

THE OREGON MIST

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING BY KEELER H. GABBERT, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PERSONAL

Miss May Chalmers visited at home in Portland Sunday night. J. B. E. Bourne, of Rainier, was in town Tuesday. G. E. Faxon, of Yankton, was in St. Helens yesterday. N. J. Pinsky was up from his Deer Island ranch Tuesday. George Robinson has returned from a trip to Idaho. Miss Grace Miles returned from a visit to her sister in Portland Wednesday. Miss May Duncan, of Scappoose, was visiting friends in St. Helens Wednesday. James Dart went to Seaside Wednesday with the expectation of returning Saturday. Mrs. Ida Roberts has been seriously ill at Houston, but her condition has improved. John Wolensk and Joe Sobieski, of Valley, were visitors in town Wednesday. Mrs. Cliff and daughter, of Portland, were visiting Mrs. George Brinn this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patten, of Tacoma, visited his brother, Eric Patten at Houston, Sunday and Monday. George Brinn, Miles Mason and James Post spent Sunday in the vicinity of St. Helens, Wash., trout fishing. Watson Philbrook is now located at Gray's Harbor, Wash., where he has three brothers living. Mrs. W. A. Wood returned Sunday night from a visit of several days to relatives at Rainier. T. J. Bohne, who has been fishing in the vicinity of Astoria for several weeks past, returned Wednesday. Charles Briggs, the Yankton merchant, was in town Monday on his way to Portland. Mrs. Henry Morgan and son, Fred went to Long Beach Monday night to spend a few days in company with relatives. Dr. and Mrs. H. K. Fenton, of Portland, are the parents of a new-born son. Mrs. Fenton is the daughter of James Dart, of St. Helens. Miss Nellie Powell has returned from her home at Pittsburgh, and will resume her duties as teacher of the Hudson school next week. Mrs. Thomas Cooper and children arrived from Kelowna Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. J. H. Decker, for a few days. Mrs. Barber and daughter, Miss Lola, of Kelowna, visited Mrs. J. B. Godfrey Monday. They were on their way home from a visit to Sanville Island. O. I. Hason, of Houston, the chief in Perry's expedition that camped on Milton creek, is now off duty with a felon on his right hand. Ernest Hanson, who has been employed on the steamer Foster for some time past, returned home Wednesday for a short visit. Abraham Crouse, the Milton creek logger, was in town over Sunday, and reported that he was now putting in about 100,000 feet of logs daily. Judge T. A. McBride was up from his Deer Island summer home yesterday. He had returned from Hillsboro, where he had a short session of circuit court. Nick Dupont was in from Valley yesterday, loading a lot of shingles on the train at Houston for the Portland market. Dupont Bros. now have their new engine in position. Mrs. J. B. Godfrey went to Clatskanie Wednesday to visit her son, Eugene Whitney. Later, she will visit Mrs. David West at Westport. Mrs. Samuel Galloway, of Union, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Perry at Houston for the past few weeks, started on her return trip home Monday. T. B. Fairbairn came down from Oregon City a few days ago to find a cool place for recreation. He was offered the new school building, and accepted. F. Langman, who has been employed with the rock quarries here for a number of years past, moved his family up from Clatskanie the first of the week, and is occupying the J. George house. Fred Quinn, who has been living in Beaverton for some time past, is visiting his brother, E. E. Quick, and may remain here for some time. Mr. Quick started on his return trip home Tuesday. John Pugh, of Clatskanie, was in town Wednesday. Fred Girt and Ber Wilson are operating a shingle mill on the place, and Mr. Pugh is receiving 15 cents per thousand stumpage for his labor. Res. C. E. Philbrook returned Monday night from a visit to Long Beach. He has received a call from a congregation there, but has not definitely decided as to whether or not he will accept. County Clerk Henry Henderson and family went to Mayger Saturday to visit their old home. Mr. Henderson returned Monday morning, but Mrs. Henderson and Miss Ruth remained until Wednesday. Mrs. J. R. Watts, of Scappoose, left Monday for La Grande, to visit her mother, Mrs. Wesley. The latter is the oldest pioneer of that section, and is over 80 years old. Mrs. Watts accompanied Mrs. Samuel Galloway as far as Union on the trip. C. L. Ayers, of Yankton, was in town yesterday. He is nursing almost a severed finger, the result of moving his hand to brush away a troublesome mosquito, while grading a mower sickle. However, he has his hay crop all gathered in. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith and daughter, of Roseburg, were in town yesterday on their way to Keney to visit his mother, Mrs. M. P. Smith, for a month. Mr. Smith is an engineer on the Southern Pacific Railroad, and is taking his annual vacation. D. S. Sylvius and family arrived from Colorado Tuesday, and intend to make Clatskanie county his home. The family consists of five persons, and are now stopping at the Oriental Hotel. Mr. Sylvius has traveled over the country considerably since leaving Colorado, but considers this the ideal location for a home.

LOCAL

Ex-United States Senator George W. McBride arrived from the East Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. McBride. After a short rest in town, they were driven to the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dolman at Bunker Hill, where they will probably stay a couple of months. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Powell and Mrs. Younger and daughters returned Wednesday from several days visit at Astoria. G. P. Murray, of the St. Helens Lumber Company, moved his family down from Portland Monday, and they are occupying the James Muckle house. Herman Smith, the other principal member of the firm will probably bring his family down from Portland soon, and occupy the Wellington house, as well as the owner gets another dwelling remodelled. The cream at the pharmacy every Saturday. See Collins & Gray when you want to buy goods. The section men at Houston are doing a neat and substantial job in fixing up the track at that place. Merit wins; Collins & Gray sell goods, which can be sold on their merits. Call on them when you need anything—they will treat you well. There will be a dance and box supper at the Yankton public hall on Friday night, August 1st. All are invited to come and have a good time. Len Decker has purchased the lot owned by T. B. Wallace, adjoining the J. A. Decker residence property. The consideration was $35. John Sherin, of Rainier, who was employed on the Yeon-Pelton Logging Railway, was struck by an empty car on a high trestle last Thursday, and was thrown to the ground a distance of 40 feet, sustaining a broken arm and other bruises. Dr. McLaren was called and Sherin is now on the road to recovery. A. L. Richardson, of Rainier, has sold his interest in Richardson & Co.'s sawmill property to Lorinda Mackie. Mrs. Mackie is now the sole owner of the property. Messrs. Wallace & Meyer have returned from the management of the St. Helens Hotel, and returned to the farm of the former. Mrs. A. Cate has taken charge of the hotel. The steamer Republic is now running between St. Helens and Portland in place of the America, which is being overhauled and repaired. When the America resumes its run on this route the Republic will run for a time in place of the Albatross ferry boat at Portland. Justice Watkins has granted a motion of the prosecution for a new trial in the case of the state vs. Frederick Vivian. John Vivian, an aged resident of Clatskanie City, a few weeks ago. At the trial last Saturday, the jury failed to agree on a verdict. Four were for conviction and one for acquittal. Two small dwelling houses at Houston, the property of Perry Baker, of Rainier, were burned last Thursday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. There was an insurance of $750 on the two buildings, which covers the entire loss. The structures had not been occupied for several months. The Mar has received a letter from J. St. Clair, Oregon State Grange organizer, stating that he had installed a new grange at Clatskanie, consisting of all eight organizations in Clatskanie county. An effort will be made soon to organize a grange at either St. Helens or Union. It is stated, also, that all the state officers of the grange, will be in Clatskanie county about the second week in September to organize a Division or District Grange for Columbia and Clatskanie counties. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was a word whose reputation for its cures. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Edwin Ross, Druggist. A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED. At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Dr. C. W. H. Uter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had a patient, a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad case of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale Edwin Ross, Druggist. SCHOOL MATTERS.

County School Superintendent I. H. Copeland completed his annual report last Monday, and the result shows some interesting facts of improvement and growth. Total number of persons of school age in the county, 2315, 64 more than last year; 188 more males than females. Total number of pupils enrolled in the schools, 1515. There were 93 female teachers and 13 male teachers employed in the county. Seventy-six teachers had certificates of institute attendance, and 87 were subscribers to educational journals. Twenty-one of the teachers have state diplomas, 30 first grade certificates, 30 second grade, 18 third grade and one primary. There are 678 persons of school age not attending any school. The average daily attendance is 1148. The number of legal voters at school meetings is 1356 against 1264 last year. The number of organized districts is 50 with 57 school houses and two new structures. There are 745 library books on hand, and 100 new volumes. The average number of days attendance at school this year was 158.975, last year 151.978. The average salary paid male teachers is $41.50; female teachers, $33.85. The new teachers of the St. Helens school will be Miss Alice DeGraff, of South Dakota, principal, and Miss Harriet Flayer, of Rainier, teacher of the primary department. All the old teachers of the Rainier school were re-elected: Principal, Miss Midge Hill, of Parkdale; assistant, Miss Ruby Jackson; teacher of the primary department, Miss Daisy Watkins, of St. Helens. Among the Columbia county teachers, who will attend the State Normal School at Monmouth this year are: Miss Lulu George, of St. Helens; Miss Lizzie Early, of Vernonia; Miss Ida Morgan, of Houston; and Miss Grace Moeck, of Rainier.

IN THE COURT HOUSE

There are two cases in the circuit court arising from the "old junk" sales of property bid in by the county on account of delinquent taxes, under the provisions of the new law. In the suit of Wells, Fargo & Co., against the County, the demurrer of the defendant to the plaintiff's complaint was overruled. S. H. Grober is attorney for the plaintiff. In the suit of Richard Martin vs. J. G. Watta and others, to set aside sheriff's deed, the plaintiff's motion was denied, and the defendant required to make answer more definite in some particulars. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Edwin Ross, Druggist.

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The dates set for the baseball tournament are August 22nd and 23rd. One of the features will be a game between the Rainier and St. Helens women nines. The St. Helens team played Rainier last Sunday, the score standing 24 to 4 in favor of the latter. Among those who attended from here besides the team were Mr. and Mrs. H. Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Richardson and Jay Keating.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Slaughter entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheldon last Saturday in honor of his birthday. An elaborate dinner was served. The local Odd-Fellows lodge celebrated its 10th anniversary last Saturday night. Refreshments were served, and addresses were made by Deputy Welsh, of Clatskanie; R. H. Mitchell and others. Look Pleasant, Please. Photographer C. C. Harlan, of Eaton, G., can do so now, though for years he couldn't, because he suffered untold agony from the worst form of indigestion. All physicians and medicines failed to help him till he tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for him that he declares they are a god-send to sufferers from dyspepsia and stomach troubles. Untried for disease of the stomach, Liver and Kidneys, they build up and give new life to the whole system. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by St. Helens Pharmacy. Messrs.
