JUNE 6, 1902.

RESULT OF ELECTION.

The election is over, and affairs are shaping themselves around to normal again. As nearly as can be ascertained the democrats have captured the governorship; otherwise the republicans have been successful in the state by the usual large majorities. The result of the election is, or should be, satisfactory to everybody. Democrats made no effort for anything in the state except the governorship, and that they have captured by a very small majority. There never was an election held in this state when there was so much slashing and knifing as there was Monday. Few, if any at all, straight tickets were voted by the republicans.

In this county there was all kinds of dissatisfaction, as is shown by the returns. The democrats captured the clerkship and sheriff, while the vote on state officers was up to the usual large majority. Following is the vote on the county officers:

REPRESENTATIVE.
Both, rep.	727

The vote on choice for United States senator gave Governor Geer a majority of 409. The vote on the constitutional amendment in this county is 904 in favor of its adoption and 90 against.

HINTS FOR HIGHWAYS.

Our own government, in its efforts to furnish increased facilities for water transportation, has expended for the improvement of its rivers and harbors alone the sum of $306,600,720.50, and yet it has only fairly begun this important work. In 1892 the total cash appropriated for the improvement of rivers and harbors was $20,000. In 1899 this had increased to the sum of $40,307,779.48. The house of representatives a short time ago passed a bill which in the cash appropriated and the amount which the secretary of war is authorized to expend under contracts exceeds $60,000,000. As attesting the interest of the nation in the class of transportation that this expenditure is intended is the fact that the bill passed the house with scarcely a dissenting vote. Last week the senate added to this $10,000,000, and then in two hours passed it without a single dissenting vote. In aid of railroad transportation and to assist in the building of Pacific railroads the government has paid, principal and interest, upon guaranteed debts, $138,102,919.88.

In addition this it has granted, as an inducement for the construction of these railroads, an enormous amount of land, aggregating 106,560,372 acres. It is true the money advanced has been largely repaid, but the lands granted as a gift to induce railroad construction equals a vast empire. It equals in area all of the states of New England, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, both of the Virginias, and the state of Ohio. While the government has dealt so liberally, expending hundreds of millions of dollars, and granting a wealth of land beyond computation for the improvement of water and railroad transportation, it has been painfully parsimonious in its appropriation for the improvement of common highways.

Learn to meet your friends with a smile. A good-humored man or woman is always welcome, but the dyspeptic or hypochondriac is not wanted anywhere, and is a nuisance as well.

Clatskanie Briefs.

Your correspondent was unable last week to send a report of the May Festival for the benefit of your readers and desires to do so yet, partly with a view of so representing the advantages of such a scheme that other towns may find it to their advantage to try it. To have such a series of entertainments in prospect excites a laudable interest among the people, and to enjoy them with the friends that gather in from the outside gives a satisfaction that brings one's better nature to the front, and furnishes an occasion that patrons will take pleasure in recalling during the remainder of the year. Rev. Hawkins deserves the credit of inaugurating the movement, here for a May festival this year, and through his efforts we were enabled to secure talent that might not have been available. He found that the Meneley Quartette would be in this part of the state in May and secured a date for Clatskanie. With that date as a fixed proposition other engagements were made to correspond. The Meneley Quartette was a drawing card and gave a crowded house a splendid entertainment of song and impersonation. Remaining over Sunday the Quartette gave a gospel temperance song service in the afternoon that was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The Sunday evening discourse by Rev. Rockwell, presiding elder, was preceded by a vocal selection given by Miss Mary Conyers, now of Oregon City. This selection was a pleasing one and gratified those of her many friends here who were fortunate enough to hear it. She showed herself a superior vocalist. The discourse of the evening was thoughtful and interesting and listened to by quite a large audience. Monday evening was given over to elocution and vocal solos. Miss Mazie Foster, of Knappa, and Miss Jessie McConnell, of Portland, were the singers, while Mrs. Ross, of Knappa, and Mrs. Hawkins rendered the recitations. This evening's exercises proved very entertaining and were listened to by a large audience. Both singers were in good voice and sang pleasing selections. Tuesday evening after a solo by Miss Ida Blackford we listened to an address by Rev. J. R. T. Lathrop, of Portland, that combined wit and wisdom in charming proportions. Wednesday evening was the home talent evening, for which considerable preparation had been made. This occasion brought out an audience only slightly less than the Meneley entertainment and each number on the programme received liberal applause. A fan drill under charge of Misses Conyers and Hughes, was excellent. Club singing by W. S. Chandler was generously appreciated. The music was good and the farce, "Thirty Minutes for Refreshments," was given in fine style. There was variety enough in the exercises of the evening to satisfy the most exacting, and a pleased audience dispersed about half past ten. A gratifying feature about the festival was that it paid all expenses and left a surplus of over $50 which it was voted to apply toward the pastor's salary.

It was rather a surprise on election day to find so many voters desiring to vote who had neglected having themselves registered. Twenty-four such voters were registered during the day, taking up much more time and adding greatly to the inconvenience of not having it attended to earlier. A few who failed to register did not vote, as shown by the returns from the precinct.

Artie Haines, well known in this vicinity, who has been attending school at Walla Walla for the past three years, spent two or three days visiting his brother and friends here, on his way to Oakland, where he expects employment in a printing office. He has acquired a mustache to his personal equipment since his residence here.

Miss Jessie McConnell, of Portland, remained over two days last week to witness the home talent entertainment and expressed pleasure at having done so. Miss Foster and Mrs. Ross were interested spectators the same evening.

Prof. Whitten spent Sunday in town and took his wife and children back with him to Portland Monday morning. They had been spending a week with Mrs. Whitten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Bryant.

Doctor Hall's mother, who was known to many through her visits here, died at San Diego, Cal., a few days ago, lacking a few days of 84 years of age. Her remains were sent to Pennsylvania for interment.

An enjoyable basket social was held in the school-house in district No. 25 last Saturday evening, under Miss Mabel Blackford's management. A number of friends went out from town.

The ladies' aid society served meals in Conyers' hall on election day, and supplied ice cream, cake and strawberries during the afternoon and evening, netting a little sum for improvement on the passage building.

The postoffice and Whitney's saloon changed places so suddenly last week that people scarcely knew where they were at the next day. Whitney bought the old Clatskanie hotel building, and is now occupying a portion of it. Mrs. Aldridge and McDonald have secured a lot on which the Tichenor Mill Co. office now stands and will probably occupy that building temporarily until a building can be erected suitable to their wants.

Vernonia Pick-Ups.

Mrs. A. M. Randolph, of Upper Rock creek, visited with Mrs. I. P. Spencer Decoration Day.

Miss Lizzie Early, who is teaching the Valley school, came home Thursday afternoon of last week and visited with the home folks over Sunday.

Rose came home with her father and is now, with her brother, Harrison, going to school in the Beaver district.

Ed Webster came in Sunday with his four-horse team, bringing a 2500 pound load of merchandise for Merchant Pringle. Ed says he is getting along all right hauling shingles for the Dupont boys out to Houlton and St. Helens. He has an all-summer job.

W. A. Harris came over from St. Helens to exercise his prerogative as an American citizen, Monday, and also to spend a few days on his ranch on Crooked creek.

R. M. Ward, who has been helping the Rudeman brothers and Dave Kaye run their shingle mill, located at the old site of the Smith & Thomas saw mill, down the river near Mist, came home Saturday for a few days rest, and incidentally to vote Monday.

Mrs. Bertha Kimball, of Rainier, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilkinson and other friends in the valley this week.

C. W. Mellinger is out this week at Houlton, St. Helens and Portland, doing business for himself and neighbor, J. E. Dow.

Mrs. Nellie Bynon and Master Wm. St. M. Barnes, who have been visiting with the families of B. M. Emmons and Frank Tracy for the past three weeks, returned to Seattle Thursday of this week.

David Early, who has been at work out at Clatskanie the past month, returned Saturday and will be at home now for awhile.

G. W. Rice, accompanied by his daughters, Maude and Dora, went out to Hillsboro Tuesday, he to take out some fat sheep to market and for a load of merchandise, and the girls to visit relatives for a few days.

John Baker left Monday last for Whatcom, Wash., where he will work during the summer in a logging camp.

Bert Mills, who has been at work near Rainier for the past two months, returned Saturday last and will be at home for a spell.

Gust Gustafson left Tuesday for some point on the Lower Columbia, where he will work during the summer in a logging camp.

Tuesday morning a company of contractors from Philomath, passed through here on their way to Clatskanie. They had four fine teams and wagons with a good outfit in other things and will haul billing and telegraph poles during the summer. Lawrence Vanblaricum, a nephew of our Vanblaricum's was one of the party. So Columbia county has work for people outside as well as her own citizens, and as her resources are developed many others will find room within her borders to earn good wages.

Mrs. Rosa Seseman Keasey, accompanied by baby Harry, went out to Forest Grove Tuesday of this week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Julia McNutt. She expects to stay until Dow gets home and goes after her, which may not be so very long.

Rev. J. C. Emmet, the new minister on this charge, will preach Sunday morning and evening at the church here and at Keasey in the afternoon. This will be his first appearance, so let the people come out and give him good audiences and a kindly welcome.

Thos. Tucker went out to Forest Grove this week with his wool clip and for a load of supplies for this summer.

The Spencer children, Omar, Oral, Maggie and Rob, made a business trip out to Forest Grove this week. They took out their father's wool and other farm products and did some trading. This is their first experience going on a shopping tour without their father or mother being along. But then, they must learn such things.

A son of Wm. Wood had the misfortune to get his arm caught, one day last week, in some of the machinery of the little chop mill on the place, with the result of a broken bone of the forearm. Mr. Wood set the broken bone and dressed it himself.

The election passed off quietly here in Auburn precinct. There was a fair vote cast. In the precinct the following were elected: S. P. Ballard, justice of the peace; A. L. Parker, constable; C. W. Mellinger, road supervisor in district 14 and J. P. Sheeley, road supervisor in district 15. All republicans except the latter, and Phil is a pretty good fellow and has made a good officer the past year, or he could not have "gotten there" again.

Lose no chance of giving pleasure. You will pass through this world but once. Any good thing, therefore, that you can do, or kindness that you can show to a human being, you had better do it now; do not defend or neglect it, for you will not pass this way again.
