Thomas Dooley and Robert Rejeski, had some trouble a couple of weeks ago, and came to blows, using clubs. Dooley received some severe injuries and died of pneumonis yesterday afternoon. Two or three hours previous to Dooley's death Rejeski was sequitted of a charge of assault by a jury in Justice Watkin's court. After Dooley died, Rejeski gave himself to the custody of the sherif, acting under the advice of his attorney, George A. Hall. The coroner's jury adjourned until this afternoon to await the arrival of District Attorney Allen, by request of Deputy Eistrict Attorney Powelf. Dooley was was 62 years old and unmarried. Previous to his death he made a will bequeathing his Scappoose farm and stock to T. B. Wallace, of the St. Helens Hotel.

othe St. Helens Hotel.

The baseball tournament to be held in St. Helens about August 20th, is an assused fact, and should receive every substantial encouragement. The newly completed grand stand in the St. Helens baseball field is a commendable improvement and a thing of convenience. A good game was played in the home field last Sunday between the Fifers' Union, of Fortland, and the home team, the score standing 11 to 1 in favor of the visitors. The St. Helens team did excellent work at the bat, but were outclassed in the field playing. Rainier was defeated by the Scappoose team last Sunday by a score of 18 to 9.
