

Oregon Railroad Development.

From present indications the state of Oregon in a few years will be thoroughly crisscrossed with railroads. The development of the lumber and mining interests are largely responsible for the production of new lines. The extension of the Columbia Southern from Siskiyou to Crook county, opens up a new pine country in Eastern Oregon. The building of the Oregon & Southern coastward from Cottage Grove to the Bohemia mining district taps a considerable area of fir timber in the Willamette valley that is at present inaccessible. The Klamath river railroad, which is under construction from Lairds in Northern California, to Polegama, Oregon, is the inauguration of a line of railroad which will ultimately tap the timber and yellow pine lands back of the coast and the Nevada, California & Oregon railway, which runs from Reno, Nevada, to Terno, California, is being extended to Catherine in Lake county, Oregon, and taps the great boxed fields of Oregon. Lake county contains some fair yellow pine timber which will be marketable upon the completion of this extension, which will be completed this year. The Oregon & Pacific is being surveyed from Grants Pass to Crescent City. This line is projected to tap some heavy copper deposits at Waddo, 50 miles south of Grants Pass and passes through a good sugar pine belt. The extension of the Goble & Nehalem railroad from the Columbia river to the Nehalem country has every reason to be regarded as an assured fact. The completion of the proposed Portland & Astoria road is still only a conjecture, but eventually a line will be built to bring the lumber to market. The easiest and most direct route to tap the lower Nehalem and Tillamook country is an extension of the A. & C. R. R. from Seaside. The filing of articles of incorporation of a line from Utah to Coos Bay, Oregon, cannot be assumed to mean the immediate construction of this line, but is an indication that the great undeveloped lumber, mineral and agricultural wealth of Oregon is being appreciated.—Columbia River Timberman.

Senator McBride's Marriage.

New York, May 26.—Ex-United States Senator George W. McBride, of Oregon, and Mrs. Laura Walter Schweichtenberg, of the same state, were married at the rectory of the Church of the Ascension, in this city, on Saturday. Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, and Mrs. Harriet Potter Nourse, of New York, were present at the wedding, which was followed by a breakfast. The bride and groom left for New York on Sunday. The wedding was a quiet affair. The bride wore a soft gray traveling dress, carrying lilacs of the valley.

Warren Happenings.

Mrs. Schweichtenberg resided in Portland in 1898, and with Mrs. J. V. Creighton organized the White Cross Society. She will be kindly remembered by the Oregon volunteers, as she was a frequent visitor to Camp McKinley, and always had a pleasant smile and a basket of delicacies for the members of the regiment. The White Cross Society was for a time an active factor in the auxiliary work incident to the departure of the regiment, and it was to secure funds for extending it that Mrs. Schweichtenberg went to Washington. No appropriation was made, however, and after a time the work was turned over to the Red Cross Society, which had been first in the field. Mrs. Schweichtenberg is a woman of charming personality and much beauty, and she became a favorite in Washington society, attending to her functions. She met Senator McBride in Portland several years ago.

Warning to Methodists.

"If the clergy of the Methodist Episcopal church expect to keep their young men and women in the fold they must do away with old restrictions against card playing, dancing and attendance at the theatres. If they are not allowed to follow the dictates of their conscience they will attend churches where they will be allowed to do so or else they will not attend church at all." This, in substance, was the declaration set forth at a dinner at the Union League Club, attended by sixty-five prominent Methodist ministers and laymen of Chicago. The proposition received general discussion, and in which Bishop J. Hamilton, LL. D., and Robert Quayle took leading parts. "If we don't take active steps toward arousing interest in the church on the part of our young men and women we shall stand alone in our old age. There will be none to take the burden from our shoulders when we pass away," said Mr. Quayle. "If we seek to bind the young people down too closely or draw too tight, we can't hope to keep them with us. I recommend that all laymen and clergymen to whom the interests of the Methodist church are dear, organize around this question and insist that at the next general conference the present relations and restrictions be removed."

Yankee Briefs.

Jurors are journeying home. Mr. Beerman is slowly recovering. Farmers who planted early gardens are wishing they hadn't. Mrs. G. L. Tarbell spent Tuesday and Wednesday with friends at Bachelor Flat. Miss Jessie Mitchell and Miss Mertie Ayres spent Sunday with friends in Yankton. Monday evening last was a red letter day for the republicans of this section. The resident candidates for county honors of St. Helens and Rainier, reinforced by Hon. W. H. Powell, J. H. Collins, and the present county clerk, met the people of the neighborhood at the schoolhouse and regaled an eager audience with their combined wit and wisdom for two hours, after which a general hand-shaking and free discussion of the questions at issue was indulged in for a half hour. The people certainly appreciate the courtesy of these gentlemen, none of whom claim to be political speakers, for coming up to home, to let us all see what manner of men we shall be called upon to vote for on June 2nd.

Some excellent work is being done on the county roads at this place. Supervisor Lamonses has a force of men at work and the roads are showing rapid improvement. Rev. Lew Davies and wife returned home last Saturday evening from Rockwood, Or., where they had been spending the past two weeks with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allwyn. Vernonia Pick-Ups.

Mrs. Shannahan and Mrs. Bonnick, who were so long sick during the early spring, are both on their feet again. Bert Roberts, now of Houlton, came over the mountain the latter part of the January being made the following proceeds hereabouts, returning Monday. M. R. Emmons, S. B. Rose, E. J. Mills and A. H. Powell, of Pittsburg, made a trip out to the county seat last week, some of them going on to Portland. Miss Lou Shannahan is teaching the Kist school this week for her sister, Marie, who is at home grubbing at the poor work of some Portland artificial tooth carpenter. Wash Muckle, of St. Helens, and Mr. Bassett, of Seattle, came over from St. Helens, and went on to Rock creek on a land inspecting tour, stopping here again Monday night, and then back to St. Helens Tuesday.

W. G. Woods and family, who have been living on the F. M. Parker place during the cropping season, moved back to their own ranch on Upper Peblee creek this week. They will be with us again during haying and harvest. Neighbors are keeping Dr. Hatfield's new hill-dropping plow, Jr., mended hot this week, getting in their beets, carrots and other seeds, while the weather is fine. The machine works to perfection, especially where the ground is thoroughly pulverized, and is a wonderful time and labor saver. G. W. Parker, now of Houlton, made a hurried trip through the Nehalem and over into Washington county the latter part of last week, his object being to buy another horse, so as to do teaming, but the horse he went to see did not suit him, so he did not buy, and returned to Houlton Saturday.

Omar Nickerson, who went out to Portland along in March, but who has been in Good Samaritan hospital the past month, with inflammatory rheumatism, came home last Thursday, still suffering. He tried to walk part of the way over the mountains, which gave him a back-ache. John Edholm tried to ride one of his horses without saddle, bridle or even a halter. The animal is gentle enough ordinarily, but got a-going a little too fast, and John had a sliding motion toward the ground, which he struck with considerable force. Result, sore spots all over his person, and the smell of various liniments which is in his presence. Don't try that kind of a ride again, John. The minister assigned to this charge by the conference in session at Canby last week is Rev. J. C. Emmel. He is an entirely new man to this people and we shall have to get acquainted with him and his family. Our presiding elder will be Rev. N. Shinn, who will favorably know hereabouts. The boy preacher, Rex E. L. Jones, was sent to Albany, where he will not only preach, but attend the Albany college during the year. R. Sessman, who has been down the river toward Mist the past three weeks, repairing the Deeds house, came home Sunday for a spell. After getting in his truck patch and doing some other work hereabouts, he will return and finish up the job for Mrs. Deeds. She has been raising her house four feet higher, putting on a new roof and dressing the walls with diamond shingles, which will give her a very pretty and comfortable dwelling.

On last Saturday, May 24, steps were taken before Notary Public John Pringle, of this town, to incorporate a millage company. The incorporators are W. D. Case, T. L. Parker, N. J. Parker, John Parker, Wm. Pringle and E. J. Mills. The body will be known as the East Fork Milling Company, will be located at or near Pittsburg, and will do a general logging and milling business, will manufacture finished lumber, and will, in time, make flour and other grain products, as did the old milling company at the same location, burned out two years ago. This community will welcome the advent of such an enterprise and will give encouragement by way of patronage as well as in kindly words. There will be an ice cream and strawberry social at Perry's hall, at Houlton, next Wednesday evening, June 4th, the proceeds to be given to Rev. Mr. Philbrook. The public is most cordially invited to attend. Bring your best girl, appetite and purse. Farr Bros., of Neer City, are making some very extensive improvements about their wood frame and wharf. From the wharf back to the hill they are putting in an entirely new flume. The boys have recently purchased a fine body of timber adjacent to their flume and will cut it to wood. The ball game of the season seems to have taken place on the diamond here last Sunday. The steamer fraida came from Rainier with the team from there and a large number of interested spectators and returned later with the victorious players and an enthusiastic throng. The score stood nine to nineteen in favor of the visitors, and as a matter of fact, there was occasion for hilarity.

It is reported that the O. R. & N. Co. will buy the Astoria and Columbia river railroad and discontinue their river boats between Astoria and Portland, and the business will be done by the White Collar line. That the bar service will be turned over to the Puget Sound Tugboat Co. This will give Astoria a common point and will no doubt result in the building of grain warehouses and shipping wharves from Astoria. It will result in a large amount of capital being invested there and give a new impetus to all kinds of business. S. Benson, the well-known lumberman, recently returned from a visit to the timbered region back of Clatskanie. He has in that region looking over that country for some time, and while there completed the purchase of a number of tracts of fine timber land, which bring up his holdings there to 5000 acres. When he has exhausted the timber in which his logging camps are now situated, near Oak Point, he will build eight miles of railroad from Clatskanie to his new purchase and commence logging the timber off it.—Friday's Oregonian.

Good roads, like good streets, make habitation along them most desirable. They economize time and force in transportation of products, reduce wear and tear on horses, harness and vehicles and enhance the market value of real estate. They raise the value of farm lands and farm products and tend to beautify the country through which they pass. They facilitate rural mail delivery and are a potent aid to education, religion and civility. Charles Sumner once said: "The road and the schoolmaster are the two most important agents in advancing civilization."—Cathlamet Gazette. The summer schedule of rates of fare on the A. & C. R. R. will go into effect on June 1. The tickets between Portland and Seaside, Gearhart and North Beach will be interchangeable and good for any of the river boats either coming and going. The rate between Portland and Gearhart and Seaside will be $4 for the round trip. These tickets, like all the summer tickets, will be good until October 15 and the sale of them will stop on September 15. Portland to Flavel and return $3. The tickets to Seaside and Gearhart will be good to North Beach points except Ilwaco. The tickets to Flavel will only be good by rail.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Schieye Found Guilty of Murder in the First Degree. The long-drawn-out murder case was brought to close last Sunday morning about 8 o'clock, by the jury which had been deliberating over fourteen hours, and before that having been in the jury box over a week. The verdict of the jury, "murder in the first degree," which, the jury was excused from their consideration of that case and from further duty for the term. The prisoner was taken before the court again on Monday, when the judge announced that sentence would be passed upon him next Saturday (tomorrow). Up to that time a motion for a new trial may be made. Upon the indictment returned into court against F. M. Erway, charged with cattle stealing, the case was dismissed, for the time being, owing to the fact that the principal witness was not to be found. The case is still open, however, and upon obtaining the witness the case may be called up at any time. The entire jury was dismissed Monday forenoon, and no very important matters, save the argument of a few motions, was transacted during the week.

Read it in His Newspaper. George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew', and before using the entire contents of the bottle my unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale at the St. Helens Pharmacy.

Industrial Notes. The following brief notes, taken from the current number of the Columbia River Timberman, while some of them will not be a matter of news to Columbia county people, they will go to show that the industrial activity in our own county is being brought to the attention of people all over the coast, through the wide circulation of that industrial and commercial journal: W. J. Deltz, of Rainier, Or., loaded two cars of cedar poles for Arizona last month. V. Early and Henry Swales have purchased the Graham stungie mill, near Clatskanie, Columbia county. The Nordy & Fuhner Shingle mill at Runyon Station, near Quincy, Columbia county, has commenced operations. Engart Bros., of Clatskanie, have started a new logging camp near Ole Erickson's ranch, upon the Clatskanie river. W. Eccles was in Ogden on a business trip. His mill at Delena, purchased from Messerv Bros., is being put in shape with additional machinery for the season's run. Ice cream will be served next Monday in J. B. Godfrey's office. Proceeds for the benefit of Rev. Philbrook. The county clerks are busy this week preparing the election supplies and the sheriffs are busy delivering the same to the proper persons in the various precincts. There will be an ice cream and strawberry social at Perry's hall, at Houlton, next Wednesday evening, June 4th, the proceeds to be given to Rev. Mr. Philbrook. The public is most cordially invited to attend. Bring your best girl, appetite and purse.
