, designating who he wanted to preach his funeral sermon and naming the place where he was to be buried.

Warren School Report. The public school at Warren closed its second month last Friday. I have enrolled sixty-eight pupils.

The lightest docket of business for many months was a condition confronting the county commissioners when they convened in regular session here Wednesday morning, and by night nearly all the work was attended to and the board about ready to adjourn.

ELECTION BOARDS.

New Law Governing Appointment of Those Officials.

Two sets of judges and clerks of election may handle the ballots in some of the precincts at the election next June. This will be an innovation best appreciated by the men who have served in the past either in the capacity of clerk or that of judge.

The Imperial hotel is now at its new elevation and will be much improved when the debris is removed from around it.

CITATION.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia.

To Mrs. Barbara Kennedy, Miss Millie Kennedy, Miss Barbara Kennedy, Mr. Frank Kennedy, Mr. J. B. Kennedy, and to all others unknown, greeting: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia, at the court room hereinafter described, to answer and defend against the complaint filed against you in the above-entitled cause and Court within six weeks from and after October 24th, 1901, the date of the first publication of this summons and the time prescribed by law to answer and defend against you to appear and answer herein; and if you fail to appear and answer within the time the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of fifteen dollars, the same being for a balance due and unpaid from you to the plaintiff for money advanced and delivered to you at your special instance and request by said plaintiff during the months of July and August, 1901, and which you agreed to pay herefor, besides the costs and disbursements of this action. You are further hereby notified that said money owing to you for labor performed by you for the Northern Pacific Railway Company has been attached and garnished herein to satisfy such judgment and costs, etc., as may be recovered against you herefor. This summons is published by order of the Hon. E. Cox, a Justice of the Peace for said Union Precinct in said Columbia County, Oregon, a true and correct copy of this summons is made October 24th, 1901, in the presence of a witness duly sworn and published in a newspaper printed and published at the City of St. Helens in said Columbia County, in pursuance of said order.

Wittness, the Hon. J. B. Doan, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Columbia, with the seal of said Court attached, this 15th day of October, A. D. 1901. (SEAL) J. O. WATTS, Clerk.
