The Thrice-a-Week World.

Time has demonstrated that the Thrice-a-Week World stands alone in its class. Other papers have imitated its form but not its success. This is because it tells all the news all the time and tells it impartially, whether that news is political or otherwise. It is, in fact, almost a daily at the price of a weekly and you can not afford to be without it.

Republican and Democrat alike can read the Thrice-a-Week World with absolute confidence in its truth.

In addition to news, it publishes first class serial stories and other features suited to the home and bedside.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year and this pays for 186 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Oregon Mist together one year for $1.80.

The regular subscription price of the two papers $2.00.

The Oregon Mist and the Thrice-a-Week World for six months for 95 cents; three months for 50 cents.

The Elks Carnival.

The electrical illuminations of the Portland Elks Carnival, September 1 to 13, will be a revelation in the way of modern utility of electricity in transforming night into a glorious day, radiant as a sunrise rainbow, with its colors many times multiplied. Seventh street is the location of the fair, and some 12 to 15 blocks, extending from the main gate at Seventh and Washington street to Flanders street, taking in the tree lined park blocks north of Burnside street, will give the Carnival effective setting. There will be a Temple of Light and Music at the intersection of Seventh and Ankeny streets; a Court of Honor where a throne room for the queen will be provided; wide arches at the street intersections, all handsomely decorated and glowing with hundreds of electric lights. The Manufacture building will be a beautifully decorated arcade 150 feet long and 15 feet deep, in which the industries of the state and actual manufacturing processes will be illustrated to profitable advantage before the eyes of thousands of visitors.

September 9 is to be wedding day at the Portland Elks' Carnival. On that date not fewer than three couples will be united in a unique manner in the presence of the throngs in the street fair grounds. The donations of presents will equip them all complete for housekeeping, as the management of the fair will deal liberally with those who will consent to be married publicly at the expense of the Carnival company. Swains who haven't the price, but would like to, can make the arrangements by writing to Secretary Alex Sweek, Portland.

A MAGNIFICENT BOOKLET,

Describing the Scenic Grandeur Along The Astoria and Columbia River Railroad.

The neatest and most attractive pamphlet ever put out by an Oregon Railway Company is "What the Wild Waves Say at Seaside, issued by the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad, under the direction of J. C. Mayo, the general passenger agent. The half-tone engravings show to excellent advantage the magnificent scenery along the Columbia river as well as many views of actual summer life and seable locations at this popular seaside resort. The roadbed of this line was constructed in the most substantial way, the track consisting of heavy steel rails, which are so firmly fastened to the substantial underpinning, that it is a delight to travel and view the magnificent panorama of scenery. There is no more attractive place in Oregon than the lower Columbia and Seaside.

Write to J. C. Mayo, General Passenger Agent at Astoria, and get one of the booklets. September is the most delightful of all months.

Every Saturday Excursion Rate to Clatsop and Long Beach, via Astoria & C. R. Railway.

Beginning Saturday, June 14th, and every Saturday thereafter, during the summer season, the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company will sell round trip excursion tickets from all stations between Portland and Clatskanie inclusive, to all points on Clatsop and return at rate of $2.50. Tickets limited good to return Sunday evening. Close connections at Astoria with steamer Sahuco to and from Long Beach.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says E. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip. W. T. of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Edwin Ross, Druggist.

Large stock of general merchandise well selected, and well kept, sufficient to meet the demands of the surrounding country at Collins & Gray's, St. Helens.

The Rapid Transit Steamboat Co., of Rainier, with a capital stock of $40,000—800 shares of the par value of $50 each—has been organized, with W. E. Newsom, W. S. Bophagan and W. C. Fisher, incorporators. The object of this corporation is to do a general steamboat business on the Columbia river and its tributaries. One or more fast boats will be built in time for the 1905 fair traffic. Captain Newsom built the Iralda, and gave the people a taste of better service and cheaper fare, which culminated in a general rate war that was only settled by the opposition buying his boat outright. The first boat to be constructed by this company will be built at Rainier within the next six months. It will be built specially for buying oil.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength and the doctor gave me a medicine which I considered very expensive, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and on what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very glad to find my strength and health restored. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a week I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui restores the organs of generation for the relief of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriages. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale Edwin Ross, Druggist.

The following record of early strikes makes interesting reading: 1465—Strikes among the tailors and turban makers of Constantinople. The Sultan was appealed to, and twenty six of the strikers were hanged, the rest drafted into the army. 1583—Workmen employed to pull down one of the suppressed monasteries in England revolted for better pay. Several were put to death and the others were imprisoned. 1593—Masons employed on the Escorial palace, Spain, refused to work unless better paid. Several were put to the gallies, and the rest were exiled to America. 1626—Strike among the tea pickers of the Central Chinese province for higher pay. They were hanged by men in charge of the trust. 1705—The shipbuilders and sailmakers employed by Peter the Great at St. Petersburg struck for shorter hours. Seven were hanged, 127 sent to Siberia and 925 were drafted in the army.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.
The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases. They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, inoperable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably. There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed on application. Address John J. Fulton on any, 420 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.
