Commissioners	H. L. Colvin, Marshland W. D. Case, Pittsburg
Coroner	C. E. Dalton, St. Helens

The new school building will be a credit to St. Helens, as it will be model structure in every detail. Messrs. Baker & Brunnick, the contractors, are putting in the best material that can be secured, although they have been handicapped in delays in the orders for lumber, and it is impossible to secure all the labor desired.

It is pleasing to note that the Grange movement is taking a hold with Columbia county farmers. It means better things in the agricultural line, and social intercourse and interchange of ideas among farmers.

The quarterly of the Oregon Historical Society for June, 1902, Vol. 3, No. 2 has been recieved. Its contents are as follows: "Political History of Oregon from 1878 to 1896 inclusive," by Hon. M. C. George; "The First Oregon Cavalry," by Mrs. Francis Fuller Victor; "Recollections of Horace Holden," by H. S. Lyman. All of these are valuable articles, particularly the first, and no public or private library in the state, worthy the name, should be without a full set of the Historical Society's publications. They contain matter of importance to every student, which cannot be found elsewhere in a compact form.

"Prosperity is the issue," is the title of a great speech of United States Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, of New Hampshire, recently delivered in the senate at Washington. The speech has been issued in document form by the American Protective Tariff League. Send postal card request for free copy. Ask for Document No. 75. Address W. F. Wakeman, General Secretary, 135, West 23d Street, New York.

A MAGNIFICENT BOOKLET,

Describing the Scenic Grandeur Along The Astoria and Columbia River Railroad.

The neatest and most attractive pamphlet ever put out by an Oregon Railway Company is "What the Wild Waves say at Seaside, issued by the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad, under the direction of J. C. Mayo, the general passenger agent. The half-tone engravings show to excellent advantage the magnificent scenery along the Columbia river as well as many views of actual summer life and scenic locations at this popular seaside resort. The roadbed of this line was constructed in the most substantial way, the track consisting of heavy steel rails, which are so firmly fastened to the substantial underpinning, that it is a delight to travel and view the magnificent panorama of scenery. There is no more attractive place in Oregon than the lower Columbia and Seaside.

Flowers must be pecuniarly sensitive at times. Some, as we know, have their temperature raised several degrees, and probably all are more or less heated for the short period when they are prepared for fertilization. Several species of hibiscus go through a series of changes of color from morning to evening. The Victoria regia opens the first night as a waxy white flower, and the second with rosy petals. Several orchids also change color very quickly, especially after their work is accomplished. In a few hours the plump waxy petals become limp, the markings spread and get diffused over the lip, and the whole flower becomes unsightly. Where there are male and female flowers the latter often last much longer and may even be perceptible for months at the apex of the seed vessel.—James Rodway in Natural Science.

GIRL FLOATS A MILE DOWN LUMBER FLUME

A rather serious and unusual accident occurred on Tuesday evening, which might have resulted much more seriously. Two Norwegian girls aged about 9 and 11 were crossing over the West Oregon Lumber Company's flume, when the younger girl slipped and fell in the water just in time to be caught by some floating plank which struck her and pushed her along ahead of them. Her sister tried to hold her, but could not, and followed along on the walk, each child screaming mainly for help, as the one was carried along over a mile before her screams were heard by the men at the end of the flume, where Mr. Kingsley rescued her. He sister had followed as fast as she could crawling over the high trestles, and was soon on the ground to give an account of themselves. The rescued girl was taken to the drug store, where women supplied her with dry clothing, and her injuries were attended to. Beyond a ratheo severe bruising, a soaking and fright, the girl seemed to have escaped quite fortunately.

Mrs. C. W. Lee and family are down from Woodlawn to visit her brothers' families, and take advantage of the blackberries now ripening.

Miss Maud Cole finished her school at Sunnyside, and has been spending a few days in town.

Chaales Miller, sr., has moved his family from near Jewell, to the property he purchased just outside of town, lately owned by James Vau.

Dan German was quite sick Tuesday, so sesious, in fact, that his physician thought for a few hours Dan would die, but he rallied and is improving. This community could hardly spare Dan, a man who can converse in five languages and one who makes himself useful in many ways.

E. K. Jones commenced work at King's mill last week, and after putting in one day accidentally allowed his hand to come in contact with the saw, losing his thumb and mangling his hand considerably. He was brought to town where his injuries were attended to, and left for his home about Portland that evening.

Andrew Anderson is carrying his hand in a sling from contact with a pulley at Colum's camp, which took the end off one finger and mangled another.

Rev. J. Flynn, an aged minister, now residing in Vancouver, spent last Sabbath in town, preaching with remarkable vigor for a man 84 years of age. He found an old acquaintance here in the person of D. Dixon, and the two aged men spent Monday at the home of the latter, indulging in reminiscences of the years gone by.

A large boiler and engine passed through town Wednesday morning, loaded on trucks and destined for the Nehalem valley about Pittsburg, it is reported.

Mrs. J. A. English and daughter, Annie, came down from Portland to greet friends and spend a few days camping in the Nehalem valley, their favorite camping ground.

Mrs. W. K. Tichenor is spending a few days visiting friends in Portland and Forest Frove.

At a meeting of the school board held last Friday evening the following persons were elected to teach in our public schools, beginning September 1st: Principal, H. B. Essen; assistant, Charles Hall; teacher of fourth grade, Miss Zella Lewis; primary department, Miss Jessie Brown.

Clatskanie is experiencing something of a boom these days, and business of all kinds is active. The mountains and the Nehalem country are full of timber cruisers. Many purchases of timber lands are being made. The Benson Logging & Lumbering Company are purchasing timber lands as fast as the examination and contracts can be made.

S. Benson, of Portland, president of the Benson Logging & Lumbering Company, was in Clatskanie a few days ago, arranging for a preliminary survey of their proposed new logging railroad. The road will be built up the Clatskanie river and extended into the Nehalem valley over a low pass, and will tap thousands of acres of the finest timber lands. Mr. Benson is already securing the right of way through various tracts of land, and operations on the road will shortly be commenced. It is inteded to eventually use the road for freight and and passenger traffic as well as for logging purposes. The road, also will probably be extended up the Nehalem valley and tap a larger area of timber and agricultural lands. It is also understood that planing machinery and other improvements will be added to the Benson & Himple mill.

Norman Merrill recently shipped a car-load of shingles to the Necanicum Spruce Lumber Company. He also shipped a carload of cedar lumber to the Northwest Sash & Door Company.

The new flume of the West Oregon Lumber Company is now completed. The planing machinery is being installed in the old Bryant mill and the plant will soon be ready for operations.

The new hotel now being erected by J. W. McDonald on Bridge street, will soon be completed.

Fifty Men Employed on The C. T. Co's Railroad Extension Right of Way.

Born, Tuesday, July 22nd, to the wife of Frank Jenkins, a son.

Mrs. Beri and children, of Portland, are visiting with Mrs. Fred Koble this week.

Mrs. W. M. Armstrong, son and daughter, of Portland, are spending their vacation at this place. Mr. Armstrong is the engineer on the Columbia Timber Company's road.

Mrs. George C. Mayger, of Mayger, was visiting friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Anton Weis returned home Sunday evening from a two months visit with friends at Richland Center, Wisconsin.

Miss Josie Wilcox, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. E. W. Fowler this week.

Samuel Munn is building a large frame barn on his farm, near here. Henry Morel is doing the work.

Mrs. J. McGrath and Mrs. Dollie Mark, of Portland, are visiting in Beaver Valley this week.

The farmers in this vicinity finished harvesting their hay crop this week. They all report a larger yield of hay than usual.

The Columbia Timber Company has a crew of 50 men clearing the right of way for the extension of their railroad.

VERNONIA.

A Batch of Newsy Items and Personals.

The hay crop will be almost all under shelter by the end of this week.

Mrs Marks and children, of Forest Grove, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shanahan, the past two weeks.

Josh Rose killed a bear cub one day last week.

J. N. Rench and wife have moved for a time out to the Ayers place, two miles beyond the Valley postoffice. Mr. Rench is making hay there for the use of the mail route horses.

Mrs. Mary Staples, sister of Will and Albert Wood, who is in Oregon for the benefit of her health, is spending a few weeks at Newport.

S. B. Rose made a business trip to Forest Grove Thursday, and returned Saturday.

E. G. Shanahan went to Forest Grove Wednesday. It is his intention to make a trip out every two weeks, taking out and bringing in passengers. He also will carry out products and bring in supplies for those who wish the accommodation.

Ben Cornelius and a Mr. Hesse, both of Hillsboro, were in the first of the week to set up a bran new Milwaukie harvester for fellow-citizen, George W. Rice. His son John expects to do a large business cutting grain for those who want good work done, and have no machine.

George W. Parker, Albert Wood and Charles Solomon went down the river back of Mist in the burn hunting, last week, and returned Saturday with a fine large buck and a bear pelt.

D. W. Keasey went out to Clatskanie Friday last, and met his sister, Mrs. G. J. Frankel and three young lady friends from St. Louis, also his sister-in-law, Mrs. Dove Keasey and children, of Portland, whom he brought to the "Homewood" ranch up Rock creek, where they will enjoy a few weeks rusticating.

Attractive Women.

All woman sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always attractive, bright and happy. When every drop of blood in the veins is purer beauteous flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, moroseness, bad temper and a sallow complexion tells the tale of sickness, all to plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health. Wine of Cardui crowns women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make here a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.

A Columbia County Man Seriously Hurt in Street Car Accident.

Edward A. Daine, of Kist, Or., was hit by car 41 of the Sixteenth street line, while walking on the trestle on Sherlock avenue, last night at 11 o'clock, and knocked off to the ground below, striking his head on a projecting beam and getting a severe stunning up. Evidence indicates that the injured man was intoxicated and tried to walk on the trestle, when there was a good plank walk within a few feet. There are no street lamps in the immediate vicinity and the car, under the control of motorman Christensen and Conductor Morris, was hurring northward near the end of the run, when Daine was seen on the a few feet in front. The brakes were applied and the motors reversed, but the car had sufficient headway to catch up with the man and strike him in the lower part of the back, and being near the edge of the trestle, he was knocked off, and in falling hit a beam that cut a severe gash in his head, landing on the ground, six feet below. The carmen made efforts to secure an ambulance; but without avail, and finally the patrol arrived and took the injured man ty the Good Samaritan Hospital, where his injuries are not considered serious.—From Monday's Oregonian

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.
J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

Timber Land, Act June 3, 1878.
NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Oregon City, Oregon, June 17th, 1902.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878 entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the public land states by act of August 4, 1892, Wilbur G. Putnam, of Saint Helens, county of Columbia, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 3788, for the purchase of the sw¼ of section No. 3, in township No. 2 north of range No. 4 west, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the register and receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Saturday, the 30th day of August, 1902. He names as witnesses: Alva H. Powell, of Pittsburg, Oregon; Joseph R. Cositer, of Vernonia, Oregon; William G. Woods, of Eugene, Oregon, and John W. Parker, of Pittsburg, Oregon. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 30th day of August, 1902.
